At Adoration Chapel (Psalm 61)

Jesus: My child, be a gracious host, greeting everyone the way I would greet them. Be kind and generous to all that are placed in your path. Let laughter fill your spirit when anyone wishes to attack you, especially verbally. Take all insults with joy, hold nothing against anyone, for in the end you will be at total peace and enjoy what is being prepared for you. You must undergo persecution for My sake to help you grow and be purified, to be made perfect in My sight. Do not allow yourself to fight back as others come to disturb your peace of soul and body, offer everything up for the salvation of mankind. I have revealed to you through My beloved sons (priests) how I am reminding you daily to pick up your cross and carry it, no matter how heavy it may be at times for this is your purification, your sanctification that I have called you to. Listen and make light of every situation no matter how disturbing it may become, for I am with you and am guiding you as you know, nothing is allowed unless I allow it. I know My people, their wants and needs and what it will take for them to come to Me and trust in Me completely. I desire to mold you and keep you close to My loving Heart, never permitting you to drift from Me, I am your all, no one can take My place, for I have called you to Myself. I have called you out of this world, to live only for My Kingdom. Go in My Peace. Your loving Jesus.

Jesus:

Do not hold back, My Spirit is upon you to guide you. You must speak the truth, for I Am Truth.

Note: On Christmas night Jesus showed Ann a glimpse of Heaven.

On Christmas night after returning home from our family dinner, I asked Jesus to just give me a glimpse of Heaven. I was so tired and had to work the next day (Monday), but I really begged the Lord on this day of His birth to answer my request. As I began to fall asleep around 9:15 pm, I heard that little voice again, (The Angel as I heard the night I visited Purgatory) say, "Come with me." Our journey began as it did before, down a barren road, but suddenly the road split and we were travelling down a road beautifully lit up. Stars were brilliant. I felt a peace come over me that could not be explained. Suddenly we were there, a gate opened and we entered slowly. I saw only greenery everywhere, beautiful trees of every kind and shape. Bushes covered with flowers, plants, streams, mountains, waterfalls, gardens, valleys high and low, bridges in different paths (Sidewalks everywhere). It was so beautiful, amazing, the colors even rainbows. My glimpse was ended and the angel said, "we must go back." And so before long I was back but the memory will last forever and my yearning for what I must strive for will help Me to stay focused on our God and not this world.

(Psalm 62)

Jesus: My child, there is not a soul on this earth that can do anything without My permission, not even a hair of their head shall fall to the ground without My knowledge and permission. Therefore, I tell you, souls will not have their own way in this life, their road will at times be extremely hard and full of heartaches.

They will indeed see things prosper in other's hands and fail in theirs. They will be harshly used by their loved ones and others that come into their path. They will be misjudged, set aside and unjustly treated. But amid all this, My arm will be around them as they move forward, climbing the hill towards their eternal goal. My hand sends the cross as I bore, the failures and the pain.

Do not be frightened, place yourself in My hands and fear nothing, be grateful for all that comes to you. Kiss My hand during the pain and struggling and feel peace and happiness, always in the thought that it is My wisdom that has ordered all for you and the love of My Father that provides everything to help you.

Ask to become a chosen one that you may see the value of these sufferings. Let your prayer be heard in all of Heaven, My little one, as you call out, "Lord, I am as putty in your hands, mold me and use me for your greater glory."

Your loving Jesus.

(Ezekiel 18:23-32)

Jesus: My children, remember these words that I have spoken, "When you are reviled and persecuted and lied about because you are My followers, be happy about it, be glad for a tremendous reward awaits you up in Heaven.

Bear the burden of life joyfully for then you are halfway to being a saint. I am always there to comfort you no matter what the situation may be. You are precious to Me and I want to hear you tell Me over and over how much you love Me. Those who came before you were also persecuted for their faith, for their love for Me. Dispel the evil that seeks to destroy you and destroy our relationship with lies and deceitfulness, for he is the Father of Lies.

Focus only on Me and what lies ahead, for all who love and serve Me, the beauty and the everlasting peace that will be given those who endure until the end. Do not worry about the things of this world, go through this life holding My hand for love will make everything easy. My disciples met with many difficulties throughout their lives on earth but I was always with them for it was My Will that they should have these difficulties. It is necessary, My dear ones, to meet many troubles in My service, even when you are truly doing My will. Continue to be My faithful servant remaining steadfast in faith.

Go in peace.

Your loving Jesus.

At Adoration Chapel
(Matthew 7:1-26)

Jesus: Dear children, ponder in your heart the words I have spoken, "Take up thy Cross and follow Me." Become My disciples, children of the Light, take up your cross and deny thyself the things of this world for this life is passing quickly but the life to come will last forever. Come walk with Me that you may humbly follow after Me and I may teach you My ways. For the one who bears the cross with joy may hope to someday wear the glorious crown in the life that never ends. I am the God of compassion and of all encouragement. I will never leave your side. I will be with you to encourage you in your every affliction. For as My sufferings overflow to you, so through Me does your encouragement also overflow to others. Pray little ones for the spirit of true freedom to make you strong in faith, hope, and perseverance, that I may strengthen you in time of trial to be able to overcome the temptations of this world. Inspire others to take up their cross for the salvation of the world. Be My example. Be not afraid but brave and steadfast, for whatever you do for one of the least of My brothers and sisters, you do for Me. Labor under the patronage of My Mother the Immaculate Virgin, to spread the faith work with zeal for all souls that not one will perish, that you may be granted by your efforts to serve others for the glory of My Father in Heaven to become like Me, Who forever loves all with tenderness and compassion.

Your Jesus of Mercy.

During the Prayer group:

Jesus: I am the "Good Shepherd". I lay down My life for each one of you. Do not listen to the deceitful tongue of the Evil One who wishes to sway you away from Me. He will try every moment to win you on his side. Be on guard and remain focused, trusting in Me always. Be at peace.

Mother Mary: Listen only to My Son. His words are wisdom and truth.

At Adoration Chapel
(Jeremiah 17:7-14)

Jesus: My dear ones. In every hour of the day, I try to draw you closer to My loving Heart and I see you draw back, for you are afraid of what I will ask of you. You say, "Lord, what would you have me do?" This I will say to you, "Be satisfied with your lot in life. Do not want to be rich, smarter or even prettier, for I am responsible for every detail of your life."

If you are displeased with what I have given you, then you are rebelling against My Holy Will. There is not one amongst you who is not absolutely satisfied. I ask you to accept all things and try very hard to be content. This would have a great effect on your life and help you move forward, not blaming me for ups and downs, your illnesses or whether you are poor or rich. Some complain to Me about their spiritual state. They want to become saints quickly without the struggles, without the pain and distractions and hurts that need to be had. For if I desire that one should not move forward more quickly than you are doing, then do not wish to do so. It is not My Will that one become a saint in a day. It entitles much works, patience and perseverance, many hurdles, and many crosses to overcome. I desire a virtue to grow.

Ask for the grace to do all things that come your way and to do them well. Do all with humility because they are My Holy Will, then My little ones, you will become saints and be with Me forever. Strive for virtues of faith, hope, and charity. Ask for the gifts of My Spirit often. Let joy reign in your hearts, be at peace knowing that I am with you always.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Our Lady appeared at the right of Jesus. Mary was holding Her Heart and Jesus was holding His Heart.

