OUR LADY OF THE CROSS

The New Jerusalem at Queen of Heaven Cemetery

I apologize to the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God. You patiently, with much love and tears worked with us at the foot of the Cross to try and deliver an urgent message in order to help mankind. I promised to help you and I carelessly left the messages sitting in a pile on my desk for five years.

I apologize to all the people whose souls will be eternally lost because they did not have access to their Heavenly Mother's call. I only hope that these messages reach others. I think that God wants everyone to be apostles of Our Lady. Those who read, share, and most importantly live the messages.

I apologize to Jesus Christ, My Lord and God. If the Holy Mother did not teach us how good and Merciful You are, I would have run away in despair. Please accept this publication as a gift in reparation for my sins against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Your most useless servant,

Guy Murphy O.P.

In search for miracles, believers head to Hillside

By Marla Donato

If you believe the believers, a secluded corner of the Queen of Heaven Cemetery in Hillside is a place of miracles.

In this unlikely west suburban venue, they say, the Virgin Mary has appeared. The vision was of particular consequence to Joe Reinholtz, 81, a retired railroad worker from Westchester. Reinholtz says that after making a pilgrimage to Medjugorje, Yugoslavia, he was divinely directed to the cemetery spot, where he was healed from blindness.

While Reinholtz says the miracle occurred five years ago, he only recently began circulating his spectacular claim.

"It was time to bring people back to the church," the west suburbanite explained.

Since then, through word of mouth, the faithful have been alerted, and now gather daily at a crucifix located in the military section of the cemetery. Some say they have seen the cross bleed. Although Reinholtz is the only one who has said he has seen visions of the Virgin Mary, others hold rosaries they claim have turned to gold after praying at the site.

Sue Maher, who this week came from Downers Grove to pray on the grass near the cross with her toddler granddaughter, said she was "awed and moved to tears" when she saw the crucifix bleed on two different occasions.

However, others, such as the cemetery administrators, do not necessarily welcome the recent turn of events as a "gift," and are worried about curiosity seekers, vandals and large, unruly crowds.

"We run a nice, quiet cemetery," said Queen of Heaven spokeswoman Dolores Vendel, who added that no employees have reported seeing anything out of the ordinary around the cross.

The Hillside cemetery visitation is simply the latest in a string of similar claims that have been reported through the years, drawing crowds and creating headaches for officials that have ranged from traffic jams to vandalism.

In Chula Vista, Calif., traffic has been snarled as thousands have gathered recently to view a white billboard on which some say they see the faces of a slain 9-year-old girl and her killer.

Other sightings of images of Jesus, the Virgin Mary, saints and loved ones have been reported on a tortilla in New Mexico, a moldy wall in a central Soviet village, a bowling alley in Northlake and strands of spaghetti printed on a Pizza Hut billboard in Atlanta.

Locally, reported visions have

God the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth, Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord, and the Holy Spirit of the One True and Triune God, sent His handmaid, the Blessed Virgin Mary along with Saint Michael the archangel to a kind and gentle man named Joseph Reinholtz to deliver a prophetic gift to the people of America. God is giving us some simple but powerful tools that we can use to get Him back into the center of our lives.

God can fix all the problems in the world and it is not hard for Him. In His goodness He gives us an opportunity to help.

Some of the messages given to Joseph are new and some are old, but all are very powerful messages that our society seems to have forgotten.

Our Lady has said that the only hope for our society is to obey her messages (April 9, 1992). She has also said that we are not listening to her messages, so she has to repeat them again and again (December 25, 1991; January 22, 1992; April 6, 1992; April 17, 1992; May 30, 1992; August 1, 1992). Our Lady does not always tell Joseph where and when she repeated a message, as is the case of her 15 promises to those who recite the Rosary (#150 July 25, 1992). She leaves that for us to figure out. Upon studying the messages, one realizes that those who are Totally Consecrated (Totus Tuus), like Pope John Paul II, or those who are receiving communication directly from Heaven, have messages that are repeated again by Our Lady here. Since Our Lady repeats her messages often, some people believe that they are exempt from following them or that the meaning of the messages themselves are diminished. I can testify that what Our Lady says about no one living her messages is true. As a troubleshooting chemical engineer, I thought myself the only person not living the messages because those in my profession “do not need to be told what to do.” However, Our Lady was very clear that no one was living her messages and this situation is very severe. I can explain this with an analogy. To diagnose a problem in a chemical power plant, troubleshooting engineers are trained to determine three things:

1. Is the design wrong?
2. Is the equipment faulty?
3. Are the operators not following directions?

Using these skills and applying it to observations over the last 15 years, I concluded that:

1. There is nothing wrong with Our Heavenly Father’s “design.”
2. There is nothing faulty with the “equipment” Christ gives us: the Sacraments of His Church.
3. However, the “operators,” His children, are not “following directions” – applying His Mother’s messages to their lives and the society in which they live.

Unfortunately, one can truly say even her children are abandoning her at the foot of the cross just like her son’s disciples did 2,000 years ago. I hope that some day we will listen to, meditate on, live, and share Our Lady’s messages and a great blessing will come over our country and the world.

Fatima is mentioned over 50 times in Joseph’s messages, God wants the Fatima Five First Saturdays of Reparation to be practiced in every parish in the United States.

The messages give great hope from Our Merciful God Who wants what is best for His children.

On August 15, 1990, Joseph Reinholtz, an 80-year-old retired railroad worker, claimed to have seen visions of the Blessed Virgin Mary while praying at a 15 foot fiberglass crucifix between two oak trees, one of which has been termed the “trinity” tree since it has three, large branches supported by its trunk.

Joseph’s story begins September 19, 1980, when he lost his vision suddenly and was hospitalized for five days. For several years he continued to experience periods of blurriness and blindness. In 1987, Joseph decided to go on a pilgrimage to Medjugorje in Bosnia-Herzegovina, where many healings and supernatural phenomena have been reported. It was there that he met Vicka Ivankovic, one of the six visionaries who have seen and spoken with the Virgin Mary since June 24, 1981. After Vicka prayed over

Joseph, he promised that he would dedicate the remaining days of his life to working and praying for the terminally ill.

Overwhelmed with this experience, Joseph returned home. Ten days later, Joseph was praying before his statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary. On the fifth mystery of the Rosary, he saw a very bright light. He slowly began to see shadows and then whole figures. The first object visible to him was his statue of Mary, which he noticed was weeping. She wept for three days and three nights.

In April 1989, during another trip to Medjugorje, Joseph met with Vicka again. She told him that upon his return home he was to look for a crucifix about 15 feet tall between two trees, one of which was three-branched. Upon finding this place, he was to go there and pray.

After returning home, he searched for this site in a logical area close to his home. He found it in the military section at Queen of Heaven Cemetery in Hillside, a suburb of Chicago.

For over two years Joseph returned to the site for private prayer and reflection daily. During this period the crucifix bled. Joseph shares a portfolio of photographs, which clearly show these supernatural events.

On August 15, 1990, Our Lady appeared to Joseph as he was praying at the Hillside cross. She appeared again on November 1, 1990, with three angels and St. Michael the Archangel. It was not until July of 1991 that the media got hold of the story. Since then, thousands of people have gathered there to pray with Joseph. Rosary beads have changed in color from silver to gold. Cameras have captured golden images of Mary hovering by the cross and halos of light surrounding the area. On August 15, 1991, the Feast of the Assumption, it had been reported that as many as 10,000 people were present during this miracle in progress.

Our Lady appears daily with one to five angels. Jesus appears on many occasions usually on His Feast days, special Feast days, Feasts of Our Lady, the Feast of Pentecost, and the Feast of St. Joseph. Saint Michael the Archangel appears daily since February 5, 1993. Saint Joseph appeared for the first time on March 19, 1994 and has appeared six other times since that date.

The Church proceeds with these matters with great prudence. The Church always respects an individual's personal experience, and at the same time assumes natural causes until a thorough investigation proves otherwise.

The archdiocese of Chicago appointed a spiritual director for Joseph. This priest spoke well of Joseph and even invited him to speak at his parish during a Lenten retreat in March 1994. The spiritual director said: "Joseph is a man of deep faith and gentle spirit, and those who come to him for prayer will be brought to know the Blessed Mother."

Due to the large number of pilgrims coming to the military section for the apparition, the archdiocese built a shrine about 300 yards away in an open area. It is complete with a new parking lot to accommodate pilgrims. The Cross was moved to its new location in 1992. Our Lady commented that she was very pleased with the new area.

Our Lady asked for red and white roses to be planted. The cemetery gave her the roses.

Our Lady also asked for a small chapel to be built, which as of June 25, 2005 has not been done yet. But we will continue to pray for this.

Joseph had apparitions of the Blessed Mother until he died on December 18, 1996. Bishop Alfred L. Abramowicz presided along with several other priests at Joseph's funeral Mass.

Joseph is greatly missed by many who loved him. He did not always have an easy ride. He received his share of persecutions, and on July 13, 1994 someone actually vandalized the Cross and cut off Jesus Christ's feet. Joseph simply said: "We have to pray for the people that would do such a thing."

The cemetery did a good job in repairing the Cross. The Cross has been an incredible place of prayer, conversion, miracles and hope for thousands of people. The graces continue to flow

DAILY ROUTINE

Our Lady once referred to the Cross as her simple school of faith. Oftentimes, during the first six months, she would lovingly ask all to pray slowly, from the heart, with reverence, devotion, and love. Our Lady slowed our prayers down to about 23 to 24 seconds per Hail Mary. She also repeatedly asks us to listen to her messages.

Prior to Joseph's arrival at the Cross, someone leads the people in the Peace Rosary: the Apostles' Creed, seven Our Fathers, seven Hail Marys, and seven Glory Bes for Our Lady's intentions. If time permits, other prayers are offered.

When Joseph arrives, he usually places his hand on the foot of Jesus and silently prays. He then greets the people and thanks them for coming to the cross to pray. Joseph promised Our Lady he would pray the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary everyday for the terminally ill, so he begins prayers at the Cross by offering these mysteries for the following intentions:

- For Our Lady's very special intentions
- For personal special intentions
- For peace needed throughout the world
- For our Holy Father, the Pope, all Priests, Bishops, and Cardinals
- For unity in all the churches throughout the world
- For unity within our families
- For the sick and terminally ill.

Everyone then recites the Joyful Mysteries with Joseph. If a few children are present, they lead the group in the fifth mystery. Following the Rosary other prayers said are the Hail, Holy Queen, St. Michael's Prayer, the Memorare, as well as one Our Father and one Hail Mary for the poor souls in Purgatory.

Since February 19, 1992, Our Lady requested that prayers be added daily for our Pope. Following the completion of all these prayers, Joseph speaks with our Blessed Mother. Then he turns to the crowd and shares what she has said or done. On occasion he also shows and explains some of the pictures of supernatural phenomena taken at the cross. He blesses all children and those who are ill, but, if time permits, and the crowd is not too large, he blesses everyone. Someone leads the people in the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

On some days, weather permitting, hymns are sung. The prayer of St. Gertrude the Great for the poor souls in Purgatory is recited and an Our Father for those who are ill.

Joseph had a stroke in February 1995. Due to health reasons, Joseph could only come to the Cross occasionally until he died on December 18, 1996. Even when Joseph could not be at the Cross, Our Lady asked for the prayers to continue.

In the Spring of 1996, Our Lady instructed Joseph or whoever represents him to lead 5 decades of the Rosary: Joyful on Monday and Thursdays, Sorrowful on Tuesdays and Fridays, Glorious on Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays.

The Rosary prayer is followed by reading Her messages.

The prayers continue with three Our Fathers, Hail Marys and Glory Bes, for the sick and the terminally ill.

Three Our Fathers and Glory Bes' for Peace in our hearts, families, the Church, and the whole world.

Three Our Fathers and three Glory Bes for all the poor souls in Purgatory, so that she and St. Michael can go to Purgatory daily and take souls to Heaven.

The prayer group concludes by asking Our Lady's blessing.

The prayers are said every day at the Cross from 9:00 A.M. till 10:00 A.M. except on Tuesday, and on Sunday the prayers start at 10:30 A.M.

In addition to this, Our Lady also strongly encourages everyone to pray the remaining 10 (15) decades of the Rosary, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy (especially at 3:00 P.M.), the Peace Rosary (Apostles Creed and 7 Our Fathers, 7 Hail Mary's and 7 Glory Bes), to Fast (Bread and lots of water on Wednesdays and Fridays), to read the Bible, and to attend the Holy Mass every day.

Beginning on August 15, 1991, Joseph's remarks to the crowds on the occasion of his visits to the Cross have been tape-recorded. These messages are from August 15, 1991 until May 19, 1992.

From August 15, 1991 until May 19, 1992, Our Lady would tell the message to Joseph and he would remember it and repeat it to the crowd. After May 19, 1992, Our Lady would dictate the message to Joseph and he would write it down. Joseph is a human instrument and can make mistakes, such as leaving a word out, etc. Our Lady invited Joseph and his helpers to ask questions if things were not clear. As a mother, she talked to Joseph in his language and in a simple way that could understand. Sometimes a clarification was asked in cases where no words were "missing". Our Lady would define a word for us or instruct Joseph to look up the word in his dictionary.

Our Lady's messages to Joseph are transcribed from his handwritten notes.

We wish to emphasize that the faithful are not obliged to believe in private revelation. Everything necessary for salvation has already been said in the public revelation contained chiefly in Holy Scripture of which the Holy Church is guardian and interpreter. Nevertheless, private revelation does help as a reminder of what is already known and often provides a great incentive to live accordingly. We see these messages as gifts for all people. Of course, we acknowledge and thank THE MOTHER OF GOD, to whom, all our work and this book is dedicated.

It may be helpful to keep in mind the following words of Pope Urban VIII:

"In cases which concerns private revelations, it is better to believe than not to believe, for if you believe, and it is proven true, you will be happy that you have believed because our Holy Mother Church asked it. If you believe and it should be proven false, you will receive all blessings as if it had been true, because you believed it to be true."

According to a decree of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, approved by H.H. Pope Paul VI, (1966), it is permissible to publish, without an imprimatur, texts relating to new revelations, apparitions, prophecies, or miracles.

However, in accordance with the regulations of the Second Vatican Council, Totally Yours states that we do not wish to precede the judgment of the Church in this matter, to which we humbly submit.

The pictures were provided by various pilgrims who came to the Cross.

STABAT MATER

At the cross her station keeping,
Stood the mournful mother weeping,
Close to Jesus to the last;

Through her heart, his sorrow sharing,
All his bitter anguish bearing
Now at length the sword had passed.

Oh, how sad and sore distressed
Was that mother highly blessed
Of the sole-begotten one!

Christ above in torment hangs,
She beneath beholds the pangs
Of her dying, glorious Son.

Is there one who would not weep
'Whelmed in miseries so deep
Christ's dear mother to behold?

Can the human heart refrain
From partaking in her pain,
In that mother's pain untold?

Bruised, derided, cursed, defiled,
She beheld her tender child,
All with bloody scourges rent.

For the sins of his own nation
Saw him hang in desolation
Till his spirit forth he sent.

O dear mother! Fount of love,
Touch my spirit from above,
Make my heart with yours accord.

Make me feel as you have felt;
Make my soul to glow and melt
With the love of Christ, my Lord.

Holy mother, pierce me through;
In my heart each wound renew
Of my savior crucified.

Let me share with you his pain,
Who for all our sins was slain,
Who for me in torments died.

Let me mournful with you be,
Mourning him who mourned for me,
All the days that I may live.

By the cross with you to stay,
There with you to weep and pray,
Is all I ask of you to give.

Virgin of all virgins blest!
Listen to my fond request:
Let me share your grief divine.

Let me, to my latest breath,
In my body bear the death
Of your dying Son sublime.

Wounded with his every wound,
Steep my soul till it has swooned
In his very blood away.

Be to me, O Virgin, nigh,
Lest in flames I burn and die,
In this awful judgment day.

Christ, when you shall call me hence,
Be your Mother my defense,
Be your cross my victory.

While my body here decays,
May my soul your goodness praise,
Safe in your eternity.

Amen. Alleluia!

DISTRIBUTION

The messages in this book are gifts for all people. Please share these messages with friends, relatives and acquaintances. All who come into possession of these precious gifts are asked to give them to others, remembering that it is better to give than to receive. On March 18, 1992, Our Lady, weeping bitterly, said to Joseph,

“Please let them listen to my messages. I wish for you to be active in living and transmitting the messages...”

OTHER COMMENTS

Our Lady said many other things that are not recorded here. She often times told a person that a friend or relative was in Purgatory, and that we had to pray for that soul. I would like to share one such story.

If anyone has a story or healing that they would like to share about Joseph Reinholtz and the Cross, please send to: Totally Yours Co., P.O. Box 897, Hillside IL 60162, or E-mail it to Guy@medj1.com

Please include doctor's reports.

MEDJUGORJE 35 (12/27/96) “THE WEEKEND” — by GRM

Every once in a while, things come together in such a way, that I know Heaven had its hand in it. “The Weekend” of July 21 1996, had me scratching my head for a long time. This year, in April, a group of 34 went to Italy and Medjugorje for Easter. It was a spectacular trip. It was good to have the 85-year-old visionary, Joseph Reinholtz along on the trip. Joseph has received daily apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Saint Michael the Archangel at Queen of Heaven Cemetery’s “Cross”, in Hillside, IL.

In May, Joseph received a message from Our Lady to pray for Grandpa Murphy, who was in Purgatory. Recall, in August of 1993, Our Lady took Joseph to Purgatory to show him how much the souls suffer; she told him that the only thing that can help them is our prayers. These are souls that are not damned to hell, however, nothing impure enters into Heaven, and the purifying fire is where souls go who have not atoned for breaking the 10 Commandments of God. We both prayed often for Grandpa Murphy, and offered up several Masses for him.

In June, I received an engineering consulting job in Alabama, at one of the largest pulp and paper mills in the United States. We had foaming problems on a 13 million dollar set of pre-evaporators. The system used a close-coupled arrangement, which is more energy efficient, but has never been tried before. Throughout the summer we worked out the operating problems. Several people had doubts that the system would ever work. Every few weeks, I would come back home to Chicago and Joseph would tell me, “Grandpa Murphy is still in Purgatory, so we have to pray more for him.”

In July, a man from Elk Grove Village called and said he has seen an article in Medjugorje Magazine about our Divine Mercy Jesus float that we have put into parades for the last few years. The Divine Mercy image is a picture of the Risen Christ with red and white rays flowing from the wound in His Heart. In the 1930’s, Jesus appeared to Sister Faustina and said; “There is going to come a time when people must know about the infinite mercy of God. Great graces are given to all who even look at My Divine Mercy image.” Jesus gave her a prayer chaplet to ask for God’s mercy. Sister Faustina had a vision that when people were praying the Divine Mercy chaplet, the Angel that God had sent was not able to pour out the vial of plagues upon the earth. For more information, see Pope John Paul II’s encyclical letter Rich in Mercy, 1979.

The man wanted us to bring the Divine Mercy float into the Elk Grove Centennial parade on the weekend of July 21. “Sign us up! I’m supposed to work in Alabama that weekend, but Our Lady likes parades. If it is meant to be, we will be there.”

Joe Reinholtz and the Saint Louis DeMontfort consecration taught me to pray hard, and do whatever you think Our Lady wants you to do and the doors will open up, and everything will work out.

On Thursday, July 18, early afternoon, the foreman at Alabama told us, “You boys are not going home this weekend!” By late afternoon he said: “You can go and review the data, with the engineers in Atlanta, but you be ready with solutions for the meetings starting Monday morning. The plant manager wants results! If this does not work, you are going to bring this 13 million dollars of scrap metal back home with you!”

FRIDAY - July 19

The meetings in Atlanta went well on Friday, and I returned to Chicago by Friday night.

Phoning Sharon, a fellow parade partner, I said; “Wow Our Lady got me in town for the weekend, here is my schedule; Wedding on Saturday, Mass early Sunday morning at Hillside, drive to your house by Evergreen Park to pick up the wooden frame that mounts on the convertible to hold up the 6 foot Divine Mercy painting, go back to the “Cross” in Hillside for prayers at 12:00 noon. Drive to the Parade in Elk Grove by 1:30 pm. Finish up and drop off the wood frame at my parents’ house and catch the flight at 7:00 pm so I can be in the meetings Monday morning in Alabama. The only problem is the flight is sold out and the airlines would only sell me a ticket for Monday morning. My boss is going to kill me if I don’t make it to the meetings on Monday morning.”

Sharon protested; “that’s too much, you can’t do all that in one day, you are not putting enough of a priority on the parade ministry. We are suppose to be at Elk Grove at 12:30. You are going to ruin the parade for us.” “Sorry,” I replied, “but I know in my heart, that Our Lady wants me to try.”

SATURDAY - July 20

After Mass and prayers at the Cross, I went to visit Joseph Reinholtz at his home. “Great News” Joseph exclaimed. “Grandpa Murphy is out of Purgatory and into Heaven, Our Lady showed him to me, he is so happy! Now that he is in Heaven, he can help you more than you helped him. Ask him to help you on the Alabama job. Grandpa Murphy can help you finish up that Alabama job.”

The Church teachings are that people can help each other out of love on earth, and when they get to Heaven, their love is made perfect, and they can help even more. (For more information on how to help the holy souls call Susan at the Holy Souls Mass Apostolate 312-951-1074.)

I thought to myself, “I don’t need help on this Alabama job, I already have the best solution to the problem. One solution was going to cost 1 1/2 million dollars to fix it, another $500,000, and my solution was only going to cost $200,000.” Joseph was insistent, and I figured it could not hurt to ask for help.

That day, I came up with a very simple inexpensive idea that seemed to have some benefits for our problems in Alabama. These are the Grandpa Murphy bypass lines.

Stumbling upon 1500 Divine Mercy flyers later in the day encouraged me to think the parade was going to work out.

The evening was spent at a Medj-head wedding. A Medj-head is someone who goes to Medjugorje (former Yugoslavia), and then returns with enthusiasm to spread Heaven's peace plan.

It was good to see all of the fellow Medj-heads and get caught up on all the latest events.

SUNDAY - JULY 21

After Mass in the morning, while preparing to leave to pick up the parade frame in Evergreen Park, Sharon called and said; "It is raining out. It does not look good, we have to drive too far in the rain, and the parade will probably be cancelled anyway."

"If you don't want to go, that is fine, just open your garage and I will pick up the frame. Goodbye."

Two minutes later Sharon called again and said: "The convertible top has to be down to carry the frame. What if you drive 50 miles in the pouring rain, destroy your Divine Mercy painting, and the parade gets cancelled and you miss your plane, and you get sick?"

"I will learn a good lesson in humility. Open your garage."

"This I gotta see, I will drive with Danny and see you at the Parade site," replied Sharon.

The phone rang a third time, and it was Joseph Reinholtz' son Bob. "Dad is sick and he is hurting, he can't make it to church today, can you bring him Holy Communion?"

"Sure, no problem" I replied before having a chance to think about it. Puzzled as to how the day was going to work out, Our Lady and the angels would not only have to help, they would have to lead the way.

Driving down to Evergreen Park and returning to the "Cross" in Hillside by 11:59 am, the prayers went from 12:00 until 1:00 pm. We did say an extra prayer for the parade. Driving to Joseph's house, I found him in bed and in pain. I had planned on running in and running out. One on the acts of mercy is to visit the sick. How can I evangelize Divine Mercy, if I don't have mercy on Joseph? The ABC's of mercy is: Ask for His Mercy. Be merciful. Complete trust.

The visit with Joseph took longer than expected. We talked about our trip to Rome and Medjugorje. How Pope John Paul II blessed him. How happy he was to see Padre Pio's tomb, the miracle of the Eucharist at Lanciano. Every 15 minutes Joe's son Bob would cry out; "There is a convertible in the street with its top down, and it is raining out!" We talked about what special places the Holy House of Loretto and Assisi are, and how Vicka's mother invited us into their home at Medjugorje and poured Joseph a beer.

Bob cried out, "Don't you have a parade today? It is still raining out, you are going to have to pray for a miracle." I reminded Joseph about his apparition of Blessed Faustina and the importance of the Divine Mercy devotion. He received Communion and said he would pray for the parade, and I was on my way at 2:00 p.m.

It was not only raining, but also the parade was to start at 2:00 pm and I was still 40 minutes away. After picking up the painting, I made a wrong turn that cost 15 more minutes. The thought of turning around and going home, seemed like a good one, but I figured to just go and see what happens.

The rain stopped at 2:30 pm. Arriving at 3:00 pm in the school parking lot, found ten floats still waiting to join the parade route. The problem was that it takes three people to set up the float, Danny and Sharon had the bolts and they had already left.

Ironically, the 3:00 hour is very special for the Divine Mercy devotion. It is the hour in which Jesus died for us. Jesus told Sister Faustina, "At 3:00 implore My mercy, in this hour I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in honor of My passion." "Jesus, where are these guys?" With that a teal car flashed across the parking lot, Danny and Sharon jumped out, and we mounted the painting. We only had half the bolts in place when Dan started shouting; "Go, Go, Go!" The last float was entering the parade, and the police were starting to switch back the roadblocks. I floored it. When the police saw Divine Mercy Jesus come, they let us in the parade. The parade was awesome! We passed out our 1500 Divine Mercy prayer flyers and on the last stretch of the parade, the sunshine dried us off.

After the parade, I dropped the frame off at my parents' house. They said; "You will never make the plane at 7:00. They have increased security at the airport." Arriving at the airport at 20 minutes to seven, I found a very long line of people waiting to check in their luggage. Running for the gate was the only option. At five minutes to seven, after everyone else had boarded the plane, I arrived at the gate and asked; "Are there any more seats left?" "Yes, there are a couple seats available, but next time check in your luggage." "Yes ma'am," I replied upon boarding the airplane.

AFTER THE WEEKEND.

The meetings in Alabama went well; they installed the Grandpa Murphy bypass lines, and to everyone's surprise it worked! "We can't believe this is the same equipment!" they all said after operation resumed.

Joseph went back to the hospital in early August with a second stroke and cancer. He smiled when I told him how everything worked out in Alabama. Joseph said; "See, I told you, many good things are going to come out of that Alabama job." Joseph never left the hospital, and continued to suffer until he died on December 18, 1996. I'm sure Joseph joined the Communion of Saints, where he will be interceding for all of us in Heaven.

MESSAGES OF OUR LADY OF THE CROSS

#1 August 15, 1991

A brilliant light came before her. Three flashes of light came before me as she arrived. Our Lady appeared before the crucifix. Her presence was with me and I with her. She proceeded to say,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I am with you and I will pray with you. Peace be with you. I am with you always. I am very pleased with this remarkable crowd. I ask you for three Rosaries each and every day: the Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious Mysteries. The Mass is the center of your life and my life. If you pray together, you can have unity in all your families. God bless you."

She then disappeared. I am very grateful to Our Lady. As we go forward, let us all remind ourselves how our prayers are needed.

#2 September 21, 1991

(Message received between 5:00 and 5:30 A.M. in Joseph's home)

Her presence was preceded by a brilliant light that flashed three different times in my room. She said, "Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Today I bless you in a very special way with my motherly blessing that God will give you the gift of conversion. For years I have been calling you to a profound spiritual life but you are so cold in not listening to all my messages I have been giving you for the last ten years. Decide seriously to dedicate time to God. I will teach you how to pray from your heart. Yugoslavia is in a very grave situation. The war is very dangerous. Please pray, pray, pray for peace."

