(Psalm 19)

Jesus: My child, You do not always feel Me in the same way, but do not let the darkness hinder you from going forward. You must humble yourself and go on your way in faith. Keep going, never stop! Nothing ever makes Me lose sight of My children on earth, their ideas and thoughts are short lived, and so they imagine I am like them in this. You see little one, you can do nothing by yourself, throw yourself into My arms every morning and ask Me for My strength in all things. Life is made up of little things, don't count on yourself anymore, count only on Me. Your loving Jesus.

Jesus: My children, on the last evening of My life among you, how sweet and solemn it was. I gave Myself to every soul right to the end of the world. I was already in your heart by My yearning for you. I had so great a desire that everyone might receive the sacrament of My love, since I came to invent it for you. I saw all the benefits that each of you would find in it. But in My agony, I also saw, desecrations and sacrileges, I saw what I had done with such great love become an object of hatred and loss. What an exchange for the infinite delicacy of My love. I was alone in My suffering. You, dear ones, who have the joy of receiving Me every day, ask that this same grace be given to others. Say to Me, "My Lord, choose them, you who know all the secret souls, and apply My prayer to them." If you are the means of bringing one or many into frequent fellowship with Me, I will be forever grateful, not only for the glory gained by it, but above all for the joy it will bring to My Heart. I will let you feel this joy reflected upon you. Go in peace. Your loving Jesus.

Jan 3, 2011
During the prayer group;

Jesus: Who among you has yet to give Me their sins as I have asked for My present. You know who you are. I ask again, give Me your sins that I may give you pardon and forgiveness and keep you close to My Sacred Heart.

Jan 9, 2011
(Psalm 61)

Jesus: My child, be a gracious host, greeting everyone the way I would greet them. Be kind and generous to all that are placed in your path. Let laughter fill your spirit when anyone wishes to attack you, especially verbally. Take all insults with joy, hold nothing against anyone, for in the end you will be at total peace and enjoy what is being prepared for you. You must undergo persecution for My sake to help you grow and be purified, to be made perfect in My sight. Do not allow yourself to fight back as others come to disturb your peace of soul and body, offer everything up for the salvation of mankind. I have revealed to you through My beloved sons (priests) how I am reminding you daily to pick up your cross and carry it, no matter how heavy it may be at times for this is your purification, your sanctification that I have called you to. Listen and make light of every situation no matter how disturbing it may become, for I am with you and am guiding you as you know, nothing is allowed unless I allow it. I know My people, their wants and needs and what it will take for them to come to Me and trust in Me completely. I desire to mold you and keep you close to My loving Heart, never permitting you to drift from Me, I am your all, no one can take My place, for I have called you to Myself. I have called you out of this world, to live only for My Kingdom. Go in My Peace. Your loving Jesus.

Jesus:

Do not hold back, My Spirit is upon you to guide you. You must speak the truth, for I Am Truth.

Note: On Christmas night Jesus showed Ann a glimpse of Heaven.

On Christmas night after returning home from our family dinner, I asked Jesus to just give me a glimpse of Heaven. I was so tired and had to work the next day (Monday), but I really begged the Lord on this day of His birth to answer my request. As I began to fall asleep around 9:15 pm, I heard that little voice again, (The Angel as I heard the night I visited Purgatory) say, "Come with me."

Our journey began as it did before, down a barren road, but suddenly the road split and we were travelling down a road beautifully lit up. Stars were brilliant. I felt a peace come over me that could not be explained. Suddenly we were there, a gate opened and we entered slowly. I saw only greenery everywhere, beautiful trees of every kind and shape. Bushes covered with flowers, plants, streams, mountains, waterfalls, gardens, valleys high and low, bridges in different paths (Sidewalks everywhere). It was so beautiful, amazing, the colors even rainbows. My glimpse was ended and the angel said, "we must go back." And so before long I was back but the memory will last forever and my yearning for what I must strive for will help Me to stay focused on our God and not this world.

January 10, 2011
(Psalm 139:1-18)

Jesus: My daughter, I ask you as well as all My children, to write down all the beautiful kind acts of mercy that I have shown you. Let one thing in particular stand out and dwell on this. Never dwell on the bad, but only the good. You are to live in the light and not the darkness, there is no room for darkness in your short lived life. I Am the light of your day, as you awake, give Me this day and ask that only My Will not your will be done. Then and only then, will you experience change. For only positive will come from what I ask of you. Be confident and you will find the happiness you search for, for I am the way, the truth and the Life. Whoever comes to Me will find true happiness, be at peace knowing this.

Come forward and give testimony, letting others around you know the wonders of My love, how I have touched your life by My generosity and kindness. My generosity as I have said, can never be outdone. Cling to this and you will never want for anything. Are you willing to share for the sake of My Kingdom, to enlighten people of My wondrous deeds. Enlighten hearts that are depressed and have nothing to look forward to, who have lost all hope. Your loving Jesus.

Jesus: My child. You ask Me, “What I yearn for in you.” This I say to you, let not your flesh be harrowed, and your soul not bear fruit. One must continually bear fruit or you will become dry and unworthy of the Kingdom.

When a vineyard is not cared for properly it becomes filled with thorns and thistles and dries up, it cannot exist. This too happens to the soul, it must be properly cared for or it suffers ruin.

Your soul must remain plunged and lost in My bosom, for I am the being of all beings. Nothing lives without Me. You must desire to be made My dwelling place, strive to be humble and peaceful. For then I will call you My servant, My precious one. You will labor and bear much fruit, for I will adorn you with virtues and all My help. I will help cleanse you of all your vices and make you completely mine, full of joy, mercy and love, your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group.

Both Jesus and Mother Mary appeared. They looked at everyone.

Jesus: I need prayers in this time of much disaster. There is a heavy cloud above all of you. Evil forces are trying to invade your youth. You must pray even stronger.

Jan 17, 2011
(Wisdom 7:6-30)

Jesus: My child, you are desiring My glory! Do not ask Me for it as though it was something that will never come. When you ask, you must believe that the answer will come. Ask for My Glory and My Kingdom this year, then pay attention to the little things, the little vanities, the little exaggerations, these My child will be the big victories. Do not be vain about anything. What does it matter to you what people think about you. You must be satisfied with the thought that I know you. You must remember this if you want to keep your love alive. I am always with you, watching you in everything you do and say. There are some things that I ask for one day only and My compassionate Heart applies it to an entire life. You should always be as simple as a little child and have boundless trust. For the more you trust in Me, the more I will shower you with grace and you will save more and more souls.

I ask you to believe in the communion of saints, for My compassion stoops to your poverty and you will understand the true meaning of trust.