Jesus: Unite your heart to the Two Hearts. Be not afraid. The message My Mother has given you is of the utmost importance. It is an urgent message. (February 2, 2012 – Medjugorje) Ponder it in your heart. Ann saw Jesus statue light up. She saw Jesus pouring graces into our hearts.

Jesus: Open your hearts and receive My graces. Ann said that Jesus became so illuminated that she could hardly see the Sacred Heart statue. As Jesus was leaving, Ann saw St. Joseph behind him with his staff in hand.

February 13, 2012 At Adoration Chapel (Wisdom 17:11-20)

Jesus: My dear ones. Always listen to the promptings of My grace. If you should hear an uncharitable comment, do not respond, but remain silent, for in doing this, small graces will mount up. Meditate on My words, "The first of My commandments, Thou shalt love the Lord Thy God with thy whole heart and thy whole soul and with thy whole mind and with strength. " Love Me and serve Me out of love. When I want a soul to come near Me, I give him the invitation by giving the soul a desire to know and love Me. This desire truly comes from Me, for I never begin and leave My work unfinished. I will gratify the desire which I Myself have inspired, all I ask is that one be faithful. Many have been away, but this means nothing to Me, for there is no time in My Kingdom. One says, all these years have passed and I have not served you well my Lord, how can I begin? Say rather, "It is Thou Thyself Lord, who has made me want to love Thee. Do Thou who hast filled me with this desire, give me greater love." Reflect upon the difficulties in your spiritual life, little ones, they are created by one's self. Ask for whatever you need from Me. Do not worry. Take all things quietly, never rush. My holy ones did not become perfect in a day. It took them a long time to mold their characters on My Divine pattern. They were not impatient, but cheerful, giving all their cares up for My greater glory. There was never a mention of them saying that there was no chance of them ever getting over this, as one is tempted to, for they knew better. Remember My dear ones, to move forward in the spiritual life, a life devoted to Me, one must want a never failing cheerfulness and courage. Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Jesus stepped out of the Sacred Heart statue. He is smiling.

Jesus: I have come amongst the faithful, that those who know Me can see Me with the eyes of their soul. Graces are now being poured out. Accept them, for they were gifts from Me. You are surrounded with many gifts. (The house is full of flowers on account of Ann's birthday and her mother's 90th birthday.) The flowers represent Rosaries said by those who dwell here and those who come here. They have been made into a crown, given to My Mother on the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. Be mindful that I do not leave you. I am always at your side.

Feel My presence My children.

Ann: Jesus' Heart is all aglow. I feel Jesus' holding my hand. Give your hands to the Lord that He may hold them. (We all held out our hands.)

Jesus: You have so much suffering, My children. Give them to Me. I love you My children. I will take care of you. Bow down to your Creator and Master. Be filled with My Spirit.

Adoration Chapel
February 27, 2012
(1Corinthians 1:3-13)

Jesus: My children, I desire you to have happiness in My service. Often, you will see that the heavier the cross, the lighter is the step and the more cheerful the countenance with which it is born. Never worry, it is a blessing to be rid of the crosses that come by your own fault, but those that I send, accept them with joy. I allow natural laws to create difficulties, and then I provide the help to overcome them. Some at times will taste the horrible perplexity that I had in the garden before My death. It will seem almost impossible to do what you know is what I want you to do. It will be hard to go on with My passion for what you are enduring. It must cost you something, My dear ones, if you mean to do something memorable for Me. It is the time of the greatest anguish of mind when one ponders this question. As you ponder remember the complete calm which I never lost during My passion. The evil one will do his best to mislead you, he will taunt you day and night. He will tell you that if you were able to do it, you would not have all these difficulties. But all this is negative, for the disturbance comes from the world, the flesh and the Devil. He would not be stirring a soul up if the matter were not important. Therefore, little ones, when you have to take resolutions which cost you much, look always at the pain and suffering I endured at the garden of the agony and take comfort from Me your Lord. Observe, all was in the natural course of events, I allowing all of mankind to work out their designs. Be calm and unite yourself to Me so I will give you strength to endure all sufferings. Be at peace. Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Jesus: I say, if a person strikes you on the right cheek, turn and offer the other also. Souls possessed by evil do not improve when evil is paid back with another evil. They are conquered only by goodness. Bear all wrongs in patience that is the true meaning of love.

March 5, 2012
At Adoration Chapel
(Psalm 102:17-28)

“Speak Lord your servant is listening”

Jesus: My dear children. As you speak these words to Me, I receive from you love, knowing that you place Me first above all things in your life. Knowing that you place your wants and needs in My hands and ask for My help. I say to you. I want you to take your life as it is, bearing your trials and disappointments as quietly as you can. The way to make things better is not to be sad, but happy and cheerful. “Your joy, no man shall take from you.” Supposing your trials are your own fault, the results of your own actions staring you in the face, if you cannot put it to rights, then I ask that you be sorry for what is wrong and go on cheerfully, starting over. My service is from hour to hour, from day to day. If things are not going the way you plan, it is a pity to think that you have great crosses and trials to bear and begin to moan. My work must be done with complete joy and happiness. No heart was ever so tender as My Heart. I could not see a person weep without wanting to stop their tears. Bear the cross in all your difficulties well, do not make much of them, you ought not to run like children with a hurt finger for sympathy and consolation in every little trouble. I love My own as the apple of My eye. Bear all, in love and patience for My sake. You must not be bothered by the idea that you can only be religious by being miserable. For if you think of Me, your loving God, as difficult and unapproachable, and afraid of Me, you will not love Me unconditionally as I love you. The evil one is always waiting for the chance to discourage, when we begin to doubt, he will approach you saying, “You are not one of those chosen souls are called to love God.” Be aware of his deception, always think of your Creator as one who knows your poor craven nature. I will never abandon you, hold on to Me never letting go. You will be safe in My Sacred Heart forever. Be at peace children of Mine.

Your loving Jesus.

(1Corinthians 1:18-25)

Jesus: My children, I am always calling to you, always beckoning to you, and always giving you a proof of My interest in you. I will always be your supreme love. I wish you to find joy in the world, in the pure love of your fellow-creatures, if they do not shut Me out and never lead you into bondage to them. But even so, for their power is only good for a short time, and then the old ache comes back, that old feeling of emptiness and dissatisfaction gnaws at your heart and once again, the cry breaks forth from your inmost being. "I need more. I need you God, show me my Lord and my God." You will see, My dear ones, that your craving has always been to see Me, to have Me near you and to know Me, to come to intimate terms with Me, always living for Me and asking for My help. I long for recognition from every soul I have created, for it constitutes your supreme happiness, reaching forth beyond yourself, having this impulse to put forth your hand into the darkness to grasp My hand. I came upon earth and came in human form, spoke with a human voice and had a human appearance because I was really man. I came to show each one how to love, to be humble, simple, and so accessible to everyone. My children, I am still in the world today, I am in the tabernacle of every Catholic Church. I am with you entirely in My perfect manhood and in My eternal divinity. I come to cure souls. Come to Me with faith, with love and with a contrite heart. I am ready to take you to My own. I am your food that nourishes you unto life everlasting. Be Mine. Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group.

Jesus: My children, those who live in Me and I in them will bear much fruit. The secret of producing good spiritual fruit lies in union with Me. If this union is destroyed through sin and you are separated from Me, then in spite of all your efforts, you will be barren. Ask Me, dear ones, to take away from you anything that hinders your spiritual growth.

