

January 13, 2014
(2 Timothy 2: 1-16)

Jesus: My dear children, I have come to call you to reconciliation with family and friends that you may seek and bestow pardon thru humility, those who have offended you and those you have offended.

Ask for the grace to willingly abandon all prejudice, injustice and disrespect for all others.

It is time, My dear ones, to look inside yourselves and become true friends to each other. In order to give friendship you must know yourself deeply, to discover who you are, so that you are able to rid yourself of all selfishness, pride and superiority.

I tell you, one who really loves is able to look past his own desires and become a gift to others.

Consider the immense love I have shown you in becoming man to obtain for all eternal salvation.

United with Me in the covenant of love, stand and pray and hope, to the One in whose Blood that the covenant was sealed.

Pray for perseverance in fidelity to the law I have written in your hearts and ask that I may grant you the wisdom to teach and love others by My Word and example, that they may one day dwell in joy with Me in My Heavenly Kingdom.

May My peace furnish you in all that is good that you may accomplish My Holy Will.

Remember these words: "To those who love, I will bestow great blessings and reward them in the life to come."

Your Loving Jesus.

During the Prayer Group:

Jesus: My children, to see, the wickedness and waywardness of the evil doer is enough to break a heart. My tears are for those that do not see and the ears who do not hear. Pray, My little ones, there is much work to be done. Never give up. Have hope and trust.

January 20, 2014
(Romans 7: 15 -25)

Jesus: Dear children, I alone Am God. I have made the skies and the heavens, the earth, the seas and everything in them. All is Mine and I preserve all of it. I am always true to My Word.

I see all of your troubles and sorrows and I hear your cry for help. I will work miracles for those who continually seek the truth and obey My Commandments.

I will give you bread from heaven when you are hungry and water when you are thirsty. I will never abandon My faithful ones. I Am a God of forgiveness, always ready to pardon, always gracious and full of love and mercy.

I have sent My Spirit among you to instruct you, to teach you My ways. I have been patient with My people who are proud and refuse to listen and continue to sin.

But in My mercy, I will not destroy them or abandon them forever, I will continue to pursue them until their dying breath. I shall keep My promise of love and kindness towards all My creatures, even in all hardships they are enduring.

The lush yield of this world is passing away, and falling into the enemy's hands because of sin. My people must turn back to Me or they will continue to endure great misery.

Time will continue to pass swiftly and My children will regret having wasted such precious time.

Your loving Jesus.

During the Prayer Group:

Jesus: Your mission in this world is to be a light in the darkness, and to be a guide to all people on their journey to eternity.

You must strive with My help, to receive My grace, so that you will bring Me to all souls in need of Me. Be My helper dear ones, and serve Me to the fullest.

Jesus told Ann that this would be the last Apparition/Message that she would get until May 5th. This is the first time this has happened since Jesus started appearing to Ann 25 years ago. During this time of silence we should pray and see if we are living the messages that Jesus already gave us.

February 3, 2014
(Ephesians 1: 4 - 12)

Jesus: My dear children, reach out to Me in trust and hope even through all darkness and pain. Call to Me in faithfulness and I shall come and relieve you of all your weariness. My compassion never ceases, I will come and protect and save you, for you walk in My presence.

I am your Savior, the refuge of your life, I am your Helper against all adversaries. I will deliver you in My great Mercy. Have no fear, for I am your strength, that you may resist all temptation and every infidelity.

I alone shall give My benefits, and the earth shall yield its increase. For justice, My dear ones, shall walk before Me, and salvation along the way of My steps. Remember, when you walk thru fire, you shall not be burned, the flames shall not consume you, for you are Mine.

Cry out to Me with all your heart, rendering Me praise, saying how tremendous are My deeds, for I have kept your feet from stumbling and I will keep you firm to the end.

Walk joyfully in spite of dryness and weariness united to My Heart, aided by My Mother, always meditating, and always strict with yourselves, but always gracious to everyone that comes in your path.

Make everything, your prayers, your suffering, every action, an interior offering for others and for My glory.

Your loving Jesus.

