1 Corinthians 1:30-31

Jesus: My Dear Children,

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with you. Let this one-line ring out in each of your hearts. Joy and peace must be the focus of your being here on earth. Without joy and peace there is no hope, bring hope to those around you who are in need. Wipe away the tears of those who suffer life's cruel fate, despite the plagues of hate, their hearts that have turned to stone, wounded and darkened and cold. Remember, My little ones, no soul can be happy on the outside who is already unhappy on the inside. Pray for them, comfort them and ask that they may come to Me asking for a change of heart, one that is loving, caring and full of peace and joy, that they may die to self. That they may come to know life's precious truth, to walk by faith instead of fear, a heart full of love. On the day of My birth, I asked My beloved ones, My followers, to pick Me up from My crib and hold Me in your loving arms and sing songs of praise to Me as you kiss My tiny little forehead. I ask that you continue to do this each day for all souls in the world that are far from Me, that need to come back before it is too late. This brings Me much joy and happiness and in return I will fill your heart with love, a love that will be shared.

Go in peace.
Your loving Jesus.

Ann's advice: Keep a tiny crib somewhere in your home and continue this practice that the Lords asks.

During the Second Decade:

Jesus: My beloved Pope has stated: "Every stranger who knocks at our door is an opportunity of an encounter with Me, Jesus Christ." Remember Saul, who became St. Paul, and in his own words stated: "I have been crucified with Christ, it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in Me." Paul saw his newfound faith in Me not as a break with Judaism, bus as a fulfillment of it.

Love My Pope, do not criticize him.

Love him, love My Pope.

Ephesians Chapter 3: 12-21

Jesus: My children,

May you be filled with zeal, spending your life sharing My good news with everyone in this world that has been laced in your path. May you become a beacon of hope and wellspring of healing to all who suffer from illness, accidents or any disease. Unite your sufferings with Mine, that I may give you the strength and courage to stand in faith and hope at the foot of My Cross for all those who are in pain. Believe, My little ones, that no one lies beyond My reach, nor exceeds the limits of My Mercy. Look with love upon your fallen world as I, your loving God, your Savior does. Ask daily for My help to die to self and crucify your pride to surrender to me in whose image you and everyone in this world have been made. I will give you the strength and grace you need to change this wounded world into My Kingdom, by first changing yourself I tell you, open your heart to My Truth and your voice to My praise and your hands to My service.

Remember that your mission here on earth will never end until you come into your Heavenly home with Me and all your brothers and sisters forever.

Go in peace.

Your loving Jesus.

During the Second Decade:

Jesus: My children, continue to pray for My beloved sons, whose lives burn out before My consecrated shrine. They are in the world with earthly pleasures tempting and alluring them. Pray and continue to offer them to Me, that I may shelter them in My Sacred Heart, giving them comfort in their hours of loneliness and pain. Pray that they remain spotless as they daily caress My Body and Blood and give glory to their God in every thought word and deed.

Wisdom 3:6-14

Jesus: My Children,

Set your desires upon My Holy words and love them and you shall have guidance and instruction. When you have wisdom, it will be glorious and it will never fade away, seek it always. Call to me for the spirit of wisdom, for riches are nothing, compared to it, nor any precious stone, such as gold and silver. Innumerable riches will flow through this gift of wisdom, for it is an infinite treasure to all who receive it. I love no one as much as those who dwell with Wisdom, for light is succeeded by night, but, I tell you, no evil can overcome Wisdom. I, My little ones, am the Father of Wisdom, your beloved Lord of Mercy, never be so proud or foolish as to refuse My advice. There will come at times words of wisdom from those you meet, give Me the humility and courage to follow what is given. Trust in My Will. In all things, for I alone can give you the perfect happiness that will fill your soul with eternal joy. I ask that you prepare yourselves for it by a life of goodness and wisdom there on earth.

Go in Peace.

Your Loving Jesus

During the Second Decade:

My Dear Ones,

I tell you if only My people would not make Me go wandering and roaming about. If only they would give Me an abode in their heart, they would be strong and lacking nothing. If only they would allow Me to enter into their heart, they would not fall. If only they would accept My Love, their passions would have no life in them, the mud of sin would never touch them and love would be forever theirs. My dear ones, remember My Love for mankind yearns to illuminate every one of his miseries, be they slight or great.

As Father was giving his homily - the following words were given:

The Holy Souls are very grateful to those who are persistent in their prayers for them. Many have been released!