March 19, 2012

(2 Peter 3:3-18)

Jesus: My children, My Heart is grievously heavy with the callousness of My people. They are not listening and those who have listened are slacking off and losing their fervor. Please pray for great faithfulness among My people, they just do not comprehend what lies ahead. It will be awful and justice will prevail so punishment must ensue. I have come with My Mother to so many around the world and yet it is not enough. How short sided man is. You must pray constantly for the world, the purification is here, no one can escape it. The world of beauty I created has become perverse and I will not allow this to continue. The world must be put through the fire to be worthy for Me to return. Be faithful, My little ones, when My justice showers down around you. Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Become as my foster father Joseph, a just and faithful soul an upright person always fulfilling his duties to Me, his neighbor and himself. Place all your confidence in Me and trust in My promises. In doing this you will earn My favor.

Adoration Chapel
(Isaiah 57:15-21)

Jesus: My children, only prayer can change hearts. Only prayer can bring My Father's justice swiftly. Pray for courage, pray for perseverance. Pray and never lose hope, to remain confident in My love and wisdom.

Much will be lost of your earthly existence, but every aspect of eternal existence is closer to you than ever, if you will believe and persevere through the storm. You must promise, My children, each of you from your heart, that you will never abandon My pleas. Promise to heed My request and pray unceasingly. It is of the utmost importance to pray the Rosary and the divine Mercy chaplet often to prepare your heart and soul. I will pray with you, My Mother will pray with you and the saints are already praying for you. Ask the angels to fortify you, ask them to be with you in prayer, for they will keep you awake and intensify your desires. Trust Me and My Mercy, have faith. Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

My Dear One,

Become My servant. To be My servant you are to be forever at My disposal, ready and regarding life with all its joys and sorrows as a sacred mission to you, by My love to fulfill this mission with all the generosity of your heart. Ask always for the grace to become my faithful servants.

April 2, 2012

(Wisdom 1:1-16)

Mother Mary: Dear children, fear is not of God, do not let it into your thoughts. Listen to everything that I tell you. You are all My children, stay close to Me and My Son and you will hear everything that I want you to hear. Because of the wickedness and sin, I ask you dear children, to pray constantly and fast. You must pray the Rosary every day! Trust, trust, trust, you must trust!

I want you to listen carefully to what I have to say to you this day. The time is coming when I will need for you to be prepared to surrender all that comes in your life for the triumph of My Immaculate Heart. You will not have peace in this life without surrendering. I love each of you and I will watch over you with My loving care. As you surrender everything, children, you are to think of us all day long. In everything you think and do, in everyone you meet, in every circumstance of every day, always saying to yourself, "What would Mother Mary want me to do?" "What would Jesus want me to do?"

The world is coming closer and closer to the second coming of My Son and for this reason the world needs the extra ordinary grace of My Maternal love to withstand the battles of the evil one. You must prepare yourselves, little ones. Jesus is the one who leads you. He is the way, the truth, and the life, ask always for His love. Dear ones please do everything out of love for Jesus and I will be with you always. I the Mother of God give you My peace and love forever.

During the prayer group:

Jesus: Nothing gives you more trouble than yourself. Your heart is not at rest, it is this way, for you are still controlled by the blind-self within you. Your heart must be set on Me and not worldly desires. Forget yourself and think only of My all perfect goodness.

Ann said Jesus appeared and she never saw him do this before:

Jesus blinked 3 times when He came.

He then stepped behind the statue.

Mary came too, along with another woman. They all were looking at Jesus.

Then Jesus' lips began to move, and He said how much He loves us. He loves our prayers. He loves us to be here. He blesses our families.

(Psalm 57)

Jesus: My children, I gave these words to you. "Ask and it shall be given to you, seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened to you." Your lives are spent in asking "those" for things, "those" who have been given more and "those" who have greater knowledge than you. The most important part of one's life is your asking and your giving. For when one asks for things, you are acknowledging that you are in need. In giving one becomes aware of the limitless riches I have placed in your heart. In asking and giving, My little ones, your relationship with Me grows. For our relationship comes together by your petition and on your gratitude towards Me. Asking and admitting that you need help makes you humble and gives Me the opportunity to show you that I am your God. Never be motivated by selfishness or pride when asking for your needs. Whatever the petition, you must always ask that it be in accordance with My Holy Will, for each time, that you make that act of identification of your will with My Will you are taking an important step towards the virtue of humility. Children, I desire to give you countless good things, ask for them so that I may give them to you spiritual as well as material goods. You must pray with faith to receive these gifts and have trust. Pray with confidence and perseverance, I always hear you even when it seems I am silent. Never become discouraged even if what you are asking does not happen, for I know better what you need. I always give you more than you ask Me for. My Mother always comes to your rescue. She delights in your coming to Her and asking for Her intercession, She asks you to pray, pray, pray with all your heart. Your petitions reach My presence promptly through My Mother.

Go in peace.

Your loving Jesus.

(Proverbs 8:17-32)

Jesus: My children, each of you are so important to Me in spite of your sins and imperfections. I follow all your history with incessant care and interest. Strive to grow in your spiritual life more and more, never giving up, for it means a great deal to Me to see this growth. Acts of virtue and acts of love of Me will make you memorable for ever and ever. Your life, My little ones, is of the utmost value in My eyes, never think your life empty, you must try to realize your nearness to Me and My claims upon you. One great privilege of the spiritual life is there is no time in it, the intensity of an act needs no time, in one moment can hold more than ten years. One can never hope too much, for there is more danger in your not hoping enough. Never put your standards too low. Always contemplate My love for you and aim high. The higher the things you believe I want for you, the better. Breathe the air of My promise and raise your heart high for I want a great deal of you. I have called you all to be saints, remember this. The highest gift of prayer, what are they compared to the gift of My Body and Blood that I have given you? Difficulties will disappear at once if you only bring your selves to believe how much I love you. Never let your heart sink with the false feeling that I do not care for you. My beloved ones, (the saints) combine humility with the unshaken belief in My great personal and individual love for them. Go forth with faith and perseverance, never losing hope, your loving Jesus.

Jesus: Place all your trust in Me, hope will keep you ever striving in your earthly life. Look to Me with gratitude and with hope in all your needs. Only I have control over all things at all times, for nothing can be done unless I command it. Your main hope, My dear ones, must be Me. I must be your treasure more than anything on this earth. Rely on My goodness, wisdom and My love, always following My holy will. Be mindful that My Holy Will governs every move that you make and I will never abandon those who persevere. Your loving Jesus

During the prayer group: My children, My grace draws you towards Me. It spreads love and happiness wherever it reigns. When grace becomes the ruling force of your life, then you shall have My peace.

May 7, 2011

(Jeremiah 5: 21-31)

Jesus: My children, I have called you to be My servants, to spend your days on earth doing My work, not wasting even a moment. For I will come like a thief in the night, and upon finding My servants not doing their duty, they will be judged accordingly. There are so many who need your guidance, your spiritual and material help, and yet I see My people wasting time, useless time, not praying, but doing things that have no value.

Your prayers cannot be quiet when those around you need spiritual help. You must reach out to them and give them hope. I have called you to be My apostles, My apostles of love and goodness, true apostles of faith, love and charity, giving to those in need that cannot help themselves. I have chosen you in this time to carry My Mothers' Messages to the world, a world without faith or love for Me.

