

2020 Descending MESSAGES TO A CONVERTING SOUL

August 11, 2020

Matthew 12

the evil forces for the USA elections and for peace.

To All My Disciples!

Jesus: I tell you, unless this bickering and hatred amongst My people stops, there can be no peace. You must love one another, this is what I have taught. Be silent that I may work in you and bring about a new era. Pray and receive the sacraments. Read My holy word daily, then My people will receive the grace needed to accept all the difficulties that come your way.

I need My disciples to be in union with one another, for the world is changing rapidly. Do unto others what I have done unto you. Do what I tell you. Love, love, love, love your enemies. Be kind and merciful to those who persecute for My sake, for then My Kingdom awaits you. Go in peace your loving Jesus of mercy.

I remind you My child to make it known to My people to pray the upcoming Rosary novena for 54 days to combat all evil forces for the USA Election and for peace.

Note: To accomplish this Rosary Novena, rotate every three days one, joyful, one sorrowful and one glorious. Do this 9 times or a total of 27 days with the petition of asking God's help to combat the evil forces for the USA elections and for peace.

Then repeat and rotate every three days one, joyful, one sorrowful and one glorious. Do this 9 times or a total of another 27 days with the petition of thanking God for His help to combat Jesus: If mankind does not repent and convert, the great chastisement will occur.

This will start on August 15, Feast of the Assumption and end on Oct 7, Feast of the Rosary.

The Lord said to read Matthew chapter 12.

A divided Kingdom ends in ruin. A city or home divided against itself cannot stand. This evil nation is like a man possessed by a demon. If the demon leaves, it goes in the desert for a while seeking rest but finding none. So, it returns and finds the man's house clean but empty. Then the demon finds seven other spirits more evil than itself and all enter the man and live in him. And so, he is worse off than before.

If I am casting out demons by the spirit of God, then the Kingdom of God has arrived among you. One cannot rob Satan's Kingdom without first binding Satan. Only then can his demons be cast out. Anyone who is not helping Me is harming Me.

Wisdom 3:1-9

The youth of this world are being manipulated by the Evil One, more so than the adults.

They are being used to become instruments of destruction. The only way they can be protected from this evil is that in their own free will, they consecrate themselves to My Mother's Immaculate Heart. If souls do not respond to all the messages She has given this world, there will come a third World War.

There will be different diseases spreading in different parts of the world and My people will witness more destruction again. Coming not only in calamities, but by disease and hunger. The lack of morality and faith in Me will bring about many situations of crime growing with poverty, striking many. During all of this My Bride will deteriorate for its purification and then be renewed. The deterioration of faith and morals will happen everywhere, worldwide, much more than it is at this point in time.

Atheism in disbelief in Me will grow from all this, and the despair that will come. Sin, My little ones, will grow faster than wild weeds and those who believe should pray for those who do not.

The Lord then showed me this:

People standing in the streets and crowded sidewalks all around. Many trucks and riots breaking out. Jeeps, and trucks were everywhere. Businesses were being burnt, on each side of the streets. A huge Catholic Church with priests running from it because it was on fire.

There were soldiers with rifles pushing people around, yelling out, "No churches, no businesses, go home and stay home until further notice."

"I repeat go home, no church, priests go, find a place to go or we will lock you up." This continued until everyone was locked in their homes. The people had taken the priests to their homes to protect them.

Jesus: My children, I have told you that the Heavenly dew of My Divine Mercy will descend upon your world. My beloved Mother is your Mother of Mercy and to Her is entrusted the task of preparing humanity to receive the Heavenly dew of Divine Mercy.

I kept seeing fires everywhere, destruction, a world of mass confusion. After seeing all this, I was in tears, I said, "Oh, please dear Lord, help us!" He said, "My child, I have not done this, mankind has brought this upon themselves from the results of sinfulness."

Warnings:

Mirjana's talk tells us that the 9th and 10th secrets are serious. They concern the chastisements. The sufferings can be diminished by prayer and penance, but they cannot be eliminated.