Wisdom 5:10-17

Jesus: My Dear Children,

There is not one soul on earth that does not encounter some worries and troubles in life. I tell you, when you face tribulation and are sorrowful in heart, you are with Me on the Cross, and when through the grace of My Spirit you enjoy consolation in prayer, you rise with Me from the dead with a joyful heart.

Remember, My little ones, when someone directs harsh and unkind words against you, you are given to drink of My Chalice as medicine for your soul. Always remain silent and drink of the cup of Salvation without complaint, for I the Lord will be Your protection in life and in death. I will never forget you. There is nothing more admirable than to remain silent and patient, for in this way you will curb the mouth of him who utters evil against you. A soul does not know how good and virtuous he is until he is harassed by his enemies. I have many friends who tell Me that they love Me and are willing to share a meal with Me, but there are only a few who are willing to abstain with Me, their God. Those who love Me do not flee from suffering or are troubled by the wayward. For those who see Me as their life, suffering and dying for Me are accounted a great reward, eternal happiness in My Kingdom.

Your loving Jesus of Mercy.

During the Second Decade:

My Children,

I have come to show the people of the world My love and mercy, but they do not see. They do not listen, they run from Me, how blind they are. It is very important that souls turn back to Me, that they do not block My graces that I desire to give them, for I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. Everything comes from Me and comes back to Me. Let Me teach you through your weaknesses, even though you lack many virtues, and are disobedient, I will always love you.

Wisdom 11:22-27

Jesus: My children,

A soul begins to go astray when he withdraws from humility. The evil spirit opposes those who have abandoned Me, their God. When you love humility, you will never fall into the devil's snare. Remember, My little ones, arrogance is like a tall but rotten tree, its branches are brittle, for if one should climb upon it, he will immediately fall from the height he has attained. Glory is great and everlasting in one who is enriched with good hope and good thoughts. Pray that you may recognize your sins and so be constantly humbled, that you might never nurture a high opinion of yourself. Love sobriety, that you might have a pure heart and preserve the temple I have entrusted to you, undefiled by sinful corruption. When one prays in his mind with faith, he beholds Me, his loving God before himself. For in Me do you love and exist. I tell you, if your heart is hardened, cry out before Me that I may shine upon you and all those you are praying for, the illumination of knowledge and grant that with a heart full of love, all might be taken up to Me.

Your loving Jesus.

During the Second Decade:

Dear Children,

I come to call you to holiness, I want the best for all My people, you all have been dedicated to Me I word and in prayer. I will be Your loving God all the days of your lives. Do not be afraid to speak out for the truth. I have said the Truth will set you free. Go and continue to be fishers of men for in doing so, you will always be My disciples.

I love you so.

To Think About

Not only throughout the day can we offer God our sacrifice, but before going to bed, we can lay on the powers of our souls. The obligation of rendering God all night, the worship of our love. Let all the affections of our heart free to give to the Lord. Say to the Lord, "I'm going to sleep, but my soul will keep Thee company." Even though my activity alone will rest all my powers will still belong to Thee. The hours that we believe are wasted by sleeping will be in full union with our Lord. Satanic power, sex with evil spirits, something major is going to happen. These were cells filled with priests, suffering more than anyone else in hell. Their hands were as burning coals, hands that had troubled the Eucharist. Their tongues were ripped and hanging out of their mouths because of all they had said or did not say about God. Their ears were on fire and they screamed with intense pain. This was a terrible site to behold, I was shaking and praying, we must pray and pray and never stop praying for all souls of priests or anyone here on earth not to go to hell. Offer Masses each and everyday for the conversion of the world, we are in grave times.

Ann's Dream about Hell

I had a vivid dream about Hell to the point where it woke me up and I stayed wide awake for about 1 hour thinking about this dream.

I could see all these souls around me committing sin after sin, mainly sins of the flesh and speaking in foul language, cursing everyone. Then I heard a voice say, tell them about hell. Do not be afraid, tell them before it is too late. Hell must be spoken about because souls are being lost in abundance. The voice was not of a woman, it was our Lord, Jesus.

The Cross of the crucified Christ was in my hand when I went to sleep, it was right next to me in the dream and it was right next to me when I awoke and heard the voice saying:

Human sacrificing is going on everyday, souls are worshiping the devil like no one can imagine.

Psalms 25

Jesus: My children,

I am with you always, I never give up waiting for souls to come to Me, to come to know Me. I desire for all to be with Me in eternal life, where all will have the joy of peace. I long for My children to overcome human weaknesses, that I may give them a pure heart, for only a pure heart knows how to carry the cross and know how to sacrifice for those who offend Me. I desire that all may come to know the light of true faith that only comes from prayer of a pure heart.