You must remain faithful to your calling and finish the work I have given you to do. Even if you get tossed around, persecuted for love of Me, remember there is no storm that can ever uproot what I have planted. When you are bonded with Me, no storm will destroy it. You do not need to be known in this world to help change it. You need to be a Christian in My army and put forth every action to Christianize what is not Christian.

I ask you, My beloved sons and daughters, to move forward with My Mother's plans and put your faith into practice.

Be men and women of great faith, let your voices be heard, evangelize, for time is of the essence.

Your Loving Jesus.

(Psalm 61)

Jesus: Children of the light, peace will only come thru prayer. Live My commandments, sacrifice your lives for the salvation of the world. Comprehend the necessity of having peace in the heart. It is of the greatest importance for it is thru this way that you can spread peace from the heart.

The evil one has dominated the heart of man. His intent is to kill all hope for the worlds' changing. The world is in need of healing of faith in Me, its loving God.

Man has scorned Me and has become the creator of this modern world. It has become a society filled with heartaches and sorrow with the absence of joy. I am love and with love comes joy. This world has let the evil one take from it love, peace and joy. It has given excessive attention to all the wrong things. My mother calls to her children. She brings Messages of love and hope. She asks that all hear not the negative things of the world, not the problems of the world, but the good of Me, Your Creator to change the world.

The world is in a desperate situation. It is immersed in a great moral decay. My little ones pray for I am the Lord of Peace.

I will protect you with My mantle and help you comprehend the greatness and importance of peace in your heart. It is then that you will be able to spread peace from your heart throughout the entire world.

Go in peace.

Your Loving Jesus.

May 21, 2012

(Psalm 42)

Jesus: My children, I desire for you to break away from the nothingness of the world so that your heart will not go astray.

Do not become so attached to the pettiness of earth, that you neglect the One Who has given you life and loves you unconditionally.

Let me free you from every worldly spirit, that you may follow me with faithfulness and total dedication. I have called you and predestined each one for eternal happiness, but you must conform your life to this call and by prayer and the sacraments make sure of your predestination.

I am the way, My dear ones, as the sea is necessary to the ships that sail on it, so I am needed by your souls. Those who are not in Me will never obtain their goal, they will go their own way and will never reach the happiness they are searching for.

Remember, there is no rebirth, no renewal without death to your selfish ways, your entire heart must be cultivated, otherwise the thorns of sinful habits will continue to suffocate goodness. Make me the life and desire of your soul, for My redemption has given you a wonderful happiness, you have become My children and partake of My divine nature.

Never forget that I am close to you. Place with confidence all the events of your life in My hands and let me lead you wherever I will.

Abandon yourselves to Me and do not be afraid.

Your loving Jesus.

June 4, 2012
(Psalm 89:1-18)

Jesus: I call you all children of the light and children of the day. It is a tremendous grace to be a child of the day, the new day that has dawned for the world in Me.

Strive My little ones, to carry this Light to all your brothers and sisters who still do not know or want Me, that languish in the sadness and opposition of the night.

Pray, that they may be guided to My eternal dwelling place for even in the night of their weakness there always shines the brilliant light of the hope that I will supply, by My grace, everything that is lacking in them. With My grace, the last can become first. One must keep going from day to day thru all daily struggles, asking for patience and perseverance.

I seek fruits from your life on earth, for the sowing time is limited. You must do My work while it is day, for the night will come when you will not be able to work.

Take advantage of this time, or you will reap in vain. Dwell not on ambitious projects, but carry out even the lowliest tasks.

Do My work continuously and without anxiety, and I will send My blessings upon you and upon the work I have given you.

You will become a good and faithful servant, giving glory to My heavenly Father.

Go in peace.

Your loving Jesus.

June 11, 2012

(Sirach 7: 31-40)

Jesus: My children, My Mother continuously calls to all of you to pray, pray, pray especially for the shepherds, Her beloved sons. Prayer and sacrifice is of great value for their preservation and sanctity. They are going thru the most difficult ordeal in this time. Many are confused as to what the Priesthood entails.

Do not hesitate to fast and pray for these souls, for without their Priesthood there cannot be the Eucharist, you will not have the sacrifice of the Mass, you will not receive Me, the real Presence.

I give special graces to them, for they have extraordinary responsibilities before Me. They represent My presence on earth, therefore of all people, they must be most like Me, examples of what I want My people to be.

Recall all the crisis in My Church over the centuries, every one of them was due to the fact that My shepherds had failed My people. I tell you, the evil one's principal target on this earth is the Catholic Priest, the evil one wishes to deceive him and lure him from Me.

Do not waste time, prayer will gain graces for them, and keep them from the enemy, they desperately need your help. Let your prayers be united with the practice of patience and charity, because the most effective prayer is the prayer that costs, costly prayer, My little ones, is sacrificial prayer.

The sufferings of the sick, the lonely, the abandoned, the poor are the most powerful before Me. Shepherds are not only to offer the Holy Sacrifice, they must live it.

The grace most needed above all else is for every one of them to embrace the Cross, to be willing like His Master, to suffer for souls. They are weak and human, pray so that they may bring countless souls to Me for all eternity.

Your Loving Jesus.

June 18, 2012
(Matthew 5: 1-20)

Jesus: My children ponder in your hearts the messages given you by Me as well as My Mother. They have been given to help you understand how Satan wants to frustrate and confuse all of humanity. He wishes to frustrate My Mothers plans to defeat him and crush his head.

My Mother prays for Her children each and every day, so that I may give them the grace to experience My victory in the temptations of the evil one.

Never be afraid of temptations, for I am watching over you always and I sympathize with you even in the smallest temptation.

When you are tempted, remember My beloved Saints endured the most severe ones and continued to grow in holiness as they battled and conquered them thru great struggles.

I will give you the grace to fight temptations and weaknesses throughout your journey home, pulling you from grave dangers which you are locked in.

Always remain close to My Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of My Mother, make a clear choice, My little ones, to follow My precepts, for if one does not choose Me, and chooses the evil one, He will lose My grace and become inflamed in his own passion. One will find it most difficult to escape the situation, for the evil one deceives you to believe that what you are doing is not a serious thing.

My people are in grave danger of getting caught up deeper and deeper by degrees to where they may become possessed by evil. If one continually chooses this path to walk, I will give them what they desire, they will eventually become on fire with it and it will consume them. Remember, these souls will suffer, not at My hand, but by their own.

Your Loving Jesus.

June 25, 2012

(Luke 24: 35-49)

Jesus:

My children, every good thing that you have comes from Me. I the Lord, manifest all My power in the Host, My Body and Blood.

Innumerable graces are not granted because My people do not go and receive Me or visit Me in the Blessed Sacrament.

My sacred Host, My Holy Mystery, contains all that I have ever done for mankind.

Never envy the blessed in heaven, since on this earth you have Me, with greater wonders of My love. I have sent My Holy Spirit to guide you, offer your heart as cold as it is and let a ray of My Light and a spark of My fire enter in to melt the hardened ice of your iniquities.

For it is I the Holy Spirit, who filled with immense graces the soul of Mary, and enflamed with holy zeal the heart of the apostles, so too I will set on fire the hearts of those that shall ask.

I am a divine Spirit, I will fortify you against evil spirits. I am a fire that will enkindle in you the fire of My love, I am a Light that will enlighten you so that you may know eternal things.

I am a Dove, I will give you great purity of heart. I am a breath full of sweetness that will dissipate the storms of passion.

I am the author of all heavenly gifts. Open your hearts and receive Me.