Blessed Anna Maria said: "There will come religious persecution and priests will be massacred and churches will be closed. The earth will be covered with fire and darkness.

Our Lady had said, "Great sufferings will come from the sinfulness of the world. Prepare and pray."

During the second decade:

In these trying times, it is necessary to honor your Guardian Angel. The more trustingly you call upon the angels, the more power they have to protect you. Many souls deny the existence of angels. Only in eternity will one recognize how much gratitude they owe them for things they never thanked them for and how much more they could have helped them had they not blocked their way to speak to them. My little children are not hearing anything about their Guardian Angel. They need to be informed, pray for this my fruitful ones.

Psalm 115

I tell you, you have now entered into the final times that are preparing for the great Triumph. These are the most important times, the most painful and bloody, because during them there must take place the final events which have been foretold. My Mother's work of mercy is being manifested during these times in this special way.

She is leading souls along the way of conversion and of return to Me. She desires to give the grace of a change of heart and of life, to help all to free themselves from sin, to fight against the passions, to conquer all evil and to lead all to full reconciliation with Me, their loving God.

She has come to prepare My people for the great trial that is coming, for the complete purification of all humanity. The purification of the world will come about through the work of the Spirit of Love, Who will pour out from Heaven the blazing fire that will renew the face of the earth.

Sufferings like never before experienced are awaiting you because the moment of a universal renewal is coming close. The Evil One will be defeated, the powers of evil will be destroyed. I your God will restore my glorious reign among you and in this way the New Heavens and the New Earth will be formed.

Jesus: My children, I tell you, My Mother's plan is now being accomplished everywhere, see how Her Triumph is taking place in your world.

What is happening and has happened is a sign for all. Many souls are responding to Her with such a love and with such enthusiasm that moves Her Motherly Heart. She has asked for the Rosary to be said each and every day and it is happening. Because of this response, She is intervening in order to shorten the times of the great trial that has become so painful. My Mother unites the sorrows of Her Heart with all the sufferings of the good and prayerful people who are carrying with patience the Cross of these times, when the world is possessed and dominated by the spirits of evil.

A great struggle is being waged between Me, your loving God, and My adversary. This terrible battle is now taking place right above you between the Listen, My little ones, without the intervention of My Mother's love, mankind would not be able to support the pain of the great trial which has now come for everyone.

My Mother has been given the motherly task of assisting My Bride in the hour of her greatest suffering. My Bride is climbing the Calvary of her immolation and her martyrdom, carrying the Cross of betrayal and abandonment, when the apostasy becomes general and the man of iniquity enters her, the one who will bring the abomination of desolation into her interior. All this will happen, but have no fear, My Mother is with you always during this time of purifying trial. She will manifest Herself in an extraordinary way, and souls will feel Her merciful and motherly presence.

June 8, 2020 Wisdom 10:1-12 heavenly spirits and the infernal spirits, between My Angels and the demons, between My Heavenly power and the powers of Hell. Because of this great and powerful struggle, I have given a special mission to My archangels Gabriel, Raphael and Michael.

Gabriel who will provide you with My strength. Raphael will give you a healing balm on your wounds and Michael who will lead you to victory over all evil.

My dear ones, with this powerful protection all My faithful servants will be guarded and defended in the struggles that are now being waged between Heaven and Earth, between Paradise and Hell and between Saint Michael and the Evil One himself, who will soon appear with all the power of the Antichrist.

You are being prepared for this great and amazing event that will take place when with the Triumph of My Mother's Immaculate Heart, the Heavenly dew of My Divine Mercy will descend upon your world. Go in peace.

During the second decade. My Children. I am your God of love, I initiated love, without this eternal and unconditional outflow of love, I would cease to be your Lord and Savior. When one freely chooses evil, they close the shutters of their soul, so that the rays of My divine sun cannot enter, they end up closing themselves up against Me and My love, filling their soul with self-made darkness. I have not rejected these souls rather it is they - who by abusing the gift of their freedom, deliberately withdraw from Me, moving themselves beyond My love and closing themselves off from My blessings and graces. Pray for these souls, My dear ones, that they may open the shutters of their soul and let Me enter before it is too late.