Say often this prayer, “Holy Father, I offer you Jesus, living in my life and dying in my death and I offer you the Heart of Jesus in each one of my heartbeats.”

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Ann: Mary appeared next to Jesus. It was a beautiful site to see this. She bowed Her head to give Jesus a kiss on His forehead. Then She said;

Mother Mary: This is what I do for each of you each day. I kiss all of you My children on your foreheads as you awake each morning.

One of you will have the privilege to smell the scent of roses this day. It is a sign of My presence that I am with you.

(Note: A woman named Linda smelled the roses and it inspired her to give a witness of the Mercy Jesus granted in her life.)

January 24, 2011
(Wisdom 11: 22-27)

Jesus: My child, I am a God of love, I will never abandoned you in the midst of darkness. All the troubles and needs you endure will one day enrich your soul and bring it safely to Me for all eternity. Now is the time to sow. You must endure all the sufferings of this life with patients. Ask that I may arm you with My strength, so that you may overcome all danger. I am omnipotent and with My grace you will become invincible even though the powers of Hell rage against you.

Never trust in yourself or others, only in the one who has created you and knows all things. Without Me and My grace, all your efforts and actions are in vain. Thank Me each and every day for all the graces you have received, so that I may carry to fulfillment all that I have begun in you.

Let all your actions be motivated by My Holy Will and not by worldly gratifications and advantages. I desire that your whole life breathes only divine things, because being My child is at the same time both a gift and a duty.

Go forth in My peace, loving and serving Me in every way, your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Just before the 3rd sorrowful mystery, Ann said, Jesus is all lit up. He is wearing a crown of thorns.

Jesus: For those who suffer, suffer with joy, for you are suffering with Me.

After the prayer group Ann said, when we were continuing with the Rosary, Jesus was still talking.

Jesus: Do not be afraid. I am with you with all your pain. I will endure it for you.

January 31, 2011
(Wisdom 3: 1-9)

Jesus: My child, I have told you that the bonds of My union with a soul must be tightened as it draws near to eternity. Try My little one to understand that one can no longer be in himself but only in Me. You have read that I was in the Gospels, hidden in the sacrament of the words, but how much more am I present in the sacrament of man himself. I gave you your soul, I enfolded it with such love, you must give it back to Me with your utmost affection and tenderness to honor Me Who first loved you.

I am the one who atones. Place all your sins, beginning with the first one on the altar of sacrifice and speak to My Heavenly Father, tenderly of your sorrow for having offended Him. Your little share in any action is your love-will, bring it to everything you do, and you may expect all the rest from Me. Every soul that is in a state of grace is another Christ. Be one with Me for I took on Myself the burden of your shortcomings, I bore all your sins. On this earth you cannot understand the compenetration of Me in each soul. I am God in man, My power of salvation is infinite. My Divinity never left My humanity. Treat Me as the most Intimate One, Who not only excuses the sins confided to Me but Who takes them upon Myself in order to obtain My Father's pardon.

Your loving Jesus.

(Compenetrate means: To penetrate every part of.)

During the prayer group:

Ann: Mary appeared next to Jesus, Her face was near His shoulder. Ann felt inner pains, dizziness and suffering. She asked the Lord what was happening.

Jesus: Suffer at this moment for a soul that is dying.

Ann had shortness of breath and was very weak. She felt Jesus hand in her hand.

At the end of the Rosary Jesus said;

Jesus: The man called out My Name at his dying breath.

February 7, 2011
(Psalm 86)

Jesus: My child, I desire that everyone of My children become a light in this world. May your surroundings be the light that will illuminate the dark lowliness of everyday life.

This light that I speak of will warm and open hearts. I will enlighten each of you, so that you will be able to radiate My light widely and effectively to those in darkness. I will be your strength and I will never cease to shine within you, for My love is unconditional. You must never seek to escape from this world but to conquer it through love. Attend to your daily tasks with courage and joy, always carrying your eternal goal in your hearts.

Have My Holy Name on your lips at all times, yearn for Me, so that the world may not enslave you as it has so many souls. Someday you will be shown the magnitude for all the good you did, even to those in other countries that your prayers went out to. You see, it was not you who did this good, it was I working through you. If you only knew what goes on in your soul when My Blood purifies it, how astounded you would be, for My grace, dear ones, goes farther than your soul.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Ann: I see Jesus step out of the statue on the first decade of the Rosary.

Jesus: I call you My true sons and daughters, who have come to pay Me homage in spite of the cold and snow. I will continue to bless you and your love ones.

Feb 21, 2011
(Ezekiel 18: 23-32)

Jesus: My child, the world is full of evil but remember one never overcomes evil by evil, but must overcome it with good. Evil has a creative force by attempting to pay back evil with evil, one will not conquer it, but will be conquered by it. Ask that I may strengthen you that this evil will be conquered. My children grow angry with their brother and sister, they do not understand the consequence that they will face. They have wicked thoughts that will destroy the foundation of human society and uproot mutual trust and love. I demand kindness and I will not tolerate, even one bad thought about ones neighbor. Be obedient children who show love and respect to their neighbor for love of Me. The more Christian one is, the more you are Mine. Bear in mind, that love and the souls intent to love are what gives action their value. Ponder this thought, "When I created man I placed deep within him a sense of goodness and truth, for I created him in My image." When he sins against his conscience, he no longer resembles Me. Each one of your thoughts and feelings and actions has its repercussions for good and evil. Picture yourself always before My watchful eyes. Return good for evil. Never lose a single opportunity. If My followers were good to one another, the face of the world will be transformed.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group

Jesus: Jesus said, "My children, I ask you all to accept the mysteries of your faith as simply as a child accepts love. For I say to you what is a miracle, it is a token of Love's simplicity.

February 28, 2011
(Zachariah 7)

Jesus: My child, strong is My love for all My children, may they give thanks and praise to Me all the days of their lives. Pray that every heart be joyful and give glory to My Holy Name, for I will cleanse them and cast out all fear and give them courage and strength. They will never forget My wonders, for I rule the earth justly by My word and My promise. My trust is everlasting for all generations. I am true, I have a long memory for My own promises and a short memory for man's failure to keep his. My love shall never leave them nor My covenant of peace be shaken, for My mercy goes out to them. I call all to fellowship with Me, that they may walk with Me in the ways of truth and beauty this day. I hear My people's cries, their pleads for My help, for they are sick and their bones are filled with pain. Accept this suffering as I accepted, for I will teach the virtue of patience in human illness. By accepting pain, illness or disease and offering all to Me, one will come to know that I have chosen them to be saints, for they are joined to Me in My sufferings for the salvation of the world. Allow Me My little ones to enlighten the eyes of your hearts that you may know what is the hope that belongs to My call.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Jesus: My children, you must aim at perfection, but the perfection of your nature.