A life without prayer, My little ones, is like a house without a foundation. A life of complete surrender and loving trust is like stairs in a building that help you climb close and closer to Me. I tell you, if that pure heart, that real union, that complete attachment to Me is not there, it would be like a building, a seven story building on a foundation made only one story and it would fall apart. May your heart always be open to My Heavenly Kingdom as the flower opens its chalice to the rising sun, to catch its beneficial dew. I have not promised that skies will always be blue or flower strewn pathways throughout your lives. I have not promised that there would be sun without rain and joy, without sorrow or peace without pain. What I do promise is strength for each day, rest for all you labor and light for the way, grace for your trials, and My undying love forever.

Go in peace.

Your loving Jesus

During the Second Decade:

Dear Children,

Your distress speaks to My heart, for I love you all unconditionally. May pride not hide from Me all your problems and pains, for which you have no solution. Call to Me, call down My Mercy upon you, do not spend your life in sorrow or your years with sighs. Let not affliction break down your strength, put your faith and trust in Me alone, always placing your life in My hands.

Pray, pray, pray as My Mother has asked all Her children to do.
Remember every prayer is heard in the Heavens above.

Go in peace.

Psalms 78

Jesus: My children,

I am the source of love and light, I ask all of My beloved children to let the Cross be the throne of My love. In all your sufferings rejoice, for you have a sign most clear and manifest of My presence in you. I tell you, souls the most miserable, the most weak, the most infirm, are the best ones of love and the most desired by My divine mercy. The souls that trust in Me are the robbers of all My graces. When you have confidence, you have the key that opens all the Treasures of My Divine Mercy.

Let Me be the motive power of your goodness, it is the Blessed Sacrament that purifies you from the dust of the road and unites you to Me, your loving God, it furnishes the higher motives to all your acts and culminates the work by leading you to Heaven. Never despair, never lose hope, for I am a God of compassion, of forgiveness, My mercy is above all My works, hear My sweet voice, "It is I, fear ye not."

Know My little ones, that I am always near you and all will be well. I leave you with this to ponder. Life is short, and death is sure. Your hour of death remains obscure. You have only one soul and if that be lost all hope is gone. Waste not time while there is time, for after death it is gone forever. All earthly things will speed away, but eternity will be forever.

Your loving Jesus of Mercy

During the Second Decade:

My Children, It is all in your trust, for the more you trust the more souls you will be able to save. When I give you power, if you keep it for yourself, it remains with you, but I tell you when you share it with others, those I place in your path, to test you, I will multiply it a hundred-fold. Pray, believing and loving. Adore and give thanks for all I give you.

I your loving God, Am the all-powerful One, kind and merciful to all My children.

April 23, 2018
2 Corinthians 6:8-18

Jesus: My children,

I suffered in body and soul for the sake of mankind, I who made Myself bread to feed your souls to save them. Pray for your world, sins are multiplying each and every moment of the day. Satan is cunning and is attracting many hearts to sin and perdition. Pray and persevere as My apostles, always asking Me to give you Divine wisdom and strength. Pray that you may discern everything around you according to My truth and that you may strongly resist everything that wishes to distance you from Me, your loving God. Embrace the Cross and place yourselves in My Sacred Heart for there I will protect you from all evil forces. Pray constantly, asking for My Mercy upon all mankind, do not fear, have faith and trust. I have destroyed the words of the evil one and Hell and I continue to do so. There is much to come, for after the world is chastised it will be renewed, it will begin again. All will live simple lives, every family will embrace one another and praise My Holy Name. My children will receive and carry the sign of the Cross on their foreheads. This sign will only be seen by My chosen ones. Fear will never enter into their hearts, they will be protected by the good spirits and be given food to eat from Heaven itself.

Continue to make humble confessions at least once a month and receive My Body & Blood daily. Forgive everyone and do many good deeds of Mercy. You must, My little ones, save many souls, for every soul is important to Me. Love for Me and My Beloved Mother will guide you to the New Springtime full of love and happiness.

Let peace reign in our heart always.

Your loving Jesus of Mercy.

During the Second Decade:

My children. You must be fearless and courageous. Let truth reign supreme in your heart that I may dwell within you. Give Me your heart and I will give you the keys to My Kingdom. Stand tall and firm, for I am purifying the world to let it again be a worthy dwelling place.

Call on St. Michael, for he will do his duty to defend and protect all who fear and love Me, your loving Savior.

Mary, Mother of God.