April 28, 2014

During the prayer Group:

Ann said: Jesus broke silence because of the Feast of the Divine Mercy, to tell us to plead His precious blood and His Divine Mercy on ourselves, the world and especially our families.

He was all engulfed with Light and His heart was all aglow. Many souls surrounded Him. I believe they were the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

His eyes were moving from side to side, especially His right eye which appears bigger than the left eye.

He looks into our hearts and to see who is truly His disciple.

May 5, 2014
(Psalms 130 & 131)

Jesus: My dear children, I tell you, it is necessary to be strong. In order to become great, this is your duty. One must triumph, for life will always be a struggle, no one can avoid it. Be faithful to Me in all you do, and never be bothered by those who ridicule you.

My beloved saints were always put down by the world, but triumphed in the end. Always continue to pray and never stop, for I will console you when you feel the weight of the cross and your life is becoming burdensome.

Be firm in all your resolutions, stay close to Me where I have placed you, and let all the trials come, I will protect you, you will not perish, My little ones.

If you attach yourselves to the world, you will remain attached to it. Little by little detach yourself from it and keep your focus on the life to come, when you will be with Me forever.

Walk with Me in simplicity, in truth, in peace, and not fear.

Live My words, be docile, to the impulse of grace, following its inspirations, My mercy is infinitely greater than your malice.

Spend your time doing things to please Me, always helping souls, thus giving Me glory. Let Me reign in your heart, so that I may overwhelm it with My Holy Love.

Go in peace.
Your loving Jesus.

May 5, 2014

Jesus: My child, this is a time of silence and reparation for what is to come. You will receive My Message only on the 2nd and 4th week of each month. Many Messages have been given and they must be lived.

May 5, 2014

Jesus: Dear children, I will bless all your conversations this day, just open your way of listening, your kind replies.

You will be challenged about your belief or even your behavior, My dear ones. When this happens, do not put on the defensive or let your voice harden.

Pray silently and listen. This happened throughout My ministry here on earth, someone always testing My loyalty. What did I do, you ask? I replied with a genuine appreciation of the person's background and interests.

I affirmed that man's current level of faith and encouraged him to continue to grow in his understanding and living of God's requirements. This helped and inspired future challenges.

May My words give you council and direct your heart.

Your loving Jesus.

June 9, 2014

Psalm 46

Jesus: My children, I am your mighty Rock, and I never do wrong. I can always be trusted to bring justice where justice is due.

I see My people's unfaithfulness, their unworthiness for all I have given them.

I tell you, I gave land to everyone here on earth and assigned a guardian angel to every person to show them the way, to guide them.

My people grow fat and rebel against Me, their Creator, they have rejected the mighty Rock, which is their only place of safety.

I am the source of life, their only hope. I will not answer their prayers, I will just watch and see what happens to them in their unbelief. They never listen to My advice, so I have written their sins and locked them in My vault, total disaster will fall upon them suddenly.

Then they will understand that only I, their true almighty Rock can save them and heal them and forgive them.

Repent all you sinful ones while there is still time.

Your loving Jesus.

June 23, 2014
Sirach 18 vs. 1-14

Jesus: I tell you My dear ones, “My Word shall not return to Me, void, but shall do My will, achieving the end for which I was sent.”

May I deliver My people from bondage, to be their joy and hope.

I am your Master and I know your needs, I am your Bread of Life. By faith in Me, you will live and grow and I will give you My strength to overcome all trials.

I will feed you with the finest wheat, with honey from the rock. I have called all to worship Me in joy, to teach them to love Me in the Gift of My Body and Blood.

I have freed My people from the burden of their sin and granted them the grace to bear the burdens of the hungry amongst them. I feed you with the Bread of freedom and of life.

Ask, My dear ones, that I may nourish you in My love as I draw you into My Body, the Church, My Bride.

That you may gaze on My loveliness and contemplate My temple, for I am your Light and your Salvation.

Let Me lead you on the path of life, always abounding in joy in My presence that your heart may be glad and your soul will rejoice.

Go in peace.

Your loving Jesus.