That is the way you will please Me. I need you to understand that the work of perfection of one soul is not the same as that of another.

March 7, 2011
(Sirach 40:17-27)

Jesus: My child. I ask My people to be very simple with Me. I do not want them to be afraid of Me, but to see My Heart full of love and to come and talk with Me as they would with a beloved one. For some, I am unknown and for others a stranger, a severe master. Few come to Me as to one of a loved family and yet My love is always there My little one. Tell them to come, don't be afraid, tell them to enter in, to give themselves up to love, to surrender everything just as they are. I will restore and transform them. They will then know a joy they have never before known. I alone can give this joy. I see My people kiss each other affectionately each morning and evening for this is perfectly natural and at times during the course of the day, they say a word or give a gift of affection to someone. These are outpourings of tenderness that I so long for from My people. I have told you child, the greatest gift My children can give Me are their sins and to offer Me their entire day, their most ordinary actions, the smallest of them, like a bouquet of wild flowers. Make a crown of them for Me. It takes many little flowers to make a crown. Don't weary of placing them on My brow lacerated by the thorns. This way you will win souls for Me. Is this too much to ask of My children? Come and be Mine, you will not want for anything, I will be your all.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group

Our Lady appeared in back of Jesus and then moved by the picture of the Eucharist.

Jesus: My children. You have come to Me with a heavy heart, hurt by others. When you feel hurt by other's lack of kindness and friendliness towards you, I allow this to happen so that you might understand what it is for love to be rejected.

March 28, 2011
(Psalm 106:1-12)

Jesus: My child, the trials that I send are all made to measure, they are exactly fitted to your power to bear favors that draw one nearer to Me. Thank Me for every trial as though it were a flower placed with new tenderness on your heart. I find a soul more beautiful when it suffers with gentle patience united with My patience. The soul takes on a new expression full of love for Me. I ask that every child of Mine be flexible and docile in My hand and become humble as though they had deserved to suffer. I am All Innocent, yet I suffered everything imaginable. By your suffering we become more one, than ever.

Entrust everything to Me, your honor, your belongings, your hearts, for I will use everything for your sanctification. Always strive to please Me, for nothing else matters except the life to come. When you see Me, how you will want to have served Me, to have given all your love to Me, to have glorified Me without counting the cost, and with all your heart.

So don't be afraid of trials, they only help you to go higher, they make you love Me more. And there I will be waiting for you at the end of your life's journey, at the bend in the road. What serenity to those who have yielded everything to Me.

Your loving Jesus.

April 4, 2011

Scripture: (Sirach 42:15-26)

Ann: Strengthen us in faith, Oh my Lord, God and Savior.

Jesus: My child. I will strengthen those who ask for this grace to be strengthened in their faith, that they may encourage others by being good examples, praising My power among the poor in faith. Become My ambassadors to those who seek Me with sincere hearts, showing them the path to eternal life. Seek Me in honesty, even in your doubt, and in return I will have Mercy on your poverty of faith. Be strong in Me, be dependent on prayer, place upon yourself My armor, go forth and stand firm with news of My grace for with this force, no foe shall disarm you, faith is your shield. I am the refuge of all who put their trust in Me. Those who are righteous shall hold to My way. I see the depth of your hearts, My children, the flame of your love for kindness and justice. For I am pleased with those that know I am Lord and give Me glory all the days of their lives. Remember, My little ones, the victory that overcomes the world is your faith. It has a conquering power over the world. The more solid one's faith in Me the better I will triumph over the world with all its sufferings and joys. Go in peace. Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group;

Jesus: Do not become discouraged by those who will not give up their evil ways, for you can always help them by prayer. For there is no sin that I cannot forgive, no soul fallen so low that I cannot heal. You will never know all that you can obtain and transform with your love on this earth. Only I know.

April 5, 2011

Ann: As I was praying the chaplet of Divine Mercy in the chapel, Our Lady appeared. She did not say anything, but I began to see a number of religious (nuns) coming next to Our Lady's statue. They were all dressed in different habits, some older, and some younger. They would come and stay next to Mary for a few seconds and they would drift up towards the ceiling and be gone. This lasted for several minutes. I asked Mother, who these nuns were.

Mary: "These are the grateful sisters that have been released from Purgatory by your Rosaries and prayers as well as by all those faithful children that continued pray each day. Never stop praying for My beloved sons and daughters for they are most grateful and will pray for those who have prayed for their release as well as the world. At the time of death, they will intercede for you."

Ann: She gave Her Blessing and I thanked Our Lady for the Blessing

April 11, 2011

Scripture: (John 3:18-21)

Ann: Jesus, you said, You will never leave us orphans, You will come back to us and our hearts will rejoice.

Jesus: Yes, My dear child, I will never leave My children who worship and adore Me, orphans. I will truly give them this hope that I will come back and that their hearts will be full of joy, for I will bring them to a new life in Me. All those whom My Father has Blessed will inherit the Kingdom prepared for them since the foundation of the world. Eat My flesh and drink My Blood that I may give you My strength to conquer all evil, so that you may come to share the fruit of the Tree of Life in Paradise. May peace always reign in your hearts. As My disciples, one must expect to follow Me into the depths of My passion and death, for My resurrection gives you the courage you need through the power of My Spirit. Take refuge in Me, let Me become a mighty stronghold that will save you and guide you. Trust in Me, place your life in My hands, for I will save you in My love. Call on Me in everything, I will be there for you always. My peace I leave you, My peace I give you, let not your hearts ever be troubled or afraid. For I have conquered the world.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Jesus: My child. How you and so many others have brought Me joy as all prayers ascended Heaven the past few days. You consoled My Sacred Heart. Yes, as My beloved priest stated, My Mother came to each of you and stroked your face with tender love. (Fr. Aniello during the conference)

April 18, 2011
(Wisdom 11: 22-27)

Jesus: My child, trust in My merciful love, let your hearts rejoice in My saving help! Pray for perseverance in faith in times of abandonment and endurance in times of trial. Think of all the blessings you have received, what good things I have lavished upon you. You ask, what can you do the thank Me for all I have given you? I ask that you keep Me company more and more, treat Me as an intimate friend. I desire that you confide all your secrets to Me. Seek Me always and do not let Me ever go away from you. Keep Me faithful and joyous company. Think of Me throughout your day. Take Me in any moment of My life on earth and be there, very near Me. Time, My child, does not exist for Me, so you see, you shall have been there just as the apostles were. In this way My life can go on and on in the hearts of others, right to the end of the world. Lend Me your heart, little one, and I will take out of it everything that displeases Me. You will never be perfect. There will be shortcomings. You will have so many chances to humble yourself. But love atones for everything. Persevere in all things, for who has ever talked to Me too much of love? Spend hours in love, walking with love and resting for love. Always prove your love for Me by the help you give your neighbor, keeping in mind that your neighbor is Me and that your neighbor takes up more than half of life. Love conquers all! Go in peace. Your loving Jesus.