Jesus: My dear ones, I speak to My children through revelation. Many that have gone before you have been given this message to prepare you for what will come during the days of darkness.

Do not be fearful, but accept this warning, for you are living in these times and your world must be cleansed from all evil.

I have already given more time before all this takes place through the outpouring of prayers and sacrifices of all the faithful and through My Mother's intercession. But I tell you, the days of darkness will happen. You will witness many lives taken, many epidemics, violent disturbances on land, at sea and in the air. Downfall of governments, lack of respect for authority, corruption and atrocities.

Families will be broken; adultery and infidelity and a lack of values will bring them down. My people will only be concerned with earthly pleasures.

Pray for Priests. Do not judge them. They gave their lives to serving you. Let Me be the judge. Pray for others without condemning.

My little ones, close the eyes of this fear that paralyzes you and throw yourselves into My arms. I am the very gentle Shepherd; you know that I will give you rest on My Heart.

What, I tell you, matters most in these times of all, is the fusion of our two wills on earth as it is in Heaven. Perfect acceptance, never forced, but with tenderness and from the everything desire to be more than ever united to Me, your loving God. The more My children are one with Me, the smaller you are in yourself and the greater you become in Me.

Psalms 67

My beloved bride has become somewhere on their list, but many choose not to attend, they neglect the importance of the Sacraments. The signs will come and come swiftly. There will be no light, only total blackness. The entire earth will be darkened. Hurricanes of fire will rain forth from above and spread over the earth, many godless will be taken at this time.

In these days the Evil One will triumph and it will appear that hell will have taken possession of the world. But, I your God, your Creator will reclaim it, for even this chastisement is an act of My Mercy.

I tell you, My beloved ones, the sign that I will leave will be My luminous Cross in the sky for all to witness. It will remind all of mankind of My passion, the passion and death that I endured to save all of mankind.

Remember, the only light that will shine will be blessed candles. Have food, water and blankets on hand and arm yourselves with holy water, a crucifix, and continue to pray the Rosary with My beloved Mother, at all times. Keep yourselves in the state of grace and trust in My power.

Your loving Jesus of mercy.

Mother Mary: My dear children, as I look around, I see the pain, the worry, the anguish, My little ones are experiencing throughout the entire world. They are in utter confusion on what is transpiring, their losses are beginning to complicate the lifestyle they have been accustomed to.

Something that is occurring that makes no sense to them. What a difference when everything is shutting down before their very eyes. If they only realized that they have brought this upon themselves. The great almighty God, the God of love would never bring this about if His people would have obeyed His laws and worshipped Him above all. Now everyone is searching for an answer. “Why is this happening? It will go away soon, it cannot last, I must continue to maintain my lifestyle, I cannot live without sports or entertainment, all these man-made rules, these guidelines that they set for themselves are taken away.

Until this world surrenders and begins to seek the face of God, nothing will ever change, it has been said, “one cannot love Mammon and God, you must choose the almighty, who is giving you life and can take it away at anytime. My daughter, you ask yourself, why do I have this complete joy in my heart, when I see all that is happening? When I receive calls from souls that are living in complete fear and asking what they must do to get through this. My child, you have answered them in a peaceful Spirit, “Do not fear, God is in total control.”

Mother Mary: My daughter,

April 1, 2020

(Ann was wakened all night long for prayer)

Your joy is coming from your prayer life, your dedication to the Lord, you and those that are listening and praying, during these days, will be granted with the grace of complete joy and will withstand whatever takes place from this point on.

You know that everything is possible with God. Continue to surrender everything to the almighty, fear will never enter. I have come this day to tell you and all the faithful warriors, My army, that hearts are beginning to soften, the prayers, the Rosaries, Divine Mercy prayers are having an impact on those you are praying for. They are beginning to understand that they are not in control of anything.