#3 September 28, 1991

I saw Our Lady for the first time in Vicka's apparition room in Medjugorje. I have seen her twice in Medjugorje, twice in my home and many other times here at the cemetery. Our Lady has appeared here with her Son and as I have told you with St. Michael, the Archangel. St. Michael is a very huge angel. He is approximately 7' to 8' tall. He is an angel that has large wings. The wings protrude above his head and almost down to the ground. He came with Our Lady by coming through the area which is way back there across the roadway, a little area shaped like a little "V" out there. That is where she comes from. She comes dressed in gold and many times dressed in white and wearing her beautiful crown. Also, she comes dressed in blue and white or gray and white. I wish that you could see the Blessed Mother. She is a very, very beautiful lady. She's approximately 5' 4" tall. She has black hair and beautiful, blue eyes. I assure you that is the way she is.

#4 October 9, 1991

I hope this message gives you some incentive to pray. Our Lady asks us to pray three Rosaries each and every day. She also asks us to pray seven Our Fathers, seven Hail Marys, seven Glory Bes, and one Apostles Creed. Offer them to Our Lady for her special intentions.

#5 October 16, 1991

As Our Lady moved around, she said, "Bring that little boy closer to me."

The family brought the boy up to the cross. I lifted him up to the cross. He looked up and what do you think he said when he came down? He said, "Mommy and Daddy, I seen the Blessed Mother."

#6 October 17, 1991

She wakes me up many times throughout the night. Even this morning she woke me up twice to ask me to pray more. She asks us to pray from our heart.

#7 October 26, 1991 (Heavy rainstorm)

I saw the Blessed Mother. She said the Rosary with us. She said she would bless all of us. She said we were doing penance for the world.

#8 October 27, 1991

Our Lady was here yesterday and I assure you she welcomed all those who stood here in this heavy rain. She said that she was very, very unhappy with the conditions of the world today. She said we must pray more. Pray the Rosary.

She stressed that very vehemently, three Rosaries a day from each and every one of us. Seven Our Fathers, seven Hail Marys, seven Glory Bes', and the Apostles Creed for all her special intentions. Why are you all here? Because the Holy Spirit brought you here. I prayed here for a number of months before anything happened. I wondered when something was going to happen. So I finally spoke to God here at the cross and asked why had I been coming here when nothing has happened. That was on a Friday. On Monday, I came to the cross and I was not more than 15' away from the cross and that was the first sign that God was going to show me. That was Christ bleeding on the cross. And on August 15, 1990, that was the first time Our Lady appeared to me here at the cross.

She wakes me many times. She woke me at 2:30 A.M. this morning. She said she needs more prayers. She was shedding many tears while we were praying. I asked her why she was crying.

She said, "Because my Son is suffering so much."

#9 October 28, 1991

She said that she would be here every morning. She will be praying the five mysteries of the Rosary, the five Joyful Mysteries. So we welcome her to be here. Our Lady was here this morning while we were praying the Rosary. Also, she surprised me. She brought her Son with her. He was dressed in white and so was she. But this time she didn't have her crown on. Right after we completed our fifth mystery, He was hanging on the cross. He was in this area right over here, hanging on the cross.

#10 October 30, 1991

Our Lady came dressed in white. She was standing right here in this area. And she said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Thank you all for being here this morning and praying the Rosary with me. Where's that little child, somewhere here?"

She said she was giving the little child a special blessing and she's blessing all of you. That is all she said today.

#11 November 1, 1991

Our Lady was here. She came with St. Michael and three beautiful angels. They were all dressed in white.

She said, "Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Do you know why you are here? I want all the people who are here and all the people throughout the world to be in Heaven. Pray, pray, pray. Continue to pray, fast, and bring everything you have to me. I will intercede and bring everything to God. All our little ones are in very, very difficult situations because the devil is around them. You must go on praying to achieve our goals."

Praise God, Our Lady, St. Michael, and the three, wonderful angels that were here today. The angels were very small. They look about 5' tall, very slim, but they were just smiling there. I realized how joyful they were as Our Lady said she wants all of us to be in Heaven.

#12 November 7, 1991

Our Lady is here every morning. Today she prayed with us during the whole Rosary.

She said, "Thank you all for being here this morning in this cold weather."

She blesses all of you.

#13 November 8, 1991

As you know Our Lady is here every morning and she stays here and prays. She prays the whole five mysteries of the Rosary. She was here this morning dressed in white. She had a beautiful cape on and it's got a big button on the front where she closes it up. I guess she was a little cold like we were.

So she said, I love our children. I'm going to bless all those who are here this morning that they gave up their time to be here to pray the Rosary. We must continue to pray, pray, pray."

#14 November 9, 1991

She strolled around each and every one of you. That's why I was trying to follow her, where she was going, but she said, "I must go around to all of you."

That's why I couldn't see the back part of her. She went around all of you and came back to the cross. She was in this area right here. That's why I was looking mostly at her in this area. She thanked you all very much for praying this morning but she said that we need more prayers to be said on account of the world's condition today. To the few children that were here she said, "I give you all my special blessing."

#15 November 10, 1991

She had a beautiful crown on. It was just beautiful to see her. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I am very sad about the condition of the world. We must continue to pray, pray, pray."

Notice that she never said thank you for responding to my call. I think that gives us an answer. We are not listening to her messages. So let us begin to listen to her messages because the conditions of the world get worse and worse each and every day. She is telling us to continue to pray, especially for our young children.

She said, "I love these children very much. I will bless them for being here this morning and each and everyone of you."

That is all she had to say, but she was very sad. When she departed, she said, "Pray, pray, pray."

I just felt sorry about what she said. So let us always remember our prayers are needed.

#16 November 11, 1991

Our Lady spoke to me again and she came dressed all in white with a beautiful cape on her this morning. She had beautiful white stars — twelve white stars — on her crown which all lit up even though we have a dreary day here. But she still is very sad. She's sad about the world today.

She said, "We must continue to pray more. We must all pray a lot."

She said she would bless these wonderful children who are here before the cross and also all you grownups. She has been weeping quite a bit for the last couple of days. So that is a sign of something that she is asking us to pray and continue to pray.

Especially, she said, "I will take care of my little children who are here before the cross."

I know she will take care of them and bless them.

#17 November 13, 1991

This time she came dressed in white, very sad looking this morning. She had a few little tears but not as many as the last few days. She's telling me she is still worried about the conditions of the world. She said, "Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. We are praying all right, but I need more prayers. I will bless each and everyone of you for offering your prayers for me, for my intentions, and for the peace that we need throughout the world."

This was her prayer to us this morning. Usually she tells me it is only for me, but if I desire in my own heart to give that message to all of you, it is my pleasure to do so. So that is why I share it with you this morning. I tell you again she's very sad. We must know that conditions in this world are not the way they should be. So continue to pray is what she's saying. She always said the words - pray, pray, pray, but now she's using another word which is - praying. Each and every one of us should be praying more so than ever before. Our Lady was standing above the ground next to Christ on the Cross.

St. Michael was with her. He is a very huge angel. Many of you think he only has small wings. I tell you they are very large. The tall part of the wing stands up above his head and almost touches the ground.

Watch me because I will be focusing where she moves. She always has the Rosary in her hand. It's a little black Rosary and she dangles it in front of her all of the time. I asked her a couple of times how she does it from one side to the other. She said, "Very simple. Watch me."

I tell you she is like anyone of you here. She is just a big person like anyone of you. She has beautiful black hair, beautiful blue eyes and when she penetrates you, she's got like a light that goes right towards you.

#18 November 14, 1991

She was very sad. I asked her why she was weeping. She said again that it was because of the conditions of the world. She's asking us to pray. She's reminding us all that we must keep on praying, praying, praying. She needs our prayers very desperately now. This is a time that she wants us to be able to pray. She's giving us all the messages that we need, but we are not listening to them.

She said,

"Why do you want me to continue to go on and say thank you for responding to my call when you are not listening to my messages?"

She has asked us to pray for the Bishop's Conference that they go on doing what is right and not doing anything out of the ordinary. She's telling us to pray for our priests because they are not living up to their vocation. They are drifting away from the Church. They are drifting away because they want to do what they want.

She said, "God is the only one that we must listen to. God created us all equal so we must all pray together. We are all brothers and sisters."

I asked her a question about a certain person who came here to the cemetery and had said that he didn't see anything and he was a Catholic. She told me to tell him whenever he is at this cross to look at this cross and to understand one another. She told me that this is the miracle.

I am grateful that I can be able to stand here and tell you what she wants us to do. Let us go on praying. This is what she is asking us to do. Our country and the world are in terrible turmoil and it's going to continue. There's going to be many, many chastisements. This is what she's telling me. She's telling me - chastisements. We know. We can see it everyday that goes by. So let us pray and continue to pray. As she turned away, hoping that we are going to live up to our vocation, I know I told her I'll do my best for what I can do for her. She said,

"Do not ever be afraid because I am with you and I will pray for you."

And then she just drifted away. Let us remember we want her to be back. I told her to not shy away from us. We're doing our best here at the cemetery to try to live our lives the way we should live them. So let us all work together and remember that she said the one thing she wanted was the children. They're so important to us in our lives today.

#19 November 15, 1991

She was dressed in white. She was very sad looking. This is the first time I ever saw her bow her head. She was tearing but I don't know how long she's going to keep on tearing. I asked her why. She said, "Because of this wonderful crowd that's here this morning. I will bless them with a special blessing. All of you go in peace."

#20 November 16, 1991

Our Lady appeared on the fifth mystery of the Rosary. She was dressed in white again. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Thank you for all these wonderful children that are here praying the Rosary and thank all of you grownups here, too. I will bless every one of you. I welcome all your prayers that you gave me this morning. By praying for me and giving these prayers to me, I can give them to God and my Son to help end this war in Yugoslavia. You must go on praying more. Through prayers the war can end quicker than you might expect.”

I know through my heart that the Holy Spirit came upon everyone of you to be here this morning and that is why you are here. Our Lady thanks you all for praying. She said, “Pray, pray, pray. This is the place to pray. That is why I come here.”

#21 November 17, 1991

Our Lady is here. She wants us to pray the Rosary, to pray the whole 15 decades. She's going to remain here. She is satisfied and pleased to see you praying here. She said,

“I accept every prayer here. The people are beautiful out here praying.”

#22 November 18, 1991

Our Lady came here on the first Hail Mary of the fifth mystery. It was the second Hail Mary when some of you saw me confused. That was because she was trying to tell me something, but then she told me a little later on. She came dressed in white with a short little cape on. The cape was all gold in the front, like a strip of gold. The crown was above her. The stars were lit with beautiful lights, and gold trimmed her forehead around the crown part. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. We must have the whole world convert. We must also call upon the world to find salvation. We have little time.”

I don't know when the time is going to be. I'm going to keep trying to ask her when it is going to be. I know she had said before that God is the only one that knows when the end will come - not even the angels or anybody can tell us that, only God. At this point I tried to ask her why she said that we have little time. She answered,

“Time is running out and we must think a little more. Pray the Rosary more fervently.”

That's why I got confused on the second Hail Mary. I was trying to answer her by saying that we are trying our best, but maybe, we are not trying hard enough. We've got to go on and pray the Rosary. She asked for the Rosary to be prayed three times a day- the whole 15 decades. She also reminded us that the reason we are here together is because the Holy Spirit came upon us. She also spoke about St. Michael. She said,

“If you are ever in trouble, call for St. Michael. And as you go on in life, remember our wonderful children. I will do everything to protect these little ones that are still here. I bless them all and each and every one of you.”

#23 November 20, 1991

Our Lady appeared during our fifth mystery again. I answered her at the end because she came with her Son and her Son was on the cross. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Look at my Son on the cross. (Let them all know that my Son is suffering very, very much today and everyday).<sup>1</sup> The whole world must come to conversion. Everyone must find salvation before it's too late.”

<sup>1</sup> Jesus Christ does not physically suffer in any way. Jesus can suffer in His mystical body, the Church. The “suffering” referred to in the quoted text is a mourning for souls or the loss of souls that plunges Him into bitter grief. This grief is caused by His great love for creatures that reject His love for all eternity. As Pope Pius XII stated in his encyclical on the Sacred Heart of Jesus, “His invisible wound of love.”

#24 November 21, 1991

I just talked to Our Lady. She welcomes every one of you here. She will give her blessing to you. After she said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus,” all of a sudden there came a beautiful illuminated light from a door. The door opened and Jesus was standing at the doorway welcoming those that are coming into Heaven. She said, “Pray, pray, pray more fervently than you ever did before!”

Help me to be able to pray for her. This was a message for me to tell you that we must go on praying more if we are to gain that wonderful doorway to Heaven.

#25 November 22, 1991

Our Lady came with her Son. She was dressed in blue and her Son was dressed in white. She said to me, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Thank you very much for your sacrifices and your prayers. I want you to know that I will bless you with my motherly blessing.”

Our Lord said,

“Why do you not pray more? Did you not see the pictures of this cross where I have bled? Remember this is a holy place.”

In answer to questions from the crowd, Joe responded:

She was very sad, very sad looking and downhearted. That's the second time I've seen her get so down, very sad looking.

I will tell you she is a very, very beautiful lady. She looks about 18 years old. She is approximately, I would say, about 5' 4" tall. She has very beautiful, blue eyes. She has black hair. When she looks at me, her eyes penetrate and focus right straight at me. It's like a line that comes right at you.

She'll pray the Our Father and the Glory Be, but she'll stand there and wait and listen to you people say the Hail Mary.

#26 November 23, 1991

Our Lady was here. I just spoke to her. She came dressed in gray this morning. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I come here this morning as Queen of Peace. I ask the whole world for conversion and I will bless each and everyone of you with my motherly love.”

#27 November 24, 1991

It was right after the fifth mystery that Our Lady spoke. She was dressed in white.

She said,

“Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I invite you to listen to me, especially those who have very difficult times trying to be with God.

I am blessing each and every one of you. I desire to help you and for you to be under my motherly mantle. I invite you to decide for Paradise. It is very difficult for those who have not decided for God.”

#28 November 25, 1991

As you know Our Lady told me that she will be here everyday and she will pray the Rosary. The only thing she does pray is the Our Father and the Glory Be. She never says the Hail Mary. We're the ones that do the Hail Marys for her. She had said that she wants more conversion. There are many people out there who need to be converted. It's our prayers that are going to try to help them. She's also asking us for more prayers, penance that we must do. She asked that we must go to confession at least once a month. And she repeated to me again that I must go on and read this message she gave me yesterday. Most of you that had been here heard the message and I will read it again.

“Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I invite you to listen to me especially those who have very difficult times trying to be with God. I am blessing each and every one of you. I desire to help you and for you to be under my motherly mantle. I invite you to decide for Paradise. It is very difficult for those who have not decided for God.”

#29 November 28, 1991 - Thanksgiving Day

Thank you all for being here this morning. I really didn't realize that we were going to have this many here this morning on Thanksgiving Day. But as you know Our Lady is here. She will always be here as long as we do keep on coming. If not, I will always be here. Our Lady this morning came dressed in blue, completely blue. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Thank you for your sacrifices this morning. Thank you for all your wonderful, little children that are here. Thank God for all that we have.”

#30 November 29, 1991

Our Lady was dressed in gray and white. She said,

“Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. We must continue to pray more continuously because Satan is trying to destroy us. If we continue to pray, Satan will never harm us. Keep clear and away from the devil. Be here by Our Lord, Jesus Christ. Be closer to His Heart.”

#31 November 30, 1991

She spoke during the fifth Mystery of the Joyful Rosary. She was dressed in gray. She had a white, little, short veil on. She said,

“I send my peace to all of you. Share it with other people throughout the world. I thank you for being here this morning, for your sacrifices, and for your prayers.”

#32 December 1, 1991

Our Lady was dressed in gray with a beautiful, white veil. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. You must pray constantly. I am praying with you. I will bless every one of you here this morning. Be on guard.”

Now that is something we have to think about.

#33 December 2, 1991

Our Lady this morning came dressed in gray and a white veil. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I truly am the Mother of God. Continue to pray fervently. Desire to be closer to God. You must earn your way to Heaven.”

#34 December 4, 1991

3 degrees - wind chill factor 27 below

Our Lady is with us even if it's cold or not. Today she said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I prayed the Our Father and the Glory Be to the Father for each and every one of you. I wish that with your whole life you would show your love for all people. Do what Jesus has told you to do when He died and gave His love for all of you.”

#35 December 5, 1991

Before Our Lady spoke today, she didn't move very much. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Devote three hours of your time to prayer. Try to do it throughout the whole day. Holy Mass and the prayers of our Rosary are allowed in the prayers of the three hours.”

#36 December 6, 1991

This morning she came dressed in gray. She welcomed each and every one of you here on this cold day. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Pray to recognize God's will for all of us here on this earth. Live God's will. I will pray for the sick who are present here. Pray the St. Michael prayer each and everyday. It means much to each and everyone of you.”

#37 December 7, 1991

Our Lady was very, very happy and pleased with all of you being here today. She came dressed in white with her gold crown and beautiful gold trimmings along her little cape that she wore. She came with two, little angels. The two, little angels I will remind you again were very small. They have very small wings. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. You must lead a simple life. Consecrate yourselves to Our Lord, Jesus Christ, and to my Immaculate Heart. Recite the Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary. I invite you to convert and to go to confession once a month.”

She was very happy. She was very pleased.

Note: The smell of roses was very strong today and lasted through the blessing of the people.

#38 December 8, 1991

I'm elated over the crowd that's here. During the fifth mystery, Our Lady spoke to me and said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I am the Mother of God. I am the Blessed Virgin Mary and I come here before all of you. Peace, peace be with God and the whole world. It is time for you to choose the Light of the World or the Prince of Darkness. Peace or new catastrophes will affect the whole world.”

#39 December 9, 1991

Our Lady stayed with us for the whole Rosary. She came dressed in blue this morning. Usually she comes dressed in white, but she was in blue this morning. She said,

“I was with my dying Son when He died on the cross and I was alone. Only a few were with me to console me. So please continue to pray and pray at the cross here like you do each and every day. Offer your prayers for my Immaculate Heart.”

#40 December 11, 1991

Today she came dressed in blue again. She said,

“Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I am the Queen of Peace. I invite all priests to believe more firmly and to guide the faithful. Prayer is our priority. More prayers are needed each and every day so that there can be peace here on this earth.”

#41 December 12, 1991

Today she came dressed in gray and white with a white veil and gray dress. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Today I invite you to works of mercy. I will accept your sacrifices and prayers to God. I am the Mother of God and I will always be with you. Trust in me.”

#42 December 13, 1991

She came dressed in blue just like the sky. She said,

“Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I ask all of you today to pray for conversion. You do not pray enough. Peace will not come upon this earth because we are living in turmoil and unrest. If we don't pray enough, there will be chastisements. I am your Motherly Mother.”

#43 December 14, 1991

She was here dressed in blue. Her message was that she asked us to continue to pray. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. It is through prayer we can avoid war and can have the peace that we need throughout the world. I need your prayers more desperately than ever before. I thank you for being here this morning. I know there is a lot of wind, a lot of cold. Thank you for being here.”

#44 December 15, 1991

She was dressed in blue again. She only gave a short message today. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I invite you to peace. We must attain peace among ourselves and our families. Peace will rule the world.”

#45 December 18, 1991

Our Lady was here. She still continues to dress in blue and today she asks that we continue to pray prayers for her special intentions. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I look forward each and every day for your prayers coming to me. I need much more prayers coming to me from all of you. I am your Motherly Mother.”

#46 December 19, 1991

This morning she came dressed in gold. I think this is a sign of something very important. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I welcome every one of you here this morning. I ask for your commitment to prayer. Continue to pray for peace that we need throughout the whole world.”

That was her short message. But she dressed in gold. It was just beautiful to see how she floated around here.

#47 December 20, 1991

Her message this morning was,

“Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. This is a critical time in your lives. You must continue to pray for peace throughout the world. Without peace you have no hope. With peace you can have hope with your prayers.”

#48 December 21, 1991

I prayed for all of you that are sick here today, that are not feeling well. I asked the Blessed Mother to pray over all of you. This morning she came dressed in white. A most beautiful sight to see. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I am telling you that peace has not come about. There is much unrest and turmoil that is plaguing the earth. I am your Mother and I will continue to be your Mother. I will pray for all of you.”

#49 December 22, 1991

This morning she came dressed in blue. Her message was,

“Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I call you to prayer. Let your prayer be the light of God. For those who have gone astray, may they be converted.”

#50 December 23, 1991

She was dressed in blue. She was very joyful and very happy and she asked that we renew family prayer. As she departed, she went by the light of the cross and she said in her own words,

“Peace be with each and everyone of you.”

#51 December 25, 1991

Our Lady is here with three, beautiful angels. She is dressed in white and gold and she is holding her wonderful, little child in her arms. She had her little baby in her left arm walking around each one of you to show her wonderful gratitude for all of you being here. Her message today was,

“Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Rejoice, rejoice with me. Joy is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit. Remember Jesus Christ. I will pray a special prayer for all of you. I will give you a multitude of blessings for each and everyone of you. I’m asking you, I beg you to listen to what I say. Many of you are not listening to my messages. We have gone astray somewhere. Come back to the fold. Pray, pray, pray. I am the Mother of God. I am your Mother. I am the Queen of Peace.”

#52 December 26, 1991

Note: Following the Rosary, Joseph turned to the crowd and said, “Where’s that nun at? Oh, there she is.”

Our Lady again as yesterday came dressed in white and gold. She carried her little child again this morning. She had it cradled in her left arm and she came with two angels this time. Our Lady came and appeared over this wonderful nun to show her little baby to her. Our Lady said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Walk the road to peace. To walk the road to Heaven, you must convert, do penance, fast, and go to confession once a month.”

#53 December 27, 1991

She’s dressed in gold and white and she is here with two angels. Today Our Lady said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Our Lord suffered on the cross. Salvation comes to you. What can you do for Him?”

She needs our prayers. She is very, very unhappy this morning because she is in dire need of many prayers from all of us.

#54 December 28, 1991

I think Our Lady surprised me today. Our Lady came dressed in blue today and had her child in her right arm. She asked us to continue to pray for what we have in our hearts and for her. She asked again and again why we are so reluctant to pray. We do not pray enough. She needs more prayers. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. When you go home, continue to pray before the crucifix. Your prayers mean a lot when you pray before my Son. I am the Mother of God. I am the Queen of Peace.”

#55 December 29, 1991

Our Lady was alone today. She came dressed in white. She requested that we continue to pray. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I will pray over each and every one of you. I will bless you. You have many hardships to go through. The wars still continue. They will continue unless you know how to pray. I need your prayers desperately. I am your Mother. I am the Queen of Peace.”

#56 December 30, 1991

Our Lady came dressed in white again. She asked us to continue to pray. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Start praying before the crucifix. Put it in full view in your homes so you will be aware of what Christ has done for you and continues to do for you. This is your salvation. Please continue to pray, pray, pray. I am the Mother of God. I am the Queen of Peace.”

#57 January 1, 1992

She is dressed in white and has a crown on. She wants more prayers from each of us. She wants the seven Our Fathers, seven Hail Mary’s, seven Glory Bes and the Apostle Creed to be offered to her for her special intentions for this coming year. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I will bless each of you for being here today. I am in desperate need of your prayers because of difficulties going on in the world today.”

#58 January 2, 1992

She came dressed in all white and her crown was gold and white. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. If you are distracted, commit yourself to God. Continue to pray from your heart. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

She is looking for more conversions. She is asking for reconciliation, penance and fasting.

#59 January 3, 1992

She is happy this morning. She came dressed in white and wore a veil. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I desire to thank each and every one of you for your prayers and your confidence in me. I wish to give joy to be placed in each and every one of your hearts. I thank you for being here at the cross this morning, this cross that resembles my Son, Jesus Christ. The Rosaries that are in your hands and the prayers that come from them will defeat Satan. I am your Motherly Mother.”

#60 January 4, 1992

She was dressed in white, with a veil, but no crown. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Pray.

Without prayer, we cannot have peace. Continue to pray so we will have peace throughout the whole world. We are lacking in prayer. I am your Mother. I am the Queen of Peace.”

#61 January 5, 1992

She was dressed in white with a little white veil. She welcomed everyone, especially the children. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I have chosen this cross in a special, special way. Each of you will understand my Son’s suffering. Let us remember Him as He was. You are all in my heart. I will bless all of you. Be with me each and every day at this cross and be with my Son. We need you very desperately. There are many complications throughout the world. It is a very difficult situation you are all in. With prayer you can do many things. I need your prayers. I am your mother. I am the Queen of Peace.”

#62 January 6, 1992

She was dressed in white. She said,

“I ask you and I beg you to listen to my messages and to live them. I ask you again to remember to pray as I have asked you so many times before. Please pray at this cross for peace.”

#63 January 8, 1992

She was dressed in white again. She said,

“Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. You must continue to pray. Prayer is what we need from all of you. Decide for God. This is the cross before which you should pray. Pray in front of my Son. If you do this, you will not have wars. You will have peace.”

#64 January 9, 1992

Today Our Lady said,

“Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Continue to pray for priests, bishops, cardinals, and for unity in all the churches throughout the world and in our families. Remember, today is the day to pray more. I need your prayers desperately from each of you. How can I get prayers from you? If you do not know how to pray, I will teach you.”

#65 January 10, 1992

Today she was dressed in white and she was led by three, little angels. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I have given you many graces. I don’t want you to keep them for yourself. You may not have all the things you want, but continue to ask God for them. Pray to God. Let Him know how you feel about Him.”

#66 January 11, 1992

She came dressed in white again and she said,

“Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I call on each of you to judge for yourself that Christ bleeds on this cross. He is my Son. I give Him to each of you that you may understand why He died for us. Remember my Son today and every day.”

#67 January 12, 1992

She was dressed in white with three beautiful angels. They are very small angels with very small wings. I don’t know what their faces look like but I know what hers looks like. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I have chosen this cross here in a very, very special way. I am guarding it with love so that each of you will be mine. I request that you come here in greater numbers so that you will be with me and with my Son. I am your Mother. I am the Queen of the Rosary and I am the Queen of Peace.”

She was very strong with her message this morning. She needs many prayers from all of us.

In response to a question asking whether Our Lady was happy with the large crowd today, Joe said, “She sure was. She smiled with gleam. She does not laugh. She’s got a great, big smile.”

#68 January 13, 1992

She was dressed in white with the three angels. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. The cross here is a sign of mercy. I beg you to pray more strongly. You must have your spirit with your faith. I am still your Mother. Satan does not come here. We keep Satan away from here because this is holy ground. Do you remember the message I gave you yesterday? You are not listening to my messages.”

She is very sad this morning. She says we are not listening to her messages. Remember what she is asking us otherwise she will not give us the messages that we need. I just feel very bad about what she has said to me this morning. Let us try to live what we are doing for her. We need much strength. I’m asking her tonight to give us the strength we need because Satan is doing everything he can to keep us doing the wrongs. This is why we must pray for our priests. She has asked me so many times to pray for our priests because they are not living up to their vocations. That is why I am praying so hard that these priests will come back and live their vocations. Let us do our part to make them come back. We need them. Please, listen to Our Lady’s messages or she will not give them to me. I told her so many times that I want to share the messages that she gives me.

#69 January 15, 1992

She was dressed in gray with three angels today. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I have given you many, many messages, but today I beg you really, truly, and honestly that I want you to pray. We need your prayers. We need your help. The world today is getting vicious and we must do something about it. It is our prayers that will help.”

#70 January 16, 1992

-4 degrees, wind chill -20 or more

She was dressed in gold and came all by herself today. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Listen to my prayers. I need you very much and desperately. I need you to continue to pray for me and to pray for all throughout the whole world. We know that you are here praying. I give you my special blessing for coming out here today standing in this cold.”