About the Totally Yours Marian Conference on April 21 - 22, 2018

Jesus: My dear children,

What blessings and graces were received from Heaven. The outpouring of the Spirit upon this special event. You have honored all of Heaven with your prayers and undying love for My Son. His Name has been written in your hearts as you praised and glorified His Holy Name. My Son and I truly love all children of this world, all creation. There is not one, even those far apart at this time, those that refuse to love in accordance with the commandments set in stone for them to follow will not be forgotten. We wait patiently for their return. Pray that their hearts be open to receive the grace needed for their conversion.

You have come away from this conference with an abundance of knowledge given by those chosen to come speak to you, those filled with the gifts of wisdom and graces to teach how to come closer to the Eternal Kingdom. Never let an opportunity go by when there is such a tremendous outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Listen and pray, this is how you will help those around you to come to know My Son, to give Him honor and glory for all He has done for them.

As you heard, My Son is alive and not dead, He is nearer to you than you could ever imagine. Let your hearts always remain as a burning torch, filled with a fire that will never die, for My Son.

Remain, My dear ones, in the state of grace by all the Sacraments given and remain children of Light, children of the Risen Savior, forever.

Pray, pray, pray.

May 14, 2018
Ecclesiastes 7:1-19

Jesus: My children,

I ask all of my beloved souls to love according to the rules I set before you. To spread My peace and My love to all as My apostles did. Accept My truth with all your heart and pray for the Holy Spirit to lead and guide you throughout your stay on earth. Strive to bring all souls into My embrace to show them the way of faith, to have hope that the world has lost because of its evil ways. Sinners need to be aware of their sins and repent sincerely, pray and never stop praying for their conversion. You must continue to be witnesses of peace and love in this peaceless world full of hatred for their brothers and sisters in Me, their loving and all merciful God. By your prayers, my little ones, you will experience My great love for you and you will be given the strength to make you ready for all the works of love that you will do in My Name.

The world is in dire need of your prayers and sacrifices, it is in need of your arms raised towards Heaven above, towards My Heavenly Father. Pray for humility and purity, the children of this world do not have purity, they do not know the consequences for sin, especially sins of the flesh that have caused many to fall like snowflakes into Eternal damnation. Life is passing more quickly than ever, pray my children that through prayer souls may yearn for Heaven and the things of Heaven. Become little lights of this fallen world, to bring light where darkness wishes to reign, show souls the true way by prayer and long to save souls.

Let Love reign in your heart and have mercy on all.

Your loving Jesus.

During the Second Decade:

Jesus' eyes are filled with tears. He is sad over the state of souls who do not want Him because they do not know Him. If they knew Me, they would love Me, for I am all love. Every child on this earth was created in My image and likeness and love all unconditionally. The world has turned their backs on Me, their God, but I await their return by all of your prayers, My faithful ones. Never give up on them, for I never give up on not one soul.

Jeremiah 30:15-24

Jesus: My children

I ask that you meditate and pray, gather your thoughts so as to reflect on them more deeply, to live the inner life, for this interior life is the greatest joy you will come to know. Take these inspiring thoughts and desires and put them into action, for you are in the midst of life and there is a great task awaiting you. This My little ones, is the time for painful effort.

Tear yourselves apart and give up thought for reality. You must face action. I tell you, you will either not be understood at all or completely misunderstood, and you will suffer at human hands for having willed the good of humanity.

I will give you an incomparable strength and will aim your hearts with patience and love in order to undertake each day the work that I have set out for you. The task that the world, at this present time, offers you is the task of moral renewal and the education of souls.

Ask My children, to have Me fill you with an intense charity, for charity is My love that will renew and transform you and your lives and become the hidden source of your actions and your love of all mankind. A powerful and vital love of all those who suffer and grieve. This love, My dear ones, can save your world. Never complain when you can help others. Never hate, for hate destroys. Give all to Me, Divine Love transforms hearts.

Go in My peace.

Your loving Jesus

During the Second Decade:

My children, I asked all of you, all of My beloved disciples to experience the sweetness of My Heart by receiving My Body and Precious Blood. The fastest way to come to Me is by receiving My Body and Blood each and every day. There is no one in Heaven as close to Me as you are when you receive Me within you. When you nourish yourself with Me, you are fed with the fullness of My Supreme Being and you become a reflection of Me. Receive Me and your soul will radiate My Love and My Light.

June 25, 2018

Ephesians 4:30-32 and 5:1-2

Jesus: My children, let this time be for you a time of silence and prayer. Rest your body and spirit, may they be in My love, so that all the good that is in you may blossom and bear fruit hundred-fold. Renounce your own will and become a generous slave to My Holy Will.