Your Loving Jesus.

June 30, 2012

(1 Corinthians 2: 1-16)

Jesus:

My children I ask you to become detached from creatures, that you may rise above the things of the earth and fly towards My heavenly Kingdom.

Find your paradise on earth by finding Me in the most Holy Sacrament, so much so, that you will never tire of hovering around Me, for I am the most delicious food of your heart.

Even so ungrateful to My love, I invite all to approach Me, for it is I that can change you, drive from you every love which is not for Me, every desire which displeases Me, and every thought which does not tend towards Me.

I am for you a treasure, your all, I desire that you please Me alone, give pleasure only to Me for I deserve all your love.

Love Me with your whole heart and I will give you the grace to detach yourself from everything of this world. I will bind you to Myself so firmly, that you may nevermore be able to separate yourself from Me, either in this life or the next. Say yes to Me in everything I ask of you, resolve always to do

My will, not your will, for in this way, the waters of this fountain will not only cleanse you, but will also give you light and strengthen you not to fall and enable you to cheerfully bear all contradictions.

I will wash you from all defects that you have committed this day and every day, for which I am grieved, which they so displease Me. Ask that I may strengthen you against relapse by giving you a great desire to love Me. All this I will do those who love Me and want Me, to help them reach their final destination.

Go in peace.

Your Loving Jesus.

July 9, 2012

(Psalm 25)

Jesus: My children, glorify My grace, for without it one can do nothing. May your heart be opened to My heavenly kingdom as the flower opens its chalice to the rising sun, to catch its beneficent dew.

I expect from you the homage of perseverance up to the last moment of the time that should be consecrated to Me.

May confidence, simplicity, and love lead you to Me, to come to adore Me each day. Become joyful souls, always living continually in My goodness, which is ever longing for you.

Contemplate in Me, your Savior, the work of My love for you, the beauty of My virtues and the light of My love.

The fire of love passes quickly, but My truth remains forever. True love forgets self in order to exalt and glorify Me. True love looks not at what it gives, but only at what your beloved merits.

When you please Me in this way, I will speak to you and let your heart open to the rays of that sun as the flower bathed and refreshed by the dews of the night opens under the beams of the radiant orb of the day.

My voice will penetrate your soul like fire consuming the substance which offers no resistance.

You will become one with Me, abandon yourself to Me and in Me and you will rest peacefully under My protection.

Go in Peace.

Your Loving Jesus.

July 16, 2012

(James 4: 1- 10)

Jesus: My dear children, I have left you with these words, "Come to Me all you who labor and I will refresh you." "Come to Me Who am with you in the Eucharist until the consummation of the world." "I came not only for the just, but to call sinners."

You must realize, that it is your misery and sinfulness that gives you a right to come to Me, for the most miserable are always the first to be admitted into My Sacred Heart, and are the objects of My tender solicitude.

I come to the humble and simple souls to remind them that I am in the Host and on the altar for them who have nothing to offer Me, neither love, nor courage, nor fervor, so

I ask those who have nothing to offer, to take and offer Me in place of what is wanting in them. I am with you day and night, pleading for you, always ready to make good your weakness.

I protect you, My little ones, from Divine Justice as soon as you take refuge in My Heart.

Remember if anything could wound My Heart, it would not be so much your failures and your daily faults, it would be your forgetfulness of My merciful tenderness and your wants of confidence in My unchangeable love, and My extraordinary desire for your happiness.

No matter how weak or miserable one may be, never refuse Me, the only reward that I desire, that My children throw themselves into My arms and there abandon their anguish and sorrow.

Come to Me with trust in the light of faith, saying to Me, "Jesus, My Lord and Savior, I will never leave You until You have blessed me and have taught me to come to know You."

Your Loving Jesus.

July 23, 2012
(1 Peter 1: 2-7)

Jesus: My children, in order that you may hear My voice, I ask that you have silence in your soul and to keep silence, to have recollection in Me. I ask that you cast away your troubles and put aside all distractions, make time to converse with Me, your loving God. Enter into the secret chamber of your heart, leave behind all things except Me, then close the door and truly seek Me, let My love absorb you.

Let Me speak to you so that you may come to know My will and fulfill every one of My commands. My children, I will speak to you by such inspirations, such interior light, such sweet touches in your heart and with such peace that you will understand My love and you will seek Me and Me alone.

All the good thoughts that I will give each of you in prayer are truly relics. Gather them carefully together in order to translate them into acts and you My dear ones will gladden My Sacred Heart. Abandon yourself fully to My Spirit, always allowing yourselves to be led wherever and whenever, for My Spirit descends upon you with great gentleness and you will sense this presence working in your lives.

He alone will show you what unity should look like each and every day. There will be times when the Spirit will surprise you and ask you to do something you least expected to do. Always be open to what may be asked of you. Yield to the Spirit that you can accomplish the work that I your God have in store for you.

Let My Spirit be a permanent Gift, shaping your hearts and minds as He guides your steps and works tremendous wonders in your life.

Pray little ones in this way, "Holy Spirit, teach me how to be united with You in heart and mind, so that I may be of one heart and mind with all My brothers and sisters."

Your Loving Jesus.

July 30, 2012
(James 4: 7-17)

Jesus: My children, you have no time to waste or relax, it is time to rely on Me and become as holy as I desire you to be, to sanctify you and most of all to bring peace into this troubled world, especially family.

Believe that without prayer in the family, there will not be peace. Give Me your undivided purity of heart, so that you will never have to fear or worry about anything.

When you have My presence, I will be with you always, if you choose not to have Me in your life, I will not be with you and you will experience no peace or rest.

My little ones, this peace that I will give must be carried to others until it begins to rule the world.

Pray for patience, for My people grow weary when they come to visit Me, it seems like eternity to them.

Am I not patient with those who do not desire Me and offend Me?

My patience is great, because the love bearest for men is great in this it is which, so to say, forces Me to dwell always in the midst of creatures so ungrateful.

I say to you, work for the Kingdom, never slack off, for time is moving forward very quickly, and many changes will be experienced by all.

Keep praying, be strong, and give the enemy no opportunity to overcome you, even in your tiredness, always remember, prayer takes precedence over tiredness.

Your Loving Jesus.

August 6, 2012

(Hebrews 12: 1-9)

Jesus: My children, My people are creating a new world without Me, their Creator, who has given them life.

They have fallen away from My natural and biblical laws. This is why they are unsatisfied and have no joy in their heart.

Look back in time to all who abandoned Me, turned their backs on Me, and you will understand that not a single one survived or flourished. Society will flourish only when I and My precepts are in one's heart.

Look around you at today's modern art, and you will see My total absence. You must focus and decide to live only for Me, for this is the time of decision. Do not wait, this is the time of grace, a time when people all over the universe are either for Me or against Me and My holy will.

A tremendous arrogance is coming among many, and this will be the dominant reference to time.

Society will lose their guidance by casting Me aside. And those who will remain with Me as their Lord and Savior will be resented and hated. This rejection of Me by society is also a rejection against Christians. Read My Holy Word daily. Living it and always praying to understand what is happening around you.

Continue to be children of the Light as I have called you. Sacrifice your lives for the conversion of all sinners.

Go in peace.

Your Loving Jesus.

August 13, 2012

(1 Corinthians 9:24-27)

Jesus: My children, come to Me just as you are, make simple meditations, exhausting your humility and charity. I your Master, prefers the poverty of your heart, to the most sublime thoughts and affections borrowed from others.