During the Prayer group:

Jesus appeared during the Rosary, He did not say anything but He was sad.

May 2, 2011

Scripture: (John 3:18-21)

Ann: Jesus,

Jesus: In the fifth month before the 24th day, the Cross must be erected on the hill behind My Mother for all to see. I ask for the simplicity of the Cross, one made from the hands of a devoted one. It shall be for all those who gaze upon it a reminder of love that poured forth from it. Strength of body and purity of soul shall be granted to all who bear their Cross with joy and love as I did. Crown My Mother with a crown made of pink roses for this occasion given the blessing of Her beloved Son. My Mother has chosen Her beloved son, he will have traveled a distance to receive many graces and blessings that will penetrate his soul.

Your loving Jesus.

May 2, 2011

Scripture: (2 Cor 11:26-31)

Jesus: My dear children, by My passion, death, and resurrection, you will see all your hopes realized. In Me, all the wounds in your heart mind and bodies are transformed into My holiness. The sorrow and pain of your lives are made the source of your sanctification and joy. Take refuge in Me, My dear ones, for in My justice, I will set you free. I will hear your voice calling to Me for help and I will rescue you. Let Me be for you a rock, a strong hold that will lead and guide you. Trust in Me always and rejoice in My love, for I have been sent by My Heavenly Father in Mercy to open for all the gates to eternal life. Your loving Jesus.

Jesus: My child, take heart, bear everything for love, in order that you may win love. You are in the midst of life's battle, accept the loss of everything. You must believe in My love, then give yourself in your wholeness to Me without ever taking yourself back. That means denying your preferences, wanting only My joy and My Kingdom of everlasting love. It means forgetting yourself and remembering Me, a Lamb slain for Love.

Your loving Jesus.

During the Prayer group

During the Rosary, a petal fell off of a rose and went down to the ground.

Jesus: Just as you witnessed the flower fall, this is how fast souls are falling into Hell for the sins of the flesh. Pray, pray and never stop. Your world is in great need of purification. My Mercy is yours for the asking

May 9, 2011

Ann: While praying the 1000 prayers to Our Lady for souls, I looked at Our Lady's image. Our Mother began to speak to my heart. I felt Her presence as She spoke.

Mary: Thank you My child for being so generous with your prayers for others.

Ann: Our Lady stepped out of the statue and Her face was radiant, beautiful to behold.

Mary: Child, pray from your heart, do not just say words, let each prayer have meaning.

Ann: I thanked Her and began to pray slowly, it was then that I felt Her embraced in Her arms and a great peace came over me.

Mary: Child, the world is in great need of God's Love and Mercy. Always be loving, kind and generous to all in need through prayer and sacrifice.

God loves those that do for others for in doing so, they are doing it to Him. Be patient and obedient and you will be rewarded by your Heavenly Father.

Ann: I reached out to Her and said, "Help me Mother in all things. May I do God's Will and not mine.

Our Lady smiled.

Mary: I will help you and all souls who reach out to Me and ask for My help. I am always with you.

Ann: Thank you, my Lady. I love you.

May 16, 2011

Jesus: My child, whatever My spoken wish, My Father will never disregard, since we are One in Will and Power.

Whatever I ask for in prayer must of necessity happen, for My Word is Power and My Will fulfillment. For all things that exist, I but spoke and they were made. I gave the command and everything was created.

This I desire, My little ones, that where I am they also shall be. I assure all who are faithful, for those who believe, never to throw away the grace that they have received.

This assurance I give is not only for those who were My apostles and disciples, but to all, who through their word are to find faith in My Holy Word.

The grace that has been given you is that of suffering for My sake, not only believing in Me. Faith in My promise should move you to great enthusiasm. You will find reward in all your efforts of daily struggles against sin and you will be given the strength to fight all battles.

Go in peace. Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Jesus appeared to the right of the statue.

Jesus: I give you many opportunities to serve Me, especially in sickness. Do not pass this up. Offer up all these sufferings to win souls. It is a great privilege to serve Me.

May 23, 2011
(Psalm 92)

Ann: I was thanking our dear Lord for everything He helps me with.

Jesus appeared;

Jesus: My child, you must always thank Me, for I have given you so much. When I give you a trial, weather small or large, you must thank Me, for I do everything for the good of souls. Never doubt this, My little one, believe in My love, hope in My Love and love My Love. If you love My Love, you will surely welcome everything that comes from Me and you will act everywhere for Me. Always have hope, for when you hope in My Love, you will never count on yourself. You will expect My help in every situation that comes your way. I can do all things, there is nothing I cannot do. Be full of trust and peace, take up your task of love each and every day and be happy to toil day and night to console Me.

You were made for rest in Heaven, not on earth, so live for eternity, for nothing has the slightest importance in time that does not count for eternity. You must judge everything in Me, and by Me for My judgments are not always yours. Ponder this for all your life on earth, child, that the compassion of My Sacred Heart flow through you to all who come in your path. Let them always see it in your smile as you welcome them. So much good will come from these contacts. They are of great importance to the work I have given you. Be at peace. Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Jesus: Stay away from those who do not speak the truth. Stay away from those who predict the day and the hour of judgment. They do not know the ways of God. Only My Father in Heaven knows the day the time and the hour when all will come about.

June 06, 2011
(Romans 12 & 13)

Ann: As I was saying the Stations of the Cross at Church, I came to the seventh station and I noticed the Bible sitting open in the pew. I reached for the Bible to return it to its proper place and I heard the Lord say, "Read it My Child and ponder on it." The passages were from Romans Chapter 12 and 13. I did what the Lord asked, I read the passages and pondered them. Later in the day, I returned home, I read the passages once again. As I began to ponder them I heard Jesus say,

Jesus: I desire that you share My Holy Word with others. My people need to read, absorb and live this message of love towards their neighbor. Not to criticize, for I am the judge of every Heart. Love all and conquer evil with love, one will find peace in doing so. Be holy, My children, in everything you do. Call on My Spirit of Holiness and ask to be filled with Love. When grace saturates an attentive soul, that soul reflects Me and guides his brother to Me. Always place your life in Mine, doing nothing by yourself and everything through Me. Be full of joy when you are misunderstood or overlooked because this makes you just like Me.

Your loving Jesus.