Be humble servants, always ready to serve, for if one is humble, nothing will touch you, neither praise nor disgrace, because you know what you are. I ask that you become indifferent to all things, except what is for Me, your loving God, then you will reach the highest perfection to which I have called you.

Become My true friend and live in My presence with a pure intention, for I seek devoted souls who will love Me for My own sake, not for their own sake. I desire all your love, so that I may find a resting place in your heart, a place where I may be able to console Myself for all the offenses that I receive each and every day for indifferent souls that cause Me such pain. I tell you, My devoted and loving servants, pray and never stop praying and sacrificing for these souls. Pray for their return to My loving arms, for I desire not for even one soul to be lost, they are all My Children.

Go in My peace.

Your loving Jesus of Mercy.

During the Second Decade:

(37th year anniversary of Medjugorje)

(At the prayer group, Anna Posh, Joseph Reinholtz and Fr. Peter Mary Rookie appeared as well.) I say to you this day, Come to Me, for you are weak and humble of heart and I will give you rest My little ones. I have called you all here today to give praise & glory to My Holy Name. Many come here and ask for many favors, but I tell you, I know what you are going to ask before you ask. I know all things and I will answer you in My time not yours, for I know the outcome, what you need at this present time. Be sure of My love for you, I will never let you down, you are all special to Me.

(Jesus asked members of the prayer group to reach out their hands. Some stated that they felt Jesus' hands in their hands.)

Jesus: Fix your eyes on My Heart. I am calling this child to be My priest. Never doubt that I called My priest. (Directed to a young man at the prayer group)

Isaiah 65: 16 -25

Jesus: My children may you allow Me, your loving God, to take possession of your life by your purity, humility and your faithful love as My Beloved Mother did.

Seek to grow under the guidance of My Mother in these three interior attitudes of your soul that delight My Divine Heart and enables Me to unite Myself to you. When you stand with My Mother, She will give you Her spirit of loving trust, total surrender and joy. With this joy, I implore My children to persevere as My apostles, giving you divine wisdom and strength to carry on the work that I am calling you to do.

Discern everything around you according to My truth and to strongly resist everything that wants to distance you from Me. Remember, through prayer and fasting you open the way for Me to be beside you and for My Name to be holy through you. You must always pray for My beloved sons, for none of this would be possible without them.

Pondered these words “The priesthood is a Masterpiece of My Divine love, wisdom and power.” Pray for them and never attack them even when they error for every one of them is My vicar and I alone will be their judge.
Your loving Jesus.

During the Second Decade:

Ann said: Jesus eyes were sad. Reddened as if He were crying.

My children, Let Me help you to spread My fragrance everywhere you go. That I may flood your souls with My Spirit and Life.

That I make penetrate and possess your whole being that your lives may only be a radiance of Mine. That I may shine through you so that every soul that you come in contact with will feel My presence in your soul. Let them look up and see no longer you, but only Me, their loving Jesus, waiting for their return.

Ann said: Jesus is weeping because the abortions and the suicides are ripping His Sacred Heart.

August 13, 2018

1 Timothy 3:16, 4:1-5

Jesus: My children, do you not know that all souls are My temple and My Spirit dwells in you? Never go asleep, until you have made a dwelling place for Me, your loving God, in your hearts, by your prayers.

I have promised to dwell with all of you in love and surround you with My loving presence guarding your hearts against all ill as you entrust yourselves to Me as you sleep, that when you rise you will be renewed and will praise, love and serve Me and give thanks for all that is given to you.

In this praise, love, and thanksgiving, find time for a new silence, a time to find your heart's recollected, a time to find Me, to know Me and to know how I ache for you, for your pain, your loneliness and your isolation. Each soul feels alone at times and understands that human consolation is empty. I tell you, My little ones, one must seek spiritual consolation. When you feel a stirring from within, it is your soul, seeking Me, who is reaching out to you, to comfort and love you unconditionally.

I am your Savior, your friend, your greatest advocate. I love all your attempts at holiness and I will keep pulling you along. Never give up. Pray, pray, pray. Your loving Jesus of Mercy.

During the Second Decade:

Jesus came glowing, very brightly, all lit up. Jesus was Happy to see us. He said thanks for loving Him. Carol Ross was in town and also saw Jesus light up. His Heart was pulsating, and it brought her much joy.

Jesus: When a soul thinks not of himself or herself, My grace comes and provides what is necessary for their well being. But when one tries to do it alone, I leave the soul to its own care. So, I say to you, do not become one who tries to do it without Me. Give Me your heart destitute of all adornment and I will make it beautiful. Give it to Me with all its miseries and I will consume it. What is hidden from you, I will reveal and whatever you lack, I will take on Myself to supply.