#71 January 17, 1992

She was dressed in gray today. She brought two angels with her. She will bless you for being here this morning. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. The time has come to beg you to listen to my messages and to live them so that I can be with you and guard you. I wish for you to continue to pray here at this cross so that we can have peace here on this earth. I am your Mother. I am the Queen of the most holy Rosary.”

She is very grateful for you to spend time with her here.

#72 January 18, 1992

She was dressed in gray and had three angels with her. Please look out for all of us. She is looking for us to be here. She was extending her hands to each of us. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Listen to my prayer. I am praying for each of you. Keep praying for me. Let us have peace in the world with our prayers. We can do it or we cannot do it. America is such a beautiful country. With our prayers we can have the peace we need throughout the world.”

#73 January 19, 1992

She's dressed in blue with a white veil. Three angels are with her. She's waiting for us to pray. She's extending her hands to you. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. You are helping me to fulfill my plans at the foot of this cross with your continued prayers. I am your Mother. I am the Queen of the Rosary.”

She departed in a beautiful glow of light surrounding her and her three, little angels.

#74 January 20, 1992

She was dressed in blue and had three angels with her again. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. You all are my chosen ones in a very special way. If you have any difficulties, do not be afraid. I will love you. I will pray for you each day. I will lead you to perfect holiness. Do not forget to pray with your heart here at this cross. Please pray for my special intentions and for peace throughout the world. I am your Mother. I am the Queen of Peace.”

She gave me a little longer message today. I asked her to cut it down a little so I could remember it for you.

#75 January 22, 1992

She was dressed in gray and white and brought three angels. She was very sad today. She told me Tuesday morning in my home that she is going to cut her messages short and give only one or two a week. She will not abandon us. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children will always be with me. I will be here each day. Be here with me. You are not living my messages.”

You forget her messages. Let us remember these messages. You are not living them. That is why she is cutting them down. She has chosen this place, a respectable place, and a place of prayer. I felt sad when she told me she would limit the messages. We are trying to compile them and put them all together so that I can bring them back and read them to you each day to remember. We must be able to pray here. I ask you with all your heart give your special attention to Our Lady so we can have the great peace we are looking forward to in this world. We are not set free yet. We have many accomplishments yet. It was almost thirty minutes Tuesday that went by when I spoke to her and she spoke to me. We must go on. We must continue to pray more with our hearts. Pray three Rosaries a day. Is that too much from anyone of us? Look how people in other countries how they suffer. Some have to pray in dungeons or in shelters or under homes. Let us think of them too. We are not out of the rut yet. We have much to pray for. She is waiting for us to pray. She wants to protect this cross here. Let her look upon us. After our prayer, she said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Accept and live my messages with seriousness so that your souls can be free.”

#76 January 23, 1992

She is dressed in gray with a white veil. Three angels are with her. Let us not hold up Our Lady. She is telling us she is going to guard this cross. After our prayers, she said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I am calling you to the way of salvation with God. Please do not be afraid. I will not abandon you.”

#77 January 24, 1992

She is looking for our prayers. Do you remember the Christmas message?

Our Lady had four angels, two on each side, today. She was dressed in white and blue. She told me she would not abandon us.

#78 January 25, 1992

Snowy day

She came with two angels. She was dressed in blue and white. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Do not be afraid. I will not abandon you.”

We are not living and spreading her messages. That is what she is asking us. She will bless you all for being here on this snowy day. The children who led the fifth mystery will receive a double blessing.

#79 January 26, 1992

She is dressed in white and has three angels with her. She welcomes you and will bless you all after the Rosary.

Our Lady instructs us to do reconciliation, to do penance, and much conversion has to be done. She is telling us to please pray. We need many prayers. Our Lord will save the world if we continue to pray. If not, punishment will come to all of us. The world will be chastised like never before.

Listen to these messages. You must listen if the world is to be saved. Live the messages. If we don't live them, we will suffer the consequences. I hope you have understood these messages.

This is the crucifix I received from Vicka. As Our Lady stands above you, receive her blessings. She wants to bless these children for leading the fifth mystery.

#80 January 27, 1992

Our Lady is here waiting. She is dressed in blue and white. She has three angels with her. Every time I see these angels, I think how they are so small, not like you people. She told us to continue our prayers. She will watch over us. She will not abandon us. As you know, she is cutting down on her messages to us. She only wanted to give us one message a week, but I coaxed her into two.

#81 January 29, 1992

Our Lady gave me a message last night at Our Lady of Lebanon Church. I went into the chapel and received the message. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. It is critical and necessary to do penance. If people amend their lives, our Lord can save the world. The Lord will chastise the world as never before. There is a need of reflection from all generations upon the existence of Hell. Many (1) marriages do not please the Lord and are not of God. Pray for conversion. I wish to protect you and have you in my heart. Each day that goes by Satan is trying to destroy you. That's why I ask each of you to pray even harder. I am you Mother. I am the Queen of the Holy Rosary."

(1) Our Lady clarified message #81 by saying the word "many" should be added.

We must pray even harder. I am grateful for all of you being here and praying for her. She is here dressed in blue and white with three angels. When we pray here, pray with reverence. She would rather have one good Rosary with meditation than three not said from the heart.

#82 January 30, 1992

Our Lord is here with the Blessed Mother. They are both dressed in white. It is gorgeous to see Him here beside His Mother. Let us begin our prayers.

As our Lord was here next to his Mother, our Lord said to his Mother,

"Bless all of these people who are here this morning."

#83 January 31, 1992

Our Lady is here dressed in gray and white and with two angels.

She asks us to be with her, trust in her, and have the faith that we need. (After prayers) She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I will not abandon you. Do not be afraid."

#84 February 5, 1992

Our Lady is dressed in gray and white. She has two; little angels and they are what I call little angels. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Priests must be pure, very pure and concern themselves with the Church and souls. Many fashions will be introduced. I ask for modesty in dress. The sins of flesh will take most souls to Hell. Think about it. Do what I tell you. Many souls will be saved and there will be peace."

#85 February 9, 1992

She is dressed in blue and white. She has two, little angels with her. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Read the Bible everyday in your home. Put it in a place where it will remind you to pray. Read the book of Revelation. I am your Mother and I want you to be closer to God, the Father. I am very sad because my heart bleeds for many conversions. I am your Motherly Mother. Please listen to my messages. We are still far apart."

#86 February 12, 1992

Our Lady is here this morning with one angel. She's dressed in blue and white. I'll tell you one thing. She did keep me up all morning. Almost every hour on the hour until 4:30 A.M. when she finally gave me a message. And during that period of time she kept saying, "Conversion, conversion, conversion, conversion," and then I would fall asleep. I would wake up again and another, "Conversion, conversion, conversion." I'm quite tired but I asked her to let me go on. I will struggle on for anything she wants me to do. At 4:30 A.M. she said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. You are responsible for the messages. I call for complete conversion. I say again complete conversion. Do penance and you will be given many graces. Please listen before it is too late. Satan is doing everything to attack you and to destroy you. Listen, I am your Mother."

This morning here at the cross Our Lady said that the children must pray a little better than they have been. But she also said, "You know you started with the Glorious Mystery, Joseph, and it's supposed to be the Joyful." So, I make mistakes, too.

#87 February 13, 1992

Our Lady welcomes all of you today. She is dressed in blue and white. She has two, little angels with her. She is very sad looking, very much so. She's very sad this morning. She has her head down, bowed down, opening her hands to all of you.

#88 February 14, 1992

This morning she brought her Son with her. They are both dressed in white, and she has her crown on her. It's a beautiful crown. It's all lit up.

After the prayers, they looked at each other, and Christ said that He would do the blessing this morning. So He is blessing all of you.

#89 February 16, 1992

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I beg all of you to listen to my messages. They are very important to all of you. If you listen to my messages, we will have peace on this earth. If you do not, there will be much chastisements. I am your Mother, and I will always be your Mother. I love each and every one of you. Please, please listen to my messages and abide by them. Read the book of Revelation if you have not read it. Do it now!"

#90 February 19, 1992

She is dressed in white and has one, little angel. He's dressed in gray. The one thing she asked me this morning was to pray for our Pope. Each and every morning we will begin to pray for our Pope. Last night at 11:30 P.M. she said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Live my messages. We are living in an unfaithful world. Open your hearts to God. Report them (her messages) to whomever you meet. I will bless you. I will bless you with God's blessing. I am the Queen of Peace."

#91 February 21, 1992

Our Lord came and appeared with our Blessed Mother and the four angels. So He is going to bless each and every one of you. Our Lord came during the Rosary and Our Lady was very pleased to see Him along side of her.

Answer to a question - He just looked at the crowd and He was just joyful. He is always in white. That I have noticed.

#92 February 22, 1992

Our Lady just said a few words to me. She was very happy that you all were here. She's going to give all of you a wonderful, special blessing. That's what she said, a special blessing.

#93 February 23, 1992

Our Lady is dressed in white. She has two, little angels with her. She said, "Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My Priests, pray the Rosary. Give time to the Rosary. I ask you to pray here at the foot of the cross that peace may come over this world and that God may pour abundant gifts into your hearts. I am calling you to give the gift to others with love and not to keep it for yourselves. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace."

#94 February 24, 1992

Our Lady is here in gray and white. She has two, little angels with her. I have a surprise for you. Our Lord came also here in the presence of all of you. And this time Our Lord and Our Lady are going to bless all of you, both of them.

#95 February 26, 1992

I received this message last night at 11:15 P.M. Our Lady said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Through this cross God is being glorified in every man, woman and child. I have chosen this cross in a special way and I intend to lead it to each and every one of you so that there can be many conversions and monthly confessions. I am giving you these messages, please begin to know them. I am your Motherly Mother.

#96 March 1, 1992

As you know Our Lady is here with us. She is dressed in blue and white, and she has three, little angels with her today. She gave me her message at 2:30 A.M. this morning. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I ask you all to do something a little extra during this Lenten season - to repent and come to conversion by reconciliation, by making a good confession, and to do penance. I am calling you to love your neighbors and to love those people from whom the evil is coming to you, and so in the power of love, you will be able to judge the intentions of heart. Pray and love, dear children. In the power of love you can do even those things that seem impossible to you. I ask you to reflect on my Son's sufferings during the Lenten season. I want you to know that I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace, and I will bless you all with my motherly heart."

She also gave me an answer to a question about general confession. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. General confession (2) is a no, no. You must be able to go privately to a priest to confess your sins so the priest can absolve all of your sins, give you absolution, and tell you your penance. I am giving you this message because Satan is trying to destroy you. He wants all of you for himself."

(2) Our Blessed Mother clarified the message #96 when asked by Joseph. She said "General Absolution" could be used in place of "General Confession."

#97 March 4, 1992

She's here. She's dressed in gray and white, and she has three, little angels with her. Our Lady gave me a little gesture here. Upon standing here above you people here in this area, she was looking at the cross. And she said, "Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Would you please reflect on my Son's suffering during the Lenten season?"

I was called to come back here yesterday afternoon at approximately 3:00 P.M. There were only a few people when I came here. Our Lady gave me this message:

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Renounce all passions and inordinate desires during this Lenten season. Avoid television, particularly evil programs, excessive sports, the unreasonable enjoyment of food and drink. Difficulties will persist. Banish from your heart, hatred, bitterness, and preconceived judgment. Pray for your enemies. I am always in your presence. Continue to live my messages. I love you very dearly. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace."

#98 March 5, 1992

Our Lady gave me a little, short message. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Don't be afraid. I am with you always."

#99 March 8, 1992

She is very beautifully dressed this morning. She's dressed all in white, beautiful white. She has two, little angels, one on each side of her. She gave me her message last night, March 7th, at 8:00 P.M. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. O pastors of the world, O ministers of the world, heed me now or face the heavy hand of my Son, alone, without my grace to protect you. You have changed the Church of my Son so that no longer is the Mass of nowadays the same Mass that my Son instituted upon your earth when He was among you. (3) I warned you. I warned you many times in the past to beware of changes which served no purpose. And now you even persecute those we send to you who tell of our commanding wish for the Church to again be made the Church of my Son. I tell you now, O religious leaders of the world, you have become unfaithful to Heaven's providence. I am your Mother, Queen of the Rosary.

(3) Our Blessed Mother clarified the message #99 when asked by Joseph. She said, "Many priests have been taking exceptions which are contrary to what the Church teaches as well as contrary to what my Son Jesus instituted."

#100 March 11, 1992

Our Lady is here. She's dressed in all blue, and she has two angels with her. She gave me her message last night, March 10th, at 10:30 P.M. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I have given warning after warning to mankind. Does he heed me? NO. Accept and learn by these warnings from Heaven. Your country, the United States of America which is consecrated to my Immaculate Heart, has in the past been spared these most grievous trials that have been upon mankind for many years now. The Father Almighty is a just God, but He is also an angry God; this being because mankind has gone too far. He (mankind) does not listen. Faith must be used to see the truth of the messages I give you."

#101 March 12, 1992

The Blessed Mother has a little surprise for us. She brought her Son with her this morning. They only have the two of them - no angels this morning. He is dressed in white. She is dressed in blue. Her Son is going to bless you.

#102 March 15, 1992

And I'll tell you she is beautiful this morning. She is dressed in white and two; beautiful angels are also dressed in white. She gave me her message at 1:30 A.M. this morning. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. To all who condone abortion hear me now, for I tell you of your future. If you do not turn back now, mankind seeks a terrible chastisement from his God. Abortion is strictly murder. Mankind is murdering the Holy Innocents of today. God the Father gave this command long ago, Thou shalt not kill. Why does mankind seek this wrath of the Father and my Son upon your earth? I tell you now why mankind does not believe me when I warn him. It is because mankind has become debased to the point of being worse than during the times of the cities of sin - Sodom, Gomorrah and Atlantis. (4) Please listen and pay attention to my messages. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace."

And to these children that are here: one thing she mentioned. Do you know the Memorare? You must get to know the Memorare. She said that is very important to her.

(4) Our Blessed Mother clarified the message #102 when asked by Joseph. Our Lady told Joseph to look in his dictionary (American Dictionary 1989) and write the description of the word Atlantis.

Atlantis is a myth. A traditional story originating in a preliterate society, dealing with supernatural beings, ancestors of heroes that serve as primordial types in a primitive view of the world. Myths bring the unknown into relation with the known, a body of such stories told among a given people, a mythology all such stories collectively. For many writers myth is a common denominator between poetry and religion. Any real or fictional story, recurring theme or character type that appeals to the consciousness of a people by embodying its cultural ideals or by giving expressions to deep, commonly felt emotions; the Oedipal myth, one of fictitious or half truths forming part of the ideology of a society and fictitious imaginary story. A motion based more on tradition or convenience than on fact; a received idea. Without such uncertainty we are left with a set of dogmas and myths.

For further understanding, especially about Sodom and Gomorrah, Our Lady also suggested reading the book of Genesis - Chapter 1 to 50.

#103 March 16, 1992

Our Lady came dressed in gray and white with three angels, and the angels are dressed in gray today. Our Lady thanks every one of you for being here. She thanks you for all your prayers. She accepts them, but she says she needs much more.

#104 March 18, 1992

Our Lady is quite sad this morning. She is dressed in blue and white. She has one angel with her. I know she is quite sad because I talked to her this morning at 6:15 A.M., and then she gave me this message. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I wish for you to be active in living and transmitting the messages. Especially I desire you to be the reflection of Jesus who enlightens an unfaithful world which is walking in darkness. You are not called to darkness. I call you to Light and to live the Light in your lives. I am your Motherly Mother, the Queen of Peace.”

I really do not know what to say about Our Lady, but today she wept quite a bit. When she was here this morning, I will guarantee you she wept bitterly for what unknown reason.

#105 March 19, 1992

Our Lady is dressed in gold, all gold and the crown is white. She is with three angels. They are all in white. I do have a message and it's a response about her weeping. I did not know why she was weeping so profusely yesterday morning when I was talking to her. She gave the reply at 6:45 A.M. this morning. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. The souls in Purgatory are extremely lonely, and the only time they can see us on earth is during those moments when we pray for them. You must pray for them because they have terrible sufferings. They cannot pray for themselves. They are quite helpless and depend on our prayers to be freed from their sufferings. Help these souls. I ask you for your prayers. I am your Mother, the Queen of the Rosary.”

Our Lady was smiling about the children that are down here especially two of these that were playing here. She came over here and enjoyed watching them, how they were playing here by themselves, and there were two, little children over here. I don't know where they went to. It was during the second mystery that Our Lady came upon them, and she blessed those two, little children, the same with these two here and one over there. She blessed them with a special blessing.

She's in gray and white and has one angel today, all in gray. Our Blessed Mother hovered over this wonderful girl that I am praying for. She is a totally blind person, and I'm asking Our Lady that somehow the Lord can come upon her and open her eyes so she can see. This morning at 3:35 A.M. she said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Again, I am calling you to a complete surrender to God. I have made reference to this many times. Do what I ask you, but you seek God only when sickness, problems and difficulties come to you. And to think God is far from you and is not listening and does not hear your prayers, that is not the truth. When you seem to be far from God, you cannot receive graces because you do not seek them with a firm faith. I am praying for you each day so you can be ever close to God. Put your life in God's hands. Pray and let the Rosary always be in your hands as a sign to Satan that you belong to me. I will bless each and every one of you. Continue to listen to my messages. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace and Queen of the Rosary.”

We have a little surprise. She is dressed in white, completely white and she has four angels with her this morning. Two are on each side of her and the angels are also in white. And I would let you know that I was awakened this morning. I did not receive any message, but she wanted me to come to the cross here this morning. I was here early this morning as the gate opened so I could be here. I had one lady that was here with me. She came here and prayed alongside of me. And Our Lady gave me the message here at the crucifix this morning at 6:55 A.M. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I keep calling you to that love which is loyal and pleasing to God. Love bears everything bitter and difficult for the sake of Jesus through His love. Keep praying so that God can help you not according to your desires but according to His love, complete surrender to God so that He may heal you and forgive everything inside of you which is of hindrance on the way of love. Let the whole world get to know the God of Joy. Bear witness for God's joy. Do not be anxious or worried. God will help you and show you the way. I desire you to love all people with my love so that way love will reign over the whole world. Never cease praying so that Satan cannot take advantage of you. Pray, pray. I bless you with blessings of joy. Remember, I am your Blessed Mother."

#108 March 28, 1992

She came dressed in blue and white and had one, little angel with her. I want you to know that Our Lady was weeping above here. And she wept because she was so happy about the way the children said the Rosary. She's very happy.

#109 March 29, 1992

Our Lady this morning is dressed in blue and white. She has a short, little veil on her, and she's with two, little angels. Last night at 10:30 P.M. she said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Be prudent because the devil tempts all those who made a resolution to consecrate themselves to God, most particularly those people. He will suggest to them that they are praying very much, they are fasting too much, that they must be like other young people and go in search of pleasures. Have them not listen to him nor obey him. It is to the voice of the Blessed Virgin that they should pay attention when they will be strengthened in their faith. The devil will no longer be able to seduce them. Pray very much for our priests and for those who are responsible for the Church. You must strive to pray. Prayer is the only road which leads to peace. Please listen to my messages. I am giving you every opportunity to gain confidence in yourselves so you can know that God loves you. I am the Queen of Peace.

#110 April 1, 1992

She is dressed in gray and white, and she has three angels today, and they are dressed in gray. I wondered if you knew what happened on the 2nd mystery. I paused, didn't I? There was something there. The Visitation - wasn't it? And that Visitation was a surprise because the Lord, Jesus Christ, came here also with an angel. There was a total of four angels and the Mother and Christ. He is blessing all these children and the grown-ups, and Our Lady will also bless all of you. This morning she gave me a message at 2:00 A.M. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. God is granting special graces in prayer. Seek and pray in order that you may be able to understand all that I am giving you in this place. I ask you to pray with your heart. Without prayer you cannot comprehend all that God is planning through each one of you. And so I ask each of you to continue to pray that God's plan be fulfilled that all that God has given you in your hearts may increase. Pray that God's blessing may protect every one of you from all the evil that is threatening you. I am blessing each and every one of you. Please remember, I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#111 April 5, 1992

She is dressed in blue with two angels. She gave me a message last night at 9:20 P.M. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I call you to live the Holy Mass. There are many of you who have noticed the beauty of the Mass. There are some who come unwillingly. Listen, dear children, I have chosen you because Jesus is giving you His graces in the Holy Mass. Let us live conscientiously the Holy Mass. Let everyone coming to Holy Mass be joyful. You should have great love and accept Holy Mass so that He may pour abundant gifts into your hearts. I am calling you to live in humility all my messages. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#112 April 6, 1992

She's dressed in blue, completely blue, and she has one angel with her. Our Lady was very happy yesterday, but today she is very, very sad. In fact, towards the end of the Rosary that we were praying here, she began tearing. And I asked her why she was tearing, and she said because of the changing world. She said the devil is concentrating on every one of us, trying to destroy us. I just asked her why is this happening like this. And she said it's because of us, because we are not praying enough. We are not listening to her messages. She stressed that very thoroughly — messages. Are you listening to my messages or not?

#113 April 8, 1992

Our Lady came today dressed in gray and white and she had two little angels with her. I have received the message last night but I have to get it confirmed by asking her what does she mean by all this that she had given me. I don't know if it was for my own personal use or that I may give it to all of you. But first I will talk to her and ask her what does she mean by all this message that she gave me. So I will not have this message to read because I want to read it back to her and ask her why did she put it in this perspective. So we want to wait until tomorrow.

(After the Rosary) I asked Our Lady about the message I was supposed to read this morning. You know what she said? She said that message was for yourself. She said I will have a message for you to read tomorrow, and you can read some of that, but I will let you know how I want you to read it to the people tomorrow morning, but she said that was a message for yourself.

#114 April 9, 1992

Today she is dressed in gray and white, and she has three, little angels with her. I did receive the message last night at 11:45 P.M.

I had a long, long conversation with her in regards to the first message that she gave which was only entirely for myself. I realize what had to be done, and then she also spoke about the condition that's going on in Yugoslavia (now the newly-formed republics). She said it's very, very, very, bad. She said we must go on praying for those people. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I, your Mother, wish to encourage you to begin to pray with the heart. I say this: prayer is necessary to today's human being for today's world. I said many times do not pray just with your lips. I need your prayers in a very special way because I have great plans. This time is a time of special graces. I am extending happiness to each of you and to give you the peace you need. You need this peace. It is especially for your families and the whole world where hatred exists. Keep your Rosary always in your sight because Satan is in everyone's midst. Follow my instructions and live my messages. Teach children how to pray the Rosary. Pray constantly for the deceased. To convert the unbelievers, pray for them daily and do penance for them. Prepare yourselves for great persecution and new sacrifices. Humanity's only hope is to obey my messages. If mankind takes the first step back to God, I will help you the rest of the way. I will always be your Mother, the Queen of Peace."

#115 April 12, 1992

Our Lady is here today and to my surprise she has four angels with her, and they are dressed in gray. She is dressed in gray and white. She did give me the message this morning at 6:00 A.M. It's quite a big message, and also she is asking us to continue to pray. She needs more prayers from all of us, all the people standing here at the foot of the cross. This is the greatest place to be at this time. She said to just look at her Son. That was her words as I was standing here at the cross. She said,

"Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I thank you in the name of my Son, Jesus, for everything you have done on my behalf recently for the sacrifices you have offered these past few weeks. I desire sacrifices from you in order that I may help you drive Satan away from you. I appeal to you once again, offer sacrifices to God with a special veneration. You must realize that Satan exists. He is destroying everything in his path, creating diversions among priests and is responsible for obsessions and murder. You must protect yourselves against these things through fasting and prayer. Even now he is beginning to lose power and has become aggressive. Have your Rosary in your hands more now than ever before. Help me and I will pray to my Son Jesus for you, so that through me God can lead you to the depths of spiritual life. Don't be afraid because I am with you even if you think there is no way out, and you think Satan is in control. I am bringing peace to you. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace. I will bless you with the blessings of joy so that God may be everything in your life. I am your Mother, Queen of the Rosary."

#116 April 15, 1992

Our Lady is here today. She is dressed in gray and white. She has three angels with her. And she said this morning, "Look at my Son. Look at my Son." She gave me her message last night at 11:30 P.M. She said, "Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Families are divided. There is no unity within the families. Pray to your Guardian Angels. They are beside you always. Pray to them for guidance and protection from the evil spirits which are all about you. Not enough pray the Rosary. There must be a complete reversal of the new trends in the Church in which the weapon I gave mankind, the most Holy Rosary, is being ignored. It must be prayed everyday. Not only one Rosary must be said - no - but all three mysteries consisting of fifteen decades because there are many upon your earth who may make-up for those who refuse to pray the Rosary. Remember, my Son seeks for souls to enter His kingdom. I ask you to remember my messages. I pray for you, and I will bless each and every one of you. I am your Motherly Mother, the Queen of Peace."

#117 April 17, 1992

Our Lady is very pleased with the enormous crowd we have here this morning, and she hopes you will pray the Rosary, the Sorrowful Mysteries, and offer them to her for her special intentions. She is completely dressed in blue, completely all in blue. She has three, little angels with her.

Our Lady asks you to stand or kneel for the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary upon all of her shrine sights and vigil grounds. She asks you to pray during this set of five Sorrowful Mysteries in total concentration. She gave me her message this morning at 6:00 A.M. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. The dishonor given me upon earth I can take, but you will not dishonor my Son. He died for your sins. O Mankind, you will either honor Him, or you will suffer the consequences of not remembering the Passion, Agony and Death of my Son, the Lord Jesus on High. He died for you. Now, remember Him. There will be many, heavy, thick thorns on the shallow, narrow road to Heaven. Only upon the wide, open, deep road there are no thorns present. The open road leads to the abyss. I have given many of these messages before, but many are not listening. I ask you to be strong. There are many sacrifices that you can make. I say this because Satan is trying to grasp each and everyone of you. I am with you and my desire is to protect you from the evil one. I am the Mother of God. I pray for you. I am the Queen of Peace.”

Easter Sunday

Our Lady gave me a great surprise this morning. She is here with St. Michael, five wonderful, little angels and herself, all dressed in white. All of them are dressed in white. And St. Michael said to me, “Rejoice, rejoice! The Lord has risen! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!”

Our Lady says before you start praying with me, look within your heart to find all your enemies. Forgive one another. Forgive everybody. Recommend them to the Father with joy on this beautiful and eventful day. Pray for them. Then wish them a great blessing, joy, and great love. This morning she gave me her message at 6:30 A.M. She said, “Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I do not distinguish between a believer and non-believer or any religion. * I will not deny anyone. Every one of you are my children. Everybody who seeks the truth wants to love and be loved. Everybody should be redeemed and the ransom has been given to you. I wish you would grasp the idea that we are all brothers and sisters, that we are all children of God, sons and daughters of God. Faith is not what we think it is but what God sees and thinks. I expect that there will be evil spirits attacking this cross with slander and lies. There is too much goodness and power here for Satan to take it, but you and your faith are so strong because your fasting and prayers are the best way to exorcize the devil. That is the sign that Satan has no power here. Please live my messages and hear them. I am your Heavenly Mother, the Queen of Peace.”

Our Lady was very, very pleased and happy and she chose this wonderful priest here. She said,

“This is my beloved priest. I pray for him, and I will give him a special blessing.”

I'll say one more thing. St. Michael came here as I said, and we almost forgot to say the St. Michael prayer. He said, “I come here to protect all of you and you don't even say my St. Michael prayer.”