June 13, 2011
(James 4:7-10)

Jesus: My child. I regard each of My children, the work of My hands. Thank Me every day for the love I show you, how My hand created every single mind different from any other, some of so high an order as to be geniuses. Pray that these minds that I have created and have gone astray from the path of truth, come back to My loving Heart that grieves for them. When they return, My arms will be open wide to receive them, they should never fear of returning to Me, for I am full of compassion, love, and mercy. There is never a sin too great that My loving Heart will not forgive. The greater the sin, the more chance it gives Me to show My boundless Mercy. No heart is too sin filled to rest in My Sacred Heart. I know everything about you, the weakness of your human nature. I am full of excuses for all the backsliding and ingratitude you have done, for I am your Creator and love you unconditionally. Come and repent, confess your sins and resolve to do better. This I ask of you My dear ones. Do not waste time, for time is short, your life can be taken at any time. The way to My Heart is the only way, repentance. Find the peace and joy that you are searching for. It will only be found when you rest permanently in Me, for your heart was made for Me and Me alone. I wait for you.

Your loving Jesus of Mercy.

During the prayer group:

Jesus appeared holding the Holy Bible.

Jesus: My dear children, there are so few of you that read My Holy Word each day. How can I talk with you if you do not read and ask Me to speak to your heart? I ask you again to, pick up this most Sacred Book and listen as I speak to your heart. Listen carefully, not to miss one word, for every Word I speak will be very important to you. Your life will truly change and you will grow spiritually. Do not wait.

June 20, 2011
(Romans 8: 22-30)

Jesus: My child, come to Me trusting in My goodness and great mercy. Come to Me in need of healing, hunger and thirst for Me, for I am your healer.

Confess your unworthiness, praise and give thanks for the immense love you have been shown, your ingratitude, your lack of humility, ask that my love may arouse in you a more perfect humility that you may please Me in every way. Pray that your sinfulness may never stand in the way of your coming close to Me. Be mindful of My sweet and gentle presence, of the never ending praise due to Me, for giving you My Sacred Body and Blood.

Approach Me with great reverence, receiving Me devoutly and humbling yourself entirely in My presence and exalt My infinite goodness above yourself. I have come to you to be with you, to invite you to My banquet, to nourish you, to give you Heavenly food- the bread of life! I am the bread of life that comes down from Heaven to give you life and life to the whole world.

This is My love, My little one, a love that needs to be thankful and give praise for this special gift received.

I am all you need, hunger not for the things of the world, but for Heavenly food.

Your loving Jesus

June 27, 2011
(Romans 8:1-11)

Jesus: My children, trust in Me for your welfare for I am your eternal God. Be full of joy, for My Mercy will swiftly reach you for your asking. I will comfort you, especially those who mourn and have grown discouraged in bearing their burden. I will deliver My people from bondage, those whose faith has led them into places of exile and great sorrow. I will be their joy. I will be their hope and their courage, for those who labor without hope. Pray My beloved servants for all those who have given up their priestly duties in discouragement. I will never give up on them, I will be for them their reconciliation and guide. I will guard all mankind as they come and go now and forever, let go of all fear. Heed the call I give from darkness into light by hope and patience, always walking in faith. Get rid of all that hinders you from Me and run to win the race, to come closer to entering the eternal Kingdom that awaits you with total rejoicing. Let Me lead you by the hand thru the lonely and barren desert, the desert that has brought you only sadness, to a great and glorious land filled with happiness.

Your loving Jesus.

(Proverbs 3:1-26)

Jesus: My Children, sing with joy, for joy is the sign of your union with Me, your Savior. When you have joy, you have love in your heart. You have strength to do the work I have called you to do.

Ask for the grace to surrender your whole life to Me, so that I may use you in every way. Show your gratitude to Me and to all others by accepting everything that comes your way with complete joy. Tend to what I have planned for you with justice, mercy and truth, then, will your joy sing out to all the earth.

When you follow the path I am leading you, when you say yes to My every command, you may live and prosper and long life may be given to you. Trust and do good, My children, then you will be secure and will find delight in Me and I will grant you your heart's desire. Commit your life to Me and you will find peace. Reap the fruit of piety, never grow tired of doing good, for in time you shall reap your harvest, never give up, move forward.

Pray for the gift of fidelity in all that I shall ask of you, keep faithful to all the gifts you have received, that they may be used for the good of the world. I am the source of life and in the light of My Glory you will find the happiness you seek. Children of the Light, meditate on the gift of My Body and Blood, it is for you an image and foretaste of the unity and joy of all those in Heaven. I will deepen your unity and increase your joy for all who believe in Me and fill your hearts with a deep and everlasting longing peace and harmony.

For the asking, I will enable you to grow in wisdom, understanding and grace, and I will bless all of those you bring before Me. Live in My Light and let peace reign in your heart forever.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Ann: Jesus has moved out of the statue towards the image of John Paul II holding the Eucharist. Jesus is showing us the importance of the Holy Communion.

Jesus: My Heart is full of joy. My Holy Face is aglow as I listen to your voices and see in your hearts your great devotion. Your prayers are being said from the heart and ascend into Heaven to give glory to My Heavenly Father. Pray and never stop. This is My Will for all of you. Be faithful children until your death.

Be at peace.

July 25, 2011
(Wisdom 7:1-14)

Jesus: My children, let light shine out of the darkness all around the earth for I have shown in your hearts to bring to light the knowledge of the glory of My Father on My Holy Face. You are gazing with unveiled face on My glory and are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory as from your Lord Who is the Spirit. Let Me help you see only Me your Lord and God when you cannot see beyond the frustrations of everyday life. The days when all looks bleak, dark, and distant and others are constantly judging others except themselves. Come to know that even when stress and the hardness of life overwhelms you, I will always come to your rescue, I am that close to you. My great compassion and tenderness is without measure, I will comfort you and bring hope in every situation. Give your life with all its ups and downs to Me that My peace may fill you. Even when you are about to take rest for the night, I ask that you may bless My Holy Name, that I may grant you a peaceful night, that sleep may come at once, for I alone will let you dwell in safety, after ending the day.

Call down My Mercy upon yourselves each day upon arising that your hearts may not be proud that you will ask always for My protection. Place in My hands the burden of the day, giving praise and thanksgiving to Me for the precious gift of life.

Go in peace your loving Jesus.

During the Prayer group

Jesus: My eyes are full of tears for this troublesome world, a world filled with fraud. A world that refuses My grace because of their selfishness. You must make reparation for them or all will be lost. More devastation will come because of the sins of the flesh which as you know are running rampant. I did not create all men or all women, I created both species to bring about creation. Pray My children for the well-being of all mankind.

August 1, 2011
(Jeremiah 17:1-14)

Ann: Father in Heaven, inspire in all your children a spirit of praise and desire for obedience to your Holy Will, that we may give glory to You in everything we think, say and do.