Continue to be an example to those around you and those that are far away at this time. His almighty Hand will reach out to those in darkness through the prayers and fasting of others.

My Motherly love is with all My children, those in light and those in darkness, I love all.

When you pray, ask Me to pray with you. Prepare yourselves for the days of darkness that are to come. Your blessed candles are essential, extremely important.

May My Motherly love be with you forever, your loving Mother.

March 30, 2020

6:45 am

Do you see what is happening all around you? Do My people understand the importance of it all?

Jesus and I are speaking clearly to all hearts, turn back now, before it is too late. The clock is ticking and everything in your lives is changing. The economy is collapsing before your very eyes and will never be the same. Your lives are going back to simplicity, to the days of farming, when souls that survive all that is happening, will be poor, but happy.

All the unnecessary things of this world will no longer exist. The faithful will live in community and be joyful with one another, they will break bread and share what is given them and praise the Holy Name of Jesus.

Your job for now is to be obedient to whatever God is asking of you, to reach out to those in need to help build up the kingdom to come. To pray and call down the Mercy of God upon this Fallen world, a world full of hatred and self-pity. Refugees are being built in many states to protect the remnant that will survive the storms to come. Greenhouses are in place to grow what is needed to survive. The shelves are being stocked with all supplies I have instructed.

Those that are living in luxury now will live in poverty. The Center for Peace the House for Me, the (Matthew 12:25-37)

Jesus: My children, I hear your concerns about what is happening with My Bride, your beloved Church. I tell you, pray for My beloved Bishops, do not put them down. They have a firm belief that they are making the right decision. Whether you approve or disapprove, you must be in total obedience to whatever decision they give. You need to remember that I am always in total control and that will never change.

I will work through your obedience and humbleness towards those in authority to bring about necessary change. You must be willing to listen to My every word and carry out whatever Mission I have planned for you. The whole world is going through a great chastisement, a great purification, for sins committed against My Sacred Heart.

My Mother's warnings through many chosen souls have not been heeded. These souls are saddened by the lack of confidence being shown by those in authority. But they will continue on with the work of Salvation, never losing sight of their Eternal goal.

Mother of God (Mary's house) will be places of refuge and will house many when the time comes near.

Work with My Son and I. Do not be afraid to help in any way, you must continue to prepare now, the time is now!

You are the prayer warriors that My Son has chosen to usher in the Triumph of My Immaculate Heart.

He loves you so very much. Be Not Afraid! We are with you always! I the Mother of God give you My peace and love forever.

March 23, 2020

March 23, 2020

They will pray, day and night for the conversion of sinners and the return to Me, their loving God. Even when they are threatened with Satan's plan of attacks, they will move forward rejoicing in Me, for they have My joy within them.

My faithful Servants, I asked you to stand firm in your faith, believing all that I have taught you and never give up hope, for I have won the battle. A New Era is coming soon, but before this takes place, everyone will endure many trials of faith. Your world will be cleansed of all hatred, love will reign in all hearts, as it has been said, without love there is no salvation, ponder all this in your heart, pray and never stop.
Your loving Jesus of Mercy.

Vision of crucifixion to Ann at night.

On Sunday evening as I began to fall asleep, I could see a bloody hand before my eyes. The blood was pouring out everywhere. Then, I saw His foot, again blood pouring out, then I saw the crown piercing His precious head. I saw the size of the thorns digging deep, causing agonizing pain, as the blood dripped alongside of His face and caked His eyes, almost closed, He was reaching out to me with such love. He whispered, this is the result of sin, the sins of mankind that I am suffering. Then I saw Him crawling to reach His Cross to embrace it. Again, I could see His flesh all torn and bruised. Blood gushing on the ground. He looked so pitiful, I wanted to reach out to Him and embrace Him, I felt empty, sorrowful, for being a part of His suffering. He kept gazing at me with such sorrowful eyes, tears coming down His face, excruciating pain. He held on to His Cross and as he was being nailed, I felt every blow and I called out, Mercy, Mercy my Lord, Mercy on us. Jesus was dying for all our sins to give us new Life by His death and resurrection.