During the Prayer Group:
After the 2nd decade of the Sorrowful Mystery's.

Jesus: Remember My children, if everything ended with your death, earthly life would be without hope or comfort.

But I, your God, does not allow you to vanish into eternal nothingness.

I unite human beings in love and I surround them with My own heart.

I do not destroy what I have created, but I bring it to perfection.

July 2014

MESSAGES TO A CONVERTING SOUL Valentine in Belgium

Blessed Mother: “My children; love each other like I love you. Love your neighbor without judging what she or he looks like, where he or she comes from, or where she or he was born, or what language she or he speaks. Love your neighbor always because he or she is made in the image of God.

“My children, when you pray, pray for those who persecute you and forgive them quickly, don’t dwell upon the bad for too long. You see, it is when you forgive them that salvation comes to them, and then they are able to change. Pray for those whom with you used to sit with in the same pew before they lost their faith. Pray for those who became weak in flesh. They need your prayers and your help. Our flesh is weak and it tires quickly. That is why those who grow weak and whose flesh grows tired need the help of prayers—so the flesh can renew its strength.

I told you my children, when you feel weak and overwhelmed with problems, turn to me in prayer and talk to me like this: ‘Mother, we were together, but now I feel weak and lonely, please come to my help.’ I promise you I will help you, but only a few remember to pray and ask for my help. My dear children, when you have problems, don’t keep them to yourself alone, I am always near you and I am always ready to listen to you.

“All of you who are tired, you all who have problems, you who are weary and worn out at this very moment, take a deep breath and do not worry my child and have peace my children. Bring me all your troubles, go deep into the corners of your heart to find them, and when find you cannot go any deeper, then, ask me to go there for you, and I will go to the places that you cannot reach. I don’t want you to leave here with any problem. I came so that you can hand me everything that is troubling you.”

“My dear children, there are many wars in your hearts: Wars of lies and wars of truth. That is why I am asking you all to put everything into my hands, because I am the Merciful Mother who wants to help you, to relieve you . . . and that is the reason I came here, so you can give me everything.”

“My dear children, I desire that you pray with sincerity. That you pray a prayer that comes from your heart, and to not just mumble many words that will not bear any fruit. I desire that you say your rosary. Lean on this prayer and it will support you anytime you need help. It is a prayer that I love very much.”

“When you hurt each other or you wrong one another, apologize to each other quickly, before it is too late. Don’t go to sleep with anger or resentment in your heart, because when you do it gives the enemy an opportunity to take advantage of the situation and get you. Settle these hurts or hard feelings between you quickly. Repent, amend, and forgive.”

“Pray a lot for your loved ones who have died, especially if you are not sure where they are, because they need your prayers. Talk to us and ask us to help them.”

“Do not be selfish; love your neighbors as you would like them to love you. My dear children, many people don’t know how to love others because they don’t love themselves. I want to explain to you how to love your neighbor as you love yourself. You must first love yourself, because when you love yourself and others hurt you, you feel that hurt a lot. And then, when you hurt your neighbor, you are aware of the level of pain you have caused them. But if you don’t love yourself, you don’t know how to compare your pain to the pain of others and are unable to protect yourself or them from feeling or causing suffering. Do not do things or to others that you would not wish upon yourself.”

(Part 2)

“My children, hear me well: I ask all of you who have journeyed so far to be here to now give me all your problems and tell everything you need so I can take each of your prayers to my Son. Leave nothing out: tell me of your sicknesses and where it hurts, of your overwhelming problems, of the problems caused by those you live with, by those you work with or those you meet on your way to work. Tell of the problems caused by your wife or husband, by you children, or by your brothers and sisters, and the problems caused by your friends.

Give me everything so that your hearts can be at rest my children. All those of who are worried about wars, those who are saddened by the innocent children who are suffering, give those worries to us. Don't forget anything, dear children, I came here to hear you and to relieve you, I came to welcome you.”

“My dear children, I am asking that all you remember what you have heard here and carry it with you—do not leave it here and forget about it. Take all you have seen and heard hear with you wherever you go—reflect upon these things so that they will continue to bear fruit. I am asking you, my children, speak the truth, nothing but truth. Don't take away from my words and do not add to my words.