Understand that I desire your own heart and not that of others, I desire the thoughts and prayers of your heart as a natural expression of love for Me.

Glory the grace I will give you without which you can do nothing. What most unfortunately checks the growth of My grace and love in your soul, is that before reaching My feet do you begin to speak to Me of yourself and your sins.

When you do this My children, you tire your minds by the sight of misery, your heart grows sad under the thought of your ingratitude and your infidelity.

Sadness will give rise to pain, and pain to discouragement.

Come forth to Me and begin with these words, "Oh My good and gentle Jesus, how happy I am to see You and be with You this day."

Tell Me of your love for Me and how grateful you are to be in My presence, adore Me and praise Me for all the wonderful good I have given you.

Love then opens to you the door of My heart, filling your heart with joy and becoming one with you.

I already see and know all the pain you have suffered, but you must let go and begin to let Me take charge of all the pain and emptiness, and live for Me alone. The trials, My little ones, will be there always, but My love will conquer all.

Your Loving Jesus.

August 20, 2012

(2 Thessalonians 2:16-17)

(2 Thessalonians 3:1-13)

Jesus: My people come to Me with great distress, they speak to Me, “My Lord, I feel trapped by all the pressure and stress of this life, I am drowning in a sea of trials, help me.” I say to you, “Child, I see the raging sea of human emotions, I have seen your beginning and your end, the whole sweep of your existence.”

I am above all, but I am not removed from your life or indifferent to your struggles.

I do not hold Myself aloof from you, looking down from an unapproachable distance.

I am always with you, every step of the way. I walked the earth and I faced all the hardships and struggles that My people do. I am deeply familiar with all the ups and downs of human emotions but I never lost My perspective, I never forgot My mission, and that My Father was always with Me.

I look down on you with great compassion and concern, I continue calling to you to look up and raise your eyes to Me, to see with your eyes, from My Heavenly perspective. In all your trials, lock your gaze on Me, focus child and remind yourself that you are My child and I will never let you down, you are destined for eternal life and I will always be by your side.

Look up and trust that I have brought you to life and that I will walk with you through all your struggles, have hope that you will have eternal life with Me in My Heavenly Kingdom.

I will give you wisdom and guidance, a wisdom that sees much further than you could on your own, and I will speak to you of the things of Heaven.

Continue to meditate and read My Holy Word, you will find comfort and peace.

Your Loving Jesus.

August 27, 2012
(2 Timothy 2: 1-16)

Ann: I ask You dear Lord, to bless, to exalt and to defend your Holy Church, I ask you to make it better known, better loved, and served among all mankind.

Jesus: Pray all My beloved ones for My Holy Church, that is so tried and so persecuted. Pray as I continually do, for the sacred Priesthood, My Shepherds, that they may be filled with the grace of My spirit and may grow in all virtues and be consumed with zeal for My glory and the salvation of the souls I have purchased by My death on the Cross.

You must pray for your Pastors, little ones, that they may grow in the virtues of their state and be enlightened and strengthened in their solicitude for the direction of the flock that has been confided to their care. I tell you, one Saint may save an entire nation, and his prayers are a safeguard and protection to his entire country than the might of whole armies.

Jesus: Always pray and ask Me for the conversion for some great sinner, nothing gives Me greater glory of such marvelous manifestations of My mercy and grace.

Do not forget self, you must continue to pray for yourself, that you may spend your entire days in pleasing Me. I receive you and all your sacrifices at all times, whether it be day or night, my love knows no repose.

I am ever full of goodness to you and all who give themselves totally to Me. I forget all your sins and imperfections when you come to Me and ask for forgiveness. Always invite heaven and earth, angels and saints, to join you in thanksgiving in blessing and in glorifying Me for all My marvelous love.

Contemplate with wonder the humiliations of the sacramental state which I have taken upon Myself for love of mankind.

I am even poorer in the Holy Eucharist than in Bethlehem, for there I had My Mother.

Adore Me and offer Me reparation for the many who have forgotten Me.

Your Loving Jesus.

September 10, 2012

(2 Corinthians 6: 14-18)

(2 Corinthians 7: 1)

Jesus: My children, I know the difficulties one has when in conversation with others, to avoid sins and faults. Your language must be restrained, sincere and honest, avoiding quarrels and disputes at all costs. Make it known that one should not contradict anyone unless it were either sinful or very harmful to agree with him. If one should oppose someone's opinion, do it very lovingly so as not to make him angry, for nothing is ever gained when one is harsh and insensitive.

Take heed when speaking with family about indifferent and unnecessary things, these lengthy conversations fill one's mind with things that do not concern Me, they surround your heart with harmful thoughts that makes one lose the effectiveness of My grace that is lavished upon you, making it weak and no longer lively.

While on earth My mind was always centered on the things that concerned the salvation of all souls and the glory of My Heavenly Father. I never said anything but Holy things trying with My whole words to persuade souls to make reparation for the offences that they committed against My Heavenly Father. Once I saw that their heart was broken by sorrow and softened by grace, I then inflamed and drew them to Me by My love.

Look at souls, love them without ever detaching yourself from Me. Your Creator of all, look at them as My image. When someone does something good for you, you will recognize that this good is coming from Me. When wronged by another, give it to Me, for you must consider that I permitted this only for your greater spiritual and physical well-being.

You will then see, as a result, that your heart felt more drawn and tied to Me. Look at all souls in Me and at the image of Me in each person and you will not lose your esteem for them. Be mindful My little ones that your love of neighbor must be always motivated by your love for Me.

Bear the faults and annoying habits of others for love of Me, considering these crosses to be My will for you, love, do good for others and never look for anything in return, this My little ones will bring Me great joy.

Your loving Jesus.

September 17, 2012

(Ephesians 5: 8-20)

Jesus: My children, I desire for all to deal with your circumstances with resolution and faith, and not to let them determine your future.

Souls need discernment to know when circumstances are a sign from Me, your Lord and God, of what I desire you to do or an obstacle that you have to work against.

It is a privilege as My sons and daughters to turn to Me directly and expect Me to teach you and speak to you directly as a form of guidance for your own life.

Love Me and come to know Me, I desire to give you a direct personal relationship with Me. But, My dear ones, because I want to lead you directly does not mean that I want to make you completely self-sufficient for I have called you to be a people, to be members of My body.

This means that different members of a body will depend on one another. I have made you to depend on one another in your lives as Christians.

I have not only given you life directly, but life thru other members of My body. You are not safe alone, one cannot get everything you need alone, I want you to receive My gifts at one another's hands, because I desire to make you humble.

My wisdom is pure, gentle, full of peace, full of mercy and good fruits without uncertainty or insincerity. Knowing children that I have spoken to you should make you humble and open, unafraid to be corrected, and willing to be out in the Light.

Advice and council are essential when following My way. Remember these words, "the way of a fool is right in his own eyes, but a wise man listens to advice."

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Jesus: The violence My children has escalated. There is no peace in the world. There is hatred and unforgiveness in many hearts.

There shall be no peace until all come to Me.

Pray for your country. Never stop.

October 1, 2012

(St. James 4: 7-10)

Jesus: My children, I your Lord am always willing to work with you, because of My love for each of you, you are My sons and daughters. I am patient with you as you are patient with children who need to grow up.

Many times this patience is expressed by My discipline, but I never lose My love for you or give up on you.

