

Jan 22 2024 (Sirach 17:21-31)

Jesus: My children, I come to comfort you who are in the darkness of poverty, the darkness of persecution. I your God, am the light that no darkness can extinguish. I tell you, have hope and trust in Me, and wait with endurance, for I will rescue you from all the chaos that has taken over.

You must see that I am your God, that I am in everything. That I do everything and never stop working for all mankind. See that I lead everything on to the conclusion that I ordained for it before time began, by the same power, wisdom, and love with which I made it.

My Heart aches for the world, knowing the evil one prowls, waiting to catch souls. But I tell you, he is a lion on a leash and can only go so far.

I tenderly and tirelessly work for the best good of the whole world, because My flame of love for all can never, ever be quenched. I give you My mercies without end from above, I never stop giving to all who call upon Me. I pity those who keep company with all evil forces and continue on their way to total destruction.

Pray, children of the light that these souls, especially all of your family members, return to Me before it is too late, and their lives are taken. Be guided by My hand and may evil never rule you. Pray, pray, pray as My dear Mother continuously asks all of Her children. Place yourself under Her mantle each and every day.

She loves all of Her children and desires to lead them to My loving arms.

Go in peace. Your loving Jesus.

February 2024 Psalm 94

Jesus: My children, I ask you to open up your heart and sincerely ask yourself if you want Me, the living God or if you want to eliminate Me and live as you desire. When you look around you, you can see where the world is going, the world that believes of doing whatever they please, without Me.

They wander in the darkness of temptation. My little ones, I am offering the light of Truth and My Holy Spirit to all souls. My people are flighty and unwilling to be led, they believe they know what is best for their soul and that they should be their own judge. I am here to tell them that they are wrong, they are listening to the world. I know what is best and I will be their judge and many unfortunately are facing Hell for their judgement. I have guided you along the way and why have you gone so far astray? My Mother has given you so many warnings, and still, you remain blind to the signs of the times. The world is so corrupt that it believes that corruption is the answer to the difficulties of the day. I tell you, My beloved ones, the world cannot fall further into depravity and wickedness.

My souls are being deceived, for they will be punished with a great and mighty blow. I come to tell them out of My love to repent and be prepared, open your heart and soul to Me and let Me cleanse you and fill you with My grace.

No one needs to be lost, they choose to. Pray, pray for this world, for all who are lost, that they may find their way to Me before long. There are so many Saints in My Kingdom that long for the asking to help pray for these lost souls. Reach out to them and accept their prayers and intercession for all the lost souls.

Go in peace, your loving Jesus of Mercy.

Feb 26 2024 (Baruch 1:15-22)

Jesus: My children, I always seek you first, contemplate Me and let yourselves be caught up in My tender love. Whatever happens in your life, whatever goes wrong, whatever problems are in your world, will no longer serve as an excuse. It is all secondary, for faced with My extravagant love, a love of utter meekness and closeness, you have no excuse.

My little ones often live their lives, here on earth, with little gratitude. I tell you, draw near to the Tabernacle and say thank you to Me for all I have given you. Receive Me, your loving Jesus, as the gift you have been given. When you receive Me, it gives meaning to your life, and it is the best way to change the world in which you live. When you change, My Bride changes, and history changes.

You must stop trying to change others, but you must try to change yourselves. I did not wait until you were good before I loved you, but I gave Myself freely to you. Do not wait for your neighbors or family members to be good before you do something good for them. Always remember, don't wait for My Bride to be perfect before we love her, or for others to respect you before you serve them, you must begin with yourselves. This I say to you is what it means to freely accept the gift of My grace. For holiness is nothing other than pursuing this freedom. Waste not precious moments. I wait for you.

Your loving Jesus.

March 11, 2024 Micah 7:1-20

Jesus: My children,

You have heard these words spoken throughout your life, “Neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only I cause the growth.” Pray, My little ones, My faithful servants, for hearts to open as the seed of My Word is planted in their heart. May they be open to the gifts of faith, hope, and charity and the zeal for the Gospel. May they pray for the gifts of Wisdom and Courage that leads up to the Kingdom. Trust, My children, permits everything for your good, even in the trials and crosses themselves that assists you and give you the strength you need to be able to attain an abundance of merit for paradise.

Love your duty, fulfill it with joy and do not let yourselves be overcome by difficulties and all that is happening in the world. Think that you have the mission of making Me loved and of loving Me yourself. Do not worry if a sacrifice seems too hard, for what I permit is never too much and the soul who is generous and who loves perfection must never say “enough.”

Always be generous with Me, never ever refuse Me of anything I ask of you, even if it costs you your life. I bless you and enclose you in the wound of My Sacred Side. I will warm you in the furnace of pure, holy, and Divine Love, that it may make you holy.

Remember, My children, suffering is the most difficult stranger in whom to see and welcome Me.

Yet every suffering offers you the opportunity to enter with Me into the work of My Cross for the salvation of the world.

Go in peace, your loving Jesus.

April 8, 2024 Amos 5

Jesus: My children,

Pray fervently for Courage. Pray for Fortitude. Pray always to keep the evil one away. All of Heaven will pray for this as well. Remember, My little ones, to pray for all of those who ask for your prayers, or all who have prayed for you.