“I am asking you not to argue about anything, for some do argue, and will argue to a point of hurting each other. Do not make noise for the sake of making noise, as birds do. Please respect each other's beliefs and each other's likings. Inspire and guide your neighbor, and do so in the right way, with respect. Do not lead each other into jealousy, lies and persecutions. Do not sit among gossipers. Don't be afraid to say who you believe in and who you love, because the time has come to be a witness of truth. Pray with sincerity, because you don't know the time or the day.”

“Do not be like the ones who travel here to hear me and get something they need but then leave empty handed . . . and do not let me be like the one who came here to visit all of you but then leave as though I saw no one at all. Be the ones who both seek and find. My dear children, do not think that because I came to Rwanda that I came for Rwandans only. What I say concerns everyone in the world, because you are all in my mantle. You were all entrusted to me”

“My dear children, I do not come to spread divisions or hatred, I come to spread the seeds of love. Do not forget that wherever my Son and I are, the devil is as well . . . so he can discourage you, and he can cause confusion and doubt. Fight a good fight and always win my children.”

July 7, 2014

Romans 14:1-4

Jesus: Dear children, I tell you, fall in love with Me and let your soul and conscience grow big in Me. I have given Myself to you as food, so to enable you to run with courage and generosity.

I am your hope and trust, lean on Me, declare My mighty deeds, rejoice, for I will redeem your soul.

No matter whatever your age, know that My love is the foundation upon which all your hope stands firm. I am your faithful physician of both body and soul, and I grant relief to the sick and the aging that suffer. I will increase you a thousand times over and bless you as I have promised.

I am your faithful consolation for all those that grieve and suffer trial and loss of loved ones.

By your prayers, you will receive with joy the love I share with you and will be counted among those I have chosen. Follow My call in faith, attune your minds to the sound of My voice and be led in the path that I have chosen for you, that you may know the strength of My outstretched arms and enjoy the light of My presence forever.

Your loving Jesus.

July 21, 2014

Galations 6: 1-10

Jesus: My dear children, Praise Me all you faithful servants, spread the Gospel and proclaim My mysteries, for My grace is within you as a fiery flame.

I delight in all those I have chosen and I place My Spirit upon them, for they shall proclaim justice to all they encounter throughout their journey here on earth.

I will let My love surround you for you trust in My word and keep My law as you walk in My footsteps.

There shall never be dishonesty upon your lips, for you shall turn many away from evil doings, for I have come to set the earth on fire, to purify it.

My every soul you encounter open their hearts to receive the seed of the word n faith, so that I may grant them wisdom and fidelity to serve Me. May their hearts be no longer stiff-necked, and bow down to Me, their God, for I am the Lord of lords, the God of gods, no other shall take My place.

I shall delight in every soul that comes to Me, that choses the path of heavenly truth, that gives up all the riches of the earth, so that I may become their Shield, their hiding place, their hope, and their all.

I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. I say to you, “remain in My Word and be My faithful disciples forever and your will know the truth and the truth will set you free.”

Your loving Jesus.

During the Prayer Group:

After the 2nd Sorrowful mystery.

Ann: Jesus’ eyes are so blue and brilliant as He greets us:

Jesus: I, your God give you My love. This day you are all My beloved sons and daughters whom I am so proud of. You have given Me all your attention instead of this evil world that has no merit. I will continue to bless each of you for being My faithful companions, always ready to lead others to Me. I hear all you petitions each and every day, not a prayer goes without being answerd. Know this My children, you are in My Sacred Heart always.

August 11, 2014

Psalms 147

Jesus: My dear children, I tell you, “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the least of all and the servant of all.”

My people measure themselves by their successes and pride themselves by their accomplishments. They hold up to others and to Me, their Almighty Creator, their strengths and signs of their self-worth. This is a precarious approach, for sooner or later they will experience failure and weakness.

There are those who after many years of a limited spiritual life, finally come to a personal relationship with Me. Their weaknesses and failures finally open to Me and they long for intimacy with Me, their need for Me through human brokenness.