The key to guidance is your union with Me, in offering your lives to Me each day.

When you offer your life to Me, you are expressing your love and renewing your commitment to Me, I long for this, My little ones.

Offering your life to Me is not just words, but a total commitment from your heart, for your offering will not make a difference unless you actually surrender your life to Me each time you make that offering.

Express your love to Me, so that it will grow, for when you fail to do this, it will begin to fade. The more you express your desires to offer your life to Me, the more that desire will sink into you and lead you in that direction. Remember, the lack of surrender to Me is the key to difficulties, you will have in receiving My guidance.

I will lead all to a deeper dedication of themselves to Me, for when you surrender, then I can guide you. I see in many the things that are being held onto and need to be surrendered to Me in order to grow spiritually.

Begin to offer these most difficult things, that it may become easier for you to surrender to Me.

You will become more free from fears and anxieties, and more able to live in a loving way, and come to know My Holy Will.

Your Loving Jesus.

October 8, 2012

(1 Corinthians 1: 3 – 9)

Jesus: My children, learn to mind your own business and do not set yourselves up as the judge of others. There are many things that you do not know about those around you, be wise and never judge, leave all judgment to Me. It is more profitable for one to look at themselves and judge themselves, you can do a great deal about correcting your own faults.

Instead of finding faults in your neighbors, say a prayer for them and give them to Me.

Little ones, when some people annoy you it is because you have not yet learned patience and understanding.

I suffered many things in silence for your sake and I ask you to do the same. Work on your own faults, for then you will not be annoyed by the faults of others. Let your heart, mind and soul be at total peace by not judging the ways of others, for it is a waste of precious time.

How often have you been aroused against someone because he has opposed your pride or selfishness in some way, you should not expect everyone to see things your way. Every soul is different and has his own tastes and experiences.

Pray that I may give you heavenly wisdom, so that you may not be unreasonable in your judgments and opinions about others.

Treat each person that you encounter as an individual, take the talents and circumstances in your life and make the most of them.

Imitate Me as far as you are able, according to the intelligence and grace I have given you.

Be kind and generous always and follow My Holy Will in all things, this My little ones will please Me.

Go in peace.

Your Loving Jesus.

October 15, 2012

(Corinthians 13: 1 – 10)

Jesus: My child, let Me fill your heart with charity, so that you may love Me with a perfect love. When one does good for another, he does them for My sake.

I ask you to be good to every soul here on earth, but you must refuse to commit sin for them, you must never displease Me in doing what is wrong.

A soul not interested in the needs of his neighbor is not interested in Me, the Creator.

Help others as much as possible, for your love for Me is proved by your actions.

Your efforts to help others, My beloved, must not be an over eagerness to change them, but to pray for them and give them over to Me.

When you cannot correct the fault, a weakness in yourself, or in others, you must be patient and pray for My help, for I will not permit evil to win out in the end.

Remember, if I had created all to be perfect, there would be little to suffer for My sake.

All have faults and has burden to carry throughout this life, so, I say help to console one another and instruct one another, to bear with one another.

In all these persons and opportunities placed before you, you can prove your love for Me, by acting towards them as I desire. Pray little ones, that you may reflect My wonderful patience in life's daily trials, in spite of all your weaknesses and faults.

Never stop trying, for I am with you always, guiding you every step of your journey to eternal life.

Your Loving Jesus.

October 22, 2012

(Sirach 24: 23-31)

Jesus: My children, keep this in mind: Because of your love for Me, you will always find ways to make hidden sacrifices that no one but Me will be aware of.

I accept all that is done in My name, even the comfort and consolations, one receives, as if these were giving comfort to My own body.

Loving your neighbor and helping them brings joy and comfort to My heart. I see true charity when a soul sees My image in his neighbor and performs good deeds.

When one loves the poor and counsels them it is the same as doing for Me, this is the beautiful kind of true virtue which begins with Me and ends in Me.

These hidden sacrifices, especially helping others without seeking to get something in return, motivated by your love for Me is pure love and will be greatly rewarded.

I tell you, live in this world as if only you and I exist, love others, especially family members only for My sake.

Love them with My love and strive whenever possible to manifest the bare and simple truth that attracts souls to Me to reach the glorious life to come.

Pray, that I will grant each of you the wisdom of preferring My Holy Will in all things. Place your daily life at My feet, and ask that I may do with you as I see fit, then you will be sure that I will send only what is best for you.

Your Loving Jesus.

During the prayer group.

Jesus appeared to Ann during the second decade of the Rosary. Jesus' Heart was glowing. Ann saw many "Holy Souls" come down from the ceiling, one by one. The "Holy Souls" said; "I am praying for your soul."

Jesus had a staff. As a good shepherd He was holding a lamb.

Jesus: Come to Me all who labor and I will give you rest.

October 29, 2012

(Acts 4: 24-37 Acts 5: 1-11)

Jesus: My children, this day you ask Me, what more you can do while here on earth. I tell you: listen to the promptings of My Spirit, you will then be guided to whatever is asked of you. Always say yes, accept everything whether it be sickness, failures, labors or even criticisms.

Be loyal to My Holy Will and you will experience peace of soul, your work will seem less difficult because I will give you all the graces you need.

You were placed on earth in order to gain eternal glory and joy of heaven, become more like Me in your thinking, speaking and how you act, especially towards your fellow man.

You will learn, My little ones, that My way is the only intelligent way, you will grow in My strength to receiving My Sacraments and praying without ceasing as My Mother has come to encourage all Her children.

Turn your life to Me and you will be able to do many things that had once seemed too difficult to do. Waste no more precious time, for time is of the essence, strive to understand what I desire of you, be determined to follow My Will each and every day of your life's on this earth.

I am with you always.

Go in peace.

Your loving Jesus.

November 5, 2012

(Acts 3: 7-26)

Jesus:

My children, I have called you to share in My glory, for eye has not seen, and ear has not heard and human minds have not conceived all the wonders that I have in store for you.

I tell you, these wonders are not just meant for heaven, for even today, here on earth, your heart can be filled with love and joy. Right now, dear little ones, you can lay your problems, your burdens at my feet. Be confident and at peace, knowing that I your loving God is with you and will care for you always.

You have so much to be joyful for, because I am faithful, loving, true and merciful. Your salvation, your returning to Me one day leaves Me filled with awe. Strive for holiness, for it is not an impossible task, it is a gift that has been poured into your heart, it is a call to rejoice, to embrace the God who can make you holy, as I am Holy.

Praise Me, praise My Holy Name, set your hope on the grace that was poured into your heart at baptism. Pray that you may be faithful servants, pleasing Me at every moment of your lives on earth, that I may clothe you in My holiness until the day I call you home.

Be not afraid the battle has been won, the victory is Mine.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Ann said Jesus came with Mother Mary on His right, and St. Joseph with staff on His left.

Jesus:

Place all your trust in My Sacred Heart. For all that is done is in accordance to My Holy Will. Pray and have hope and trust.

Then Ann said Jesus smiled. Ann said she could see His teeth.

Jesus said softly: Pray, leave everything in My hands.

(Philippians 4: 4-7)

Jesus:

My children, I seek souls to console Me, I desire souls that are totally abandoned to My love, sensitive souls that not only refuse Me nothing, but seize eagerly the opportunity to give Me pleasure.

Souls that are small in themselves yet very great because of the love that prompts them, souls that will offer Me all those trifles that in My goodness scatters through each and every moment of the day.