Jesus: Child of My Heart, I shall inspire all those who ask, for the mouth of the just man utters wisdom, his tongue speaks what is right and My law is always in his heart. I will fill them with reverence and delight and a desire to cherish their life. Their soul shall yearn for My love and continually give thanksgiving for all they have received. I will renew and instruct them that they may learn the truth and practice it in love. A soul will be blessed, who not only is a guardian of his own life, but also a caretaker of his brothers salvation as well. Always guard against the enemy, let me be for all, your fortress, your stronghold, and your shield, put on My armor, so that you may be able to stand firm against the tactics of the Evil one. I have overcome all evil and will protect you, place your trust in Me so that I may defeat the subtle forces of temptations that you struggle with. Overcome violence with love, pray for the grace that your heart may be free of all thoughts of anger and retaliation. Long to know Me and My ways, help others to know Me and the road I desire to lead each of you on to reach your eternal destination. Apart from Me, one can do nothing, love Me and everything shall be yours. Treat those that you meet each day as I have treated you.

Go in My peace, your loving Jesus.

August 8, 2011
(Luke 5:1-10)

Ann: I was thinking about the souls in Purgatory and praying for them when the Lord spoke,

Jesus: My dear children, if you can only know what souls suffer in Purgatory, you would never stop praying for them. They suffer intensely. Take pity on these souls, never neglect saying the way of the Cross, for Purgatory, My little ones, is profound darkness while Heaven is pure delight. While you are here on earth, visit Me in the Blessed Sacrament as often as you can. In this way, I will be with you and you will be filled with joy. I have selected you for a special purpose, I need all My faithful to save many souls by your good example and your advice to them. If however, your conduct is not what it should be, you will one day have to give an account for every soul that you could have save. I know that you are not worthy, as you have said many times, but I permit it for I Am the Master of all and I distribute My grace to whoever I please. Pray often to the saints, especially to Saint Michael, for they will be your protectors before Me at the time of death. While on earth, be careful never to lose any of the graces that are given you. Live your life only for Me, procure My Glory everywhere.

You must become indifferent to all things except what is for Me, then you will reach the height of perfection for which I have called you. Become My true friend, live in My presence with a pure intention. For I seek devoted souls, who love Me for My own sake and not for their own sakes. Love Me so much that I may find in your heart a resting place, a place where I may be able to console Myself for the many offenses I receive everywhere for indifferent souls that cause Me such pain. If you truly love Me, little ones, I will refuse you nothing, I will give you whatever you ask. Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Jesus appeared with a Cross imbedded in His forehead. Mother Mary came with Joseph Reinholtz.

Joseph: Never stop praying. I am praying for you always.

Jesus: If you belong to Me, then place the cross on your forehead now and proclaim you are mine.

At this time, everyone in the prayer group made the sign of the Cross on their forehead as a sign of unity with God.

Note: Joseph Reinholtz was the visionary from Queen of Heaven Cemetery, Hillside IL. The 20 year anniversary of the first message will be August 15, 2011. He used to place a Cross on peoples forehead with a mixture of oil and tears from the Blessed Mother. Some use to say it was a fulfillment of Revelations 7:3.

August 15, 2011
(Wisdom 8)

Jesus: My children, give honor to My Mother this day, the day of Her Assumption in the Heavenly Kingdom. For it was through the power of My Resurrection that I adorned My Mother with the robe of My own grandeur and majesty and arrayed Her with glory and splendor. It was through this Woman that I came into the world and through Me She entered into the New World of My Glory.

My Mother is very close to all children of this world, entrust the whole of your lives to Her. May you see Heaven as your final goal and come to share in Her glory.

Seek Her prayers, for She will help you come to Me and live in My love. Remain childlike throughout your life as My Mother did throughout Her life. She pondered, every word given, in Her loving Heart as I ask each of you to ponder the messages My Mother has given you, gradually coming to their full meaning. She served on earth the Word to whom Her faith gave birth. My Mother was the first disciple and My gift of hope to all who follow Her as servants of the living Word. Above all women on earth She has been blessed and is a mirror of grace, through Her I came to crown your hope with fulfillment. This day She goes before you into My Heavenly Kingdom.

Pray My dear ones, that My peace will make you perfectly holy and may you entirely, spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless for My coming.

Go in peace.

Your loving Jesus.

August 22, 2011

(Psalm 37:1-17)

Queenship of Mary

Jesus: My dear children, ask for the grace that I may give you so you might serve Me in whatever I ask of you. Above all gifts, pray that I may grant you My voice to hear and let you dwell in light with Me. Pray that cleansed from all stains of sin, you may pay true homage and your heart shall be pure and your hands shall be raised in holy worship. I the Lord desire your praise and thanksgiving forever, for I am the fullness of everything on the earth. You shall receive My blessings for you who are good and I shall grant pardon and mercy upon you for you have resolved to seek Me and become holy servants. You have become disciples, appointed leaders to lead My people in the way of holiness. Lead them with joy to My Holy Mountain and be richly blessed for you will rejoice for all eternity. Be prepared and awake for My arrival at any moment, for the expectation will prevent you from settling for anything less than Me, for such vigilance will make you increase and abound in love and will strengthen your heart to be blameless in holiness at My coming.

Jesus: My child. He who plans something will be successful for happy is the man who trusts in Me. I tell you, be wise, for a wise man is esteemed for his discernment and pleasing speech will increase his persuasiveness. Be patient, My little one, rather than a fighter. For when one decides on what he will do, remember, the decision is mine. Always pray to acquire wisdom and not gold and understanding more than silver. The more pleased I am with the ways of My creatures, the more blessings I will bestow upon them. I will overturn the house of the proud and he who is greedy will bring ruin on his own house. All the ways of a man may be right to him, but it is I, the Lord, who proves all hearts.

Go in peace. Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Mary: On this day of My Queenship, I invite all gathered here this day to give My Son your heart, making reparation for all the sins of this world. I ask that you give the servant of the Lord and My daughter (Ann) one special intention that you are praying for, she has agreed to sit for one hour each day before a blessed candle praying for all your petitions to Heaven. Nine days shall be spent in prayer. Thank you for having responded to this call.

August 29, 2011
(Psalm 27)

Jesus: My dear children, everything about you is written in Heaven's great book of life. All the faith and prayers and especially the struggles with patience throughout life's journey are all there. I will gather them up, for they are all hidden treasures, the jewels that will win for you, life eternal. I shall sustain within you the faith to ever be loyal to Me, that My Church may be the "Sign of salvation" for all the nations of the world. May each of you, My faithful ones, bless Me for all the works I have given you and discourse the glory of My Kingdom, speaking of My greatness. I am just in all My ways and near to all who call upon Me in truth.