* Our Blessed Mother clarified the message #118 on 9/20/92. She says that God sees everybody equal. Our Lady says that to distinguish is to recognize as being different or pick out difference of being alike. We are not to judge these persons.

#119 April 21, 1992 10:50 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Thank God for these wonderful months that I have been with you and thank you for breaking through the fear in coming in these numbers. I say there will be more coming to this Cross. You are the people who never feared.

Let them fear, those who do not believe in God, who love neither God or Man.

Brothers and sisters, this is my message to you. Not as if you have never known it because we have, my messages have been clear and simple. The air here is full of the Holy Spirit. You must realize that life is worth living. Justice and freedom are in vain and so is prosperity if there is no eternal life. Then everything is a big deceit. It is only a graduation, a test and an examination after which we become really human, eternally happy, one with God. At the end one realizes something is missing. There is no happiness. The soul is empty. That is why people from all over come here to this simplest of all schools of faith. Live my messages. This I ask you because conditions in the world are so corrupt. Abortion, war, and so many killings are going on. We must stop, or chastisement will be more severe than ever before.

I am your Mother, Queen of the Rosary.

#120 April 25, 1992 11:20 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I am with you even if you are not conscious of it. I want to protect you from everything that Satan offers you, and through which he wants to destroy you. As I bore Jesus in my womb, so also, dear children, do I wish to bear you into holiness. God wants to save you and send messages through men, nature, and so many things which can only help you to understand that you must change the direction of your life. Therefore, understand also the Joy of life. Wars would never occur if people would bring their problems to God. Families would live in great peace and great harmony if family members would pray and fast and bring all their problems to God through me, the Blessed Virgin Mary, your Heavenly Mother, the Queen of Peace. I pray with you, and I bless each and everyone of you.

I am the Queen of Peace.

#121 April 28, 1992 11:10 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I am asking for your help to join me, to pray for those who do not believe. You have little charity or love for your neighbors. God gave you the love and showed you how you should forgive and love others. Take your Rosary and pray each and every day. Take your sufferings patiently. Remember how Jesus patiently suffered for you. Let me always be your mother. Unite yourself to God. Do not impose your faith on unbelievers. Show it to them with your example and continue to pray for them. I ask you, my children: pray. Please listen to me. I wish to show you the way that you can reach eternal life. I wish to be your connection to profound faith. Go to Confession monthly. The sacrament of penance is known as the sacrament of God's mercy. Be abandoned to the will of the eternal Father.

I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#122 May 2, 1992 9:00 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My sons among the Priesthood, the hierarchy, why are you not remaining chaste? Have you not all taken the vow of chastity? Why do so many of you defect from your orders and the priesthood in general. I tell you now, once you are a priest of my Son, you are a priest for life. You, who leave your parish and your orders, condemn our children to the wolves. My priests do not leave them behind. Remember, you are my Son's representatives, His shepherds upon earth. Pastors, why do you not pray your Rosaries more often? Have you forgotten the graces enclosed in these beads of prayer? Still there are some blessed and dear to our hearts who do pray these beads, I have given to you all. Promote the Rosary in your churches, the Church of my Son. My children of the world, those who listen to me now, I have begged for prayer so many times, and now many heed my call. Pray always my children in never-ceasing prayer. When you can't pray, or have not enough concentration, or think you are too busy say: "My Jesus I love you, help me in my life." He will hear your prayer and he will bless you for it. My child remember me. I am your Heavenly Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#123 May 5, 1992 10:45 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, you seek to speed the hand of punishment upon you. I cannot hold my Son's hand back from descending much longer. There must be much prayer. The Rosary holds back the warning. You wallow in sin. Come out of the darkness now while you still can. You are under the dark hand of Satan. You must pray and as such, move into the light of my Son, your Lord and God, Jesus Christ. Should you not pray much now? He (Satan) will seek to obtain more control on your world than he already has. He seeks to gain the complete control of the city of the Papal throne, Rome. He seeks to spread his evil errors until everyone in the world will be of the religion of the beast. But pray instead that you will not fall prey to his evil intentions. I am the Mother of God, your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#124 May 10, 1992 7:10 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, your churches of today, what has become of them? You are taught what the truth is, but you do not believe what you are taught. You have not taught my children right. My Pastors, you have not taught any longer of the fires which exist within the afterlife plan of Purgatory. Many no longer believe these places of afterlife. Sadly, because many of those who are among you all, do not believe. They are sinning in many ways, thinking that they will not be punished for their sins. Many, or most of these, will end it all in Hell for their non-repentance for their sins. You are a suitable link in saving souls, my child. There are many who do not believe in you. Many of them are trying now to stop your assistants from sending out my messages to the world, but they are not evil, just because of this, no, they are only confused as to the truth. Pray now, my child, upon your Rosary and I will return to counsel you again. I am the Queen of Peace.

#125 May 13, 1992 11:10 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. You, my children, must restore within the houses of God true discipline of life and procedure. Return to sacrifices and self-denial. You must starve your bodies of the demons, which you have allowed to enter upon you. You cannot partake of the full pleasures of earth, all created for soul destruction, which take you also then to their kingdom.

There is no middle road. The left side is into darkness, and the straight road to the light. My child, how weary I grow as I wander throughout your world shedding many tears. Have you been listening to my messages? I believe I can say no. Listen to them before it is too late. I am your Queen, the Queen of the Rosary.

#126 May 16, 1992 10:25 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, you are coming on the road of a great chastisement. Man has set fast the pace of his own destruction. Out in the world, beyond the farthest star visible to man's eyes, is an instrument planned by the Father for your chastisement. Pray, pray my children. Keep a constant vigilance of prayer now, until the moment of darkness. I have wandered throughout the world for countless earth years warning and preparing you for the chastisement. I have a list of the kinds of sins for which you must make restitution, for the sins that all people are committing this day: infamy, blasphemy, immodesty, worship of false idols, disrespect of authority, infidelity in family, disrespectful dress, rewriting of the words of the prophets, arrogance of the men of God, intellectual pride among the men of God, lack of the true vocations, and lastly, chastity. You will all keep in your hearts the prayer of St. Michael. You will use it for consolation and direction. I am the Queen of Peace.

#127 May 20, 1992 5:00 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Dear children, there must be a sacred mission for all of the priesthood and sacredness for the nuns. Yet, why are many marrying? They were supposed to remain chaste. The nuns were to be the brides of Christ. The priests were to be ambassadors in carrying on the duty of Jesus upon earth. They were supposed to recommit the sacrifice of Jesus at every Mass. They appear chaste, but many are no longer pure. And chastity again in the married state...many have abandoned this for the pleasures of the flesh. Damnation follows this course for all. My children, you are all depressed at this time, but worry thou not. Do not commit what you were believing you would want to commit, for it is Satan who has tempted your heart. You must not stop the messages. They will go through the world, because I believe in you, my children.

Many shall receive the gift of discernment of spirits. It is necessary now for in this fight, the battle against the spirits. It is necessary that you see against the unseen forces of the supernatural, a force of your own. You see a force to beat them by knowing that they are there. I want to remind you again, my children, the leadership in the house of God is much in need. I am the Queen of Peace.

#128 May 23, 1992 11:30 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I, your Mother, must speak to you of the world's situation. At this time, mankind does not realize what dwells about him. The Christian world does not realize. Some of the priests do. Some are good priests, but many have fallen and do not know. They have not followed the truth. They have lost the truth. They have lost the way. Oh, priests of the world, oh, lay people of the world, nuns of the world, listen now for I am warning you of what will happen in the future if you do not turn back now and realize the truth. Your nation once blessed in the truth has become despoiled. I have placed my mantle of blue over your nation, but much of your nation now has fallen. My children, I come to you now with a broken heart. I come to you with a heart of a mother, a mother who is sad for how many children I have lost, and you wonder why I cry great tears. You wonder why, my children, why these tears are from my eyes. Continue to pray. I need your prayers each and every day.

I am your Mother, your Queen of Peace.

#129 May 26, 1992 11:05 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I struggle, my children, to reach you all. I need much help. Many arms are needed. I ask your help and the help of those who have love for my Son. Do not permit those evil infiltrations to desecrate the body of my Son. As you sow, so shall you reap. My Son's house is now infiltrated, my children, with many demons of Hell. Recognize the signs of your times. When a man of God has fallen from grace, he can be blinded to the truth. His way back will be of heavy penance. Seek and you shall find the road back. Travel on the side road and you enter the abyss. Many in the house of God have accepted their blindness. The seat of Peter, all trials coming from the abyss, can enter from the men of perdition. I am the Queen of Peace.

#130 May 30, 1992 4:30 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, I ask you to continue to help the refugees of the war in foreign nations. I speak of the children — children who are homeless, father and motherless. I speak of the children in Africa, Lebanon, Yugoslavia and other such war-torn countries. The parents are killed by shelling and by other means, and the children escape, but to where do they escape? I tell you they escape to hunger, starvation, famine and more war. Can you now stand before my torn, bleeding heart and say to me now, that you — O mothers, fathers, sons, and daughters of America, that you cannot share but a small portion of your small wealth? If your nation would but try the wish of the Father, instead of rebelling and living in luxury while your brother and sisters starve, you would find peace in the world. Remember, I told you all in the past, war is a punishment for man's sins. I have been giving these messages before but you are not listening. Begin to understand my messages. You are all in my heart and I pray and bless you each and every day here at this cross. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#131 May 31, 1992 12:15 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, there are too many errors in the Church of today. Your angels of your churches have not reported good activities to the Father of Heaven. St. Michael's Prayer must be returned after Mass. The holy hours are

#132 June 2, 1992 5:50 P.M. Our Lady of Lebanon Church

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, I now tell you of the knowledge of Satan, some of which is permitted. Remember he too was an angelic warrior of one time. Then he was cast from the choir of archangels for his arrogance. Satan carries great knowledge of the sins of each and every person, but only those, which have not been confessed. Satan will attempt to tempt a person who has sinned and he made by too few, but they are blessed who make them. The Rosary must be allowed for recitation in your churches, or those churches will fall and crack from within, spiritually, not physically. When any guild honoring my name is rebuked, calumniated, or chastised for something done or said justly, these groups shall be doubly blessed. When you tell only the complete truth and no lies, as well as not withholding any truth, and are not believed, a ray of grace shall come and fall upon you. Remember, I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

knows he has under his evil wings. But he will try to tempt more a person who is in the state of grace. He will work his hardest against the person in the state of grace. Do not think that you are free from this temptation, for all will be tempted. As the medals of my Immaculate Conception, the Miraculous Medal, and the St. Benedict are the most powerful medals, after the cloth of the Brown Scapular, are being hammered and tested within the fires of Hell by Satan. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#133 June 2, 1992 6:00 P.M. Our Lady of Lebanon Church

St Michael speaking:

My children, will all of you kindly recite my prayer for the benefit of those who do not know it, and have it restored at the end of each Mass?

The St. Michael Prayer:

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls.

I am St. Michael the Archangel.

#134 June 7, 1992 7:05 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, Jesus is always alone. Go to His feet at the Cross and pray to Him. He is an all-loving God. He has many favors to grant you. The soul who daily recites my Rosary, all fifteen decades — I will, one day before his or her death, come to that soul and embrace that soul in my arms. This soul will also have thus a chance for Confession and a last communion before death. You must all love your neighbors and all mankind as brothers and sisters. This I tell you all, for hatred is a tool of Satan for getting inside of a soul. Many, too many, souls have fallen to Satan through hatred of another of their fellow mankind. So I say again, love your fellow mankind as brothers and sisters. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#135 June 9, 1992 11:35 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, I ask this of you, all on the earth. My children, tell all the peoples of the earth to recite at least five decades of the Rosary a day. Tell all that only through Jesus and me may one obtain Heaven. Through me Jesus came to earth, and through me must come His reign. Accept my love with faith and charity. Tell the world of my goodness to all mankind. All must wear the brown scapular and say the Rosary. Do not be afraid to approach me with many requests for favors. Some I will grant. Console me often with good works and by going to give honor to my Son at church. Make me a place to dwell within your hearts, minds, and souls. I wish to dwell with you. Work with me to form the salvation of at least a soul every day. Honor me by the name of Our Lady of All Holy Titles. Honor me as the Queen of the Universe and of Mankind, and you will gain, if you follow my other requests from here and Fatima, the Kingdom of the Father, the Son, and the Spirit of Life for eternity.

Please remember me. I am the Queen of Peace.

“Dominus Jesus” makes it clear that Jesus is the only savior and redeemer. Mary herself had to be redeemed and saved by him through “anticipated” graces and merits emanating from the paschal mystery.

“Lumen Gentium #60” There is but one Mediator as we know from the words of the apostle, “for there is one God and one mediator of God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself a redemption for all. The maternal duty of Mary toward men in no wise obscures or diminishes this unique mediation of Christ but rather shows its power. For all the salvific power of the Blessed Virgin on men originates, not from some inner necessity, but from the divine pleasure. It flows from the superabundance of the merits of Christ, rests on His mediation, depends entirely on it and draws all its power from it. In no way does it impede, but rather does it foster the immediate union of the faithful with Christ.”

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, many of you do not understand Satan’s role, which is being played among men. I assure you, my children, you must not cast aside the supernatural; for I told you in the past, and again I repeat it anew that Satan now is loosed from Hell. He is walking the earth. He is going about now searching for an abode. Any man, woman, or child of conscientious age can be his abode. Satan is one person, but there are many of his followers. Satan has a great knowledge. He has control of nature. Understand, my children, you must not test him. While man has cast aside the knowledge and belief in the supernatural, Satan and his demons have had the time now to take a firm hold upon your children. Pray, my children, for your brothers and sisters for many are fast falling into Hell. Satan is a murderer, and that, my children, should be his greatest vantage point. I wish, as your Mother, for you to be in my heart, to always love you and bless you at the Cross. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Dear children, I, your mother, have appeared to many in all parts of the world and have shown unto them many visions of the near and coming future. I have made myself known and present in many nations and countries on your earth. All my messages and visions pertain to a general area, but are for some other areas as well. My children, all my messages must be read and reread until my counsels are heeded. My children, read all my messages and counsels of the past. Mankind seeks a great chastisement from his God. You must all help in the battle ahead of us, and even now raging about you. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#138 June 20, 1992 10:55 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My dear children, if mankind would stop the Mass murders going on in Yugoslavia and other parts of the world, then a time of peace would be granted through the Father to the world. Your country seeks to be the peacekeeper in your world. You are told very little of the actual thinking of your government in your nation toward the wars on the foreign battlefields. Pray constantly a vigil of prayer. Pray that the effect of these foreign wars does not increase. Many are dying, and those who do not will not be able to lead a normal life anymore due to the rigors of war. The angel of death is among you. Should you not all pray much now? Satan is seeking to obtain more control of this world than he already has. Satan seeks to spread his evil errors until everyone on this earth is his. Let us not listen to Satan’s evil errors. Hear me. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace. Pray, pray the Rosary. This is your defense so Satan can never harm you. You must pray and, as such, move into the light of my Son, your Lord and God, Jesus Christ.

I am the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Sin has become a way of life for many of you. Come out of the darkness. The number counted saved will be in the few. Coming soon is the ball of redemption, and how many will burn in its great flame. What was to happen in the future shall be now. The Father now leaves this decision upon His children. The fullest measure of responsibility in plans for the condemnation upon all is with parents who do not safeguard the souls of their children entrusted in their care. I see an uncaring and permissive attitude on the part of many parents. I am the Queen of Heaven and the Mother of all upon earth. I am a mediatrix between God and a mediatrix between man. I come with graces in abundance. I will dispense all to those who join me in rescuing their brothers and sisters. Many manifestations by means of conversion and cure shall be brought upon many. A constant vigilance of prayer must now be kept throughout your earth. I am the Queen of Peace.

#140 June 28, 1992 1:30 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My dear children, the central message of Fatima can be understood by everyone, even children: the absolute need for conversion and the need for a life of prayer. These two fundamental truths contained in the word of God are necessary for personal salvation and happiness as well as for the salvation and happiness of all humanity. Pray so as not to enter temptation. Change your hearts and your lives so that your sins be forgiven. Be tenacious and vigilant in prayer to change your hearts and your lives (conversion) and to live a life of prayer. Offer prayers and sacrifices for the conversion of sinners and for peace in the world.

I am the Queen of Peace.

#141 June 30, 1992 11:35 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I tell you, my children, conversion from sin is rooted in Christ's death on the Cross. He offered himself in sacrifice in order to save us from sin, original and personal, from Satan's attempts to draw us into his rebellion from God, and ultimately, from eternal loss in Hell. Apart from my Son, Jesus Christ, His Cross and sanctifying grace, each of us would be lost in this world and in the next. God loves us so much that in Christ He offers every human being the grace of conversion. Although grace is offered to all, each individual must personally accept the gift and make it his own. I am the Queen of Peace.

#142 July 4, 1992 9:45 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, I tell you precisely how to make the reparation you owe. You are to confess your sins, go to Mass, and receive Holy Communion. Pray the Rosary, and meditate for fifteen minutes on the Rosary Mysteries. Participate in public devotion and private devotion, active prayer and contemplative prayer. Even as sin distances you from my Son, the reparation I ask is to draw you closer to my Son, Jesus. Even as your sin diminishes your spiritual strength, my proposed reparation will build it up again. The reparation that I, Mary, ask is not to my profit but to yours. This is a mother's way and brings joy to my heart. I ask that you do this for five, consecutive, first Saturdays, more modest than the nine first Fridays requested by my Son, Jesus. In fact, while five are minimal, you, poor sinners, will find that you cannot stop there. You keep on sinning in ways, little if not great, and so you have to keep offering reparation. If you have learned your lesson about being just and making reparation, you will probably be observing the first Saturdays of each month for the rest of your lives. Each time, perhaps, learning a little more about justice; each time, perhaps, healing not only the offense done to me, your Mother, and the pain caused me, but healing your own wounds of sin.

I am the Queen of Peace.

#143 July 4, 1992 10:45 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Although virtually unknown a few years ago, this movement is gaining in popularity on an international level. On the surface, it appears to be a peace movement, but in my estimation, it definitely belongs to the occult. This is because it presents some basic characteristics that are identified with the occult, even though Satan is not mentioned. For example, the god of the New Age is not the God of Christianity and Judaism. The New Age god is more like an impersonal energy of force of which the whole universe consists. This is a form of pantheism. For us God is Creator and Lord of all. We are His creatures. In the New Age, Jesus becomes one of the many spiritual masters who discovered his higher self. It is believed that in the New Age, we can also be enlightened, and this through our own efforts, not through revelation and the grace of God. The New Age movement is sometimes called a peace movement. Somehow, it is said that when we have become a part of this harmonic convergence we can bring to bear a mighty power that is beyond ourselves for achieving world peace. But when we talk of any power that is not from God, and beyond ourselves we are really talking about the occult. Do not be deceived by the talk about ecology, the beauty of nature in the world and the fundamental goodness of the apparent goals of this movement. Those who join the New Age movement are entering a movement and are dealing with the occult spiritual power. It is not a spiritual power, which comes from God, but from the kingdom of false light and darkness. I am the Queen of Peace.

#144 July 7, 1992 11:25 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, sometimes people pray to God and to the saints and then go off seeking relief through the kingdom of darkness. Many times God does not heal through prayers, because He wants the soul to be healed first of hatred, jealousy, or some other sin. God knows what He is doing. We have to choose either the power of God or the power of evil. The sacrament of reconciliation and the Eucharist are very special weapons that Jesus gave to His Church to overcome the kingdom of sin and darkness.

I am the Queen of Peace.

#145 July 11, 1992 11:35 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Dear children, I want you to form islands of holiness in a sinful world. I need souls who will go all out to answer my pleas for amendment of life, prayer, reparation, the sacrifice of fidelity to daily duty, the imitation of my virtues and the virtues of my Son through the daily recitation of the Rosary, the wearing of the brown scapular as a sign of consecration to my Immaculate Heart, and the first Saturday devotion. There is still time. I do not know how much. Everything depends on those who have heard and listened to my messages. You must do more. You must respond still more generously to my plea for prayer and penance. You must sacrifice more for those who have not heard, or who have turned away. Each of you has a great responsibility. The Rosary has saved the world before. Fasting can change the course of world events. God wills to save the world by bringing everyone to believe in Jesus and to surrender to His law of love. Just as I brought Jesus to you in the mysteries of Fatima, I continue to lead you to Him through the Fatima message. Let us embrace with new fervor my plan of peace. Let us embrace the Prince of Peace. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#146 July 14, 1992 11:05 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, whatever your condition or state in life may be, the Rosary holds something for you. Have you lost a child you cannot find? So did I, your Mother. Perhaps you have been unjustly accused or maybe carrying a Cross too heavy to bear. Who better than my Son, Jesus, knows how you feel? Have you fallen flat on your face and failed? Jesus fell three times, and each time He got up and carried His Cross again. Has life become so difficult that you are on the brink of despair? Think of what happened after the crucifixion. Sorrow was turned into joy when my Son, Jesus, was resurrected. We learned that God can turn evil into good. The Rosary and its Mysteries are a link between Heaven and earth. I am the Queen of the Rosary.

#147 July 18, 1992 11:22 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My dear children, the Rosary is the embodiment of the important events in the life of Jesus and I, your Mother, the Mother of God. Our love for you did not end when we went to Heaven. This prayer is a constant reminder of our love for you. The Rosary is a spiritual oasis always ready to refresh you when you thirst for consolation and strength. When you meditate on its mysteries, you inflame the light of faith, which fosters the desire, and hope of attaining the knowledge and love of God, the only thing that can truly satisfy each and every one of you. Remember you should become encouraged to ask God for the graces you need in spite of your faults and littleness. Heaven so loves the Rosary that it is the solution. It was given you through me, the Lady of Fatima, for the attainment of peace and the salvation of souls. I, your Mother, did not bring God's message just for a select few, but for everyone. You should all do your part to help spread my messages as best you can.

I am the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My dear children, I wish for you to consider my faith at three moments of my life — highly significant moments. On the day of the Incarnation I, your Mother, accepted the word of God, surrendered myself perfectly to His plan of saving the human race. God did not reveal to me the entire plan at the beginning. He did not present me with a general overview of my life or the life of my Son. I had no idea how I would be the Mother of Jesus as a virgin, and yet, I believed in God's unseen power.

I am the Queen of Peace.

#149 July 23, 1992 1:30 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. And the Word was made flesh. I, your Mother, being empowered by the Holy Spirit, share with you the faith I lived during my years here on earth. For every Christian, for every human being, I, your Mother, am the one who first believed and precisely with my faith as spouse and mother. I wish to act upon all those who entrust themselves to me as my children. During my life on earth, I, your Mother, lived by faith. Like all of you, I was asked to believe in the glory of God, to walk in darkness trusting in the Lord's power and goodness, and to accept the absolute truthfulness of God's word without comprehending its full meaning. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus.

1. Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary shall receive special graces.
2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against Hell. It will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresy.
4. It will cause virtue and good works to flourish. It will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God. It will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities and will lift them to the desire of eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means!

5. The soul that recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary shall not perish.
6. Whoever shall recite the Rosary devoutly, applying himself to the consideration of its sacred mysteries shall never be conquered by misfortune. If he be a sinner, he shall not perish by an unprovided death. If he be just, he shall remain in the grace of God. He shall become worthy of eternal life.
7. Whoever shall have a true devotion for the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
8. Those who are faithful to the recitation of the Rosary shall have during their life and at their death the light of God and the plenitude of His graces at the moment of death. They shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.
9. I shall deliver from Purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.
10. The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in Heaven.
11. You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary.
12. All those who propagate the holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.
13. I have obtained from my divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of death.
14. All who recite the Rosary are my sons and daughters, and brothers and sisters of my Son, Jesus Christ.
15. Devotion to my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Dear children,

today I wish to tell you always begin your work and end your work with prayer. If you do that, God will bless your work. I invite you to pray. I need your prayers so much in order that God be glorified through all of you. I beg you to listen and to live your Mother's call, because I am calling you by reason of my love so that I can help you. You do not know how many graces God is continuing to give you. These days when the Holy Spirit is working in a very special way, you do not want to advance. Your hearts are turned towards earthly things and you are occupied by them. Turn your hearts to prayer and ask the Holy Spirit to be poured upon you. I am the Queen of Peace.

#152 August 1, 1992 11:40 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, my Son has shed His blood; and I, my tears, for mankind. We have shed it upon mankind. It has cleansed many souls, and it has saved many souls. My children, many souls have fallen. Many souls shall fall. The abyss is wide open now, and many are falling. Satan is walking the earth. He walks among mankind, and he seeks the souls of mankind. Graces in abundance are given to you to strengthen you in the battle ahead. You must now choose the allegiance of Christ. Do not expect comfort upon earth. Do not expect glory. These days you have been working too much and praying too little; therefore, pray. In prayer you will find rest. It is for you that I cry. It is for your return that I beg. What more can I do but give you my heart. My children, I and my Son's heart are torn asunder by the sins of ungrateful man. The time has come, when I will give you fewer messages. I beg you all to listen and read my messages especially "The Fifteen Promises to the Christians who recite the Rosary." The fifteen promises to the Christians who recite the Rosary has only been out a few times. No one adheres or listens or reads my messages, so I wish to have it brought to your attention for all to understand what I have promised you. So I must have it read again and again. I am the Queen of Peace.

"OUR LADY'S FAITH"

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, as I, your mother, stood at the foot of the Cross of my Son, there was absolutely no sign of His divinity. To all appearances He was a pitiable, helpless, and tormented criminal dying in excruciating agony. The Cross of my Son, Jesus, proved to be a scandal to His disciples and closest friends. Nearly everyone had lost faith in Him, yet I stood as close to Him as possible and in my pure heart continued to believe the promise made to me by God through Gabriel on the day of the Annunciation. The Lord God will give Him the throne of His ancestor David. He will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and His reign will have no end.

"HELP OF CHRISTIANS"

My children, I, who so perfectly received and adored the divinity of my Son beneath the veil of His humanity, will help my children to receive and adore Christ, Who is truly present in the fullness of His divinity and humanity beneath the veil of the Eucharistic species of bread and wine. It is important to seek my assistance during Mass and at the time of Holy Communion. I am the Queen of Peace.

#154 August 8, 1992 11:40 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My dear children, the spirits that can come to you from the sacred grounds of Queen of Heaven Cemetery, when they appear there to you or at your house, they are true. The spirits that appear to all visionaries are the mediators through whom the Mother of God calls us to prayer, strong faith, fasting, peace, penitence and conversion. The Rosaries that were sent to you, my children, were sent to you at my request to pray. I caution you anew. Beware of the evil force that surrounds the shrine of purity, for you now in your area have a little shrine. It is not a public shrine. It is your own private shrine. They try to stop you with all cunning and deception, so call much to your guardians. They wish to save you from all unnecessary sufferings. I tell you this. You are my children. I am the Queen of Peace.

#155 August 15, 1992 5:45 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, you must all gather in the light for whenever and wherever there are two or more, you know that my Son, Jesus, will be among you to guide you. Call upon your guardian angels often. My children, you have forgotten the angels. Do you not know of them? Do not listen to the mockery of the world. They seek to take the reality of the guardians of Heaven from you so that you can be sent to Lucifer. When you have great sorrow or trial, call upon your guardian angels. Ask my Son, Jesus, for help from the Father. Do not seek comfort among man for he has none to give you. For man has become arrogant. Man has become self-seeking. He loves the pleasure of flesh. I am the Queen of Peace.