I do not offer symbols of strength and power for your consideration My dear ones, what I say to you is to imitate the small and vulnerable children.

Not one soul likes to fail or looks forward to the day when they will come face to face with their human frailty. But remember, at that time of grace, a door may open to a new more personal relationship with Me.

I am you living God, always ask that you may be open to a deeper relationship with Me, by accepting your own powerlessness.

Your Loving Jesus.

During the Prayer Group:

After the 2nd Sorrowful mystery.

Jesus: Seek peace, live and pray for peace. Peace is not something one can produce for themselves. It is something given, it is proclaimed by Me. The peace which is there in Me, is a peace which is for all rather than strictly in all, and it is into that peace that all mankind must plunge all their tensions and anxieties.

August 25, 2014

Psalm 96

Jesus: My dear children, I have come to tell you, to reassure you, that nothing can separate you from My love, and that knowledge of My love will always give you lasting peace and joy. I give you this Gift because of your faith. Faith is necessary for your spiritual life. When your faith is focused on Me, it will help to bring about your dearest wish, for the power of faith is a strong trust.

You need no external support, for I your caring God, is at the other end to receive you when you take that leap of faith. Consider My little ones, the yearning of your soul, the part of you that wants desperately to know Me. In your search for spirituality, unconditional faith in Me is necessary.

Surrender is what I ask of you, it is hard for most to do, but it is of vital importance to place yourself in My loving care, to feel My presence in your life and My involvement in the affairs of humanity to desire My truth and to seek My ultimate plan for each soul. Remember, it is with the eyes of the soul that you are able to see clearly the way life is, accept it and be true to it no matter the pain, because the pain of not being true to it, will be far greater.

Go in peace.
Your loving Jesus.

During the Prayer Group:

After the 2nd Glorious Mystery:

Ann: Jesus' eyes are moving side to side, looking into everyone's heart.

Jesus: I ask you to honor My Mother this day of Her birth. She is filled with beauty and has been made perfect for My Divinity.

When My Mother was born, the whole world was made radiant. I wish to nourish you in the fullness of life through My Mother's prayer and example. May the celebration of Her birth bring you closer to lasting peace.

Mother Mary: At this time, My dear ones, I ask you to give Me your hearts request, come to Me and pour out all that you are requesting from our beloved God. I will intercede for you this day and all the days of your lives on earth. Come to Me now and present your petitions.

At the end of the Prayer Group:

Ann had pens and paper passed around and asked each person to walk up to the statue of Mary, kneel if you could, and drop your petition at Her feet in a plastic jar.

September 8, 2014

Mother Mary: Dear children, I come to you this day giving you special graces, for you are truly sons and daughters, loving God with all your heart. I invite you to celebrate with joyful hearts this day, the privilege I have been given to be Mother of all humanity.

That My soul was the space from which God was able to gain access into humanity. Ponder in your hearts dear ones, that thru the birth of My Son Jesus, was the dawn of your salvation. Rejoice in Him and trust in His mercy, for He loves you unconditionally. May His sharing in your human nature give you courage in your weakness and free you from your sins.

He is the Light of the world and the world has chosen to live in darkness. Pray, dear children for all souls who reject the love of God, who continually turn away from Him. They desire material things and pleasure above Him. They have become possessed by them. They are robbed of the longing for Him and His birth and the consolation in Him which they ought to feel. Pray for all souls and surrender yourselves to My beloved Son each and every day.

Continue to live in the light.

I, the Mother of God, give You My peace and love forever.

September 22, 2014

Mother Mary: My dear children, today I call you to love God with all your heart. To ask pardon and forgiveness for all the sins committed against Him. There is much to pray for in these times ahead, Satan is trying very hard to win as many souls as possible while there is still time.

Never become discouraged, even if you must undergo many difficulties and trials, it is all for the Kingdom of God.

Reach out to your brothers and sisters, in the Name of My Son, love them and teach them by your example.