This my brothers and sisters is the time we are witnessing the death and Resurrection of His beloved Bride (the Church). The suffering it is enduring now, (Wisdom 11:22-27)

Jesus: My dear children, I desire all My children to understand that My Father wanted Me to get very close to you to show you the depths of His love for you, not the distant love of a God who sits on a throne in His Heavenly Kingdom and looks down on His children living on Earth, but the love of a Father, a Father who longs to help you, to carry your burdens, to comfort and even heal all of your wounds, to give you every beautiful gift. He desires to walk with you and become your beloved friend. He could not do that Himself and that is why He sent Me, His only Son to make His love known to all Souls.

My Father sent Me to show you His Love and compassion and to act it out among you, to give you an example for you to copy. I, My little ones, AM the image of your unseen Father in My life in particularly in My passion. I showed you the depths to which love must be prepared to go. I tell you, there is no room for fear in love, no room for shame, there are no excuses and no holidays. Love offers everything and expects no return. One cannot bear the unveiled love of Him, Who sent Me, it falls like a fire upon you and you are consumed and burnt in its heat. You are not yet ready to be refined and purified by the naked the suffering our dear Lord went through to redeem all of mankind. The pain we are feeling seeing the doors closed and kept away from receiving His precious Body and Blood, so that we can ponder our sins and our lack of love for our brothers and sisters. The very sufferings our loving Lord went through for us, we are now faced with. All must repent and change our selfish ways, to pray for the virtues, the gift of faith, hope and love, not only for ourselves, but for our families and all those that do not know the love of God and His beloved Mother that loves and protect us, each and every day. This my brothers and sisters, is the reality of what is happening right now in our lifetime. Embrace all that is to come. Pray, pray, pray and surrender all to our loving God. God bless all. Your sister in Christ.

flame of My Father's Love for all souls and so it has to be filtered, mediated to you through my flesh.

Remember these words and ponder them in your heart. "Blessed are the pure of heart for they shall see their God." I the Lord, Who left the heavens to bring you peace, to dwell in the lowliness with all mankind, their pattern and their King. Go in peace, your loving Jesus of Mercy.

Jesus during the second decade:

My dear children, during this precious time, the season of Lent, reflect on your true identity as Christians and what it means to be a Christian.

I asked you to recite the "Beatitudes" given you each and every day as each of them makes you move a little further away from the world and into the sea of My Mercy, because each demands all of you the mercy that you must give to others.

Giving to the poor, comforting the lonely, feeding the hungry and sheltering the homeless. This season is here to remind you that My Mercy is yours, provided you embrace my law of love. Let this time remind you that each of your hearts can be a sea of mercy and forgiveness to others.

Jesus about Coronavirus:

The coronavirus is very real. It is the time when everything is about to take place to usher in the Triumph of the Immaculate Heart.

There will be a number of catastrophes, events that will cause great damage and suffering to your world. My people have been warned by My beloved Mother in many apparitions that if they will not turn back to God, they will endure much suffering.

I tell you and all my followers to continue to pray, never giving up and never fear, all this must happen, it is all written in My Holy Word. There will come a new Heaven and a new Earth.

February 24, 2020

2 Peter 3: 3-16

Jesus: My children, it is easy to take for granted the rich graces I have bestowed upon you, you who deserve them so little.

The response I demand from all of you faithful ones, is that you share these same graces with all those you meet throughout your stay here on this earth.

I have called each of you for the victory of justice. I have taken your hand, formed you and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for all to see, to open the eyes of those that are living in darkness.

Receive the many graces I desire to give you as you attend My Holy Sacrifice each and every day, a true sharing in My light and life.

Let Me light your way with those souls you meet who are lonely, to bring them kindness and comfort, to those who annoy and frustrate you, that you may be generous and patient, to those in need physically of your support, be kind and merciful.