I never leave My flock untended, I watch over you and protect you always. My Word continues to spread and grow. I give you the grace to proclaim My Holy Gospel. You are My witness, for I have chosen you. Wherever I send you, you shall go, whatever I command you, you shall speak. Therefore, have no fear, for I am with you and will deliver you. Let love for one another and My Holy Word set your heart on fire. Go in peace.

Your loving Jesus.

In Sacred Heart Chapel (For the prayer group, given on 8/28, while Ann was at home with a swollen foot, from a fall)

Jesus: My child. You will have much to do tomorrow. I will speak to you this day. The day will be one of joy as all gathered will dedicate their homes as well as themselves and their families to Our Two Hearts. My Mother and I with the whole of Heaven, angels and Saints will be present for this occasion. Prepare your hearts to be joined with My Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of My Mother. Tremendous blessings and graces will flow forth from the Two Hearts to yours. Your families will receive these blessings and help them to conversion of heart. My Mother will prepare all hearts to receive these blessings and graces to set your heart at peace and serenity knowing you will be in the company from above.

My priest that I have chosen will receive all graces and blessings to come to a deeper knowledge and understanding of My Love for him. The Holy Spirit will guide him and prepare him for the words he will speak in My name as he consecrates all homes to the Two Hearts.

These homes will be prayed for and protected to withstand all the forces of evil. Your households will be safe from all intruders and your families under the protection of the Two Hearts. Worry not. Fear not. Our Hearts are forever yours. Your loving Jesus.

September 12, 2011
(Sirach 43:14-37)

Jesus: My child, I will show My children the way, the road that leads to eternal life, but they must walk it, for that is their task. They will stray from time to time, but My grace will lead them back on the path. May all ask for the grace to become holy with faithful love so that they may follow Me in all My ways. Be not afraid, I am with you always. The Evil One will try often to use your mistakes and troubles of life, to make you feel that I do not love you. Never be distracted by this, for it is completely opposite. I wait with outstretched arms to embrace each one, showering them with love and compassion. Trust My little ones, allow Me to love you tenderly, for you are so precious to Me.

Your loving Jesus.

Jesus: My child, I have told you that My grace is like cool water quenching your thirst. You must have good water to sustain your life and you must never forget how My grace will sustain your spiritual life. Give Me praise and thanksgiving for giving you and all My children health of soul and body. I am the ever flowing fountain, come to Me and live, for this is the gift I offer you. This gift is so precious that one will be filled with everlasting joy. Be thirsty for My love. Pray and give thanks so that your journey here on earth will not seem long and weary but brief and fulfilling, even amidst sleepless nights and all trials and sufferings. Keep in mind the hope that lies ahead, the day that you will return to Me and be mine forever.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Jesus' image became so bright that Ann could hardly see Him. She could see His Heart. She knew Jesus was looking around the room searching for Hearts.

Jesus: Serve Me to the best of your ability My children.
I have come to serve and not to be served.

Ann: His face is radiant.

September 19, 2011
(Isaiah 57:15-21)

Jesus: My dear children, I have brightened your eyes in giving you relief in your servitude. Slaves you are, but in your servitude, I have not abandoned you, for I have given you new life to raise My house and restore its ruins. I tell you, remain in My Word and you will truly be My disciples, for you will know the truth and the truth will set you free. Pray and never stop, for the gift of freedom that I may deliver all My people who are in bondage. Help those who are enslaved by their poverty and fear and every kind of addiction. I desire to dwell in all hearts through faith and charity, to heal and make you strong. I search hearts day and night to test you that I may find in you no wrong, that your words are not sinful, but full of praise and thanksgiving for all I have given. Let Me be your strong salvation, for then you will have no fear, your light knowing that I am always near whenever you call. I will give you peace and increase your joy and by My Mercy I shall lengthen your days. You will never want for anything, for I will guard you from all harm and keep you safe. Trust and remain faithful servants, that cleansed from all stain of sin, you may pay Me homage and raise your hands in worship with bended knee, that I may one day, grant you, by My grace a humble servants place in My Heavenly Kingdom. Go in peace. Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group

Jesus: My dear ones. I do not give the Cross without grace, nor grace without the Cross. Ask for the grace to understand the meaning of the Cross so that many blessings will flow upon you.

September 26, 2011
(Isaiah 58:10-14)

Jesus: My loved ones, I tell you, endure to the end, never giving up, for the reward will be what you long for, reunion with My Heavenly Father. I will rescue you from death and feed you in time of famine you shall never hunger. My strength and love shall be yours. Trust and be good, for then I will grant you your hearts request. I will help and deliver each of you from the wicked plots of the Evil One and send My Spirit of truth to guide you and remind you that I am with you always. Be open to whatever I may ask of you, for then you are living My Holy Word. From the moment you awake, call down My Mercy upon you and ask for My Will to be done in you. Whatever you encounter, act in love. Let My grace flow as you accept with open heart the person that annoys you or all the aches and pains and disappointment that comes with this earthly life. You will then no longer find it hard when the occasion presents itself, to do My Holy Will, you will take delight in it.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Jesus: My child. May all My children strive for unity, for it is pleasant and good. Throughout the world, whoever fears Me and acts uprightly is acceptable to Me. I ask that all may be one so that they may live in peace, to settle their differences that divide and has led to hostility and violence. My people have let their judgment of others replace understanding and love. Love is the answer, love Me in all things and above all things. Search for the joy I have prepared for you. Love your neighbor as yourself as I have commanded you. Be obedient to My commands that I may reign in your heart forever. I will have pity and bless you and let My face shine upon you. Become more like Me while living on earth. I am love, so you too must love forever, never ignore a plea for help or abandon no one in pain. Praise Me with all your heart and rejoice and be glad for I have called you to Myself. I will forever give you everlasting encouragement and hope through My grace and encourage your heart and give strength in all that you do in thought word and deed.

Your loving Jesus.

November 14, 2011

Jesus: My dear child. Be still and listen, say not a word! Pain and suffering is upon this earth. Evil is being embraced instead of rejected by mankind. My children are ignorant of what lies ahead because of their lack of faith and disobedience. Children are not children anymore, the noise of the world has become their god day and night, I am never mentioned. For this reason I am permitting My faithful followers to endure many trials to bring their brothers and sisters to conversion of heart. Sufferings when united with mine are most powerful. Endure them with love and pray, let Me use you for My greater glory.

Ann: At this time Jesus face became radiant, I felt peace and total love. Also the smell of roses became very powerful. I knew Our Lady was present.