Jesus: I have come today to tell you how much I love all of you. You who are My beloved disciples, you who pray, and pray for not only your families, but for the world in which you live.

There is much suffering in the world because of sin. Offer your suffering to Me every moment of the day for the conversion of sinners. Many are escaping by suicide but to no avail, for they must answer for all they have done. Never try to escape, die a natural death and do My Holy Will.

August 27, 2018

Hebrews 1:1-14

Jesus: My children, you all bring Me great joy when you gather here in this house that I dwell in week after week. You pray with your heart giving Me complete control so that I may lead you to your Eternal reward. I work through your nothingness to achieve all that is necessary for the Redemption of Souls. If, little ones, you only knew the plan I have for you, your heart would leap for joy. Continue to converse with Me each and every moment of the day, always longing for My presence within your being.

May My Holy Name be on your lips, letting Me know how much you love Me and want to be with Me forever. You have become a treasure to Me, a dedicated servant, always reaching out to help others that are in need. Graces will be given you in abundance and your heart will never long for anything, for I will surround you with all the angels in Heaven to guide and protect you because of your great compassion for others.

Continue your charity throughout your short time on this Earth. For it is by charity that My Light will be seen by all. I tell you My dear ones, let it be known that charity covers a multitude of sins.

Go in My peace.
Your loving Jesus.

During the Second Decade:

Lord Jesus appeared, and His Loving eyes scanned the room. It was not a statue but a person standing there.

Jesus: My little ones. You are everything to Me. Be not afraid! I am in total control of every situation.

Jesus: I tell you My children, have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by your prayers and petitions and with total thanksgiving, make your requests known to Me. Have grateful hearts for I have blessed you with the gift of life and blessed you with the gift of faith. I ask that you share My Good News with all those that I place in your path by words and deeds of love.

I am your God of Peace. Pray that I may make you perfect in holiness.

Ann: (Our Lady also appeared next to Jesus. Jesus was happy to see us. At the end of the Rosary, Jesus Heart was all aglow. Jesus said to reach out our hands, hold His and ask what is needed. Ann felt Jesus hold her hands.)

Psalm 94

Jesus: My dear children, I tell you, be fearless, be courageous, be prudent and be bold. For truth will reign supreme in your heart if you let the Eternal Son, God and Redeemer of all men dwell within you. I am your God and Redeemer, little ones, and I asked you to give Me your heart and I will give you the keys to My Kingdom.

Stand tall and firm, for your God is purifying the world to let it again be a worthy dwelling place. Call on Saint Michael, for he will do his duty and not delay. He will defend and protect all those who fear and love Me.

My children must be ready by prayer, fasting and sacrifice to go through all that is happening to this world. This is the time for great virtue and faith, pray to be strong. Material goods are being seized to wake My people up to what is most important. By natural disasters, earthquakes, tornadoes and civil unrest, for the hideous crime of abortion.

My bride and beloved Vicar are being persecuted and will have much to suffer for the sake of the Kingdom. The attacks on My beloved Pope are hideous, his heart belongs to Me, hope and mercy reign as he continues to pray, fast and sacrifice for this fallen world and My Bride. He prays for the chains of Satan to be broken and mankind to return to Me, their loving, merciful God. He has given up all worldly possessions and lives according to the vows he has taken. He has been given the wisdom and knowledge to know what needs to be accomplished. He has been given the name Francis after a great saint who was called to build up My bride the Church to show Mercy to all.

Be not his judge, I tell you, for he is being guided by My Spirit and loves all mankind equally. He is here to serve and not to be served as all My people are called to do.

Pray for all those that have entered the priesthood for evil purposes, they will have much to answer for. Pray, fast, sacrifice and be not afraid, as I told you My Bride will be crucified before the Resurrection comes. My Mother has begun to clean up the world, for in the end, Her Immaculate Heart Will reign.

Your loving Jesus of Mercy.

During the Second Decade:

Jesus appeared covered with wounds. His eyes were sad. Jesus was saddened by what was going on in the world.

Jesus: Pray with all your hearts.

Jesus: My children, evil is conquered in only one way, prayer, Rosary and fasting! My beloved Pope highlights the connection between Mercy and continually spreading the “Good News” in your everyday lives.

He reminds all of you that My Bride is called to be missionary disciples as an evangelizing community seeking to show Mercy, the fruit of its own experience of the power of My Father’s infinite Mercy. Your faith is not your own, it is all of ours as members of My Body, that continually testifies to the truth of the Gospel through all of your actions.