I tell you, be kind and merciful, for the heart inspired with love for Me and for all, will glow and hatred for others will cease and you will have forgiveness rather than vengeance for your spirit will be renewed for I will grant you the wisdom that you seek.

My Mother has given you these words of love, heed them, My children.

“You will be carriers of light and will illuminate all those around you with love and wisdom.”

The souls you are praying for and caring for, the unbelievers, will feel the grace of conversion and Heaven will be forever grateful for your efforts and sacrifices.

Do not waste precious time. Pray, pray, pray and never give up. Your loving Jesus.

2nd Decade Jesus: Let Me fill your cup to the brim at the end of your life. Everything exists in Me, your Lord and Savior. Those who possess faith, drink deeply. But, I tell you, you must believe and hope. The more you expect the more you will receive. I say to you, expect even the impossible and you will have it. In a single day you have so many opportunities to do, by your actions, gestures, your words to give birth to Me again. Every night review your day to see what you have done to give Me life again. I will add My charm to all you do and there again we will be one. I desire this above all.

3rd Decade Ann: His eyes are going back and forth, searching.

Jesus: I have called all of you here this day. For you are My disciples. You pray, you must keep praying for this world. Pray my children. Live for prayer. There is nothing in this world you need, except Me. Ask My Mother for the graces, She will be glad to give them to you.

Ann: He asks us to close our eyes and see nothing but joy. The joy of Heaven.

Jesus: I love you all unconditionally My children. You are as a flower.

Ann: He is filling us with graces. His face is radiant. Ask Him what you want. The more you say to Him the more powerful He gets. Talk to Him.

Jesus: I am calling many Priests to this house, to serve Me, to give Me glory.

Ann: He gives us His heart. A heart full of love. Accept this Love. Talk to Jesus. He's here! Tell Him your problems what you want Him to do for you. He wants us to talk to Him what's troubling us.

Jesus: Don't let anyone disturb your peace.

Ann: He's not leaving. He is staying with us. He is getting more powerful, the more your talk, the brighter He is getting.

His lips are moving very slowly. He is talking to every heart. Listen.

Psalm 75

Jesus: My children, there have been many men and women who have become great saints in your time or before your time that have suffered terribly. They took every word of My Holy Sacrifice like a consoling and soothing balm that touched every fiber of their heart.

This is why they were able to endure their wrenching pain and offer this pain and suffering in union with My passion and death for all souls to ascend into Heaven. I asked you, My little ones, to unite your sufferings in union with My passion and death to release all souls that linger in Purgatory in the same way that My beloved Saints did.

My Mother has giving this same message at Fatima, when She stated that many souls go to Hell because very few pray and do penance for them.

If My cross is not valued here on Earth, when people suffer, then they will end up discouraged. Mankind's incapacity to value suffering in My "Plan of Redemption" is a big reason while why so many souls commit suicide.

I tell you, one of the most wasted resources is suffering. The foolishness of Me, your Christ is undermined. Your world wishes to do away with suffering, it desires to establish pain free society, with this pain-free culture, what will happen to the Holy Mass as a sacrifice?

They want to deny the sacrificial aspect and emphasize the banquet aspect only.

My beloved followers, pray and sacrifice for this troubled world in which you live, bring hope and light to all around you who live in darkness.

One, of My beloved priests, has been given a warning by My beloved Mother that the time of Mercy has ended and that the time of chastisement is upon the world. She can no longer hold back the hand of the Father. This, My children is true. You see what is happening all over the world. You must pray and surrender everything to Me, your loving Jesus of Mercy.

Psalms 61

Dear Children, It is not you who wait for Me, your God, to draw My attention, but it is I who awaits you. It is not you who are anxious to see Me realize your desires, but it is I who wishes to enter into your plans and to invest you with My own strength.