Let My Eucharistic Heart in My Sacred Host draw you more and more to Me. May My presence have an irresistible force and invite you to experience an in designable joy.

You will feel an immense distance from the earth and a longing to always be within My reach. I desire for you to be closely united with Me, not only when you pray or suffer but always and forever.

When you breathe, when you work or eat and sleep, all this you must do as if you were doing it in My humanity, as if all of your work came out of Me.

Nothing can be yours My dear souls, rather, all must be in you only as a shell an opening this shell of your work there has to be found the fruit of My Divine Work.

Therefore, by doing everything with this intention of receiving life from Me, even the most small actions acquire the merits of My humanity.

Do everything out of love and be at peace.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group:

Ann said that Jesus stepped out of the statue. Mother Mary appeared above His right arm. She held a child in Her arms. It is an aborted baby.

Mother Mary: This is what they are doing to our children.

Ann felt very nauseated when she saw this because the baby was all bloody. Ann had a hard time finishing all the prayers because of the grief.

(Sirach 4: 1-11)

Jesus:

My children, never let your heart be troubled or afraid, there are always going to be things in your lives that can loom over you and make you forget the reality of who you are as My children.

My dear ones, being at peace is a choice you must make. You should not let your heart be troubled. I warned My disciples that I was going away, I said to them, if you love Me you will rejoice that I am going.

I did not tell them that they would not confront frightening situations, but I exhorted them not to allow their circumstances to dictate whether or not they were at peace.

You must remember, when you focus only on your circumstances, then you will risk losing sight of the truth and you allow your selves to be swept in worry and anxiety.

Hold on to the truth, the reality of Who I am. I made the universe. I was sent to redeem you. I hold you all in the palm of My hands. I will never abandon, not even one soul.

Do not be afraid of what is facing you at this time. I tell you, you are My children and nothing will ever separate us. Your problems may not go away, but you will find peace.

Your loving Jesus.

During the Prayer Group:

Mary appeared on Jesus's right side.

A soul from Heaven wearing a white bow came on Jesus's left side. Jesus's heart was all aglow.

Wisdoms Hardships and Rewards

(Sirach 4: 12-22)

Jesus:

My children, I ask you to love your neighbor as yourself, you must strive for charity and humility in all things. Do not be wise and prudent according to the flesh, but simple humble and pure.

Never, My little ones, desire to be above others, instead I ask you to be servants who are submissive to all human beings for My sake and for My Heavenly Kingdom to come.

When you live this way, My Spirit will rest on you and I will permanently dwell in you. Yes, I will dwell in you and give you graces so that your mind will receive holy thoughts, and your will has good desires.

You will feel drawn to Me for these graces are special Gifts I have for you. Step by step, as baby steps, a marvelous change will come over your thinking, desires and your actions, you will be living in union with Me, living a holier life, a life, My dear ones, more like Mine.

My divine Life was placed within you at baptism to make you worthy of Heaven. This Gift is a precious possession to be treasured, this privilege makes the unworthy sinner, worthy of My Kingdom.

Ask for wisdom and understanding to see clearly and only by My grace can one walk safely each second of the day towards eternal happiness.

Your loving Jesus.

(2 Peter: Chapter 2: 2 -11)

Jesus:

My children, the evil in the world is being caused by the mighty majority of souls that thrust Me and My Holy Law out of their lives. I tell you, My faithful ones, as long as these souls refuse to submit to My rule, there will be no hopeful prospect of lasting peace among nations.

Souls must look for My peace in My Kingdom. Their rebellion against My authority has and will produce deplorable effects. Private quarrels and selfishness make souls seek nothing but their own comfort and advantage, they have no peace in their homes because men have forgotten and neglect their duty, the unity of the family.

There are those that live for the world and insult My name by suppressing all mention of it, and because of this, I ask My faithful ones, to more loudly proclaim My Kingly dignity and power.

Oh, troubled and insensitive world, I see you doing everything to rid Me from the face of the earth, to take Me out of society. How to destroy My church and kill My shepherds.

And while you are doing all this plotting, I your Lord and God am preparing an era of love and peace. If you only knew My love for all mankind, this would never take place.

Pray, My good and faithful ones, pray for those who do not want Me, because they do not know Me.

Your loving Jesus.

During the prayer group.

Jesus appeared on the second decade.

Ann said: There are a number of souls around Jesus, including Anna with the white bow.

Jesus: I tell you all, reconcile yourselves, for the time has come, the day of My birth is near. Reconcile yourselves and be cleansed.

Ann's tone of voice was very soft, slow, very comforting when she said this.

December 10, 2012

(Romans: Chapter 8: 31 -39)

Jesus:

My children, seek My mercy!

I the Lord am waiting to show you favor, I rise to pity you, for I am a God of justice, blessed are those who wait for Me.

It is written: Ask and it will be given you, seek and you shall find, knock and the door shall be opened.

I come, My beloved ones, to save you, to give you My mercy. I come to those who wait in faith, I come as a Healer to all those who are sick and suffering, who seek relief, that only I can give.

Have faith, for then you will see My power, you will see that I rule in Heaven, even though you are on earth, I can do all things.

You will begin to speak of My mysteries, of My healing power and you will love and admire those who suffer because they refuse to deny Me.

Condemn the deceit and error of this world, for you will come to know that true life is in Heaven. Then you will witness the heavens opening from above and the parched land become anew.

I will send forth the waters of forgiveness that will flow in abundance.

Ask My dear ones to let Me teach you to turn to Me in your hearts during the demands of these times amid all your fears, frustrations, your confusion, pain, and problems.

Turn to Me that I may give you My peace that you may endure all.

My glory exists in the trust of My children. Call out to Me, "My God, will come to save us, because nothing is impossible. "

Your Loving Jesus.

December 16, 2012

(Sirach: Chapter 17: 21 - 27)

Jesus: My children. Be obedient, by always being simple and cheerful. I love cheerful givers and cheerful obeyers. I obeyed even unto death, so this to I ask of you, be pleasing to My Heavenly Father. Submit with obedience and dignity whatever is asked of you. Love Me dear ones, with generous love, trusting always without ever looking back with fear.

Give yourselves fully to Me and I will use you to accomplish great things. Turn your heart and mind to Me with absolute confidence, believing that I alone am Life, and that sanctity is nothing but Me living in you. I will rejoice over each of you with gladness, for joy is one of the greatest safeguards against all temptations.

The devil is a carrier of all evil and he uses every chance he has to attack you, to bring you down, to cause My little ones to enter into a state of depression and bring some to commit suicide.

Let your heart always remain joyful, for a joyful heart knows how to protect itself from this great evil.

I will take full possession of your soul only if you surrender yourself joyfully. Pray to My dear Mother, who has been called "Cause of our Joy."

She will always come to you especially in your hour of need and intercede for you. Ask always for a meek and humble heart, with which to serve Me and your prayer will surely be answered. Your Loving Jesus.

During the Prayer group:

Jesus appeared during the second decade of the Rosary. He came out from in front of the Sacred Heart statue and went by the picture with the Eucharist.

To the right of the Sacred Heart statue, a woman named Anna appeared (from Heaven). She had a bow on her head. A little angel appeared.

Joseph Reinholts, the visionary from Queen of Heaven Cemetery, Hillside Illinois also appeared.

Joseph said: I am praying for all of you.

St. Joseph and Mother Mary appeared:

In this important time, pray, pray, pray.