Go in peace

Jeremiah 8:4-7

Jesus: My children,

I hear the cries of my beloved followers, asking for guidance to stay focused with all that is happening to this fallen world.

I tell you, pray to My Heavenly Father, to pardon all your sins by virtue of the extreme love that prompted Him to deliver up to death His only Son, so that sinners would be delivered from death.

Pray to Me, the Son of Man, to enlighten your understanding, so that your heart may never stray from Me.

Pray to My Holy Spirit to cultivate your soul with the dew of His love, so that your heart may become a nursery of both His gifts and fruits. Ask My Beloved Mother for super abundant humility, She waits for your asking.

Call upon all the angels to help with purity and the Saints for a participation in all the virtues that they practiced in this world. Continue to please me and all of Heaven by coming to visit Me often in adoration, to pray to Me to console Me for all the outrage I receive.

The happiness I will bestow upon you while in My presence will be an outpouring of My love and will remain with you always. Do all I ask for the sake of the Kingdom and to save souls.

Pray, my little ones and never stop.

Your loving Jesus of Mercy

During the Second Decade:

Jesus: My children,

I ask that you call upon My Mother for all your special needs, for this is very pleasing to her. Ask for her advice, especially when one has temptations against purity. My Mother will listen and help you if you appeal to her, invoke her Holy Name, her holy name that is endowed with special powers against devils.

When you have an impure thought, press your rosary to your heart and look at an image of My Mother, she will truly help all her children. She awaits your call.

Nov 10-11, 2018 The Blessed Mother about the Totally Yours Conference.

Mother Mary: My dear children, thank you all for responding to My call, a call to love My Son with your whole heart, soul and mind.

Your joy filled the Heavens with delight as you prayed and worshiped with such enthusiasm. Remember, joy is one of the best safeguards against temptation. The evil one is a carrier of dust and dirt, and he uses every chance to throw what he has against you. But a joyful heart knows how to protect itself from this dirt.

My Son is able to take full possession of one's soul if they surrender itself joyfully. I your Mother ask all My beloved children to continue to participate in these events in order to give nourishment to your soul, for without this nourishment, your soul withers and dies. Feed your souls with the Body and Blood of My Son and with His Words as did the testimonies of this weekend with such love.

Continue to pray the Rosary each and every day, it is so powerful a weapon against evil forces. I your Loving Mother will always pray the Rosary with you.

When I see My children turning from their sinful ways, going to reconciliation, I am so thankful, for they console My grieving Heart.

If only all could see the graces that were given throughout this special event, praying and adoring My Beloved Son, Jesus, they would be in awe.

Tears of joy flowed from My eyes as I, the Mother of God, was honored with so great a love, especially to My Immaculate Heart in the way it was presented in a little but powerful cartoon.

Your love and prayers have brought about many spiritual healings, especially those who are struggling with unforgiveness and pride.

Hearts melted as My Beloved Son was processed among the faithful gathered. Never stop singing and praying with joy, for all of Heaven is singing with you. I, the Mother of God, give you My peace and love forever.

2 Thessalonians 3:10-16

Jesus: My children, my people believe that they have only one talent, and others have many, therefore they decide to do nothing but bury their only talent. They say they will run no risks, but what they fail to understand is that each of their temperaments and characters have been fitted exactly, thought out from all time to suit their lives. What others have would not suit them, they do not value what they have. They believe from their capabilities that I, their God, do not expect much from them.

My dear little ones, I crave your love, ask for graces and you will assuredly receive them. Never dwell on the faults and sins of the past, let them be, leave them to Me. Do not wait, go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation as soon as possible. Make an act of contrition and think no more about them. The despondence caused by sin is more wrong and will keep you away from Me more than the sin itself. Waste no time being discouraged about anything, even what has just transpired in this past election. I, your God, have control of all things, whether right or wrong. Draw near to Me and do not stand back hanging your head. Pray for My will to be accomplished. There are those that always have one eye on the past and the other on the future instead of both on the present. My grace will be given to meet each day, the difficulties of that day. I tell you, there are few souls who would not be good at their own job if they would only develop the power of concentration. It is this incessant worrying over past and future that prevents the concentration.

Children of the Light, leave the future in My hands, have peace in your heart. All will come to pass, for I have won the battle.

Your loving Jesus

During the Second Decade:

Jesus is surrounded by angels. His eyes are moving from side to side, looking into each heart, hearts that are filled with love for Him.