Every person you meet each and every day is a child of God, even those who persecute and commit evil and immoral acts against Him. God is still thirsting for all souls, no matter what they have done, He desires not one soul to be lost, this is why you My faithful, My army, against all evil, must continue to pray and make reparation for the sins committed against Him, with all love and mercy.

Focus on God, and Him alone. Be guided by the Spirit and ask Me, your mother to hold your hand and lead you to prayer, daily Mass, and fasting to all eternity.

Never give up hope, the battle has been won, be strong and continue to ask for an increase in faith hope and charity.

Your world is changing rapidly, but God is always in control, live in peace, ask for God's mercy for each and every soul, especially those who do not know Him.

Only true love will souls be saved. Pray for My beloved sons that they always remain faithful servants.

Pray, pray, pray.

I the mother of God give you My peace and love forever.

October 6, 2014

Ann: The Lord came at the 3rd decade. His heart in flames, tears in His eyes. He is saddened by the evil of mankind. The sins of the world are great. He says His heart is breaking for His creation that have abandoned Him and sought only the pleasures of this world.

Jesus: Pray and give Me your heart, your love to make reparation for sin.

Ann: As Jesus was fading away, he named these sins:

Jesus:

Abortion

Same sex marriage

Worship of false gods

Sins of the flesh

Sins against the spirit

Divorce

unforgiveness

Pride

Love of money

October 18, 2014

Amos 9:8-15

Jesus: My dear children, I ask you, "do you want to be well?"

I ask this question of all who are in need, but I see that My people set their heart on only one way to be healed.

My little ones, never consider that there might be another way, that My healing presence can come to them and change their life with the touch of My loving words.

This is true for all of mankind. My grace is always waiting and ready to transform you, but they must first let go of how they think this will happen, for My ways are not your ways.

Do not wait for someone to say they're sorry before you can forgive them or wait until all the grief has left your heart.

Before you can reach out to others, or that life has to be settled giving you whatever you would like before you can let go of all anxiety and worry. You must ask, My dear ones, to be taught how to open your mind and heart so that you will trust Me with all your wants and needs.

Someday you will know that I your God understand and care about your pain, that I hear and love you unconditionally.

Your loving Jesus.

During the Prayer Group. After the 2nd Sorrowful Mystery:

Jesus: Dear ones, when souls can find Me, their God struggling with them in the midst of pain or rejoicing with them in happy times, then they have discovered a hallmark of the Spiritual life.

Ann: Father Rookie has come and said he is praying with us.

Fr. Rookie: For all who call upon my intercession, I will indeed intercede for them. Pray with all your heart the Miracle Prayer. That is a most powerful prayer. I will pray for those who need help. Jesus is the Light of the world. May His flame burn in your heart forever.

November 10, 2014

Psalm 27

Jesus: My dear ones, My followers will be reminded often how to live their lives being loving and kind towards others. To stop being mean and angry with those around you, especially those you are related to; family members.

Quarreling and harsh words will not get you anywhere because the evil one has entered the scene now and has taken over and you cannot fight him.

He is powerful and loves to cause division and especially hatred among you.

I tell you, when this situation occurs, say immediately,

“Mercy and Forgiveness,”

“Mercy and Gentleness,”

“Mercy and Kindness.”

It will take humility, you must humble yourself. Help each other by prayer and good deeds doing My Holy Will each and every day. Become a light shining in darkness for all to see.

My people are here on earth to help others and themselves get to eternal life, happiness forever.

Never give up, trust and seek My help in all things, you must have peace in your heart before peace can reign in the rest of the world.

Continue My loved ones, to do all the small things, helping others, visiting the sick, helping the poor and disabled, always teaching My ways to those I place in your path.

I will open all doors for you, for you are a people of faith.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group after the 2nd sorrowful mystery:

Jesus: My children, those of you who wish to worship Me in truth must give Me the honor that is due Me.

I must be loved above all, in work and among others, do this in humility and purity of heart.

Let Me lead you in your spiritual life in accordance to My Holy Will.

Strive for holiness; pray and never give up hope!