In prayer it is I who anticipate you, giving you an opportunity to work for My kingdom, to work with Me in the absolute certainty of success. I tell you, look back into your own lives, how are you search for Me, and at the end you saw that it was I who is waiting for you.

All must persevere in prayer and live with hope, always reaching out with the total thanksgiving for all that has been given you. Let your goal be purity of heart, a heart so filled with love for Me and your neighbor that there is room for nothing else. Apart from Me what is there on this earth that one needs? I must be your possession forever. To be near Me is total happiness, for I am your refuge to be guided by My counsel and be led to glory.

Always be My faithful and loving disciples, reaching out to all in need, fruitful branches from the living Vine and Tree of Life, your Loving God.

May these words I have spoken, dwell in your hearts for all the days of your lives, a great reward is at hand. Your loving Jesus.

2nd Decade:

Dear Children,

Be positive, always having a strong mental attitude. Pray for fortitude. Be strong, enduring all sufferings that come to you.

It is important to do many deeds of mercy for those who are in need.

Remember, I am the starved Man stretched upon the Cross of the world's poverty and pain.

One of My beloved sons left this life with these words, "It is not I that gets me to heaven, but Christ who takes me there."

Ponder these words in your heart, My little ones.

After the Rosary:

Jesus: Many of you ask, What am I to do with my life? And I tell you My children, the more you receive Me in Holy Communion, the more you read My Holy Word, the more Rosaries you say, you will be able to hear My voice within you.

I speak to those who pray, take Me into their hearts who love Me, Adore Me, who praise My Holy Name.

Be firm in your faith. I am calling you to discipleship. I call you to be fishers of men. To reach out with your nets, and bring those who have fallen away, that are lost, that need to be found. You are all so loved unconditionally. You are always in My heart.

Ann: And now His heart is all aglow.

Jesus: My children, have hope, faith, love your enemies. Do good to those who hate you, for they hate you because of Me. Don't ever give up on them. Never. They are all precious to Me, every last person.

Ann: Jesus is reaching out His hands to us.

January 13 2020

Romans Chapter 12:1-8

Jesus: My children, I am right beside you, waiting for you to wake up and embrace all you need to find perfect happiness.

I see the tears of unhappiness run down from your eyes to your cheeks, tears of pain and sorrow, who is fighting the evils of the world.

The weight of worry and pain has a way of hitting each soul in all different ways. This worry and anxiety that eats away at one's peace of heart and joy of each day.

I tell you, you are feeling the human emotions of exhaustion, tiredness, anger, frustration and fear, turn to Me, and My Beloved Mother and Joseph, My foster-father. Turn to Bethlehem, when peace was born. You will feel the frustration, Joseph endured when he was unable to provide for his family in the way he had hoped, feeling the cold of the night and the smell of the cave and the animals when there was no room for them in the Inn.

My Mother accepted everything, letting Joseph know everything was okay. Then I, the Son of God was born and in that moment, everything was forgotten.

Let yourself become like one of the Shepherds that enters the scene and is weighed down by all the worries of this life, problems with family members, being wounded by circumstances and situations, all things that weigh you down.

And then with all this darkness behind you, you look ahead and head over into the quiet, humble scene of the stable, and there you see the light that guides your way to see My Mother and foster father and you see Me, your loving Jesus, Savior of the world.

It is then, My little ones, that all the worries and anxieties of your life are left in the darkness, and instead of worry, you are overcome with joy and peace.

Remember, let your eyes wander not to this world, but rather to Me, where true peace is found. Your loving Jesus.

2nd Decade: Jesus appeared, and Carol Ross was with Him, she was radiant.

My children, in your short time on this Earth give Me the utmost of your love for My glory. May your period in the history of the world be for My Heart a golden age of abundant harvest.

Take your soul in your hands and look at it each day, weigh up the love you have given Me during the hours that have gone by and always remember, My little ones, that you will be judged according to the measure of your Love.

Try to avoid the smallest faults. This is your work, since you have been called to Holiness, and Holiness is the absence of any willful faults. It is a work of love. Go in peace