#156 August 15, 1992 5:55 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. The foundation of conversion is faith in the word of God. Conversion always involves a movement against sin and its roots and a movement of the will towards God in love. As a person grows in grace, these acts become more intense. We have three great helps that foster our conversion to the Lord Jesus: examination of conscience, frequent reception of the sacrament of penance, and true devotion to me, the Mother of God. Conversion demands a frequent pondering of the word of God. The more the believer looks into the mind and heart of Christ, the more he will be convicted of sin and acknowledge his desperate need for grace. It has long been recommended — the daily examination of conscience. It is worthwhile to recite the Ten Commandments each evening and examine one's thoughts, words and actions of the day in the light of Christ's example. Without frequent Confession, conversion is impossible. For the person who has committed a mortal sin, Confession is absolutely necessary for salvation. How strange that people in our day go for weeks, months and even years bearing the awful weight of unconfessed mortal sins. Many seem to have lost the dread of dying in the state of mortal sin. What a dangerous and foolish way to live! Live my messages. I am the Queen of Peace.

#157 August 16, 1992 1:15 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, my urgent message for all mankind: I have come to tell the world that God exists. He alone is the fullness of life. To enjoy this fullness and obtain peace, you must return to God. When you kneel before me, you kneel before the light that flows through me to all God's children. I am the Queen of Peace. I am the Mother of God. I am the Mother of all people on earth. I, your mother, Mother of all humanity, call each of you on earth. Pray with the heart. Pray fervently. Pray always. Fast on bread and water, especially on Fridays. Go to Confession monthly. The sacrament of penance is known as the sacrament of God's mercy. Be abandoned to the will of the eternal Father.

I am the Queen of Peace.

#158 August 21, 1992 11:45 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. I, your mother, am pleading for this. I am not concerned for myself. I only want you, my children, to learn to act properly and to develop a sense of gratitude. Reparation is a basic human good. It flows from a sense of justice, if not love, and it instills these virtues in you. If you examine yourselves, you will find that you are fairly weak in your sense of reparation. Even when you say you are sorry, you are often slow to make amends. This is most true in your response to my Son, Jesus. Yet, you know that when you truly love someone, and you hurt that person, you are most eager to do whatever you can to make up. I, your mother, want all of you to be truly and happily just. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst after justice. So I, as your mother, seek to put you through your paces. You have indeed inflicted pain on me, your mother, in so far as you have done this to my Son, Jesus, by your sins. For you He hung on Calvary's hill after living all His life for you. All the sorrow I bore at His side was for you. You have plenty for which to make reparation: your every sin, and above all your insensitivity and ingratitude to His love.

I am the Queen of Peace.

#159 August 29, 1992 11:25 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, during my apparitions at Fatima, I, your mother, revealed many things to the three courageous, shepherd children — Lucia, Francisco, and Jacinta. I told them that there would come wars of unimaginable destruction, persecutions of the Church, the spread of atheism, and that the Holy Father would suffer intensely. But by far the most frightening thing I revealed to them was the horrific vision of Hell. I indicated to them that souls were falling into Hell by the thousands. How many souls are in the most serious peril at the present time. In your daily lives you all seem to have contact with individuals who have separated themselves from the Church and the sacraments. These persons are often members of your own families and among your oldest friends. I see this as indicative of the pervasiveness of the deplorable loss of faith, which has become a sign of our times. How many souls might still be spared the terrible judgment which is to come if only more people would pray and do penance according to my urgent requests. Today I am calling upon all my spiritual children to become a great force of prayer and reparation in the world and by the grace of God. I am the Queen of Peace.

#160 September 6, 1992 6:10 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, in reciting the Rosary it is not a matter of repeating formulas, but rather of entering into confidential conversation with me, your mother; of speaking to me, telling me of one's hopes; confiding to me one's sorrows, opening one's heart to me; telling me of one's readiness to accept God's plans; promising fidelity to me in every situation, especially in the most difficult and sorrowful ones; to secure in my protection and to be convinced that I will obtain from my Son, Jesus, all the graces necessary for your salvation. Reciting the Holy Rosary you contemplate Christ from a privileged perspective — that of your mother, His mother. You meditate on the mysteries of my Son's life, passion and Resurrection with the eyes and heart of me, your mother, who was closest to my Son. Let us be diligent in the recitation of the Rosary both in the ecclesiastical community, and in the intimacy of your families. In the wake of the repeated invocations it will unite hearts, rekindle the domestic hearth, fortify your hopes and obtain for all, peace and joy of my Son, Jesus, who was born, died, and rose for you. I am the Queen of Peace.

#161 September 8, 1992 3:00 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, do you know what evangelization is? It is taking the Jesus who is in our hearts and placing Him in the hearts of others. To do that you need the material, spiritual principle given to Catholics through their devotion to me, your Blessed Mother. By my example, I, the Mother of God, will show you that one of my purposes in life was to beget Jesus in others. This means making the birth of God's life, love and salvation a reality in a person. Through my prayers and faith I, your mother, make that possible in my own experience. My example and faith will create that material, spiritual principle, that capacity to bring about the birth of Christ in others, in each of you. When you are devoted to me on a daily basis, you will acquire the spiritual, material principle that will make you evangelizers. At Fatima I upheld the Wise Star of the Epiphany against the Red Star of the Anti-God in Eastern Europe. I did not call for armies of preachers. I summoned legions of fasters and prayers. I knew that you needed an evangelization that was closer to exorcism than to reasonable persuasion, military intervention, or fiery preaching. We were dealing with a demon that needed expulsion by prayer and fasting. I am the Queen of Peace.

#162 September 13, 1992 12:30 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, share the gift of your faith with others. Everything you possess is a blessing from God and is to be shared. Everything! The most fundamental, supernatural gift that He gave you, on which all the other gifts depend, is your faith. This is no option. It is an obligation. On the last day you shall be judged on your practice of charity by meeting other people's needs. What is the deepest need of the human heart? The most ravenous hunger, the most agonizing thirst, is for the truth that you undeservedly have received from God. You are obliged to share it. You are to communicate this faith in every conceivable way that one created spirit can affect another. Your conversation should be a channel of believing grace to everyone with whom you speak. Jesus warns you that you shall be held responsible for every idle word you speak. What an opportunity you have not to idle away your words in conversation, but to use them to bring others closer to God. I am the Queen of Peace.

#163 September 20, 1992 1:50 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, God uses only believers to make other people Christian believers. He also uses practicing believers to make others practicing believers. God uses humble people to give other people humility. God uses chaste people to give others the grace of chastity. God uses patient people to give others the virtue of patience. Live your Catholic faith, and God will work wonders of conversion through you. The most important power that you have been given by God is your free will, and the most important use to which you can put your free will is to want to pray. You must believe that Jesus Christ whom your mother conceived at Nazareth and gave birth to in Bethlehem is now present on earth in the Holy Eucharist. He is really here to answer your apostolate prayers.

I am the Queen of Peace.

#164 September 27, 1992 12:55 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, remember the power to walk God's ways and find His peace, the power to turn from selfishness and sin, and the power to forgive those you want to love. All this power is a gift of God, not a natural endowment of your nature. Jesus Christ touching you in His sacraments is the one who heals you and gives you His mighty Spirit to give grace and joy to your lives. Nothing substitutes for the sacraments. In them the Lord personally touches your lives and heals you. The sacrament of Penance is the sacrament of Peace and of Freedom. Those who receive it regularly with faith and with reverent trust in God's saving power experience this deeply. If you have drifted away from frequent Confession, nothing will replace coming again to the Lord in this healing sacrament. This each one must taste and experience personally. I am the Queen of Peace.

#165 September 28, 1992 10:30 P.M.

A war broke out in Heaven. I, St. Michael, and my angels battled against the dragon. Although the dragon and his angels fought back, they were overpowered and lost their place in Heaven. The huge dragon, the ancient serpent known as the devil or Satan, the seducer of the whole world, was driven out. He was hurled down to earth and his minions with him. Pride and disobedience have been the ultimate cause of evil in the world ever since. Therefore, if you are going to combat the devil, you must utilize the contrasting virtues, humility and obedience, to the highest degree.

#166 October 2, 1992 2:05 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, you still have a long way to go and I, your mother, am counting on you. If you answer my Fatima plea and help to spread my devotion now, you'll be recognized on that very special day when you meet me in Heaven. This thought gives meaning to life. Your goal is to one day dwell in the house of the Lord forever. How better attain that goal than to spend your allotted time on earth preparing for it. And remember, no one goes to Heaven alone. To get there, you must help others to be saved too. How? By prayer, sacrifice, and by apostolic work. I, your mother, came to Fatima, and I begged all Christians to make reparation for their personal sins and for the sins of the world. I have asked you, along with the Lord Himself, for reparation on the first Saturday of each month. I offer a reward for this devotion. I will personally assist you at the hour of your death. In the Garden of Gethsemane when my Son, Jesus, was abandoned by His apostles, and He prayed all alone, My Son, Jesus, cried out to them, "Could you not watch one hour with me?" I ask you today, in these very difficult days; cry out to Him, "Yes, Lord, but not just one hour, rather the entire night."

I am the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, many graces come from the Rosary. It is by praying your Rosary that you see the need to examine your weaknesses and receive the graces to live a life of love — a love for Jesus in the tabernacle and a love for poor sinners as Venerable Jacinta and Francisco Marto of Fatima had.

Conversion is the very first response that we make to this loving message which I your mother, the Lady of the Rosary, gave you at Fatima. I am the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Dear children, these are difficult days. I too knew difficult days. I pray night and day for you. If a person prays, I will bless him and lead him away from fear and turn his mind to me and give him hope. Faith and trust in me are the road to happiness. Pray my children. Only divine help can solve human problems. I am very much aware of the confusion of mind and chaos of spirit in the world. I grieve because of what de-spiritualizes, de-humanizes. It is faith that makes a person alive, but many have abandoned faith. They ignore me. When one does not pray or prays only with a half heart, his mind is elsewhere. He has a hard time thinking straight. I will put an end to confusion and lack of love when people humbly get down on their knees and sincerely petition Heaven for help. To dispose with faithful prayer is spiritual suicide. I am the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, pride and disobedience have been the ultimate cause of evil in the world ever since Adam and Eve. Therefore, if we are going to combat the devil, we must utilize the contrasting virtues of humility and obedience to the highest degree. Because our society is so secularized today, the devil enjoys a field day. So many people are searching for answers to the problems of the day but do not know God. Therefore, they are ready to embrace anything that will bring power, influence, or peace and tranquility. Because a secularized society seeks solutions only in the realm of science or nature, God is totally ignored. Ignored, too, are the traditional means of countering the effects of the devil: discipline and sacrifice. Listen to my son, Jesus, what He had to say to His disciples when they were not able to cast out the devil. When approached by Jesus, His comment was about how faithless were the people of His time, and then proceeded to exorcise the demon from a boy. The disciples came and asked, "Why could we not drive it out?" He said to them, "Because of your little faith." If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain move. Nothing will be impossible for you. This kind of demon can only come out through prayer and fasting. Look around. You will not find the primary activity of the devil in the occasional possessions, oppression, or obsession. These are mere skirmishes to divert everyone's attention from the really serious attempts by the evil one to destroy God's people. We need to recognize the true battlefields for people's souls. I am the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, Confession leads us to the kinds of acts that make hearts repentant — to remember honestly before the good Lord how frail we are so that we can trust in His mercy with greater determination. Confession requires us to make serious resolutions in our hearts not to offend those we love, to forgive those who hurt us, and to do those things our life needs, but the world does not incline us to do. Confession creates personal friendship with Christ. In this sacrament He personally touches our lives. We speak to Him, and He makes us realize, as we seek more faithfully to receive the sacrament well, how deeply concerned He is to bless our lives with grace and healing. When the priest speaks words of absolution, our faith knows that it is the Lord who now personally speaks mercy and does mighty and merciful deeds in our lives. He enables us to see through the deceptive images woven by the media world, to begin to realize the really important things of life. He enables us to trust His power, to see that it is not impossible or saddening to keep His commandments and to walk in His ways. The return to the sacrament of penance does not mean a return to a shallow routine of Confessions without thoughtful reflection or to sacraments received without realizing how near the Lord is to every corner of our lives. For each one of us, it is important that we seek out and find a good confessor and learn again, as the Church urges us, to confess our sins with faithful frequency. Penance is the sacrament of peace and freedom. I am the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, so I tell you now again: pray, pray, pray — pray hard with all your hearts. Love, for not only yourself, but for thy brothers and sisters as well. Go back and reread all warnings given throughout your world. Pastors, do not stop your flock from reading these warnings for they were given for them. Why, O Pastors, do you not allow my messages to my children to be given to them? I will tell you the answer. It is because of fear and because of pride. You are afraid of anything you cannot see or comprehend. Your pride is hurt because many of you are not central figures in your Church. You are afraid to see a seer lead crowds twice as large as you can obtain yourself in prayer. Your pride has caused you to sin. My Pastors, turn back now before it is too late. Many of my shrines have not been truthfully investigated. Many of the messages from these shrines which were truthfully investigated and found true have never been read by many Catholics in your world. The children — what do you teach them in their classes throughout the world? You teach them of loving their brother and sister and their God, but what of the teachings of the Bible? What of my messages and my Son's? If you want a good nation, if you want a peaceful world, and you wish to hold back war, then teach the children of these things and more than that, how to pray. For each one who hears this will have heard my urgent message. You will pray, my little children. Pray, pray, and pray hard. I am the Queen of Peace.

#172 November 22, 1992 5:15 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, what is man if the very Son of God and likewise true Man took upon Himself the sins of all human beings and bore them as Man of Sorrows, as Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world on the altar of the Cross? What is man, the Psalmists wonder in the face of the mysterious greatness of human beings as they appear in the work of creation, becomes even greater in the contemplation of the work of redemption. Dearest brothers and sisters, the dwelling of God with human beings reached its culmination in Christ. He is the New Jerusalem of all human beings and peoples, since in Him all have been chosen for eternal destinies in God. He is also the beginning of God's eternal kingdom in human history, and this kingdom in Him and through Him is the definitive reality of Heaven and earth. Bearing witness to it is the Cross of Golgotha, which is the Cross of our redemption. On the Cross stands revealed all human history, which is at the same time the history of sin and suffering. It is marked by tears and death as the Book of Revelation notes: how many tears in human eyes, how much grief and mourning, how much human weariness and at the end of earthly existence — death! Is it not the truth of the whole of history? Does this truth not find particular confirmation in our age now coming to a close along with the second millennium of history after Christ? The Cross of Christ continually gives witness to it; but only it — this Cross of Christ persists throughout human history as a sign of the certainty of redemption. Through the Cross of His son, God repeats from generation to generation His truth about Creation. See, I make all things new. The former Heaven and the former earth continue to pass away. In their presence Christ remains defenseless, despoiled of everything in mortal torment. Son of Man, crucify Him, and yet, He remains the sign of our certainty that life will triumph. Through His death the invincible power of new life has been sown in the earth. His death is the principle of Resurrection. I am the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, with a heart deeply moved and marveling before God's creative and salvific plan to bring about the fullness to which He has called us, I, like each of you, a pilgrim of this New Jerusalem, exhort you, dear brothers and sisters, to accept the grace and the call which we feel more palpable and penetrating in this place, in the sense of bringing our ways into line with God's ways. I greet you all, beloved pilgrims of Our Lady of Fatima, Medjugorje, and Queen of Heaven Cemetery, present here physically or spiritually. The Shrine of Fatima and Queen of Heaven Cemetery is a privileged place, endowed with a special value. It has an important message for the age, which we have been given to live in. It is as though here in the beginning of our century the words pronounced on Golgotha had resounded with a new echo. I, your Mother who was standing alongside the Cross of my Son had to accept the will of Christ, the Son of God, once more. However, on Golgotha my Son pointed to a single man, John, His beloved disciple, whereas here I had to accept everyone, all of you, the human beings of this century and its difficult and dramatic history. For the second time I stand before you in this shrine to kiss your hands because you stood firm by this Cross of my Son, Jesus, which is the Cross of all human history and of our own century as well. You stood and continue to stand keeping watch with a mother's thousand cares. You stand here and will remain here because the only-begotten Son of God, my Son, entrusted to me all human beings when, as He was dying on the Cross, He brought us into the new principle that exists. I, your Universal Motherhood, I am the secure anchor of salvation for the whole of humankind, your Mother of the Redeemer, full of grace. I greet you as a trusted Mother of all human generations. I am the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus, Praise Jesus. Today I am calling upon all of my spiritual children to become a great force of prayer and reparation in the world. And by the grace of God, I, your Mother, have given you a most powerful weapon with which to fight in this great battle: the holy Rosary. The Rosary is an effective instrument of God's mercy. It is the weapon we will employ perseveringly and confidently to bring about the conversion of sinners, the conversion of nations, the unification of Christian peoples and the lasting peace which will come with the glorious triumph of my Immaculate Heart. The Rosary is a lifeline that God holds out to sinners today — a lifeline to draw sinners back to the life of grace through the healing effects of the sacraments. For the great spiritual battle of our time, God has given us a great weapon, a great sign, a truly wonderful mother. I, your Mother, the Queen of Heaven, the Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, the Refuge of Sinners, the Woman Clothed with the Sun, will lead my spiritual children to ultimate salvation and decisive victory over Satan and the forces of darkness and into the Heavenly Kingdom of my divine Son. I am the Queen of Peace.

#175 December 12, 1992 10:35 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, I, your Mother, ask for sacrifice, penance and prayer as a solution to the many problems with which the world is faced. I, your Mother, specifically ask for the daily recitation of the Rosary and the five First Saturdays of Reparation. The Fatima message is a clear and simple one, whose very simplicity sometimes evokes disdain from the educated. When we look at the complexity of the world's problems, we are overcome by them, because we know we cannot solve them. However, nothing is impossible for God. What is difficult for us is simple for Him. We can only pause in wonder at the kindness and mercy of a God who loves us so much that He sends I, your Mother, to warn us, counsel us, and give us a simple remedy with which to amend our lives, repair the damage we've done and extricate ourselves from the quagmire of sin. It is time for us to stand up and be counted in the spirit of evangelization by helping to spread the message of Fatima, which was given to us by our Lord, Jesus, through I, your Holy Mother. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#176 December 19, 1992 11:25 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, I, your Mother, at Fatima reminded all Catholics that souls are saved through their holiness of life. In this way the grace of conversion is offered to those alienated from God by sin. I have urged all to do the following out of love for sinners. Accept the daily dying to self demanded by the faithful observance of God's commandments. Be faithful to daily duties. I, your Mother, indicated at Fatima that fidelity to daily duty is very pleasing to God and a powerful means of bringing spiritual good into the world. This fidelity demands regularity, which is itself a great sacrifice for most people. Embrace and even love the uniquely personal cross that God permits in your life. Perform acts of voluntary mortification, self-denial motivated by the desire to lead others to eternal life. We have come to the Cross to understand the value of sacrifice. How pleasing it is to God and how, on account of it, God grants the grace of conversion to sinners. The Father seeing the sacrifice of Jesus renewed in your personal sacrifices offers the grace of conversion to people whom you will never know in this life. However, you will be greeted by them in Heaven. You will also meet all those who through their prayers and sacrifices helped you to eternal salvation. The brown scapular of your Mother of Mount Carmel is a constant reminder to you that you must undertake sacrifices daily to make reparation for your own sins and to obtain the grace of conversion for those who are far from the Lord. I am the Queen of Peace and I send my blessings to all of you.

#177 December 25, 1992 12:15 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, rejoice, rejoice. I bring you news of joy, today. Jesus and I, your Mother, are with you to bless you and comfort you. Christmas is a special time to think of the spiritual roots of peace. The angels caroled of peace to men of good will. Ultimately, it is only a spiritual army which can overcome the forces which destroy good will in men and which open the hearts of those who do not have good will to the prince of darkness. Light has come into the world, but much of the world remains in darkness. We have Emmanuel but innocents are still slaughtered, so God has sent me, your Mother, to stimulate good will. I urge each of you to unite your hearts with my Immaculate Heart in order that the Prince of Peace, who came through me, may reign. For this, we have much to do. Christmas is not just a time for joy in the birth of Jesus. It is also a time for a renewed sense of responsibility. He gives Himself to us, but like me, your Mother, you are called to help give Him to the world, and this is the bottom line of what I came to Fatima to say: "Peace on earth." I am the Queen of Peace.

#178 December 27, 1992 4:20 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, Christ loves us so that He wills to live in us and in a sense to relive His sufferings and death in us. In other words, whenever a Christian suffers and offers His suffering in union with Christ to the Father for the salvation of others, Jesus' saving power flows into the world and becomes effective in peoples' lives. Every Christian is called to be a co-worker of Jesus in the world today. I, your Mother of Fatima, highlight this scriptural teaching. Each Christian is indeed able to save people from the fires of Hell. We are capable of helping others to grow in Christian charity and thereby to establish in the world Christ's civilization of love. The Christian is Christ's co-worker by living in the state of sanctifying grace. He becomes an apostle not only by engaging in apostolic works such as teaching catechism, evangelizing from door to door, visiting the sick and the dying, etc., but also by simply accepting and seriously living up to the demands of the spiritual life. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#179 December 31, 1992 9:00 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, the result of the Bethlehem happening was that henceforth mankind would have to make a choice between the light and darkness. Fatima calls for a choice to repent or to face the darkness of a great chastisement, and yet for countless Catholics, Fatima is just a word that has a familiar ring. They have heard it vaguely for so many years, but it carries no weight with them. They have been drawn into the vortex of worldly thinking and living like so many mindless sheep. Years of watching and imbibing amoral and immoral television fare, of reading promiscuous books and magazines, of seeing films filled with passion and violence, of following blindly the fashions that I, your Mother, said would greatly offend God, and of accepting the moral standards of the world have robbed so many of the concept of right and wrong. For many, television has completely changed their values and taken away their sense of sin. God and religion have faded away to such an extent that many have begun to doubt everything they once held by faith. The world and everything it has to offer takes precedence over the thought of the life to come. I am your Mother, the Mother of God. When my pleas go unheard and unheeded by those who should be helping to save the world, you must repent. I am the Queen of Peace.

#180 January 9, 1993 11:35 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, Satan has sung his victory because he has brought sin into souls and division into families, into society, into nations themselves and between nations. This place has never been so threatened as in your days. You are beginning this new year under the grave threat of a conflict which could become the spark for the outbreak of the terrible third world war. Pray, beloved children, and do penance, because you have now entered into the time of the great chastisement which the Lord will send, and do not let yourselves be seized by fear or discouragement.

ment. Have great confidence in the powerful work of intercession and of mediation of your Heavenly Mother. The great suffering which awaits you is to prepare you for the birth of the new era which is coming upon the world. Live this new year in my Immaculate Heart. It is the refuge which I have prepared for you for these times bur-with the loss of the true faith. Many errors are being spread about within it. The cause of this situation is the pastors who are no longer united with the Pope. Their only concern is exclusively directed toward social problems, and they forget that Jesus died on the Cross and rose again to obtain for you the great gift of redemption and to descended to blind the souls of many of my children. If there is not a general return to the Lord, along the road of conversion and repentance, a great chastisement can quickly strike this country of yours. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

RESISTING TEMPTATIONS

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, as long as we live in this world, we cannot be without tribulation and temptation. Hence, it is written in Job: "The life of man upon earth is a temptation." Therefore, ought everyone to be solicitous about his temptations and to watch in prayer, lest the devil, who never sleeps, but "goeth about seeking whom he may devour" find room to deceive him. No man is so perfect and holy as not to have temptations sometimes. And we cannot be wholly without them. Yet temptations are often very profitable to a man although they be troublesome and grievous for in them a man is humbled and purified. All the saints have passed through many tribulations and temptations and have profited by them, and they who could not support temptations have become reprobates and fallen away. There is no order so holy, nor place so retired, where there are not temptations and adversities. A man is never entirely secure from temptations as long as he lives because you have within you the source of temptation, having been born in concupiscence. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#183 February 6, 1993 9:45 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children at Fatima I the Mother of God reminded you that wars are a consequence of sin. As a remedy, I asked first of all for amendment of life — conversion from offending the Lord God, who is already too much offended as is recounted in the Gospel. Graces or favors are not automatically given by God — we must ask for them. I, your Mother dened with suffering for individuals and for nations, and so, you will not be afraid. Your suffering will increase with the increase of the trial which has already begun. I am the announcement of the new era. In the deep darkness of this your time, if you live with me, you can already glimpse the glimmer of the new times which are awaiting you. Look to this light and live in peace of heart and hope. If you remain always in my Immaculate Heart, my beloved ones and children consecrated to me, even as of these moments you can begin the new era of holiness and of grace, of light and of purity, of love and of peace. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#181 January 16, 1993 3:50 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, my heart is afflicted with great pain by the situation in which the Church here finds itself. It is interiorly divided. It is threatened save souls. And thus, the teaching of the theology of liberation, which is a true betrayal of Christ and of His Gospel, is becoming more and more widespread. Bishops and priests of the holy Church of God, return to full union with the Pope. Return to the teaching of the truth, which Jesus has revealed to you with courage and fidelity. Preach the Gospel in its integrity and take care of the flock, which has been entrusted to you. Schism and apostasy are menacing today the Church, which lives in this nation of yours. My heart is pained by the great danger into which your homeland is running, because of the spread of violence and hatred, of evil and of immorality. In the name of a false way of understanding liberty, even the gravest moral disorders are today being permitted and justified. Impurity is exalted and spread about through the social means of communication, and thus a veil of darkness has showed you the best way of asking for peace: by praying the daily Rosary. Finally, for the love of God we must repair the damage of sin, our personal sins and the sins of others and of nations, by reparation. I, your Mother revealed two means of reparation. The first is offering sacrifices to God, especially those demanded by fulfilling the daily duties of our state in life. The second, The First Saturday Devotion, makes reparation especially for the sins committed against my Immaculate Heart. Now is the opportune time to familiarize others with my Fatima message and to encourage family and friends to pray the daily Rosary for Peace. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#184 February 21, 1993 2:10 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, at Fatima God chose me your Mother as his messenger to remind us of our eternal destiny, to call our attention to the truths of our Faith, and to warn us that we are wandering from the path of salvation. Throughout history God has used as messengers both angels and ordinary men. At Fatima, his messenger was a woman who is higher than the angels, the saints, and all created people. I am the first person after the Blessed Trinity. Should you not be paying strict attention to what I have told you? Fatima calls us to conversion and repentance, as does Holy Scripture. Some feel that devotion to me your Mother takes something away from Jesus. From the moment of my “yes” to the angel Gabriel at the Annunciation, I, your Mother have always gently led you to Jesus. At Fatima I came to tell you what Jesus wants. Because of First Saturdays, people all over the world are going to Confession and communion monthly and reciting the Rosary. First Saturdays have led to Eucharistic adoration and Benediction. Can there be a better formula for reparation, conversion and renewal? The time has come for all the faithful to become aware of the validity and necessity of listening to the word of God through your Mother Mary at Fatima and facilitating through its application the establishment of devotion in the world to my Immaculate Heart. This will be the only way to peace. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#185 March 6, 1993 11:30 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, Fatima events have been taking place for nearly seventy-five years now. Unfortunately, many have not meditated on Fatima in depth, and without prayer, don't understand the prophecy of these times. Some who speak only of gloom and doom, against which the pope cautioned us, do not encourage priestly and religious vocations. Rather they hinder youth from remaining true to Catholicism and from entering into marriages that are truly holy. Claiming to be an elite kind of Catholic who preserves the past, they hinder others from growing into the future and recognizing the true face of Catholicism. Remember our faith is found in “Good News”. If I could, and I know you can, you would shout it from the housetops the world over: “Jesus Christ lives today in his One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church.” His priesthood is the greatest vocation, privilege and profound duty on earth. Good Catholic families are miniature mystical bodies. Carry your crosses, confident of the triumph of Jesus Christ over evil. Here in authentic Catholicism you find Jesus Christ in the fullness of true faith. Be happy, rejoice, and praise the working of the Holy Spirit through the Fatima message in today's world. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#186 March 20, 1993 11:25 P.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, the emphasis of Fatima on world peace has been so strong that perhaps not enough recognition has been given to the fact that the Fatima message also contains the solution to many other problems which face humanity today, problems which are often closer to home and permeate the society in which we live. You all have seen, in the light of recent events, the beginning of the fulfillment of my promise that Russia would be converted. You also have seen the mercy and kindness of God in the collapse of Communism. Those of you who are devoted to the Fatima message now must feel uplifted and even more confident that your efforts will be rewarded, as I predicted, by the conversion of sinners. The Fatima message is within the reach of every Catholic person. I your Mother Mary have asked you to pray the Rosary every day, to be faithful to your daily duty and to observe the Five First Saturdays of Reparation. This is the remedy for sin. You must see how effective my remedy is. Now that we are witnessing the collapse of Communism and the restoration of the Church in the Soviet Union we must intensify our First Saturday efforts for the salvation of the entire world. When I your Mother ask you to cooperate with me, I am giving you such a precious privilege. You know that God can do all things and doesn't need your help to better the world, but in His kindness and mercy He allows you an opportunity to help Him in His work. Surely this is an opportunity and privilege too good to miss. Let every devotee of Jesus and I your Mother Mary do his or her bit to help bring First Saturdays to every parish in the United States. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#187 March 25, 1993 3:10 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, I your Mother Mary received the most important news ever communicated in our world. I was told by the angel Gabriel that I had been chosen to be the Mother of God's Son. Through my surrender to God's word, I conceived by the Power of the Holy Spirit. Gabriel had told me your Mother about another work by the Lord: “Know that Elizabeth your kinswoman has conceived a son in her old age. She who was thought to be sterile was in her sixth month, for nothing is impossible with God.” I am the Queen, The Mother of God.