Jesus: Save many souls while you are here on earth. Do not let one escape, continue surrendering everything to Me. Tell My people the importance of prayer and sacrifice, become fishers of men. Let it be known the powerful intercession of My foster father, Joseph, in these days that lie ahead. Continue on your journey, trusting and your prayers will ascend Heaven, like a bolt of lightning, lighting up the skies. Let your love for Me succumb your whole being, that I may embrace you and keep you safe in My Sacred Heart.

Your loving Jesus.

“Incline my heart, Oh my God, to the words of Your mouth.”

“Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.”

November 21, 2011

Jesus: My dear children, remember My little ones, no human being is capable of loving as I love. When you say to Me this short prayer each day with love. "Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us." I grant more grace than for a long drawn out prayer. Get outside of yourself, surrendering the helm of your life to Me. Let your soul be lost in Mine. I love souls who give Me their complete trust, for then they just drift along and I take complete control. Your life will be spent delighting Me, pleasing and living for Me, you will be completely transformed, this My children is the true meaning of your Godhood. Ask Me to give you a love for what is eternal, for wherever you find perfect beauty and perfect charm, you will find Me. Begin your Heaven, moment by moment, loving Me while I am loving you. Living with Me just as you do with your family, seeing Me in others. When you see Me in others, it will help you to be more humble. Humility is the key to holiness. Ask Me every moment of the day, to become humble servants.

Be kind, always take the first step toward your neighbor tenderly. Reach out to Me with these words: "Incline my heart, Oh my God, to the words of Your mouth." Become little, realize that everything comes from Me, at times I will ask you to sacrifice, do this with love. Never grumbling, for these sacrifices bring about a great good. Be one with Me as you suffer in your body, remembering how I was mocked and scourged for mankind. Let every thought seek Me and not yourself, think in Me and not in yourself, just as though you were living in Me. Be concerned for My glory and nothing else. Give Me your heart and wake up in My arms, for each day is a new creation.

Go in peace.

Your loving Jesus.

November 28, 2011

Jesus: I am calling you to be a living convincing sermon of Mine, that you might shine as the sun of My Divine Love, being able to help those who do not know My written Word. Let Me help you to imitate Me that you may be a blessing for others, that you may serve each day sacrifices required by charity, forgetting yourself and living for others, to forego all your rights and be concerned only with your duties. Ask child, to acquire a spirit of disinterested service, then you will deserve to be called a Christian.

I will prove you over and over to test your love for Me. Bear your sufferings with strength and love that you may bear much fruit. For no seed bears fruit without the sun. It is the same with your inner self, one cannot grow without the fire of suffering. Thus, I ask of you, never complain about the cross you have received, rather I ask that you thank Me for working in you and being concerned for you.

Let it be known, My Kingdom begins in this life as well as My happiness, truly, for they who are detached from all earthly goods in their inner self. May you be poor in yourself and rich in Me then My dear one, you will have no desires apart from Me and you will experience true happiness.

Your loving Jesus.

December 5, 2011

(Sirach 10:29-34, 11:1-6)

Jesus: My dear children, the lack of preparation in the spiritual life is a great mistake. Most of My people are in a hurry to become better, to attain holiness. Souls desire a close relationship with Me but expect to pray without any distractions, they want to know all of My ways. The closest above all of My faithful followers are humble. They prepare themselves for the inspirations of My Spirit, unlike those who wonder after trying hard, why they have remained the same, nothing has changed for them. I tell you, look to the lives of those who have gone before you, My holy ones, who always thank Me that they were not worse. They prayed in solitude to be filled with My gifts, to be knowledgeable in My ways and above all to always do My Holy Will, to be pleasing to Me in their thoughts words and deeds. They were filled with love and compassion for the needs of others, denying themselves and suffering for their love for Me. The more they ask the Spirit to pour upon them My illuminating light into their soul, the more they were able to recognize their faults and overcome them. Ask for this illuminating light, My dear ones, that you may recognize your faults and overcome them.

Your loving Jesus.

December 12. 2011
(Isaiah 51: 1-8)

Jesus: My dear children. I have made the angels in Heaven your models. They are ministering spirits, always helping you throughout your life. Each of you have been assigned an angel, a servant, to guide and protect you, to live your life for Me. I have revealed to you through My Holy Word that I have come not to be ministered to but to minister. I came to labor. One is very blessed not to have authority but to have others in charge of them. I am pleased when one does not take complete charge when arranging plans for whatever work I have given them, for each of My children has been put in this world to be a servant. So many of your difficulties are concerned with what you consider your due, never to be under but above. When people want to be above others, they desire to stand out and to be praised for whatever they do.

Everyone is placed on earth to work, to be useful, to help others. Your world is suffering with misery. Work for My Kingdom helping the broken hearted and the families that are torn apart, there are so many in need of comforting. Draw not attention to yourself, even though you wish to do so, you will gain no merit in this. For I tell you, those that are humble bear My universe. You are intended to minister, let Me choose your work for I speak by circumstances.

I shall never refuse to answer those that say from their heart, "Lord, what do you ask of me?" Always be full of joy and happiness and be My faithful servant always ready to please.

Be mindful, My little ones, that I have surrounded you with souls that are most fitted to enable you to work out your salvation.

Your loving Jesus.

December 19, 2011
(Sirach 15: 1-10)

Jesus: Dear children. Many souls have endured much suffering through your circumstances, yourself and especially those that you live with, all this comes from Me. I have permitted this to happen for they are a necessary part of your spiritual life, your journey towards Heaven. In order to become solidly virtuous, your life from second to second gives you occasions of being able to bear with love for My sake any amount of suffering. One must never forget to sanctify all the daily little crosses of life and recognize that they come from My loving Heart. You will never escape them, My children, for they are woven into your life and are a clear sign from Me. Receive them with joy and patience, for they will be for you a stepping stone into eternal life, a life filled with perfect happiness for all eternity. I will judge mankind not by details but by the purpose of one's life. My people must have an aim in life, they must live and work for something, for the nearer one gets to Me, the more he loves to dwell on My human nature. Become like a sponge, plunge into the ocean, lose yourselves in My Sacred Heart and let the waters of love surround and deluge your soul on every side. My love will fill your heart. Come rest in My Heart so that I may fill you with My peace.
Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group.

Joseph Reinholtz appeared with two other souls. Joseph Reinholtz is the visionary from Queen of Heaven Cemetery, Hillside, IL that died 15 years ago on Dec 18, 1996. Joseph reminded Ann that more souls are released from Purgatory on Christmas day than on any other day. Pray for them. Holy Souls are all around us praying with us.

At the second decade, Jesus appeared and said, "I know all your needs, My children, place them on My Altar of Sacrifice so I will give you what you need. You are My beloved children. I will never abandon you.