November 24, 2014

Psalm 49

Jesus: My dear children, always give thanks to Me, your loving Savior, for giving you My Body and Blood to refresh your soul, heavenly food, given each day.

I am truth and light and I come to drive out ignorance and darkness, revealing Myself in all My brightness.

I am not selfish, but in all My works, I am free, directed by perfect love. I alone dwell in the soul of a man that in his good works takes Me and Me alone into account. This is the purifying of the soul from all self-seeking, therefore I become the end and the purpose of his existence.

I am the strength of all, becoming strong in Me, in armor of light, with helmet and sword, and shield for the flight that I have taught.

Be always dependent on prayer, My little ones, be belted and shod in breastplate, resplendent, My armor. Share My victory, always be strong to prevail.

Accept the wisdom of My Cross, rather than the wisdom of the world. Take up the challenge of study of the truth, that I may guide you in your prayer, your reading and your teaching.

Pray that all who have gone before you may come into the joy of My presence.

My Mercy and Peace be with you all.

Your loving Jesus.

During the Prayer Group.

After the 2nd Sorrowful Mystery:

Ann: Jesus' eyes are very blue and they go from side to side looking at everyone.

Jesus: My children, every sin, even the greatest will be forgiven because My Mercy is infinitely greater than the sins of human beings.

But, I ask that you must also use mercy toward others and that you see in every enemy, an instrument of Me.

Pray that I may give you the strength and grace to forgive all who have wronged you, so that you may receive My Mercy.

Feast of the Immaculate Conception December 8, 2014

Psalm 57: 7-11

Jesus: Dear children, on this great day, may you always rejoice in My Mother's loving care.

In beauty, She was chosen and blameless in My Fathers' sight. She was filled with Grace in order to be My Mother.

My Mother is a tabernacle, purer than the sun, She is by Her purity, My paradise, for with Her I will renew the world.

She never committed any sin, even the least, because sin had no part in Her. Through the fullness of grace, never thought a thought, or even spoke a word or did any action that was ever displeasing.

In My beloved Mother was displayed the greatest triumph over the enemy of souls.

Share this beautiful Feast with My Mother, so that you may be filled with joy, receive favors and graces with all of Her holiness. By Her prayers, my little ones, She will lead you closer to My loving arms.

Your loving Jesus.

After the 2nd decade:

Jesus: My dear children, seek Me in your heart, feel My presence and confide in Me. Whenever your soul finds itself to be so destitute of My divine presence that it can in no way can feel it, it does not rest until it has merited the experience of it.

But as long as one keeps it fixed in his mind, he travels with absolute confidence and he does all things well. Without Me, man will never have security in anything or at any time.

December 22, 2014

Sirach 1: 11-20

Jesus: My dear children, in the quiet of your heart, I ask that you listen to My promptings, so that you may find peace in this ever changing world, this world that does not know Me.

You must not be afraid of the trials that are placed in your path, they are but obstacles that you must go through in order to see the road that lies ahead.

I give guidance to all, I speak to every heart, but many do not hear Me, they toss My words aside.

To those that follow Me and trust in Me, I give words of encouragement, promises and hope. Words that will guide you on the path towards eternal life.

At times you will hear Me speak words for those around you, such as family and acquaintances, and those that you come in contact with daily. I also will call out to you at times to do something special for Me, some important work that I will prepare you for. It will be My work

And so you will receive the grace necessary to complete it.

All I ask of you is to trust and continue to pray so that I may pour out My strength in you and guide you in all I ask.

Go in peace. Your loving Jesus.

After the 2nd decade:

Ann: I see Joe Reinholtz, Alex Avendano and Fr. Rookie. They are all here with us this day. They ask us to pray and never stop, for the world that is all stained with sin.

Jesus: Pray especially for all the Priests and your families, the family that has lost faith and are not teaching their children anything about God. The world will soon be taught a valuable lesson. Pray, pray, and never stop.

Jesus: I ask that your kindness be shown to all for all are My children. I desire to come to all with mercy and love. Come and spread My love so that you may prepare the way for Me and be worthy of My love. I ask that you seek to serve others so that I your Lord will come to them thru you.