#188 Medjugorje -

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Dear children, your presence here is a sign of your faith to me. I choose that each of you do your part to bring peace into the world. My time with you is short. You must act now before it is too late! I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#189 April 25, 1993 6:15 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, I, your Mother, keep insisting on you saying the Rosary because I am aware of your inconstancy in doing good. I know of your frailty and your needs; and as a mother, I extend my hands to support your faltering steps on the road that leads to salvation: the road of prayer, which is the way to our encounter with God. Consequently, I have taught you to say at the end of each decade, “O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of Hell, and lead all souls to Heaven, especially those most in need of thy mercy.” It is to be understood that this refers to souls in greater danger of damnation. By insisting on the Rosary I, your Mother, indicate the great need we have of prayer to obtain the grace of peace among nations and peoples in families and homes, and above all, peace of conscience and reconciliation of souls with God. Only divine light, strength and grace, penetrating our hearts and souls, can lead us to sincere and mutual understanding, consideration and assistance. This is also the one means by which a true and lasting peace can be attained among nations, but to achieve this end, we must pray, pray, pray. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#190 May 9, 1993 6:30 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, do not be afraid because I am with you even when you think there is no way out and that Satan is in control. Not being afraid means to be deepened in the spiritual life. Many Christians these days live in fear; those who don't know God. That fear is a sign that you are not rooted in God. The deep spiritual life does not exist within you. I, your Mother, once said Satan wants to bring confusion, and if you become easily confused, it means that you have not yet deepened your personal contact with God. When it comes to confusion, you must understand what it means to have love and peace and reconciliation, because it should always be clear to you, that we should love and forgive, but if you don't have the depth of spiritual life, this can happen and this happens very often. [confusion]. You can hear this sentence from many Christians: “I don't love. I don't want to forgive.” This is the deep confusion that comes from Satan, because it is not true that you cannot forgive, because God wants to give you the grace to love and forgive. But again, you must pray for that grace, so the feelings that you might have that there is no way out and that Satan is in control, they are false. Satan wins a great deal if he makes you think there is no way out and you remain in sin, because he's the one who gains from the fact that you don't move, that you don't develop the positive things. If Satan wins then you remain destroyed personally and the families and the whole world. This is why I, your Mother, will say again and again — do not be afraid. I am with you. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#191 May 20, 1993 8:00 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, I ask each of you to unite with me as I accompany my Son, Jesus, with His apostles and disciples to Mount Olivet, and talk with them about the Kingdom of God; and to rejoice in Christ's presence and love, and to pray in union with Jesus' friends as they ascend the mountains to hear my Son say, “Go make disciples of all nations.” Then I, your Mother, realize my Son, Jesus, must return to His Father. Then I begin to ponder my Son Jesus' words, “Within a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.” I begin to kneel to receive my Son's final blessing. Then I watch Him disappear into the clouds as He ascends into Heaven. Then I, your Mother, return to Jerusalem to pray and await the fulfillment of my Son's promise. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#192 May 30, 1993 8:35 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, on Pentecost Sunday, among the phenomenal occurrences were the great wind, the Holy Spirit's appearance in the form of tongues of fire and the ability of the apostles to be understood by people of various languages. Another was the growth of the Church in spite of bloody persecutions. It is this same Holy Spirit that inspires each of you today with great joy and hope for the Church. We know that in spite of the things that are happening within the Church and the persecution from without, the Holy Spirit is the One Who will preserve the Church from error and keep Her alive and well. Never will the Church succumb to the terrible things that are threatening Her in the world of today. The Holy Spirit of truth will be with Her until the end of time. This was my Son Jesus' parting promise to all of us. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Repetition of the Message of March 25, 1993, at 3:10 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Dear Children, I, your Mother received the most important news ever communicated in our world. I was told by the angel Gabriel that I had been chosen to be the Mother of God's Son. Through my surrender to God's word, I conceived by the Power of the Holy Spirit. Gabriel had told me your Mother about another marvel worked by God: "Know that Elizabeth your kinswoman has conceived a son in her old age. She who was thought to be sterile was in her sixth month, for nothing is impossible with God." I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, denial of sin is an offense against God. It is only logical that where the existence of God is ignored, the fact of sin as an offense against God is denied. No other explanation is possible for the massive denial of the rights of God in commanding His creatures to do His will. Abortion is the murder of unborn infants, and therefore the denial of the most basic right of a human being to remain alive. But abortion is mainly the denial of the rights of the Creator to create human souls and keep them united with the body until He calls a person into eternity. But adultery is mainly the denial of the rights of God, Who wants marriage to be the human reflection of His own infinite loving community in the Holy Trinity.

My message at Fatima was that we must repent. Repentance for the sin of denying sin is obedience to the will of God. Whenever we sin, we indulge our own will in opposition to the divine will. To repent we must bend our will to God's will. This is the hardest task we have to do on earth. This kind of repentance by obedience must begin with ourselves. We who have the true faith must merit the graces that others need, to be converted in obedience to the divine majesty. We must give the example to others of what it means to be humble by obeying the will of God in our lives so that others may see our obedience and be converted from their evil ways. We must pay the heavy price of bending the knees of our self-will to the demanding will of God's providence. Why? So that God may be merciful to a sinful world and bring it back to moral sanity. We must teach others by word and example, individually and collectively, that sin is not a figment of the imagination; that sin is the root of all the evils in the world; that wars and suicides, drug addiction and broken hearts and broken minds are really the consequences of sin. We must tell everyone who is willing to listen and even those who are not willing to listen, and even those who are not willing to hear it, that unless they repent, they will all likewise perish. We must restore faith in the justice of God, even as we glorify the love of God in a world that is the devil. Lack of faith means that people will not reject programs for themselves or their children that are based on pagan practices, Eastern religions of dubious value and New Age thinking. Anything and everything is viewed as all right if a significant number of people say so. The dangers of mind control and manipulation are not understood and so the dangers that can be inflicted on members of society by them are not perceived either. The faith we speak of here is not merely religious faith. Natural faith as well as supernatural faith is at risk here. Personal faith, community faith and national faith (also called patriotism) are aspects of natural faith. Notice how many steeped in self-idolatry. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#195 June 25, 1993 3:45 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, we live today in a secular society. For the most part there is freedom to believe in God and to worship Him, but there is also an attitude that says, "Who cares?" Many people go to church even weekly as a social obligation. Many send their children to religious education, but they merely go through the motions of church membership without ever truly professing the faith. Worldly values confuse them and they frequently fall victim to the many snares of factors affect our faith and why there is such a lack of faith in people today, especially in our youth. So many young people do not feel good about themselves. They are constantly bickering with others. They sense no future for themselves, and many turn for answers to drugs, alcohol, and some will give up altogether and commit suicide. There is no personal faith here. Our natural faith is destroyed when a person's word is no longer valid. How many people today consider it of little consequence to be true to their word. With so many aspects of the virtue of faith in disarray it is no wonder that there is a lack of spiritual faith. We must be on guard to counter the things that undermine and destroy faith. Prayer and fasting are, of course, special elements to accomplish these goals. Be sure not to just pray but to make sure all members understand the prayer and the wide range of reasons we pray. Ask the intercession and the help of St. Michael the Archangel. Though this prayer is no longer said after Mass, it was never suppressed as a prayer. I ask you to use the St. Michael prayer often. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#196 July 25, 1993 1:55 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, many sons and daughters have been saved from the power of sin and loss of faith through the perseverance of their parents in the saying of the holy Rosary. When we are living in the Kingdom of Light, in the state of sanctifying grace, we should simply reject all fear and place our confidence in God and also in your Mother, the Mother of God. Again however, there is the difficulty of defining sin in our present age. We have to define sin according to the Gospel and the official teaching of our Church as it has been handed down by the Church's Magisterium, and not define it by the viewpoint of the modern age, which has been contaminated. Many people live in sin and have false peace, because their conscience has been formed not by the Gospel, but by the spirit of this age. They may be leading very respectable lives, be law-abiding citizens, and in the estimation of people leading good lives. But if they are not living according to the Ten Commandments, the Gospel, and the moral teaching of the Church, even in just one area that concerns serious sin; they are probably living in the Kingdom of Darkness. The Sacrament of Reconciliation and the Eucharist, as well as all of the sacraments, are very special weapons that my Son, Jesus, gave to His Church to overcome the kingdom of sin and darkness. We need to use these sacraments as Jesus meant them to be used, and have no fear of the enemy. If one has a heavy problem in this regard, I suggest daily Mass and Communion. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#197 August 15, 1993 1:00 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, Jesus founded His Church to be the salt of the earth. Heretofore, and especially today, the influence of the Church in the orientation of scientific knowledge and the arts, in the formation of human mentality and values, in establishing a God ward direction to human habits and even in the spreading of the Gospel, has been reduced to almost absolute zero. The so-called crisis of faith has spread to all quarters of Catholic life and to all peoples, dragging them into the path of eternal damnation, while the heroic efforts of many a Catholic missionary have gained him or her a high place in Heaven. It must also be admitted that the apparent failure of the Gospel in replacing the bad habits of men with a Christian conduct, and in eliminating those forces that take great pleasure in legislating against the institution of Jesus, creating an impossibility for the Church to discharge its Christ-given mission among the nations causes us a great concern for the future well-being of mankind. Man can do whatever he wants, but he must pay a price for whatever he does. Legislation worldwide has succeeded in putting an end to Catholic education in many places. This facilitated the destruction of the Christian family in the liberalization of divorce and by legalizing the crime of abortion, which carries the penalty of excommunication. The proliferation of pornography as a means to sexual permissiveness, the establishment of a pervasive sex education and the total elimination of almighty God from society are of deep concern. What can one expect but the education of criminals for society at large? We need miracles in our lives. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Note: June 15, 1993, Joseph asked Our Lady if she would take him to Purgatory. Three or four weeks prior to 8-15-93, Our Lady told him it would be soon. Our Lady appeared to Joseph at his home on 8-15-93 at 3:00 A.M. At that time, she took him to Purgatory. His observations and Our Lady's comments follow.

Purgatory is an endless area. However, you do not see the people in Purgatory. You can see a gray area, dark like ashes, a somewhat very misty area. I can feel the reaction of how the people there are begging and twitching for help. Our Lady said for us as much as we can to pray for them. They need our prayers in Purgatory so they can enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Our Lady said many thousands of souls enter into Purgatory each day and most of them remain for many years. They are here through their own fault because they did not live the Ten Commandments of God. The justice of God keeps a person in Purgatory. It's in three different levels depending how severe the punishment is, and many deserve being there in this place of expiation, which means satisfaction, reparation, to atone, to make amends for their sins. Then the soul must go through a purifying stage before one can enter the Kingdom of Heaven. My experience in Purgatory is to see this great suffering that these people are going through. I would like to tell you it is horrible as I see it.

#199 August 25, 1993 3:35 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, conversion from sin is rooted in Christ's death on the Cross. He offered Himself in sacrifice in order to save us from sin, original and personal, from Satan's attempts to draw us into his rebellion from God and ultimately from eternal loss in Hell. Apart from Jesus Christ, His Cross and sanctifying grace, each of us would be lost both in this world and in the next. The Church rejoices in the assertion that there is no salvation in anyone else, for there is no other name in the whole world given to men by which we are to be saved. God loves our race so much that in Jesus He offers every human being the grace of conversion. Although grace is offered to all, each individual must personally accept the gift and make it his own. For the adult, grace is received through faith and baptism. Those who are fortunate enough to be baptized as infants receive my Son's grace long before they are conscious of it. Faith, hope and charity, planted in the soul at baptism, are then nurtured by the example and instruction received at home and in the parish community. Through grace a person believes the Word of God and consents to do all the Word commands. Grace elicits an act of the intellect, that is, assent to the revealed word and a twofold movement of the will: a movement against sin in all its forms and a movement towards God in love. Conversion is a lifelong project. The first step involves the rejection, often painful, of mortal sin. Sin is addictive and makes its way into your lives, so to speak, on horseback and leaves slowly, reluctantly, and on foot. Then comes the rooting out of venial sin and all attachment to sin. Finally the Christian seeks to imitate Christ's poverty (detachment from material things), chastity and obedience to the will of the Father. To the degree that the Christian freely practices these evangelical counsels according to his state in life, obstacles are removed to the perfection of charity. Don't attempt this on your own. Seek the help of an experienced priest. Voluntary self-denial, penance, mortification etc., is necessary if one is to attain that mastery of self, necessary to keep the Commandments and practice charity. The message of Fatima urges us to practice voluntary penance not only for our own sins but in reparation for the sins of others. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#200 September 25 1993 12:30 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, in this sinful and broken world there is much mortal sin. People, even Catholics, do commit horrible crimes: abortion, adultery and terrible crimes with the power of money and the cruelty of drugs. But there are also mortal sins of a less spectacular kind: lustful deeds deliberately undertaken and deliberate lustful desires to which this fallen world leads one. Ordinary people sometimes do hateful and cruel deeds. They are surprised at themselves for falling into these things, especially if they stop receiving the Sacrament of Penance regularly, which gives them the power they need to keep from sin. If we have committed mortal sin, Catholic faith teaches that the only ordinary way to escape the tragic separation from Christ that mortal sin means is by a good Confession. Even perfect contrition does not help, if we do not accompany our sorrow by a willingness to do what my Son Jesus requires: to get promptly to Confession, and to confess and receive from my Son Jesus (through His priest) the absolving words of forgiveness. We who have the gift of Catholic faith possess in the Sacrament of Reconciliation a great personal gift of my Son Jesus. This is the best way of coming back to grace, and this is the one way we have to get back to grace, as all Catholic Tradition insists rightly. There are rare exceptions: when Confession is impossible for us, God makes other ways possible. But Confession is the only ordinary way. Those who have sinned mortally after Baptism must go to Confession if they wish to come back to the Lord in the Eucharist. The frequent use of Confession is in many ways the safeguard of love and peace. We must not lose the sense of sin or we will rationalize all our selfishness and wrongness of heart. But it is also true that we must not focus too much on sin or we will become bitter and harsh. What we need to do is to remember our sins in the very sacrament of healing in which my Son Jesus touches us with mercy. Here my Son Jesus teaches us to turn sorrow into love and our own being healed into the forgiving of others. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My dear children, I feel sorry for so many men and women today who live as if they had no Father in Heaven, no intercessors of whom the greatest is Jesus Christ and no Holy Spirit who is always ready to enlighten, comfort, console, guide and inspire faith and confidence as well as love for God and neighbor. Children most naturally ask for things from their parents and thereby virtually confess their dependence on them. How is it possible for us children of God, especially when we have been adopted by God as sons of God, not to ask for the things, which God knows to be good for us for time and for eternity? When this is done in the proper spirit, we realize that in this way is an acknowledgement of our dependence on God and the necessity of being submissive to Him. At the same time it helps us really mean it when we say as Christ taught us "Hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven." I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My dear children, people on earth are not in a Heavenly condition. In Heaven nothing distracts angels and saints from living constantly in loving union with God. People on earth must engage in all kinds of work. Some unfortunately lose themselves so much in earthly affairs that they forget to thank God and neglect to ask for his help — a help so necessary if they want to live good lives. Others become wholly self-reliant and pursue only earthly goals, seeking happiness where they will not find it. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#204 October 13, 1993 3:45 P.M. In Medjugorje

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My dear children, Christians too must be intercessors, they must exercise the apostolate of intercession. Those who are ill, those who are unable to say long prayers, can offer their sufferings and intentions of intercession. If they only knew how powerful are the intercessions of those who are weakened by illness, who are as helpless as my Son Jesus when He was nailed to the Cross and there gave the perfect example of intercession in intention, in words, in vicarious satisfaction for the sins of men. Learn from Mother Church, a teacher at all times, what are the principal things for which to pray frequently and habitually. This will at the same time, be a true joy for you. For when done in the right spirit, intercessory prayer is charitable giving, and as my Son Jesus said, “There is more happiness in giving than receiving.” I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, God has saved us and has called us to a holy life, not because of any merit of ours but according to His own design: the grace held out to us in Jesus before the world began. You can depend on this, if we have died with Him, we shall also live with Him. If we hold out to the end, we shall also reign with Him. Avoid worldly idle talk, for those who indulge in it become more and more Godless, and the influence of their talk will spread like the plague. There will be terrible times in the last days. Men will be lovers of self and money, proud, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, profane, lovers of pleasure rather than of God. Stay clear of them. The time will come when people will not tolerate sound doctrine but following their own desires, will surround themselves with teachers who tickle their ears. They will stop listening to the truth and will wander off to fables. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, wonderful indeed is the mystery of our faith. As we say in professing it, my Son Jesus was manifested in the flesh, vindicated in the spirit, seen by the angels. Jesus preached among the Gentiles, believed in throughout the world, taken up into glory. Train yourselves for the life of piety. For while physical training is to some extent valuable, the discipline of religion is incalculably more so, with its promise of life here and hereafter.

You know the answer with respect to your own behavior and what you would like to suggest to others. Keep up the practice of daily devout, humble, confident prayer. You know how much prayer your particular work permits. You can work prayerfully doing everything for God. Perhaps you can say at least part of the Rosary everyday. Read lives of the Saints, of course. Read meditatively short texts in Holy Scripture, particularly in the New Testament. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#207 October 25, 1993 5:30 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, so I repeat, it is a good thing for you to deal with the subject of the relationships and relations between human beings and the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. But you did well in emphasizing that what God wants is for his rational creatures who dwell upon the earth to come ever nearer to Him. The way for them to do this is through the many means put at their disposal for that purpose, such as prayer, the Sacraments, and the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass to mention just a few of them. As I said at the beginning, relations existed from all eternity. They exist in absolute perfection in the Holy Trinity. We creatures are necessarily related to our Creator to Whom we owe our natural human life. But God in His unbelievable goodness wants to establish something supernatural, that is above-nature relations and relationships between us human beings and God. In the natural order, all men are related to millions, to billions of things. They are related to sun, moon and stars, to things of earth, to fellowmen, and above all, to God Who wants all to enjoy His presence, His beauty, His life and share in His blessedness forever. What a sad thing it is that so many human beings today want to break off all relations with God and hence with eternal life with God, and make men be content with a short life of relationships with men and with perishable earthly things. What a folly to try to make men enthusiastic about what is limited in time and space! How is it possible that some modern men, supposedly intelligent, reject relations with the supreme value, God, with the Divine Savior, with the Church, which is appointed to help people to reach eternal family life with God? They thereby make people content with purely earthly, temporal relations and relationships. When Satan tempted our first parents, he did not propose to them to disobey God and thereby to be satisfied with a merely temporal earthly existence. He told them they would be like gods, something above their nature and something everlasting. Call for the Holy Spirit. What is the best thing we can do in the face of the spread of Godless doctrines as well as the degeneration of religion in several countries and the propagation of errors on all sides? How can we stem the tide of evil and error in the lives of those around us as well as in our own lives? I ask you all to pray, pray, and pray. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, this is the aim of my message: To give a deeper knowledge of my love for you. What I ask: sacrifices, prayer, mortifications, devotion to me your mother, revival and propagation of the Rosary everywhere. Love me with a trusting heart. If you love me, you are in the truth. I need your prayers for the poor souls in Purgatory on All Souls Day and everyday. Pray, pray for them. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#209 November 25, 1993 3:15 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, many say they love me, but at best give me only an hour a week, and of these, many attend Mass with minds absent, and many more will not do even that. They think they are Christians. They say they are Christ-followers, but are they? If you had a friend and hardly ever visited him, would you be a friend? I ask my Son Jesus, to save us from our foolishness. We think we are mature, but we are very childish and unthinking. People must help themselves, so that I can help them. They must pray so the inspired words of the Gospel pass from the printed page into their souls. I said, many people are restless for they know not what. They are restless because they do not know me. The soul hungers for me. But people ignore this yearning and then they wonder why they are discontented. Too many are so immersed in the things they can see that the unseen world seems unreal to them. How true! Even a person who says a Rosary a day is looked upon as a religious fanatic. If people possess me, they possess all. It is prayer that brings my blessings. Prayer gives light and grace to humans living sterile, chaotic lives. Prayers put an end to inner confusion and flood the soul with peace. Pray, prayer is the answer. Prayer is the only solution to problems. It always has been. It is today. Look at the lives of my saints. Prayer was the predominant theme in all their lives as it was in mine. I wish to teach you how to pray. I wish to be your support. Keep me close. I wish to hold you in my loving arms. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, today is the Solemnity of Christmas. The eyes of our soul see the child laid in the manger. This child being wrapped in swaddling clothes and laid in a manger. This helpless human child and at the same time, the power which transcends all that man is, all that he can accomplish. For man cannot become like God through his own efforts as history has made clear from the beginning and yet, man can become like God through God's own power. This power is in the Son, the Eternal Word, who "became flesh and dwelt among us." Today is the first day of his sojourn in our midst. He was in the world and was made through Him, yet the world knew Him not. He came to His own home but His own people received Him not. But to all who received, He gave power to become children of God who were born of God. History continues on its way: countless men, women and children, nations, peoples, languages, races, cultures, millions upon millions, yet He is unique, laid now as a child in the manger. "There was no room at the inn," and later upon the Cross. He and none other, and then risen — He and none other. How many have received Him not? How many still receive Him not? Indeed, He has sent you His word to tell us of them, to tell us that by taking the road we are taking, we are racing towards self-destruction. The world longs for peace yet everyday our brothers and sisters are dying in the present conflicts. They are dying in fratricidal struggles for supremacy: racial, ideological, and economic. They are dying because of senseless and reckless courses of action. The world longs for reconciliation, yet everyday thousands of refugees are abandoned and rejected. Ethnic and religious minorities go neglected in their basic needs. Whole groups are kept on the margins of society in ever-growing isolation. The world longs for balance, both within and without, yet everyday the environment becomes more and more polluted for reasons of self-interest or from lack of concern. Brothers and sisters, come to the crib of the helpless Child, Who is the power of God. He is born for us, come... and you will see... and you will be received, for today there has been revealed God's goodness and His love for mankind. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, there is one more good deed he or she must perform before he or she dies. He or she must repent, repent, repent of his or her sins. What follows is a dialogue between Knowledge and Everyman. (1)

Knowledge: Be no more sad but ever rejoice. God sees the living in His throne above. Put on this garment to thy benefit, which is wet with your tears, or else before God you may miss when you to your journey's end shall come.

Everyman: Gentle Knowledge, what shall you call it?

Knowledge: It is the garment of sorrow from pain it will you borrow. Contrition it is that gets forgiveness.

Contrition is defined by the Church as a sorrow of soul and a hatred of sin with a firm purpose of not sinning in the future. We see, therefore, that true contrition includes three elements: sorrow of soul for having offended God by choosing to do one's will instead of the divine will; detestation of sin because a person realized the evil of refusing to submit to the Creator, thus endangering one's eternal destiny; firm resolution not to commit a particular sin again and avoid what experience teaches would lead to such a sin in the future. The Catholic Church has always taught that contrition is absolutely necessary to obtain forgiveness of sin. Although it is a mystery, it is perfectly understandable. To claim that I love God and yet insist on acting contrary to His will is a contradiction. If I really love God, I want to do what pleases Him. I cannot honestly profess to serve God if I deliberately choose what I know displeases Him. Choose God, choose His will, God keeps telling us. The first preaching of my Son Jesus is described in the words, repent and believe in the Gospel. Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. Reconciliation with God therefore requires repentance by the sinner, and repentance is another word for contrition. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

(1) This dialogue is found in the medieval Christian morality play "Everyman."

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, we must respond to God's conditions to enjoy his promise of Peace in this life and everlasting joy in the life to come. We must want to repent — we must want to pray — we must want to forgive — we must want to be humble — we must want to be chaste — we must want to believe — we must want to trust — we must want to love even unto death those who may not only love us, but oppose us, persecute us, indeed, even hate us. We must use our free will, that's why we have a free will — to choose to surrender what we want in order to do what God wants. That in one single declarative sentence is the New Testament — the new covenant — the new contract. What is the core of the Fatima message? Love God with your whole heart and you will be happy. Refuse to obey God and you will be unhappy. Sin leads to unhappiness. Doing God's will is a precondition for peace until death and everlasting joy in Heaven with God.

Why is it so difficult to love the Fatima message today? Why should I the Blessed Virgin Mary have given you the Fatima message in our century? Why, in this age of world upheaval, is the church going through the most severe crisis in all her centuries of history? Why is it so important in our day to be told by your Mother Mary — Do what my Son tells you and you will be happy? I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, to begin with, family life is in jeopardy. More than fifty percent of marriages fail within two years. Many children have only one recognized parent. There is violence almost everywhere among families — parents murder their children — children murder their parents. There is child abuse and spouse abuse. To make matters worse there are cults who believe the biblical adage: spare the rod and spoil the child. (2) I ask you to see Proverbs Chapter 13, verse 24 for one example is to be taken literally, and so they reverse the saying and children are beaten into submission. Just about every segment of society has finally come to realize that the family is under assault. But no one wants to believe the cause is anything more than natural. But the intensity of these assaults indicates a truly diabolical attack: confuse family members and destroy the backbone of society. It is true that family life, as we have known it over the years has changed radically. Violence is the end product of many of these changes. Even within many families with both parents present and caring for and about their children, there is seldom a daily meal wherein everyone is present. Conversation and education are therefore almost impossible. There is so much bickering, anger, and even hatred, at times in the household that it all but destroys family life. In this environment it is impossible for parents to have any significant influence with their children. It is not surprising that as soon as children reach their teens family activities are out for the most part. For all practical purposes the family is disintegrating at a rapid pace. Many things have caused this sad situation to exist; among which we can easily find materialism, greed and selfishness. I am your Mother, The Queen of Peace.