Jesus: My dear ones, as I look around this house of prayer, I see those who have served Me well. I gaze over the whole universe and see many souls who have served Me to the best of their ability. I now ask you to pray and never stop praying for My beloved sons, My priests, who have served Me to the best of their ability and will one day have their reward in My Heavenly kingdom. Pray, for the battle is fierce. The infernal enemy is fighting hard to bring My beloved sons and as many souls as possible to Hell. I tell you, place My armor on you and pray, pray, pray for My Mother's army is growing and growing and She will win and crush the enemies head. Be at peace.

Your loving Jesus of Mercy.

Colossians 2:6-15

Jesus: My children, anything good that you do is only your duty and grace. Never be proud of the deeds you have done and never think of what you have done, only think on what you have not done.

This is the way you will remain humble servants in spite of any successes that may come to you.

Strive My little ones for humility. Continue to tell Me your faults but keep falling. Tell Me that you are trying, but not hard enough. Tell Me how thankful you are for all the change that I have made in you, how you have become My servant and wish to continue being Mine forever.

Tell Me how you will continue witnessing to all those I place in your path, by your example. Beg for My Mercy upon you and My Precious Blood.

Take all wrongdoings, all thoughts, all struggles and place them in My Precious Blood at the time you receive Me. I love when My children come to Adore Me and come to Me for Reconciliation.

Ask always for the grace of humility, for by your awareness and asking for My help in this struggle, you please Me. Be always ready to serve Me in every way and give Me your heart, this is the best gift you can give.

Go in peace,

your loving Jesus.

Ephesians 3:14-21

Jesus: My children,

My light shines upon your path as My holy word lights the way to all the fold in which all those who were lost find safety, peace and an abundance of joy. I, the Son of Man, have come to seek and to save all that have been lost. I tell you, children of the light, proclaim My praise, because I have taught you My statutes and given you life to your soul, that you will always remember My commands.

Look forward in joy to My glorious Nativity, that I may find you on fire with My spirit, your hearts full of love, this love that I have given you. Bring Me as many souls through this love, reach out to them in My Name, telling them of My Love for them, that through love all things are possible.

You have been filled with great graces, now I ask you this season to share them. Share the messages you have received from all over, spread the news, tell the world of My coming. No one will gain if you keep it to yourself.

I ask this day that you say a novena to My Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of My mother... to bring these lost sheep home. From this day until My birth, say seven Our Fathers, seven Hail Mary's, and seven Glory Be's, the consecration to My heart and My Mother's Heart and an Act of Contrition.

This, My little ones, will be your gift to Me.
Your loving Jesus.

During the Rosary:

Jesus, Mary and Joseph appeared as the Three Hearts. Mary had Her hands folded in prayer.

Jesus: Dear children, there are so many things that you cannot understand in this world, that you cannot understand in one another, and most deeply, you cannot understand in yourselves. But in all of these, you are full of My wonder that is always working out My own Divine plans for every soul.

May all these precious hours of Advent be given to wonder. When feeling depressed by your faults, know that I your God forgave you so much and will always believe in you, hope in you and trust that you will come to realize My dream of you.

Jesus: Many of My children do not pray to the angels. Pray constantly for them to help you. They pray with you. Keep praying, never stop.

Give them My Holy Word. Feed My sheep.

Isaiah 65:16-25

Jesus: My dear children, as you kneel before My manger, at home, at Church or in adoration, let your first Christmas word be... "thank you, thank you my little Jesus, for coming to save me and all mankind of our sins."

Thank Me for coming as one like you to save you from yourself. My little ones, I came as a baby because I wanted you to understand how irresistible and adorable a baby is. I came as a baby because I desire that your first impression of your God incarnate be one who never judges.

I tell you, become united with Me in every way possible, never become attracted to the allurements of this world. I will give you all My love every moment while you remain on this Earth until you come to your Heavenly home.

Remember, the silence of My incarnation proclaims that the answer to the misery, the strife and the meaninglessness that you experience in this life cannot be found within you.

I alone am the answer to all things. Surrender to Me all your, selfishness, self-indulgence, self-righteousness and self-assertion. Embrace the truth with all your mind and heart, My dear ones, live your life in Me.

Let Me empty you of your willfulness, your hardness and your petulance that I may fill you with My truth, My strength, My fortitude, My purity, My gentleness, My generosity, My wisdom, My Heart and My grace. Make your life a total gift of self. My little ones, on this day, the day of My birth, renew your trust in My goodness, compassion and providence and ask that I may bless this world with My peace.

Your loving Jesus