I ask and encourage all of My beloved ones to try harder each day to say a full 15-decade Rosary. Keep in mind that every Hail Mary of the Rosary, as My Mother has told you, benefits a needy soul. Do not miss this opportunity, let it be a sacrifice of love.

I tell you, My Heavenly Father is so saddened how much abuse, ingratitude and hatred He has received at the hands of His people. My children will not listen, their ears are deaf and their hearts are hardened. They do not realize how easy it will be if they were on My side. A sincere effort to seek Me, their loving God, will never be in vain. If only they would come running to Me instead to this world, it would be forever pleasing to Me.

Join your prayers to all the Masses that you attend that are being said throughout each day, asking the Holy Souls in Purgatory to join you. Ask the choirs of angels to perfect your prayers as they ascend to My Father's Throne.

Ask the multitude of saints to join you on bended knee to intensify your prayers. Draw all these sources into one great multitude of prayer and more benefit will be derived from your praying. I love you and I know you love Me. Pray to understand how to perfect that love.

Your loving Jesus.

April 22, 2024 Luke 12:41-59, 13:1-4

Jesus: My children,

I hear My faithful souls call out to Me day in and day out, “Lord how can I help those in my family and many that I meet that are lost. They live in total darkness.”

I say to you, these souls who are lost and live in total darkness have been wounded and cannot get over the pain and agony of this wound. They carry it with them throughout life and as time moves forward bitterness and hatred takes over their whole being. They are unable to let light shine on their wall of darkness that they themselves have created. They are totally alone and have shut the doors to their heart, not letting anyone in to help them relieve their pain.

I knock each and every moment of the day and night, asking to enter, but to no avail, for their heart has become like stone. They have given up all hope and so they remain trapped with no way out. Happiness and joy have never been part of their life. They linger in a cloud of abandonment, always feeling sorry for themselves.

I tell you, rejection pounds away at their heart and causes them to plunge into a deep depression. They become irritated at the least little thing and that causes much pain to those that try to help them and love them.

Love, My little ones, is something that they cannot grasp, only hatred and self-pity. I see the torture they put themselves through day in and day out. Pray for them each and every day. I desire that you, faithful servants, help to relieve this pain, this cloud of darkness which has overcome these souls, and to offer your trials and sufferings for them.

In these days, all of you are feeling your cross getting heavier to carry. Carry it for all these souls, especially your family members that need your help and support. I will never give up on them, I wait for only a whisper of My Name upon their lips, a cry for help, so that I may enter and heal them of this brokenness. Pray and continue to bring all souls to My loving Heart.

Go in peace.

Your loving Jesus.

#565 The powers of Hell Will Not Prevail

Cuzco, Peru February 22, 1996

Feast of the Chair of Saint Peter

The powers of hell will not prevail, despite the fact that my adversary has broken loose in order to bring you to a breakdown of charity.

For this, he launches a strong attack on the Pope, who presides over all the charity of the Church, and so, division has entered into her very own structure.

Above all in the division which often sets bishops against bishops, priests against priests, faithful against faithful, Satan has succeeded in building up his triumph.

But the powers of Hell will not prevail, because, after the painful period of the purification and the great tribulation, the Church will shine forth in all her light of charity, of unity and of holiness. And this will be one of the greatest benefits which My Motherly love will bring to the Church.

Even if now, they have reached the point of contesting the Pope, of opposing him openly and of rejecting his Magisterium, the powers of hell will not prevail.

Thus, errors are being spread about which draw many away from the true faith, and sects are being propagated which draw to themselves many children of the Church.

Never as in Latin America has the great spread of the sects represented such a victory on the part of the powers of hell, who appear to have the upper hand.

I am calling all My children to the greatest fidelity to the Catholic Church.

I am instilling in them a love for the Church, zeal for her unity, passion for her holiness, and strength for her work of evangelization, and thus, through those who are consecrating themselves to My Immaculate Heart,

I am bringing to nothing all the effort which Satan is exerting, in his attempt to draw many of My children away from the one and only Church instituted by My Son Jesus, and by means of my extraordinary and motherly intervention, once again, the powers of hell will not prevail.

The power of Christ will be revealed, when he brings his reign of glory into the Church, and then all the powers of hell will be imprisoned, so that they will no longer be able to do any more harm in the world.

May 27, 2024 Psalms 94

Jesus: My children,

I tell you, “Happy are those who strive for peace, they shall be called the Sons of God.” “Happy are those who are persecuted because they are good, for the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs. Humble men are very fortunate, for the Kingdom of Heaven is given to them.”

Let these words penetrate your heart, My dear ones, never miss the opportunity to receive all the graces and blessings I desire to bestow upon you. I desire for all to become a light in this dark world, and help guide others through these trying times, that they may serve Me with absolute faithfulness. “Blessed is he who endures temptation, for being purified, he will receive the Crown of Life which I have promised to all those that love Me.”

When My children think that I am far from them, I am often nearest to them. Trust in My Mercy! Trust and Mercy will free you from the fear of men. I see the sorrow of My people in this enemy’s country where there are wars every day and very great misfortunes. I will comfort those that undergo such persecution.

Make haste to cast off all earthly things and make yourself agreeable to Me and faithful to Me, so that one day you will attain true happiness. Each day, I long to hear you call out to Me, “Speak Lord your servant is listening.” I am there for you always, I wait patiently to hear your voice.

Your loving Jesus of Mercy