When you achieve peace and live, then there can be restoration, healing and unity; start, each of you, within your families. Then let this great gift flow forth from you to all people. I am your loving Mother and I am leading all my children home, and those who can believe, and it will be the transformation of your lives that will lead the unbelievers to me so they too can one day be transformed. I ask you again, therefore, to seek holiness, seek God with your whole being, ask the Holy Spirit to help. I will pray for you, all of you, that love may become your whole life. Go now, my dear children and do as I ask. I love you and I thank you for listening to my call. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, do not torment yourselves in mind if you are calumniated, insulted or ridiculed. Think my child of your God, Jesus, Who walked the way of Calvary. He was the King of Kings and He was insulted, beaten, and always on the way to Calvary each passing moment more insulted, beaten, and calumniated than before. I do not say to forget these mockings, ridicule and pains of torment, but rather I say to offer them up unto the Father. It is so now with mankind that you do not wish to endure anything for my Son Jesus Who did everything to save you and Who died on the Cross for you. Always, my children, must you now offer all your pains, sorrows up unto my Son Jesus. Be humble, always act with great love and patience, gentleness and serenity. If you have a great enough love for me and my Son Jesus, you most assuredly will find the way unto the Kingdom. All my beloved children cannot understand the feeling I have for you all, the love I have for you all. I seek to give you many consolations and joys. But the Father demands that in every bed of roses must lie many thorns. The hours you all spend at the holy sites of my appearances on earth, if done in love, will be removed from your stay in the fires of Purgatory. St. Michael is ever present beside me and you. Pray your Rosary every time that you find yourself being attacked by Satan, for then I will send Michael to use his sword to defend you all. Pray my children and my child for those in the prisons and concentration camps. Pray for the holy souls in Purgatory. I told you in the past that I did not want you to forget them all, because they have been forgotten. You must pray now, my children, and always pray for them. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, since the beginning of time God has spoken through His prophets to aid us on the way to salvation. At Fatima, He has intervened once again to warn us that we have gone astray and to show us how to get back on the road to salvation. First Saturday reparation is a profound yet simple solution to the ills of the world. At its very foundation are the sacraments of Confession and Holy Communion, the Holy Rosary and meditation on the life of my Son Jesus Christ. The thrust of the Fatima secret is not just the promotion of a devotion for its own sake but the encouragement of conversion, reparation, and renewal through the use of these very important and holy elements of our Faith. In Confession and Communion, we receive the grace to be good Christians — we cannot do it without God's grace. May the power of the Holy Spirit inspire us to help spread the Fatima, Medjugorje and Queen of Heaven messages, so that every Catholic Church in the nation will participate in the observance of the First Saturday devotion. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, like young people everywhere, you want a life that is worth living. In your hearts you feel a powerful yearning for a world filled with goodness, with justice, with understanding and harmony between people and between nations. You want to live on the level of light and truth in human relations, and therefore of trust and genuine freedom. Where will you find all this? Jesus said to Andrew and John: "Come and you will see." So they went and saw and they stayed with Him. They stayed because they saw that with Jesus Christ they could aspire to what their hearts most desired. Not that Jesus offered simple solutions; on the contrary, both Andrew and John would suffer much for His sake. But their meeting with Jesus made them realize that here they had the key to their existence; here they found the deepest meaning of life. They had found the way to give the highest value to their lives. Christ fully reveals man to himself and brings to light his most high calling. His way of salvation, however, is not what we might expect from a purely human way of thinking. The crucified and risen Lord does not promise you a perfect and comfortable life in this world. If you reflect on this you will realize that even people who enjoy an abundance of earthly pleasures, possessions, and power often feel empty and unhappy. This cannot be the answer to the deepest longings of the human heart. What Jesus does promise is that His victory over sin and death can also be your victory if, in imitation of His Cross, you consent to “lose your life” together with Him; that is, to offer your life to the Father, to spend your life in love for others, even strangers, enemies and those who sin against you, to seek God’s will and not your own in all things. It is only within this perspective of the total Christian vocation that you will find answers to the questions you ask about marriage and the family, or the priesthood and religious life. For in all things Christ is the pattern of Christian life and behavior. Celibacy, for example, is meant to enable the priest or religious to imitate Christ’s total self-giving for the sake of all. It frees a man or woman from exclusive affections of family ties in order that he or she may be totally dedicated to the service of God and of humanity. It is a special grace given to some, a sign of God’s special love for those who have accepted a call to consecration or sacramental configuration with Christ. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, Jesus reigns on the Cross revealing Himself as the Shepherd Who reunited the scattered children of God as the King of the Universe. Therefore, He is worthy to receive power and riches, wisdom strength and honor.

Jesus is always alone. Go to His feet at the Cross and pray to Him. He is an all-loving God. He has many favors to grant you. The soul who daily recites my Rosary, all fifteen decades — I will one day before his or her death come to that soul and embrace that soul in my arms. Jesus founded the Catholic Church. There are those who would like to say the Church is invisible and only Christ knows who are the members of His Church. Some deny that there are external signs of membership. If this were so, how could Jesus teach until the end of time? He had to be sure the correct path to Heaven would be handed down to the peoples of all times. Today, there are so many people who claim to have Christ’s message for us, and they are contradicting one another. The first question we must ask ourselves, “Did Jesus organize a Church?” The Jewish religion was temporary. It was to bridge the gap between Moses and Christ. Upon it Christ constructed Christianity. He supervised their training personally. He gave them all the necessary powers. “Go therefore and teach..... Baptize.....Whose sins you shall forgive..... Do this in memory of me..... Whatever you shall bind on earth.....” In other words, He gave the Apostles a three-fold office; teaching, ruling and sanctifying. He commanded people to hear His Church. He said, “He that hears you, hears Me.” He guaranteed this Church against error. People could justly demand such a guarantee if He insists that they must follow its teaching. They could very well say to Him; “All right, you tell me to belong to your Church. What guarantee will I receive that this will get me where I want to go?” Jesus’ answer is, “Behold, I am with you all days;” then, “the gates of Hell shall not prevail against her.” The gates of Hell, of course, are the power of evil, the power of the devil. The spirit of truth will abide with you all days. He placed St. Peter at the Head of His Church. Christ is the invisible head of His Church. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, to live the Fatima message today, we need daily miracles of grace in our lives. We need miracles of light to see the truth, courage to stand firm; as well as faith, hope, and charity. Expect miracles, why not? Jesus Christ is on earth. That is what the Holy Eucharist means. What we are called upon to do is humanly impossible. We must, therefore, as a condition for survival, have access to, and use, supernatural means. Either we have recourse to the sources of Divine Grace available through prayer and the Sacraments, or we shall become further casualties in the war between the followers of Satan and the followers of Jesus Christ. I, your Mother, request the need for constant humble prayer, and frequent reception of the sacraments and devotion to our Lord in the Holy Eucharist. I ask constant prayer, as a continual readiness to do God's will; sometimes referred to as "prayer with the heart." The New Testament is essentially a contract between God and man. In it God promises many good things, including eternal life, if we conform ourselves to His Will. In my last appearance at Fatima, and elsewhere, I don't present you with anything new. I repeat, and give emphasis to certain aspects of public revelation, especially the contractual elements of the New Testament. The core of the Fatima message is the Divine Imperative: Sin leads to unhappiness! Stop sinning! Repent! Repent of your sins, and you will enjoy God's blessings in time and in eternity. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#223 August 25, 1994 4:30 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, here is God's plan: I your Mother stressed the salvation of peace. I informed you of God's concern for souls and gave us His plan to save them. In essence what God said is that the evil of sin can be remedied by devotion to my immaculate heart of your Mother Mary. And this is also the best way to peace. I also made this known to each of you: that we can pray and sacrifice for sinners. I made this clear when I said: "sacrifice yourselves for sinners. And say often, especially when you make some sacrifice: "Oh Jesus, it is for the love of You, for the conversion of sinners, and in reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary." In other words, the prayers and sacrifices of others can be the means of the sinner's conversion. Abortion is an issue, which cannot readily be solved by legislation alone, because it is a moral one. But hearts can be changed Jesus and I, your Mother, have told you how- by sacrifice and by prayer- especially the daily recitation of the Rosary and the Five First Saturdays of Reparation. God has given us the solution and remedy for evil. Isn't it about time we recognize that it is also the remedy for the sin of abortion? Who has a better solution than the one given to us by God? Isn't it about time that we apply this Heaven sent remedy for all sin? For many, prayers, Rosaries, and 1st Saturday devotions all over the world has had an impact on the evils of communism which we now see disintegrating. Because of this, more people are becoming aware that the 1st Saturday Devotion is an important part of the answer to the world's problems. The worldwide effort to respond to Jesus and my request for reparation is continuing and increasing. Now that we have seen the beginning of my prediction that Russia would be converted, we need to intensify our efforts to promote the Rosary and 1st Saturdays. I know that if you do what I ask we will see other evils disintegrating as well. It is only when the rays of the sun are shining that we can clearly see the shadows; and it is only when the light of virtue abounds that evil can be rooted out. Let us put our trust in Jesus, and I your Mother Mary and do as we ask. Pray the Rosary and observe the Five First Saturdays so that by our faith and prayers, the goodness of God will permeate our lives and help us to right the wrongs that threaten our society. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#224 Sept 25, 1994 5:15 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, the Cross was Christ's victory. Christ had revealed the Father's mysterious plan. The Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the high priests and the scribes, and be killed and rise after three days. The announcement was so unexpected, that Peter refused to accept it. He was not able to understand the mystery of the suffering Messiah. When he had expressed his faith in Jesus, he believed in the Messiah bound for triumph and glory. Peter's protest: "Lord, no such thing will ever happen to you," is repeated again today by those who would not want suffering to be part of human destiny. Jesus clearly made His apostles understand that this type of thinking was not God's way, but man's way. The Father's plan was clear in Jesus' eyes, the path of suffering and death was necessary, and suffering had to be not only physical, but also moral, on account of the rejection by the religious leaders, the hatred of the people, the plight of the disciples. Jesus one day explained without mincing words the reason for His coming to earth. The Son of Man has come to give His life in ransom for many. Thus, the Cross was not an accident in the journey made by Jesus, but an element consciously willed for the redemption of humankind. Why such a sad fate? To free the world from sin, the Father willed that the Son take on the weight of sin's consequences. This decision makes us understand the seriousness of sin, which cannot be minimized, since its consequences are so numerous. Sin as an offense against God could not be remedied except by man. God, thus: the Son Who came as a Savior offered the Father the perfect homage of reparation and love, and gained for humanity the remission of sins and the communication of Divine Light. This sacrifice occurred once and for all in human history and has the salvific value for all people of all times and places. It is the sacrifice, which is renewed in every Eucharist. In the crucified Savior, we contemplate Him Who sacrificed Himself for our salvation. No one has greater love than this, than to lay down one's life for one's friend. This emulation is enlightening for all of us. It shows that love reaches its summit through suffering. Since Christ wishes to associate us with His redemptive mission, we too, are called to share in His Cross. Sufferings, which are not lacking in our lives, are destined to be united with the one sacrifice of Christ. Born of love, this sacrifice has an inexhaustible fruitfulness. Suffering might appear to be an obstacle or destructive presence. The punishment of death on the Cross, which put an end to Jesus' life, might have made it look like His mission failed. Instead, in it, the Savior brought that mission to fulfillment. As is seen in His own words: "Amen, Amen, I tell you, unless the grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies it remains just a grain of wheat. But if it dies, it produces much fruit." From this sacrifice have come abundant fruits of life for humankind. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#225 October 25, 1994 1:30 A.M.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children... "Resisting temptations." As long as we live in this world we cannot be without tribulation and temptation. Hence it is written in Job: "The life of man upon earth is a temptation." (Job 7:1) Therefore ought everyone to be solicitous about his temptations, and watch in prayer, lest the devil, who never sleeps, but goeth about seeking whom he may devour, find room to deceive him. (1 Pet 5:8) No man is so perfect and holy as not to have some times temptations: and we cannot be wholly without them. Yet temptations are often very profitable in a man, although they be troublesome and grievous: for in them a man is humbled, purified and instructed. All the saints have passed through many tribulations and temptations and have profited by them: and they who could not support temptations have become reprobates and fallen away. There is no order so holy, nor place so retired, where there are not temptations and adversities. A man is never entirely secure from temptations as long as he lives, because we have within us the source of temptation, having been born in concupiscence.

When one temptation or tribulation is over, another comes on: and we shall have always something to suffer, because we have lost the good of our original happiness. Many seek to fly temptations and fall more grievously into them. By flight alone we cannot overcome: but by patience and true humility we are made stronger than our enemies. He who declines them outwardly and does not pluck out the roots will profit little; nay temptations will sooner return to him, and he will find himself in a worse condition.

By degrees, and by patience, with longanimity, thou shalt by God's grace better overcome them than by harshness and thine own importunity. In temptations often take counsel, and deal not roughly with one that is tempted; but comfort him, as thou wouldst wish to be done to thyself. Inconstancy of mind and small confidence in God is the beginning of all evil temptations. However, we must be watchful, especially in the beginning of temptations, because then the enemy is easier overcome, if he is not suffered to come in at all at the door of the soul, but is kept out and resisted at his first knock. Whence a certain man said: "Withstand the beginning, after-remedies come too late." For first a bare thought comes to the mind: then a strong imagination; afterwards delight and evil motion and consent. And thus, by little and little, the wicked enemy sets full entrance when he is not resisted in the beginning. And the longer a man is negligent in resisting, so much the weaker does he daily become in himself, and the enemy becomes stronger against him. We must not, therefore, despair when we are tempted, but pray to God with so much the more fervor, that He may vouchsafe to help us in all tribulations. Let us, therefore, humble our souls, under the hand of God in all temptations and tribulations: for the humble in spirit He will save and exalt. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, the central message of Fatima can be understood by everyone, even children. The absolute need for conversion and the need for a life of prayer. These two fundamental truths contained in the Word of God are necessary for personal salvation and happiness, as well as for the salvation and happiness of all humanity. The Gospel tells us that Jesus Christ started His preaching by saying: "Repent, Repent, Repent, and believe the Good News. He insisted that we must pray, so as not to enter into temptation. The apostles practiced and preached the same message. Change your hearts and your lives, so that your sins be erased - forgiven - St. Peter to the people of Jerusalem. They were persistent in prayer, and St. Paul warned Christians - be tenacious and vigilant in prayer, and so through your Mother Mary, and the angel at Fatima, God requests us to change our hearts and our lives, conversion, and to have a life of prayer and to offer prayers and sacrifices for the conversion of sinners and for peace in the world. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, it is the mystery of salvation that we will be able to understand, and see the importance and the mission of the Mother of God, and will be able to perceive the attitude of the Church toward Mary. Holy scripture reveals the plan of God that evolves gradually through the centuries from the creation to the final glorification of the elect. People, in particularly the young, are not satisfied simply because we explained Fatima with the dialogues between the seers and the Virgin Mary. They want to hear about Mary as a person; the historic person, Mary.

Christ and Mary are united in the same mystery and work of salvation. Jesus Christ is the center of the universe and of history, and everything happens through Him. By His incarnation, death, and Resurrection He saved the world. Offering Himself to the Father and forming men into one body, the "Mystical Body" of which He is the head. It is through divine preference that I, Mary, became the Mother of the Redeemer. God wants to save humanity, and therefore He became man in Mary of Nazareth. It is extremely important to see Mary in the framework of the mystery of salvation.

The interior action of the Holy Spirit is urging Christians of our time to make increasing use of the Bible as their basic book of prayer and to draw from it solid counsel and models. Devotion to the Blessed Virgin, in particular, should derive new strength and sure value from it. Unless we try to do our best to rediscover your Mother, Mary, through Holy Scripture, we will certainly lose strength and dynamism. During my mortal life, I, your Mother, gave perfect example of what it is to be a disciple of Jesus Christ. I ask you to go in holiness each and every day. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

#230 February 25, 1995

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, continue to listen to my messages; and when you do that I will give you the blessings every day from the right side of the Cross. Why did they do this to me? Why did they discontinue the abortion prayer? I ask you to ask the woman to continue the prayer. It is very essential.

The number one priority beginning this Lenten season, Wednesday, March 1st: I ask all of you to go to confession, reconciliation, and do much penance. When you do that, offer it for the intentions of my Immaculate Heart. I want you to hold your Rosary facing the Cross. I ask each and every one of you to pray the Rosary each day and meditate on the mysteries of the Rosary. Go in peace and harmony. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

The Abortion Prayer mentioned in the above message:

Dear Lord, I offer you all my prayers, sacrifice and fast of this day. I offer them to you, Heavenly Father, because I sorrow over the abortions done today and every day and I beg you to intercede. I however, knows that it celebrates the central event of human history: The Incarnation of the Divine Word for the redemption of humanity. In fact, Christmas makes us reflect on one hand, about the dramatic quality of human history in which people wounded by sin are on a continuing quest for truth, pardon, mercy, and redemption; and on the other hand, about the goodness of God who drew near to mankind in order to communicate directly the truth which saves and makes us sharers of His friendship and light. Christmas is a feast of Divine Love. He created us out of love, and out of love He has redeemed us through Christ, and awaits us in His Kingdom. We do well to remember that we are miserably afflicted by three ills: We are easily led astray, weak in acting, and weak in resisting. If we want to distinguish between good and evil, we deceive ourselves; if we try to do good, we do not have the strength to force ourselves to resist evil. We are disheartened and give in. Therefore, we need the Saviors coming, and Christ's presence among people who are so afflicted. Thus, My Son Jesus teaches us that for God there is true value in humility, hiddenness, the peaceful and joyous acceptance of His will in a charity which is ready to do something about the many needs of our brothers and sisters. Christmas is the feast of God's love for mankind. As I express my very best wishes for a blessed Christmas, I heartily wish that you may be witnesses and messengers of this charity. Bring peacefulness and warm-heartedness to your homes, parishes, and where ever you live your life. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

place my small efforts at the foot of the Cross of the Crucified Christ, who died to save our souls and to atone to you, Father, for my sins and the sins of all men. Your Son's Blood washed away sin and gave us the gift of life everlasting, Father, and in His Name, I ask for forgiveness of all those who have aborted Your gift of life from their womb. Father, I desire to do so much more to stop this dreaded sin, which is upon all of us in this great land, and I seek your guidance and grace as I pursue efforts to restore respect for the lives of all your children. Please accept my sacrifices, dear Lord, and help all of us who strive for your will in this pro-life work. Amen.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, you are not living up to the devotions of the Lenten Season. It is not too late to start now. You must go on committing yourself to my Immaculate Heart, and please do the Lenten duties that I asked you to do. Go to confession, reconciliation, and do much penance for all the wrongs you have done. Many have not gone to Mass during the week. I asked you to do so at this time. I am with you always, and I love each and every one of you. I keep all of you close to my Immaculate Heart, and I bless you each and every day that you are at the Cross. You deserve every blessing that I give to all of you. Remember each day that you are at the Cross to go in holiness. I will be able to keep my promise to Joseph that he will be here at the Cross on Easter Sunday, at approximately 10:30, and he will be under my protection on the way to the Cross. Queen of Heaven Cemetery, here at the Cross, is a most blessed place. I want you to know that I am your motherly Mother. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, I am the Immaculate heart of Mary, your Mother. I come before you — each of you — at this Cross to remind you to renew your prayers of the Rosary at the Cross.

I ask Joseph for each of you to continue your many prayers that you have offered to me for the many sick people of the world. Do not fail me at this time, as many of you have done. I will send you my blessings, which I give to you each day at the Cross. It is a very special blessing that I give to you all from the Cross. Continue to do so, because I love you all.

Again I say to you, remember your prayers of the Rosary, and remember I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace. I bless you all for what you have done for me already. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace, and I ask you all to go in peace. That concludes my message. Go in holiness from this day forward.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My dear children, the Cross at Queen of Heaven Cemetery is a most beautiful place to come to pray. Now it shall be called the New Jerusalem (*) of Queen of Heaven Cemetery. I continue to ask you all here at the Cross to pray for the terminally ill and for the poor souls in Purgatory, who continue to wait for your prayers. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace, and remember that I love each and every one of you, and I want you to love your family and all people, so that we can have peace throughout the world. I continue to ask you all to pray for my special intentions, and I will continue to bless you all, for I want you to know I am your Mother, the queen of Peace.

(*) Our Lady said we should read chapters 21 and 22 in the Book of Revelation — the last book in the Bible.

Chapter 21:1-4 — And I saw a new Heaven and a new earth, for the first Heaven and the first earth passed away, and the sea is no more. And I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of Heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold the dwelling of God with men, and he will dwell with them. And they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes. And death shall be no more; neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away."

Chapter 22:1-5 — And he showed me a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, coming forth from the throne of God and of the Lamb. In the midst of the city street, on both sides of the river, was the tree of life, bearing twelve fruits, yielding its fruit according to each month, and the leaves for the healing of the nations.

And there shall be no more any accursed thing; but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his servants shall serve him. And they shall see his face and his name shall be on their foreheads. And night shall be no more, and they shall have no need of light of lamp, or light of sun, for the Lord God will shed light upon them; and they shall reign forever and ever.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus.

My children, all the nations will be transformed like ancient cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. Some cities may even vanish; others I promise will blossom to new beauty and splendor. Evil will be paralyzed. Satan believes that there is no mercy because he does not believe in mercy. He believes that you should all follow him; he claims he is the greatest. My little children, I pray to, and intercede before, my Son Jesus, so that the dreams your fathers had may be fulfilled. Please read my message of August 25, 1994 from Medjugorje.

I am sure that each one of you senses in your heart the approach of those prophecies of Fatima. In the end my Immaculate heart will triumph. The new times will make victory of good over evil; the coming era will find many changes. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace. I bless each and every one of you for your kindness. Go in peace and holiness each and every day. I ask God to send the Holy Spirit upon each and every one of you.

August 25, 1994 — Message from Medjugorje for the world:

Dear children, today I am united with you in prayer in a special way — praying for the gift of the presence of my beloved son in your home country. Pray, little children, for the health of my most beloved son (Pope John Paul II), who suffers, and whom I have chosen for these times. I pray and intercede before my Son Jesus, so that the dream that your fathers had may be fulfilled. Pray, little children, in a special way, because Satan is strong and wants to destroy hope in your hearts. I bless you. Thank you for having responded to my call.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, at Fatima, I your Mother had warned that from Russia will come forth the Satanic spirit that would invade and poison the hearts of the people. Today the menace of Russia is becoming real for all of us. In fact, Russia has yet to be converted, and the spirit of lies still reigns as sovereign; though the battle for the triumph of truth over lies in the world as well as in the Church, can be won by your Mother, the Queen of Peace; because God has entrusted to me the final victory: The request for consecration made in Fatima, as to enable us to win this Hellish struggle with Satan. Remember, I again tell you, my children, much conversion is needed by my children. Make it be so. I am the Immaculate Heart of Mary, your mother. I love you all very much. Go in holiness. This I tell you all, that I love and continue to love each one of you. Go in peace, I am the Queen of Peace. I am the Mother of God, the Virgin Mary. Again I say, I love you all very much.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, accept what God offers. I am the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Queen of Peace, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary. I, your Mother, have asked you many times to accept my messages with seriousness. And my messages always call to accept Jesus in a deeper way into our lives — through increased prayer, fasting and conversion. In other words, accept God's Will for us. Why is it that it seems easier to accept Jesus into our lives than God's Will? Do you have that secret will inside you to think that "if He whispers, I will accept His Will, something bad will happen?" Why do we have this "idea" that God wills something bad for us? I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children this is my Mother's monthly message to the world. Today I call you to prayer. I am with you, and I love you all. I am your Mother, and I wish that your hearts be similar to my heart. Little children, without prayer you cannot live. Prayer is joy; prayers with the human heart. Therefore, let the children get closer to my Immaculate Heart. You will discover God. Thank you very much for listening to my prayer. Today I am joyful with you, and I pray with you for peace — peace in your hearts — peace in your families — peace in your desires — peace in the whole world. May the King of peace bless you today and give you peace, and I carry each of you in my heart. I invite you to open the door of your heart to Jesus, as the flower opens itself to the sun. My Son Jesus desires to fill your heart with peace and joy. You cannot, little children, realize peace if you are not at peace with Jesus. I invite you to confession, so Jesus may be your truth and peace. So, little children, pray to have strength to realize what I am telling you, and I love you. Thank you for responding to my messages. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace — Queen of all my children — Queen of the most Holy Rosary.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus.

Dear Children:

I ask you to attend Our Lady of Sorrows Church on the first Saturday of the month. Saturday devotion, the Holy Rosary, Healing mass, Confession and Communion, and the blessing after mass. On the first Tuesday the Rosary, Mary devotion at Our Lady of Lebanon Church at 5:40 p.m. Rosary and Mass Litany and Benediction and blessing after the mass. Next at Christ the King Church in Lombard three Rosaries and mass, Celebration, confession, Communion and blessing will be given, on the first Thursday of the month at 6:30 p.m.

I am your mother the Queen of Peace. I bless you with my motherly blessing. I thank you for listening to my messages. I am the Mother of God the Queen of Peace. I love you all. Praise Jesus. My children, I am your mother and I come to tell you about the holy sacrifice of the mass. The Holy Mass is the unbloody sacrifice of the New Testament in which the body and blood of our savior Jesus Christ are offered to God under the appearance of bread and wine. Humanity's redemption was accomplished when Jesus bowed his head in death on the cross. The holy Mass is the sacrament of the sacrifice of redemption.

#240 October 25, 1995 12:15 PM

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Dear Children:

I am your mother, the Mother of God. I come before all of you to give my blessings to each of you, and please listen to my message. Why is it so difficult for you to listen to my messages and to live them!

The Lord be with you and with your spirit. By the sign of the Holy Cross may my Son Jesus protect your people from the snares of all their enemies, that we may be able to render you worthy service, and your sacrifice may be acceptable to You my Son Jesus Christ. May this offering, O Lord, we beseech You, purify us from all our sins of the whole world. By the sign of the Holy Cross deliver us from our enemies, Lord Jesus our God, and the Lord be with you and with the Holy Spirit. Be present with us, O Lord our God, and support us with its increasing love. Help those whom you cause to rejoice in honor of the Holy Cross through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen. (This is a prayer that, the Holy Spirit as well as the Lord be with us.)

Pray, pray much more. I am the Queen of Peace, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary. Remember my last message, in which I have asked many of you to do this for me. I love you, my children. I am with you always at the Cross.

#241 November 25, 1995.

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, this is Saturday the 25th at 5:15 p.m. This is my message to all of you. I convert myself entirely to you, Lord Jesus and to those men who gave their entire selves to make us be able to sign these papers and for all those men who gave their entire self for all the people throughout the world to make the settlement honestly, and We commend all those people who worked so diligently to make a peace settlement and I ask all of you to pray for these people for making the effort as well as they did. Our prayers are meant for all those who gave their efforts to make their peace settlement, and it is a good one. Our prayers are thus said by saying that joyful mysteries are said in full agreement with all of us and the sorrowful mysteries to be said for all of these men who made their time and effort. This is my wish to all of you so this will be an everlasting peace and that all wars will end as soon as possible as we continue to pray. I am your mother, the Queen of Peace, and of all Rosaries, and of all Prayers. We want this to be an everlasting peace forever and this is for all the presidents who made this possible and who worked so diligently on making this a peace effort. My Son and I are so happy on this occasion that has occurred at this time. I want this to be a lasting peace and I send my love to all of you and I have never forgotten the blessing I give to each one of you. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace. And remember that these people are still suffering in Yugoslavia. The winters are very cold and snowy. Wish there will be warmth for them so they can live a normal life. Those that are living in refugee camps will return home so they can live a normal life again. If they cannot rebuild their homes, we can help them so they can get back on their feet again. Again, I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace and want this peace to be held together forever and ever, so let us help them regain their composure and live a normal life. Remember all those people who are terminally ill and waiting to recover from their illnesses. Remember that this was a binding offer from all the presidents who sat in on the conference, which was a hard offer to express. Again, I say to you: Listen to my prayers, which I say to you often. Let us remember that we must have peace throughout the world. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace.

Note: Later, Our Lady recommended that we pray the glorious mysteries of the Rosary also.

#242 January 25, 1996

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Repent, repent and convert yourself entirely to my Son, Jesus Christ. This is my message to Joseph on Thursday, January 25, 1996 at 10:15 PM.

Listen to my messages to Joseph and that message is for you all to pray, pray for our mothers, fathers and especially for our children and for peace throughout the whole world.

I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace and Queen of the Rosary, and I love each and everyone of you and send my love to all of you and I ask you all to pray, pray the Rosary for mothers, fathers and my children. This I ask of all of you. I will always give my love to all of you, so please take care of my children with prayers for them. They mean so much to me and I want peace among them.

I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace and Queen of the most Holy Rosary, my blessing is for all of you, I bless you all. Please pray, please pray for my children. I love you all, I am your mother, the Queen of Peace.

#243 February 25, 1996 10:15 AM

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My children, before I give you my message, Joseph asked a few questions of me about prayers to be said at the Cross. First I would like all my children to continue to reverently pray the most Holy Rosary and during this Lenten season to pray the fifth mystery - the Crucifixion on your knees. Next I told Joseph to only pray the Divine Mercy Prayer at 3:00 PM daily from now on and to continue to pray the abortion prayer but only individually and from one's heart.

Pray the Holy Rosary without distraction and with total reverence and devotion from your hearts, my children. Pray for peace in your homes, in your families and throughout the whole world. Continue my children to pray for my priests to guide them and keep them in the Church. Keep holy the holy day, my children, and fast in my name during this Lenten season. Continue to pray for my children and their mothers and fathers and for peace in the world. Pray for the sick and elderly, and do penance for your sins. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace and Queen of the most Holy Rosary and I bless you all for your continued prayers for peace for all. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace and the Holy Virgin Mother of God and all of you children. Listen to all of my messages to Joseph and continue to pray the Rosary daily. I need all of your prayers.

Note: Joseph commented that Our Lady said that one can pray as many Rosaries and Divine Mercy prayers as they want throughout the day. This message applied to the prayer group at the Cross. Joseph was given permission from the Archdiocese of Chicago to pray between 9:00 A.M. until 10:00 A.M. During this hour, Our Lady chose for us to pray five decades of the Rosary, slow and from the heart, with reverence, devotion, and love. Also some of her messages from both Queen of Heaven and Medjugorje are read. Three Our Fathers, Hail Marys, and Glory Bes are offered up for all the sick, terminally ill, the handicapped, the elderly, those in nursing homes and the dying. Three Our Fathers and Glory Bes for peace in our hearts, families, the church, and a lasting peace for all peoples and nations. Three Our Fathers and Glory Bes for the poor souls in Purgatory. When prayed at the pace Our Lady requested, this takes the entire hour. Our Lady also requests that we try to go to Mass, pray the other ten decades of the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, the Peace Rosary, and personal prayers every day. Of course, Our Lady said we can do more if we desire.

#244 March 25, 1996 3:15 PM

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus my children and convert yourselves to Jesus, my Son. I call on every one of you, my dear children to hear and live my messages and to try to better understand them and what they are asking from each of you. I ask each of you to continue to pray for the poor souls in Purgatory and for the terminally ill. Pray the most Holy Rosary from your hearts with reverence and devotion while at the Cross at Queen of Heaven Cemetery. I am your Mother, the Queen of the most Holy Rosary and the Queen of Peace. Pray my children for a lasting peace in Yugoslavia and for peace to come for the Israeli and Palestinian peoples in the Mideast and for peace throughout the whole world.

Please, dear children, pray, pray without distraction and pray with reverence and devotion and find peace within yourselves. I will continue to watch and pray for you all and I bless each of you in my Son's name, and I love you all. I am your Mother, the Queen of Peace and Queen of the most Holy Rosary and may God and my Son Jesus bless you all.

#245 April 25, 1996 5:05 PM

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus, dear children, and convert yourselves entirely to my Son, Jesus Christ. My heart is deeply saddened my children because some of you are questioning my messages and not making them a part of your daily lives. Why do you question? Have you no faith? My messages are important. Please hear them and practice and live them from your hearts.

I ask each of you, dear children, to pray, pray three Rosaries every day. Pray the Joyful mysteries, the Sorrowful mysteries and the Glorious mysteries and pray them with reverence and devotion from your heart. As you pray each decade of each mystery, my children, reflect on each individual mystery and what it means. I also ask each of you to continue to attend the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and receive the Body and Blood of my Son, Jesus Christ, in the form of bread and wine. I also ask that each of you participate more during Mass by following the readings and Gospels more closely and make them a part of your daily lives.

I love you all my dear children and I ask that each of you to continue to pray for the poor souls in Purgatory, the sick and handicapped, and for my little children who need our love and direction very much. Pray also my children for peace within yourselves and for peace throughout the whole world. Continue to pray for our Holy Father the Pope and my priests, nuns and lay persons so that they will better understand my Son's teachings and words and how to better deliver his messages to us so that we will better understand and live them. Learn to be compassionate and forgiving and continue to pray from your hearts with reverence, devotion and love.

I am your Heavenly mother, the mother of Jesus Christ and I love each one of you very much and I bless you all in the name of my Son, Jesus Christ. I am your mother, the Queen of Peace, and Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, and I want each of you to pray, pray more on your own so that my special plan and that of God the Father will be realized and come to pass. Disregard and dismiss temptation, my children, and convert yourselves entirely to my Son, Jesus Christ, for in Heaven you will have total peace and everlasting love with no needs.

#246 May 25 1996. 1:00 p.m.

Dear children, these messages are for all of you. My Son, Jesus Christ, and I are not pleased with your conduct and especially the conduct of your children. There is so much cursing and drinking and drug use by mothers, fathers and their children. Pray, pray for peace in your families as I have asked from each of you. Some of my children continue to disregard and dismiss my messages because of your life style. Time may be short, my children. Start now to bring yourselves and your families back to Christ.

Look into your hearts, my children, and you will truly see where you are headed.

Repent for your sins and seek forgiveness my children and convert yourselves to my son, Jesus Christ. Stop living in sin, my children and cast Satan and his evil ways from your lives and become reborn in Christ, my Son.

Little children, I ask each of you to live the commandments that were given to all of you from God the Father. Continue to pray, my children, from your hearts with true devotion and sincerity. My Son, Jesus and I and God the Father are deeply pleased with those leading the most Holy Rosary at the Cross and want this to be done throughout the whole world. Continue my children to pray for our Holy Father, the Pope, our Cardinals and Bishops, my priests and nuns and lay persons because they need your prayers even more now. Continue to pray for the sick and for the poor souls in Purgatory because they need prayers desperately. Continue to pray the Rosary with love, reverence and devotion, my children, and find forgiveness for those who offend you. Pray for continued conversions, peace throughout the whole world and for purification of your souls.

Time is growing short, my children. Soon I'll no longer be appearing to some of you who now receive my messages. Hear and start now to live all of my messages not only from the Cross but from Fatima, Lourdes, Garabandal and Medjugorje. Even when I no longer appear I'll still be with you through my messages.

I am your mother, the Queen of Peace and Queen of the Most Holy Rosary and I ask you all to live my messages from your hearts and never go astray. I love you all, my children, and will be watching over you forever. I bless each of you in the name of my dear Son, Jesus Christ.

#247 June 25, 1996 10:35 AM

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus, my children. Repent for your sins my children and convert yourselves to my Son, Jesus Christ. Dear children, some of you are still not praying the Rosary as I have asked. Pray, my children, with sincerity, reverence, love and devotion. Pray from your hearts, my children, so you can find the true peace and love you desperately seek. I ask you all to convert yourselves entirely to me as your Heavenly Queen, the Mother of Peace.

Please, my little children, continue to pray, pray for our Holy Father the Pope, all my priests and deacons, brothers and Nuns and lay persons so that they all continue to do God's work. Pray more, my children, for the sick and the elderly and especially for the poor souls in Purgatory so that they can gain eternal rest in Heaven. I am your mother, the Queen of Peace, and Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, and I love you all and I bless you in the name of my Son, Jesus Christ. Go in peace, my children, and do good works, this is my request of you.

#248 July 25, 1996 3:30 PM

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus my children. Little children, I ask you all to continue to pray, pray more than you have and find peace within yourselves. Some of you my children, have stone hearts. Learn to forgive and pray as families. Some of you may find this difficult to do but to experience conversion you must find a way. Remember the commandments that were given from God the Father to each of you, my children, and start to live them daily. Go to confession more often, my children, because peace within yourself starts there.

Change your ways, my little children, and be more like my Son, Jesus Christ. Learn to be more humble and find forgiveness in your hearts. Mothers and fathers, husbands and wives must first find peace between themselves before they will find it with their children. You first need to find peace yourself within you. Don't blame others for your mistakes, my children. Learn to accept responsibility for your misdeeds and ask for God's help and mercy.

My dearest children, please continue to pray the most Holy Rosary with sincerity and dignity. Pray slower, my children, and meditate on the meaning of each decade of each mystery. Pray from your hearts with reverence and devotion. Pray the Joyful mysteries on Monday and Thursday, the Sorrowful mysteries on Tuesday and Friday, and the Glorious mysteries on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. Pray three Rosaries each day, my children. Pray one as a family with your family.

Please, my little children, continue to pray for a lasting peace among all peoples and nations. Continue to pray for your Holy Father, the Pope, and for all my clergy and laypersons. Pray for the sick, the handicapped, the elderly and especially for those who are dying, and the poor souls in Purgatory. I am your mother, the Queen of Peace and Queen of the most Holy Rosary and I bless each of you in the name of my Son, Jesus Christ. Go in peace, my little children, and convert yourselves to my Son, Jesus Christ. I love you all, my little children, and thank you for all of your prayers. They have pleased my Son and His Father, and many blessings have been given to each of you. Live my messages little children and make them a part of your daily lives.

#249 August 25, 1996 3:30 PM

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus my children. My dearest children, I thank you, all of you who came here to the Cross on my feast day and prayed the Rosaries and sang songs in my honor. Each of you received many blessings and brought much happiness to my heart. Today my children, I ask that each of you to continue to pray, pray for all my clergy, pray for peace throughout the whole world. I ask that a daily Rosary be said by each of you for all the poor souls in Purgatory my children. Some of you, my children, need to change your ways. Repent dear children and live my messages and start to live the Ten Commandments. Do more penance my little children and go to confession more often.

I love you all, my little children, and I want all of you to attain Heaven. Please, change your ways and become more like my Son, Jesus. Speak only the truth and give up your sinful ways. I love you all my little children and I am your Heavenly Mother, the Queen of Peace and Queen of the most Holy Rosary. Little children, I want to love all of you, but some of you still need to repent more and do more penance for your sins to gain complete forgiveness from God. Go in peace my children and show love toward each other and continue to live my messages.

#250 August 25, 1996 9:35 PM

Pray, my children, for your Cardinal Bernardin and all bishops and priests to work with him to correct divisions that exist in our Catholic community. Pray each day for peace to come to the Cross. Pray one Our Father, one Hail Mary and one Glory Be to the Father each day for these special intentions.

#251 September 2, 1996 11:20 AM

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. Why, my children, do you still not live my messages? Each month I give to Joseph, my messenger, a message for all of you. Some of you still choose not to hear. Learn to be more humble, my children. I have given you the keys to salvation. Pray the most Holy Rosary, attend Mass with a pure heart, receive the sacraments of Penance and Communion and live my messages. Conversion to my Son Jesus Christ and living the commandments are necessary for salvation my children. Keep holy these keys of salvation.

Some of you have brought much sadness to my heart and that of my Son through your actions and I ask you to repent and seek forgiveness from those you have offended. Humble yourselves, my children, and open your cold hearts to my Son. I ask each of you to sit down each day and read one of my messages and then start to live them. Make my messages a part of your daily lives.

Dear children, your world has again become very sinful and Satan has taken control again of many souls. Pray my children for all sinners throughout the whole world. Continue to pray for all my clergy, especially for your Holy Father the Pope and for peace throughout the whole world. Peace, my children, is very fragile in many countries. Pray for the leaders of all countries so that they will continue to work for lasting peace. Pray, my children, for the sick and those who are dying that they find peace with God.

I am your mother, the Queen of Peace and Queen of the Most Holy Rosary and I will be with you daily. Go in peace, dear children, and do only those things that please my Son and His Father.

#252 November 12, 1996 3:20 PM

Praise Jesus. Praise Jesus. My dearest children, today I have spoken with Joseph and have told him that the mission I have given him will soon end and that he will be with me forever. I ask each of you, my children, to continue to pray the most Holy Rosary daily, live all the Commandments given to you by God the Father with no exceptions and make peace with those you have offended.

Look at the Cross in front of you, my children, and think of what my Son Jesus Christ, did for all of you through His death and Resurrection.

Some of you, my children, have become weak in your faith since Joseph has not been with you. Where is your trust in God?

Time is growing short for all of you, my children. Soon my Son will give to the world a great sign that all peoples will see and recognize.

Repent for your sins, my children, and live your lives in Christ, for there is much danger and turmoil in the world. Continue to pray. Pray from your hearts for an end to wars and killing. Pray for world peace and for the leaders of all countries to find the road to lasting peace.

Please dear children, continue to pray for all the poor souls in Purgatory, the sick and elderly and for those who have left the faith.

Pray for all my cardinals, bishops, priests, deacons and nuns to continue to teach and spread the word of God.

Pray for world peace and for the leaders of all countries to find the road to lasting peace.

I love all of you, my children, and ask each of you to read and live the messages I have given you over the years, especially those within the last year. Live my messages, dear children, and find peace within your hearts.

Attend Mass and receive the body and blood of my Son, Jesus Christ and go to confession monthly. Read the Bible my children, for within (it) you will find peace and the way to salvation.

I love each of you, my children, and want you to come home to me some day, but you must repent for your sins and change your lives.

Ask God for mercy and do good deeds. Do penance daily for your sins and spread the word of God through your deeds.

The Cross is my "sign" to all of you of the pain I suffered.

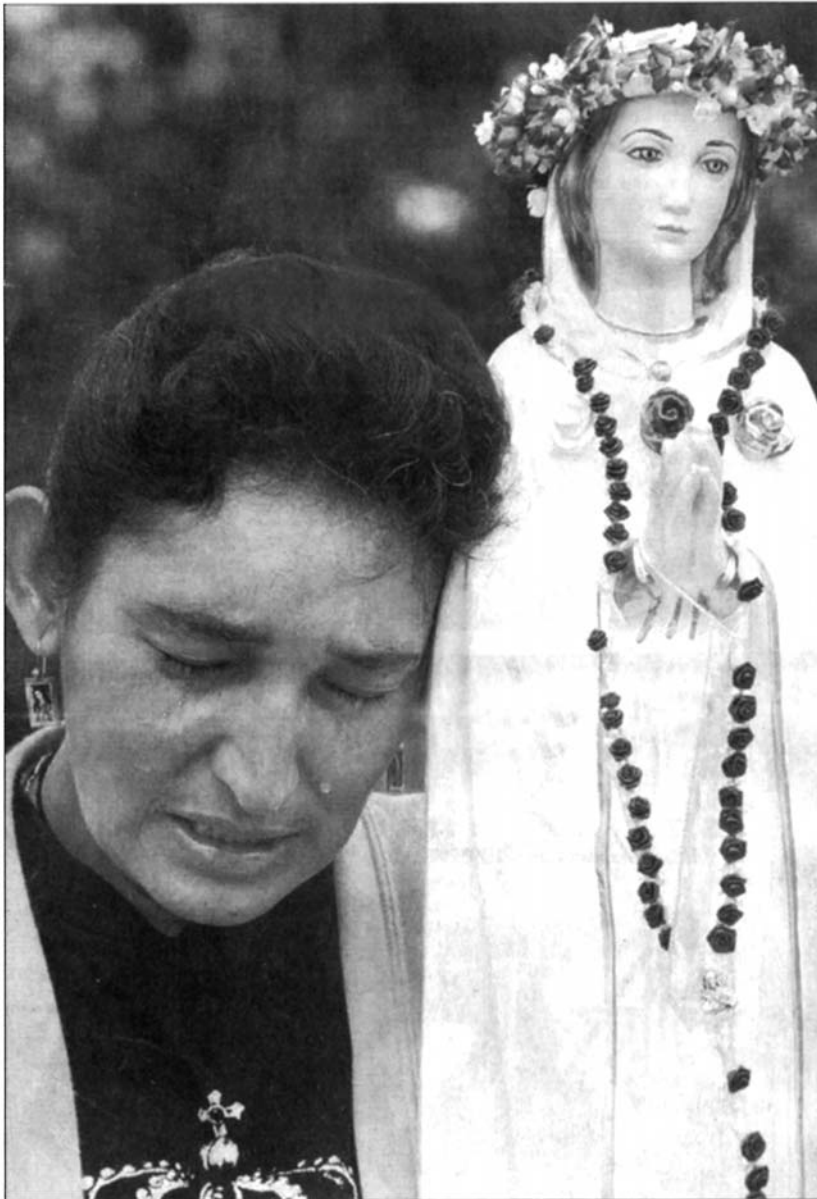

Go in peace, my children, for I am your Heavenly Mother, the Queen of Peace and Queen of the most Holy Rosary, and will remain with all of you as Our Lady of the Cross. Δ

Francis Velez cries as she prays, holding a statue of the Virgin Mary in a corner of Queen of Heaven Cemetery in Hillside. Worshipers Wednesday discovered the vandalism of a crucifix.

Vandals damage cemetery statue, shock faithful

By Steve Mills
TRIBUNE STAFF WRITER

For the last three years, the southeast corner of the Queen of Heaven Cemetery in west suburban Hillside has been a place where people say that miracles occur: a retiree's blindness healed, a vision of the Virgin Mary, a crucifix bleeding.

On Wednesday morning, though, it was the site of an act of malice. The dozens of daily worshipers who gather in the cemetery around a crucifix to say the rosary and to pray discovered vandals had broken off the feet from the figure of Christ.

"I can't believe someone would do something like this. It's so peaceful here," said Sam Pillizzi, 64, a retired American Motors forklift operator. "What can you make of it? What can you say about this destruction?"

Cemetery officials were at a loss to explain when or why the incident occurred at the approximately 14-foot crucifix where a retired railroad worker says his blindness was healed in 1986, after he saw a vision of the Virgin Mary there.

Nor could the Cook County Sheriff's Office, which is investigating the incident, suggest a motive. Officials said no witnesses to the destruction have come forth, but there is nothing to suggest it was more than a random act of vandalism.

"There's always kids going into cemeteries and pushing over headstones," said Cook County Sheriff's Sgt. Edward O'Dea. "This time they cut off the feet."

But to many of the Wednesday worshipers, some of them in

THE FATIMA STORY

FATIMA SUMMARY

God sent Saint Michael and Mary the Mother of Jesus to three shepherd children in 1917 at Portugal to deliver a message of Peace to the world headed for war. These and other apparitions fulfill the prophecies given in chapter twelve of the Book of Revelations. God is using Mary, Saint Michael, and the Body of Christ to defeat the devil and give peace to the world. All the faithful is required to help because we are many members of one body and Jesus is the head. (1 Cor 12:20, Ephesians 5:23)

THE SOLUTION

Heaven made it clear on how to win this spiritual battle.

1. Lead good lives.
2. The Pope, in union with all the Bishops of the world, to consecrate Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.
3. Faithful to practice the Five First Saturday devotion.

FIVE FIRST SATURDAYS: For five consecutive first Saturdays of the month we are to:

1. Attend Mass and receive Communion
2. Pray 5 decades of the Holy Rosary.
3. Go to Confession. (8 days before or after)
4. Meditate for 15 minutes on the 15 mysteries of the Rosary.
5. Offer all prayers up for the sins and blasphemies against the Immaculate Heart of Mary. {The devil cast out of his mouth (blasphemies) as a flood after (Blessed Mary) that she might be carried away. But the earth helped her.} (Revelations 12:15,16)

THE PROMISE

The Mother of God will assist us at the hour of death with all the graces necessary for salvation.

THE WARNING

“If my requests are heeded, Russia will be converted, and there will be peace; if not, she will spread her errors throughout the world, causing wars and persecutions of the Church. The good will be martyred, the Holy Father will have much to suffer; various entire nations will be annihilated. Finally, my Immaculate Heart will triumph. The Holy Father will consecrate Russia to me, and it will be converted, and a time of peace will be granted to the world.”

THE MIRACLE

On October 13, 1917 a miracle was predicted. Even though it rained for two days, 70,000 people came. The rain stopped and they all witnessed the sun dance. After this, the ground and clothes were immediately dry. Many sick and crippled were cured.

THE HISTORY

In 1917, people laughed because Russia was an undeveloped third world country. Shortly after, Russia became a super power, annihilated many nations and persecuted the Church. Pope John Paul II consecrated Russia and the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary in 1984. Gorbachev became president in 1985. The Berlin wall came down in 1989. This amazed everyone and gives much renewed hope to the power behind the message from Heaven.

SISTER LUCY'S SECRET OF FATIMA GIVEN IN 1917

Well, the secret is made up of three distinct parts, two of which I am now going to reveal.

The first part is the vision of hell.

“Our Lady showed us a great sea of fire which seemed to be under the earth. Plunged in this fire were demons and souls in human form, like transparent burning embers, all blackened or burnished bronze, floating about in the conflagration, now raised into the air by the flames that issued from within themselves together with great clouds of smoke, now falling back on every side like sparks in a huge fire, without weight or equilibrium, and amid shrieks and groans of pain and despair, which horrified us and made us tremble with fear. The demons could be distinguished by their terrifying and repulsive likeness to frightful and unknown animals, all black and transparent. This vision lasted but an instant. How can we ever be grateful enough to our kind heavenly Mother, who had already prepared us by promising, in the first Apparition, to take us to heaven. Otherwise, I think we would have died of fear and terror.

“We then looked up at Our Lady, who said to us so kindly and so sadly:

‘You have seen hell where the souls of poor sinners go. To save them, God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If what I say to you is done, many souls will be saved and there will be peace. The war is going to end: but if people do not cease offending God, a worse one will break out during the Pontificate of Pius XI. When you see a night illumined by an unknown light, know that this is the great sign given you by God that he is about to punish the world for its crimes, by means of war, famine, and persecutions of the Church and of the Holy Father. To prevent this, I shall come to ask for the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart, and the Communion of reparation on the First Saturdays. If my requests are heeded, Russia will be converted, and there will be peace; if not, she will spread her errors throughout the world, causing wars and persecutions of the Church. The good will be martyred; the Holy Father will have much to suffer; various nations will be annihilated. In the end, my Immaculate Heart will triumph. The Holy Father will consecrate Russia to me, and she shall be converted, and a period of peace will be granted to the world’”(7)

THE THIRD SECRET OF FATIMA RELEASED BY POPE JOHN PAUL II ON MAY 13, 2000

The third part of the secret revealed at the Cova da Iria-Fatima, on 13 July 1917:

“I write in obedience to you, my God, who command me to do so through his Excellency the Bishop of Leiria and through your Most Holy Mother and mine.

After the two parts which I have already explained, at the left of Our Lady and a little above, we saw an Angel with a flaming sword in his left hand; flashing, it gave out flames that looked as though they would set the world on fire; but they died out in contact with the splendour that Our Lady radiated towards him from her right hand: pointing to the earth with his right hand, the Angel cried out in a loud voice: ‘Penance, Penance, Penance!’ And we saw in an immense light that is God: ‘something similar to how people appear in a mirror when they pass in front of it’ a Bishop dressed in White ‘we had the impression that it was the Holy Father’. Other Bishops, Priests, men and women Religious going up a steep mountain, at the top of which there was a big Cross of rough-hewn trunks as of a cork-tree with the bark; before reaching there the Holy Father passed through a big city half in ruins and half trembling with halting step, afflicted with pain and sorrow, he prayed for the souls of the corpses he met on his way; having reached the top of the mountain, on his knees at the foot of the big Cross he was killed by a group of soldiers who fired bullets and arrows at him, and in the same way there died one after another the other Bishops, Priests, men and women Religious, and various lay people of different ranks and positions. Beneath the two arms of the Cross there were two Angels each with a crystal aspersorium in his hand, in which they gathered up the blood of the Martyrs and with it sprinkled the souls that were making their way to God.”

ST MICHAEL:

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Divine power of God, thrust into Hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who wander throughout the world, seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

GUARDIAN ANGEL:

My angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here. Ever this day be at my side, to light to guard, to rule and guide, amen.

CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Jesus, we know that You are merciful and that You have offered Your Heart for us. It is crowned with thorns and with our sins. We know that You implore us constantly so that we do not go astray. Jesus, remember us when we are in sin. By means of Your Heart make all men love one another. Make hate disappear from amongst men. Show us Your Love. We all love You and want You to protect us with Your Shepherd's Heart and free us from every sin. Jesus, enter into every heart! Knock, knock at the door of our heart. Be patient and never desist. We are still closed because we have not understood Your Love. Knock continuously. O Good Jesus, make us open our hearts to You at least in the moment we remember Your Passion suffered for us. Amen.

CONSECRATION TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY "TOTUS TUUS"

(On Jan 22 1888, Pope Leo XIII granted a plenary indulgence to all who would make Father De Montfort's new blessed Act of Consecration.)

"I N., a faithless sinner - renew and ratify today in thy hands, O Immaculate Mother, the vows of my Baptism; I renounce forever Satan, his pomps and works; and I give myself entirely to Jesus Christ, the Incarnate Wisdom, to carry my cross after Him all the days of my life, and to be more faithful to Him than I have ever been before."

"In the presence of all the heavenly court I choose thee this day for my Mother and Mistress. I deliver and consecrate to thee, as thy slave, my body and soul, my goods, both interior and exterior, and even the value of all my good actions, past, present and future; leaving to thee the entire and full right of disposing of me and all that belongs to me, without exception, according to thy good pleasure, for the greater glory of God, in time and in eternity. Amen."

I REPENT! I REPENT! I REPENT! I CONVERT MYSELF ENTIRELY TO YOU LORD JESUS!

MY GOD, I BELIEVE, I ADORE, I TRUST, AND I LOVE THEE!
I BEG PARDON FOR THOSE WHO DO NOT BELIEVE, DO NOT ADORE, DO NOT TRUST, AND DO NOT LOVE THEE.

COME HOLY SPIRIT, FILL OUR HEARTS AND KINDLE IN THEM THE FIRE OF THY LOVE, SEND FORTH THY SPIRIT AND WE SHALL BE CREATED AND THOU SHALL RENEW THE FACE OF THE EARTH.

BETWEEN EACH DECADE PRAY;

* O My Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to Heaven, especially those who have most need of your mercy.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth and in Jesus Christ, his only son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE OUR FATHER

Our Father, Who art in Heaven; hallowed be Thy name; Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

HAIL MARY

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

GLORY BE

Glory Be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
